THE JUDGMENT OF GOD AGAINST THE DAUGHTER OF SATAN AND HER MISTRESSES HAPTER ONE

PREFACE

THE END OF THE ROAD

Now the Jews' Passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple the sellers of oxen, sheep, and doves, and the money changers sitting there; and he made a scourge of cords, and cast them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen; and he poured out the money of the money changers, and overthrew the tables; and to them that sold doves he said, Take all these things hence, and make not my Father's house a house of hire. His disciples remembered that it is written, "The zeal of your house consumes me." The Jews answered and said unto him, What sign givest thou thus to do? Jesus answered and said, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. The Jews answered, Forty-six years have been spent in building this temple, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? But he was speaking of the temple of his body. And when he rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

I

TO BELIEVE OR NOT TO BELIEVE

(08/02/22)

No one begins his life at the end. The Beginning is the origin of all things. Without beginning there is no end. The first three Gospels follow this path; logic imprints its law.

Against those who want to see in the Mind of the Apostles a Reason deprived of a Greco-Roman philosophical structure, it will be necessary to tell them that long before Rome discovered the world of Athens, Jerusalem had already been impregnated with the glory of the stars of the Golden Age of Hellenistic Philosophy. This mark is clearly seen in the Atheism of the High Priests of the Jerusalem Temple at the origin of the contempt of Antiochus IV and his people against the religion of the Jews.

Just as the Christians did much later, penetrating into the world of the Greco-Roman philosophical structure to defend their Truth, the Jews did the same during the times before Christianity, as a means of renewing their biblical theology. Renewal that operated the opposite effect to that sought, as is well seen in the Atheism of Flavius Josephus, for whom the God of Moses was no more than a fetish, an amulet without any cosmological reality.

Atheism was not invented by Flavius Josephus, but was in force during the days of JESUS, and hence, being witnesses of his Almighty power, they could not believe in what they were living. Overwhelmed by what they saw and heard, they did not stop looking for a rational explanation to what had no natural explanation of any kind. The One who they had before them He was the Almighty Son of God at the sound of whose Word Matter, Space and Time stop and act according to his Voice. "LET THERE BE LIGHT", and LIGHT was made.

It is departing from this Invincible Truth that St. John opened his Gospel by the End. Unlike his Divine Brothers, John extends the Beginning to the Origin of Heaven and Earth, and knowing, because he had seen it with his eyes, that the one who said LET THERE BE LIGHT is the same JESUS with whom he had walked from town to town for three years, John forgets the Son of Man to present us the Son of God.

The Disciples had lived anchored in the popular image about the Messiah, and until the last moment they had believed that the End of the Messiah would be to sit on the Throne of David. It was on that popular Image that the multitudes greeted the son of David and acclaimed as Blessed the one who came in the Name of the Lord. The facts do not lie, as much the multitudes that saw him enter Jerusalem mounted on a donkey, so his own Disciples lived the Idea that during that Jewish Holy Week the Master would declare himself Son of David before the Sacred Authorities of the Temple, these would recognize him as the Heir of the Throne of Solomon and the Kingdom of the Messiah would be proclaimed in defiance of the Empire of Rome.

Those who had lived his unlimited Power had no doubt about the Victory of JESUS over Caesar, of Jerusalem over Rome. During that Great Week of the 33rd Year of the Era that bears his Name, at last, the final answer of the son of David to the cry of "KING" that JESUS had delayed, at last, was going to be heard within the walls of the Temple, from where JESUS would come out invested with the Crown of David.

The multitudes, which that Holy Week filled the streets of the Holy City and surrounded its walls like an army under siege awaiting the Order of their King, greeted their Savior with their chests filled with a Joy that exulted HALLELUJAH. And even the stones through the mouths of the children were carried away by the popular cry: "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord" ... without knowing that the one who "came" was the LORD in person.

St. John writes his Gospel with full Knowledge of this Reality, the one who entered Jerusalem that Holy Week was the Lord in person, the Almighty Son of God who with his Word created the Heavens and the Earth. This is why he opens his Gospel by saying "AND THE WORD WAS MADE MAN", and from this Knowledge he immediately jumped to the End. For this End was what HE had in mind since He began His Preaching. And although many times He said to them, "I must die that I may rise again," the very idea that anyone could lay hands on the Almighty Son of God, at the sound of whose Voice the storms were stilled and the dead were raised from their graves, the very idea that anyone could lay hands on the Almighty Son of YAHWEH GOD, the very idea was ludicrous.

Among those crowds that acclaimed Him and filled that Jerusalem during that Holy Week were the countless number of people who lived in their flesh the Power of the Word made Man.

One word from Him was enough for that multitude to invade the Temple and force the High Priest to proclaim Him the Heir of the Crown and Throne of David, and neither Rome with all its Empire, nor all the empires gathered in the world could prevent His Coronation, they becoming His Army and follow Him to the Conquest of the World. A single Word from him was all they needed to hear....

But what they heard was not a Word but a Shout that like a Fire came out of his bowels and, in a moment for eternity, consumed that Image of a Son of David leading the army of all his Believers to the Conquest of the World.

The Scene was so awesome to witness, the Almighty Son of God in full Wrath, blinded all the sources of that hallucinatory hope that in their hearts had been awakened by the One before whose Voice Death itself was retreating.

Confused, thrown suddenly from light into darkness, that multitude felt the same frustration of that Adam who, dreaming of a Future in a perpetual paradisiacal state, overnight found himself before the gates of Hell, and for his Fault, his World was dragged into the abyss of the World Fratricidal War until the destruction of all life on Earth.

What had happened? What was going on? Was it a hallucination? They believed that the Messiah had come to reclaim what was His, the Crown and Throne of Adam, the World at His feet, and suddenly they find themselves in front of a Declaration of War of His against the Temple of Jerusalem.

Horror, darkness, despair, earth swallow us up, may the waters of the fountains be turned into wine, and in the intoxication we find the cemetery where to dig a grave for the illusion: "Jerusalem, the New Imperial Rome!"

Just as the crowds that cried Hallelujah, the Disciples lived that Fall in absolute Confusion. They all ran away. In an instant the dream had become a nightmare. JESUS was left alone before the World....

The rest is known. Cross, Death and Resurrection.

But this is not the Hour of Lamentations, it is the Hour to open the Door and enter and see what lived that Almighty LORD to whom a single Word would have sufficed to give universal History a Way according to His Will, and yet, He chose to do the Will of His Divine Father: To conquer Death before the entire House of God.

Who can break the walls of Death but he who is True God? And how can he break the walls of that Invincible Prison if not by allowing himself to be enclosed within its walls?

The Necessity of the Death of Christ was Divine. God had Need to open the Uncreated Truthfulness of his Son before the whole Creation, to put an End to the Doubt that once had made its way among the sons of God about the Divine Nature of the Firstborn, and in such a way to put an End to it that any Thought that opened that Doubt would be a Sentence of Death Penalty against its author or authors, whether they were sons or servants of God.

The only way to establish the Divinity of his Son was by doing what only God can do: Overcome Death, Rise from the dead. And not by the Power of His Father, but by His own Power.

"God was in Him, HE was You-God". Did the Son of God have any Doubt about His Own Divine Nature? Was He going to deny Himself for fear of Death?

The Answer of the Almighty Son of God who in the Beginning said: "Let there be LIGHT; and LIGHT was made"; we all know that answer. This is why, I insist, John opens his Gospel by the Divine Principle, and in Him with whom they walked together he presents to us the Almighty Lord before whose Word Matter, Space and Time are set in motion to do His Will with the same diligence that the whole Cosmos does before its FATHER in obedience to its Lord and Creator.

The Vision, therefore, that St. John offers us is that of one who has reached the consciousness of one who was walking next to that Almighty Lord, the Doubt about whose Divine Veracity leads to destruction to all who harbor it in their Chest, and hence, the Jews in that Doubt, mother of Denial, effect of the Fear of Death, the Gospel of St. John opens his Way announcing the Destruction of Jerusalem and its Kingdom.

We follow him to the Temple. The Almighty Lord, who before the House of God is going to discover his Divine Nature by conquering Death; this Lord, JESUS, the Word made flesh, "God with Us", walks as a Man, approaches Jerusalem, goes up to the Temple. All ears are attentive to His Word, all eyes follow Him with hearts in a fist, it is the Hour of openly declaring Himself the Messiah, the Son of David. Souls rejoice. If Pharaoh could not stop Moses, being as Moses was a servant of God, how could Caesar stop the very Son of the Lord of Moses! Did not David write about his son: "The Lord said to my Lord..."? He who was king and had only God for his lord, how could he speak of a lord between him and his God!

That Lord was the one who entered the Temple?

What man could have imagined that in the Resurrection the Truthfulness of God: Father and Son would be established before the whole Creation?

We men act as such and as men we worry about what we will wear, what we will eat, where we will sleep, what will become of our children? Abandoned in the Ignorance of the Perfect Knowledge of the Personality of the One who said I AM WHO I AM, delivered to Death by the Betrayal of a son of God, "not of this world", what man could without God penetrate into the Mind of that JESUS who, turning a deaf ear to HALLELUJAH, looked at Eternity! and with his Father had taken the Decision to Re-found the Kingdom of God on an Invincible, Incorruptible and Indestructible Faith against whose Walls Death would crash forever and ever!

Neither the multitudes nor the ecclesiastical powers nor the Disciples themselves, Witnesses of His limitless Power, could believe what they would soon see.

The entire Cosmos was paralyzed. Neither the soldiers of Rome, nor the Temple guards, nothing and no one could move a single muscle. That same God from whose Mouth the Universe came to Light took off his human Vesture and transformed himself into a living god before whose presence the world turns to dust.

The nerves do not transmit the order to the muscles. The arms do not reach the swords; the hands do not belong to them. The fists do not close around the iron. It is the lightning and the storm, the cyclone and the hurricane, the volcano and the earthquake, the force that is unleashed emerges from a Heart that has suffered the fate of its Creation, Man, and suffers the Hell that the World will still have to suffer. From the anti-Christian Persecutions, to the World Wars via Inter-Christian Fratricidal War, the History of the next two millennia was before His eyes. If only they had believed in Him...! The Refusal to believe of those who saw Him with their eyes had become in HIM fire.

How many times He wanted to open their eyes!

Knowing that their eyes were blinded and their hearts dead, with all His Power He tried to open those graves, to make Truth penetrate their souls! If they had believed... And though JESUS knew that their FATHER had made Wisdom necessary... if they had believed... if only they had dared to believe...

On his knees, before the Will of his FATHER, the Refusal of the Temple of Jerusalem to BELIEVE burned in him like a fire that consumed his Heart. Tens and tens of thousands of innocent people would go up to His Cross whose only Crime would be to BELIEVE in what those who looked at Him did not want to BELIEVE: that they had before them the Lord, the Son of God, Alive, in Person, "GOD WITH US", there, before them, turned into a fire from which no one could escape and against which nothing could be done.

If at that moment He had said to the earth: "Swallow them up", the earth would have opened and swallowed them up.

The Pain was so great, the Vision of the Persecutions that His Church and His Faithful would have to live, because of the Denial of those who would immediately ask for His Death, was a suffering so deep and vast that His Heart, stabbed to the very depths, transformed into boundless Anger.

"What sign do you give to act in this way?", those very ones who few days before had witnessed the Resurrection of Lazarus asked Him.

Dementated by the Fear of Death, they even dared to say: "Forty-six years have been used to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?"

Their Madness was total. Their fear of Death was all-powerful. The Atheism of the Jewish Religion was Absolute. The Theology of the Temple of Jerusalem was a new form of paganism.

A single man faced all the Roman and priestly authorities and not a single muscle moved... until the fire ceased. Before that vision they should have been afraid of that Almighty Man, begotten in the Image of God, their Creator, whose Word alone was enough to seal the Destruction of the Temple and the kingdom of the Jews.

However, that Destruction on the Tomb of the Firstborn, which would be mourned as one mourns for the death of the Only Begotten, had already been written and signed.

Jewish religious paganism had turned the Law into a fetish; Jerusalem could not understand the Book of God, the intelligence of its Author was as far from the intelligence of the Temple as Heaven is from Earth. "Gold, gold, gold, gold" was all the Temple wanted; "money, money, money", was all the Jewish priests understood. Gold was their Religion. Money was their god.

Rome had in Iron its Temple and its god. As gold is purer than iron, Jerusalem believed itself holier than Rome, and both joined together to lay hands on the Son of God.

This is how St. John opens his Gospel. His Gospel introduces us to "God with us". The God with whom he walked to Golgotha, and about whose Person he concludes by saying:

The Son came into the World to conquer Death before the whole Creation. In order to rise from the dead, He had to climb the Cross. Upon his Resurrection the Truthfulness of God, Father and Son, would be sealed for Eternity. And he who does not believe in the Truthfulness of God, Father and Son, will not know Eternal Life. He who believes, lives forever. JESUS said it, and his Word is the Word, and the Word is God.

II

GOD IS WITH US

(09/02/22)

Historical events do not lie.

No matter what manipulations they are subjected to, Historical Truth is the principle and foundation of a Science whose object is Life.

John develops his Divine History starting from the Beginning of the Universe.

“In the beginning God created the Heavens and the Earth;

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God,

And the Word became Man”.

His Theology has eternal value. He who has seen, speaks. He who has heard, writes. And he signs his Testimony with blood. John was walking with God. How could he detach himself from this Truth that he had lived!

The History of the Jewish People would give the reason to JESUS. The Temple of which they boasted, was destroyed. The people who believed themselves to be the superior race of the planet, were massacred and banished from their homeland, like their mythical father Adam from his original paradise, and like him, were delivered to Death to be subjected to scorn and genocide during the two thousand years of exile to which they were condemned for their Refusal to accept the Truth: that the Prophet they delivered to Rome was the same God and Lord who in the Beginning “HE SAID, AND SO IT WAS DONE”.

Historical Truth admits no buts. They believed that Rome was Eternal, under its wings the survival of the people of Abraham would be as guaranteed as it was under the imperial wings of Cyrus the Persian.

It was normal for them to believe so. The Jewish People was not the only one who lived how Rome was sunk to hell to rise again to heaven itself. Not once, but many times. Again and again, and again and again... Invasions, civil wars... What did not kill Rome made it stronger. No one had yet been born who could kill her, nor was there anyone in the vicinity who could give birth to that killer. The very idea of thinking of rising in a war of independence against Rome was madness. What was Jerusalem? Who were the Herods? Was there perhaps among them some Hannibal? What did the people want, to proclaim king this miracle worker, to take up arms against the Almighty Caesar and follow him to conquer Rome? And where were the weapons? Where were the generals? Were those Twelve Fishermen going to lead the Independence Insurrection against the most powerful army on Earth?

It was them or JESUS. Pontius Pilate had already given his ultimatum. Either they would hand him over, taking the blame for his death, or he would bring out his army and massacre the population. What did they want? Either with Caesar or against Caesar.

Survival is a duty to oneself. Of this there is no doubt. But survival at the cost of another's life is a criminal act. Of this there can be no doubt either.

"Thou shalt not kill" is Law, says God, but God is in Heaven, wherever that World is, and we men are on Earth, which is beneath our feet. Ever since Cain killed his brother Abel, kings have trampled on that Divine Law as they please. For them to be an Atheist is not a right, it is a duty. For them to step on the Law is an act of Power. Ergo: Whoever exercises Power must be a criminal by the very inertia of the nature of Power.

Power exercises Crime as a Necessity of Survival. Rome understood this law of necessity from its origin, and applied it throughout its History with an iron arm. Republic, Democracy... everything was a lie. Peace is based on the destruction of the enemy.

The Nature of Power is the State of Perpetual War. This Perpetuity turns War into a Divine Necessity, and hence the divinization of Caesar.

Octavian Augustus was a god. His successor, Tiberius, was god. And Claudius, and Caligula, and Nero. "A" leads to "Z".

Any discussion of this dynamic is absurd. It is enough to study the History of Antiquity worldwide. From Egypt to Japan, from Scandinavia to the Americas, Power always sought its divinization. The royal lists of the dynasties of the ancient nations always led their members to divinity. Octavian Augustus did not invent anything. The difference, in any case, is established in that in his case it was the people who elevated him to the status of the gods, while in the case of the ancient dynasties the divinization of the throne came directly from its members. The reaction of the people to the two cases was equally different. While Caesar maintained his divinity for generations, in the case of the ancient kings the elevation to divinity always became an invincible reason for insurrection and the consequent fall of the dynasty.

The Jewish people had survived legendary dynasties. Their relationship with the Law of Moses was their amulet, their totem, their divinity. Whether God exists or not was not important, what was transcendent was that as long as the Code of Moses remained in force, the survival of the Jewish people was assured.

It was not God, it was the Code of Moses the true idol of Jerusalem. For this reason, because the Galilean Prophet wanted to make that Code an Old Law, surpassed by a New Law based on Freedom, separating Law and Punishment, the Prophet had to die.

This Truth is a Fact. JESUS maintains the Validity of the Law, but leaves to the conscience of each one the Obedience. JESUS brings to the world a Temple in which the Aaronic atoning sacrifice is suspended, abolished, dissolved.

Adultery, for example, remains a crime before God, but the JESUS announces the end of the death penalty until then alive. And so on. In short, the JESUS announced the End of the Aaronic Temple.

Ergo, according to the Law, JESUS had to die.

But no matter what reasoning we use to try to understand the Refusal to admit what they had seen with their eyes, the Fact is that the Right of God to intervene in His Creation, and to direct His Universal History, is Natural to His Reality of Creator. As the Principle of all that exists, without whose Existence nothing of what exists would exist, by this Principle God does not have to give explanations to his Creation of what He does. Is there anything more absurd than a Creator asking permission to his Creation to act in it?

And in this case we find ourselves, and hence the Invincible and Indestructible Transcendence of the Gospel, of the Church and of Christianity, with a Necessity that surpasses Man and integrates in his Nature the whole Cosmos.

In the Fall of Adam the entire Creation was left in suspense. Although in his Ignorance, the Fact is that the father of the Jews allied himself with Satan, from one place: to elevate the sons of God to the status of true gods, all of them beyond good and evil, and therefore free to make War their favorite Sport, their beloved Pastime, their sacred Hobby; and from the other: to tempt the Son of God to win Him for that cause, a cause by God cursed and against which He had raised Penalty of Eternal Banishment from His Creation.

We are talking about a Final Battle of God as Creator to establish, for Eternity: the foundations of his Creation on Immovable Pillars. The Rock upon which those Pillars rest is His Personality, that Personality upon which the Creator of the Cosmos says: "I AM WHO I AM", a Personality which his sons tried to manipulate by confronting the Father against the Creator in God.

The Reality of this Final Battle was an Event unknown to all the nations of the world. The Silence of God about his Nature was so absolute and impenetrable that not even his own Beloved Son knew its gravity as he entered the Battle as the Champion of Mankind. It is being Man that his Beloved Son, as the Apostle will later say, was perfected by his Divine Father in the Intimate Knowledge of the Nature of the War to which he had been called.

The Jews were not the only ones who lived outside the Intimacy of God, all the peoples of the world lived their journey through the millennia outside the walls of that Silence. No matter the name of the people who had found themselves before JESUS, the reaction to His Presence outside the walls of that DIVINE SILENCE would have been identical. The Apostle insisted on this fact: "If the Jews had known whom they had before them, they would rather have cut off their arms than lay a hand on the Almighty Beloved Son of God, Lord of Moses".

It is very easy to judge the behavior of ancient peoples. To cast upon them a judgment by reason of the difference between our mentality and intelligence and theirs comes by inertia. It seems that by exercising this judgment we consecrate ourselves one more step in that universal millenarian search for our own divinization. It is not for nothing that the Protestant Anglicans declared themselves "the divine ones". This tendency to believe themselves to be gods has been a constant in Humanity since the Fall. The Temptation was that: Man declared himself "to be a god".

We see, then, that all the elements of the Past are reformulated in the events surrounding the Son of God on Earth.

The God who in the Beginning "says, and so it is done" becomes Man.

The Temptation of Satan to Adam, to proclaim himself a god, we have it in Caesar.

The Refusal to believe in JESUS as God the Son we have in the Temple.

Satan's Betrayal of God we have in Judas.

The Temptation and Victory sought by the Betrayer, to win the King of kings and Lord of lords of the Kingdom of God for his Cause, we see in the encounter between Satan and JESUS.

The Anger of YAHWEH GOD, Lord of Moses and Father of Adam, at Satan's Betrayal is seen in the Anger of his Son against the Temple.

The Silence of God on the True Nature of the Events set in motion by Satan's Betrayal and Adam's Fall we have in the Silence of JESUS before Pontius Pilate. Silence that will enslave his Disciples to his Law.

All was compiled in the Life of JESUS CHRIST, son of David, son of Adam. And no one in this world knew where He came from, nor where He was going. Neither Jews, nor Romans, nor Disciples. The Intimacy of the Divine Silence was Impenetrable. How could He tell those who did not understand things here Below the nature of things there Above! What was He to say to them: "I am God's Son, His Only Begotten Son, and I must face Death in order that all Creation may see that God lives in the Son as He lives in the Father!"

God could not give His Word: "Behold, I make things New" a Cosmological Reality of eternal and infinite value without first establishing this Principle: "God lives in the Father and in the Son!"

It is not by the Power of the Father that the Son overcomes Death, but by the Power of his own Divine Nature. "I have the Power to give it and the Power to take it" is a Statement that admits of no criticism or discussion. With it JESUS makes it clear that God lives in Him as He lives in His Father. If the Father had raised Him from the dead, as Lazarus was raised by JESUS, where would the Divine Nature of His Son be? We would return to the same thing: to Doubt, and from Doubt to Denial there is only one step.

It is therefore the Son in Person who allows Himself to be Crucified (hence the Necessity of the Death of Christ) and who conquers Death by the Power of God who lives in Him. And hence finally the Holy Spirit, gathering all His Servants in the Council of Nicaea, proclaimed with full mouth and open heart the Divinity of the Son, a revelation that the Wife of Christ would gather in the Doctrine of the Dogma of the Holy Trinity.

Evidently the Silence of Father and Son, on the Nature of the Final Battle for the Death declared "against the Creation according to YAHWEH GOD", would remain until the times determined in His Wisdom for the benefit of the Salvation of the Fullness of the Nations of the Human Genus were fulfilled. What is incumbent upon all of us is to establish ourselves in the Perfect Knowledge of the Son of God.

Evidently Two thousand Years later, with the succession of wars, genocides, schisms, Death forcing the deployment of all its forces to the present day to consummate its Work, Satan by means of, has made the Neopagan Atheism of the days before Christ, under new forms, with more Power and Knowledge of Evil, conceive the suicidal illusion of a World without JESUS.

The Final Battle is Today for the Human Race; Yesterday it was for the House of God. But unlike Yesterday, Today that same JESUS who bent his knees before his Father Lord and laid his Crown at his feet, stands Today with the glory of him who is God the Only Begotten Son and is for and WITH US.

For as Death has deployed his prince and his armies to achieve the apogee of his entity, the Destruction of all life on Earth, so God has deployed his Prince and his armies to banish Satan from Earth and deliver Mankind from Death.

If Yesterday God consummated his Victory, and Today he will consummate his own, to see Tomorrow and to deploy our intelligence on his Nature is what we all have to do.

The dead, even living, do not count. Their words about World War and Global Dictatorship are echoes among cemetery tombs. The ghosts of the Past talk among themselves without wanting to see the truth, that they are dead. Tomorrow is ours, because "God is with Us".

III

THE INTIMACY OF GOD

(10/02/2022)

St. John does not sign like Mark. Like Mark, St. John wrote the Second Gospel following the spirit of the Law: "By the testimony of two, the accused will be condemned or acquitted". As Mark, St. John limited himself to bear witness to what St. Matthew had written. It is not strange that St. Peter took under his mighty mantle the young Mark, that is, the one to whom JESUS said: "Son, behold your mother". Declaration by which the Mother was placed under his Filial Custodian, his Mission: not to be separated from HER under any circumstances until the day of his Ascension into the World to which He was returning.

The Promise of YAHWEH GOD was firm: "Thou shalt NOT allow my Flesh to know Corruption". MARY was the "flesh" from which "the Word became flesh".

St. John's youth we see reflected in the Last Supper. It would even seem extravagant that JESUS would choose the youngest of all his Disciples to be his Mother's Sacred Cherub. But it was the youngest of the Apostles who alone was found at the foot of the Cross. The WORD of the Son was God. And St. Peter, though he takes his Mother-in-law's Sister and her "son" under his mighty mantle, does not dare to revoke his Word. Or even to think of revoking the Word of his Master: "Mother, behold your son".

It is for the rest, as I said in the DIVINE HISTORY, that St. John passes through the Acts of the Apostles as an invisible shadow, his existence a mystery. The only proof of his life is the Gospel of his Youth, signed as Mark, in order that the Law might be fulfilled, "on the testimony of two you will base your judgment". Then came St. Luke. And finally God seals the Testament of her Son with the Gospel of the Maturity of St. John.

The MOTHER had already ascended to Heaven. The Author of the Fourth Gospel is the Supreme Spiritual Authority of his time. The Holy Spirit lives in Him. He is the last of the Twelve Almighty Ministers God has given to the Crown of His Son, in whose Hands God rests the Government of His Kingdom during the Days of Creation. Satan believed that by killing Christ his victory over God would be sealed. Cursed fool, he went One, and God begot Twelve Men in the Image and Likeness of that Christ against whom he rose up.

And so the Scripture was fulfilled: "Let us make man in our image and after our likeness".

The writer of the Fourth Gospel is no longer a Young Man whose only mission in this World is to defend and protect the MOTHER. Great events had taken place from the year 33 to the year 90. St. John had seen St. Peter, the Shepherd of shepherds, at the head of his flocks, all immaculate lambs, walking to the Slaughterhouse of the Neronian Persecution. Also, in those years the Temple of Jerusalem had been burned. Who could have said in that year 30 that that JESUS who sought John in the Jordan, to fulfill the Scripture, would be the Arm of YAHWEH GOD on Earth, against whose nations had risen in Judgment, Israel among them!

St. John had no Doubt of any kind about what he had experienced, and his Gospel focuses on this Intimacy of Man with God, which his prophets enjoyed, the Baptist the last among them. Not for nothing does he begin his Gospel by visiting the Baptist in his Memory.

“Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world” John hears him say, and, without the slightest understanding of what those words meant, with Andrew, Peter’s brother, he ran to find his brother James. “James, James, we have found the Messiah, it is JESUS, the son of MARY of Nazareth”.

How was he or his brother to understand what those words meant, “Behold the Lamb of God”.

Like all the other sons of Abraham of their time, John and Andrew, they were looking for the Messiah, son of David, the almighty hero mounted on a war horse, the mantle covered with the red of the blood of his enemies. “To me those of YAHWEH”, the cry of the Hammer of God, Judas Maccabeus, would again resound between the Jordan and the Mediterranean, and spreading over all lands would cover the four regions of the world.

The Baptist is silent. He is in the Intimacy of God. Only he and the Lamb of God know where JESUS comes from, and where he is going. The Baptist knows firsthand the Incarnation of the Son of God. As I said in the DIVINE HISTORY, his mother, Elizabeth, after the murder of her husband, Zechariah, a crime committed “in the gazilophah at the gate of the Temple”, flees to the mountains of Judea, is received by the Essene communities, raises her son aware of the words received by her husband from the Angel: “He will prepare the way to the Lord”. Elizabeth raises her son in the knowledge that he is the son of MARY, the Son of God made man.

Elizabeth dies. Her son leaves the mountains of Judea and opens his Mission at the Jordan. His God leads him. The time of the LAMB OF GOD draws near.

The time of the Lamb of God has come. He sees the Son of MARY, of whom his mother spoke so much, for the first time. Both know what the End of the Lamb of God is. Both know what is the image of the Messiah who flies through the kingdom of Israel. Both are silent. REDEMPTION is a Sacred Necessity. In the Sacrifice of his LAMB will YAHWEH GOD establish the Ignorance of the World about the true nature of Satan's Treachery, and the Innocence of God in the development of the Treachery of the sons of God who rose up against His Kingdom.

At the CROSS would be sealed the Innocence of God in the FALL, an argument opened by Satan against DIVINE OMNISCIENCE by asserting, in defense of his Rebellion and Homicide, that it was impossible, given Divine Prescience and Omniscience, that both the Betrayal and the Fall had not been predetermined by God from the Beginning of the Creation of Man.

It was on the Cross and from the Cross that the Firstborn and Only Begotten Son of God in person stood up as the Advocate of Man and of God, affirming from his Cross both the one and the other, the Ignorance of Man about the true nature of the Rebellion of the sons of God, led by Satan, as the participation, actively or passively, of YAHWEH GOD in the Betrayal of his Will.

Judgment against Satan that St. John remembers, signs, corroborates and establishes in the Mind of all Beings, of this World as of the other Worlds of the Kingdom of GOD, writing: “The Word is God”. Ergo: Once the Law has being transgressed, the Death Penalty against the Transgressor is Irrevocable.

Writing such St. John blesses God, who judges the Transgressor, and raises before our eyes the Eternal and Almighty Validity of the Law: “Whoever wages war against his brother or his neighbor is the Enemy of God and his Penalty is the Destruction of himself and his People”.

It is obvious to repeat what I said in AGAINST THE ANTICHRIST, that having been taken up the Argument of Satan by Calvin during the XVI Century, and consecrated the Devil's Defense against YAHWEH GOD on the Anglican and Protestant throne, the Law hangs over the heads of the rebellious nations against the Universal Christian Unity broken in the XVI Century, creators of the European Fratricidal War of the 30 Years in the XVII Century.

But God having established the Deliverance of the Devil in the Year Thousand of our Era by reason of a Superior Necessity, which as I have said, is to discover to His House, in which we understand ourselves, that the apparent Hardness of the Eternal Banishing Judgment of His Creation against Satan corresponds to the evil cruelty of the one who sowed the Seed of the Division of the churches, God has willed to open the Door of Mercy to the Obedience to his Universal Unifying Will, so that by the Obedience or rebellion to do his Will each church will judge itself.

Since the Spirit of JESUS is the spirit of prophecy, and JESUS himself is the Word, his Announcement about the Sowing of the Evil One and the consequent division of the churches was an impossible effect to avoid, in which God the Father, wanting to humiliate all "the divine" reminds us that the Fall did not take place because Adam was the father of the Jews, because regardless of who had been chosen by God to be king of the Earth, once the Betrayal in progress none of the fathers of the other nations could have resisted the Power of Satan's Cunning. That incidentally the Jews were the judges of Christ this reality does not detract from the fact that any of the people who would have been in that position would have written that same story.

The Fall was not a DIVINE NECESSITY, an argument that Calvinist Protestantism, in its various forms, rejected by seating its kings on the throne of the Antichrist. Saying that the conception of Divine Prescience of Omniscience contradicts the Freedom of Satan, Calvin and his divines defended Satan against God, while exculpating Adam on account of his invincible slavery to that Predetermination from Eternity, Calvinism made Redemption a farce, and the Necessity of Christ's Death a graceless theater. Denying the Innocence of God, Calvin dragged the peoples to consecrate on the throne of their nations the Antichrist.

Now, we know that the NECESSITY of the Death of Christ can only be counter-argued by the Devil's disciples. St. John is firm, he opens his Gospel by casting our gaze back to the Beginning, when God created the Heavens and the Earth; then he opens the Door of the World to his Incarnation; then he breaks the thread of the Epic to present to you the Lamb of God, that Lamb whom God himself presents to atone upon his blood for the sins of all in the Ignorance of Adam and his World, and affirming this Ignorance St. John establishes the Innocence of God in the rebellion and treachery of those sons about whom Moses wrote:

Hear, ye heavens, and I will speak;

hear, O earth, the words of my mouth;

Let my teaching come down like rain,

Let my word distill as dew;

like drizzle on the grass, like serenity on the turf;

I will proclaim the name of the Lord: give glory to our God.

He is the Rock, his works are perfect, his ways are just,

he is a faithful God, without wickedness; he is just and righteous.

You degenerate children, you have behaved wickedly toward him, you wicked and perverted generation,

Is this the way you repay the Lord, you foolish and senseless people?

Is he not your father and your creator, who made you and formed you?

The question leaps from the heart to the hand: Who, outside of that Baptist and the Lamb of God, participated in the Divine Intimacy in whose Wisdom the NECESSITY of the Death of JESUS was established?

John and Andrew run to find their brothers James and Peter: "We have found the Messiah". The Baptist keeps Silence. JESUS does not open his mouth until the end, when the actors of his Death were already running to meet Judas and Pontius Pilate. And even when he told his Apostles that he must die, they all stood up, to dare even to want to remove the idea from his head: "But, man of God, what are you saying, you are the Messiah, the son of David, the king of Israel".

Yes: of Israel, of the World, and of the entire Universe. And at that moment the whole Universe was at stake.

CHAPTER ONE
THE WAR OF SATAN

IF YOU ARE A SON OF GOD

(11/02/ 2022)

Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit, turned back from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness and tempted there by the devil for forty days. He ate nothing in those days, and when they were past, he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread. Jesus answered him, "Man does not live by bread alone." And taking him up to a high place, he showed him from there in a moment all the kingdoms of the world, and the devil said to him, "All this power and its glory I will give to you, for it has been delivered to me, and to whom I will I give it; if you therefore fall down before me, all will be yours. Jesus answered and said to him, "It is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.'" Then he led him up to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here; for it is written, "He has sent his angels over you to guard you and to take you in their hands, lest you dash your foot against the stones." Jesus answered and said to him, "It is said, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." And when all temptations were ended, the devil withdrew from Him until the appointed time.

Let us follow JESUS into the wilderness of Judea. It is the first thing He does after subjecting Himself to the fulfillment of Scripture before the prophet at Jordan. No king of Israel was without the recognition of the Prophet of YAVE GOD. It must be said that the popular idea that it was the high priest who was to confer upon the son of David his crown was a false idea. The crown was placed on the head of the house of David by the hand of the prophet of God. It was the Prophet Samuel who gave the crown to Saul, and it was the same Prophet Samuel who passed it on to David. The recognition of the Inheritance of the son of David belonged to the Prophet of God, in this case to John the Baptist. And hence JESUS rose up against the Temple and submitted to the Prophet of YAHWEH GOD, his FATHER, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

Baptized by the Prophet of the Jordan the Crown of David was His. And yet, living in the Intimacy of his Lord, the Baptist says of Him : "Behold the Lamb of God".

That is, the idea that GOD had of the Crown of the son of David and the idea that the people had of the throne of the heir of the mythical king of Jerusalem were as far apart as Heaven and Earth, which I think are three million light years.

Without going so far we have live and direct the heirs of that mythological idea of an Imperial Jerusalem, lady and mistress of the Universe, in the image of Eternal Rome, in the current Jewish orthodox school, still waiting for the mythical son of David who lives in their heads to come down from Heaven, and who, recognized by them as the Messiah will raise the walls of Jerusalem to the Olympus of the nations, making them all tributaries of their coffers.

The Prophet of the Jordan legitimizes the Davidic Inheritance to JESUS, thus fulfilling the Scripture, but what JESUS was going to do with that crown of David was an event that belonged exclusively to his Person. In keeping with the Fulfillment of Scripture, John knows that that king must be Sacrificed for the sake of the Ignorance of Mankind and the Innocence of God. Now, JESUS was free, He had a will of His own; the final decision He made belonged to His own Self. The Scripture had been fulfilled, the son of David was alive; the mission for which John had been begotten had been consummated; John could now leave this World, he had nothing more to do here Below. The Future of this World and of the whole Creation was in the hands of the “son of David” and “Lamb of God” in the same person. In this duality was the Mystery. Everyone was looking for the Messiah, the son of David, forgetting what St. John would later say:

“Then Andrew found his brother Simon and said to him, We have found the Messiah, which means the Christ”.

As a matter of fact, “Christ” means “the Lamb of God”. This is the title with which JOHN presented him to his Disciples, and which neither Andrew nor John could understand. They only knew that JESUS was the MESSIAH, and the Messiah was the son of David; ergo: the heir to the throne of David was alive, the Freedom of Jerusalem of the Jews was in his hands. As his Disciples, to them would correspond the role of Ministers of the King of Israel. Holy holy Hallelujah!

Far from these thoughts, JESUS withdraws into the wilderness. The Scripture must continue to be fulfilled, for it was written from the origin of the world born of the Fall:

“Then said YAVE GOD unto the (DEVIL, Satan), the (ancient) serpent, Because thou hast done this thing, cursed shalt thou be among all cattle and among all beasts of the field. Thou shalt crawl upon thy breast and eat the dust all the days of thy life. I put perpetual enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; he shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for his heel”.

The first thing we observe is the rupture of the Divine Paternity over the one who up to that moment had been counted among the children of God. Let us remember:

“It came to pass one day that the sons of God went to present themselves before YAHWEH GOD, and Satan also came among them”.

YAHWEH GOD said to Satan: “cursed shalt thou be among all cattle and among all the beasts of the field”, he withdraws his status as son of God and compares him to the beasts “that crawl on their breast and eat the dust all the time of their life”, that is, deprived of the Eternal Filiation, which makes the life of the Being feed from the Divine Source, Satan will feed from his own forces, until the day comes when the son of Man, son of Eve, rises against him in Duel to Death and crushes his head.

It is to this Encounter that JESUS, the son of MARY, daughter of EVE, turns. It is an Encounter in which the two contenders are to meet face to face. Satan is going to confront the Champion that GOD has raised for his son ADAM, in whose Arm rests the Vengeance for the blood of the First Man.

The Combat is to the Death. Satan stakes his Eternal Life. If Satan loses the Duel against the Champion of God, the Law will be consummated, and once his Sentence is executed: “Banishment of Creation”, thrown into the Outer Darkness that surrounds the New Cosmos, Hell will be his Prison for Eternity; there his Cell has for Walls the Infinite.

Only God can enter the Infinite and return to his Paradise. Hence, inspired by the Holy Spirit, the Bride of Christ received in Heredity the Creed of Eternity, which says: “He died, and descended into Hell, and rose again the third day”. It is obvious that GOD the FATHER could not hide from his SON the nature of the DESERT that HIS Law against the Science of Good and Evil had sealed. LAW that the SON himself seals in his REVELATION to St. John.

YES TO PEACE, NO TO WAR, will be the soul of the LAW of his everlasting Kingdom.

We return; we are walking with JESUS, towards the mountains of the Judean Desert. JESUS begins alone his journey to meet SATAN. His Testimony, even being that of the Son of God, would have had no historical value if he had not had Witnesses who claimed to have seen him lost among the mountains of Judea at the Encounter of the Serpent, and to whom, asking him later what had happened, he told them what happened in that Encounter. We read:

“The next day, when John was again with two of his disciples, he looked upon Jesus, who was passing by, and said, Behold the Lamb of God. And the two disciples, hearing him, followed Jesus. When Jesus saw them following him, he returned to them and said to them, “What do you seek? And they said unto him, Rabbi, which signifieth Master, where dwellest thou? And he said unto them, Come and see. So they went and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day. It was about the tenth hour”.

JESUS could not take them with Him. That Encounter was between the Two Champions, on the one hand that of Death, SATAN, and on the other that of YAHWEH GOD, JESUS.

JESUS was going to meet the Devil, the Ancient Serpent, the Devil in person, it was not an Encounter at the level of mere mortals. Both Andrew and John were two young boys. And even if they had been Peter and James, the idea of seeing the Devil face to face would have created panic. That encounter was between the two Champions who were going to fight their Duel to the Death in front of the House of the children of God. The winner would take all.

If the Prince of Death won, the structure of Creation according to YAHWEH GOD should legitimize the Tree of the Science of Good and Evil in his Paradise.

If the Victor was the son of Man that possibility would be rejected and Satan would be banished from Paradise for Eternity.

What was at stake for the DEVIL was everything. If Satan did what he did, namely: shoot the arrow against the Achilles heel of the First King that the Earth gave birth to, copying here the phrase of the Sumerian Royal List “on whose head the Crown came down from Heaven”, it was because Satan believed that in the corresponding Duel between the son of Man and him the victory would be his.

The law about Crime among the sons of God was clear and simple:

“From one man's blood, from another man's hand I will ask Vengeance”.

The interpretation was clear... And although I have already touched on this matter in the DIVINE HISTORY, in honor of the Overcomer it is good for me to insist.

Evidently the interpretation of the Law implicated any son of God in the Vengeance for the blood of Man, son of God. At the same time the Law imposed that the Avenger of that blood be another man. Which left out of the Vengeance the children of God not of our World, or as St. Paul liked to say : “NOT of this creation”.

Wisdom in Solomon used the hand of the wise king to affirm about that Adam that since he was formed by God himself to be the king of the World, Adam was the greatest Man that God had ever created among the sons of men. Thus, if the man who came from the Hand of YAHWEH GOD Himself was a toy of straw to which Satan set fire with a single match, opening the gates of Hell to Mankind, it goes without saying that the Champion that GOD raised for the Dead would not last Satan even three years.

Banished from the Heart of God, Satan's dementia had been progressing during the millennia following the Fall and prior to the Birth. Thrown among the human beasts born of his Betrayal of God, from so much devouring “dust” he himself had become another animal in the image and likeness of man who by his Treason crawled on the earth. When Satan meets JESUS he had no idea nor did he imagine “how” YAHWEH GOD prepared the Revenge for the blood of his son Adam.

But let us return to JESUS. He is lost among the desert mountains of Judea. He has time to think. He has time to see His way in the coming years. He has time to see the Future of Mankind. Before Him, as a man, two paths are offered. To take up the Cross of the Lamb of God; or ... to pick up the Crown of Adam and declare Himself King of the World by the work and grace of God. As a man the Decision was his... If JESUS had been just that, a man, nothing more ...

But JESUS is "YOU-GOD", that Being engendered in the Uncreated Nature of the one who says of Himself: "I-GOD". That which the DEVIL could not even imagine, that YAHWEH GOD would choose as Our Champion his only begotten Son, is what was happening. Let us remember:

The Law demanded Vengeance for the Blood of Adam by the Hand of a son of that same Adam. All the sons of God being begotten of the Nature of Creation, as we all are, they also sons of the Mud of their Worlds, by this Origin were all excluded from the possibility of being called to take Vengeance for the Blood of Adam. The Idea that YAHWEH GOD would choose his BELOVED SON as our Champion was outside the field of thought of the Manslayer against the God signed Penalty of Banishment.

So true is this statement "Idea of YAHWEH GOD choosing his BELOVED SON as our Champion was out of the field of thought of the Homicide" that the first thing that occurs to him to say to JESUS is:

"If you are a son of God..."

It can be seen that the DEVIL, SATAN, the ANCIENT SERPENT, did not have the slightest idea of who JESUS was, who, as if he, Satan, were less than a rat or a worm that crawls on the dust, answered in his own way: "VADE RETRO SATAN".

Victory would come to us from the Hand of the One who had been begotten to be Invincible.

But let us not go so far. There are forty days and forty nights that the Son of God has before His eyes our Future and the Future of the entire Creation.

It is very nice to shed crocodile tears for the Tragedy that does not touch you, for the hurricane that devastates populations at an infinite distance from your home, for the war that spreads its infernal fire through nations that say nothing to you. The stab that plunges into the heart of the stranger, pierces through the chest and comes out of the back, what to you? The tyrant's thunderbolt that shakes the tree of the nation and collapses peoples under the weight of the branches it tears off, and... ? The death that enters through the window and spreads its darkness for the souls, what is it...?

Is not the hell of war a spectacle worthy of a god?

Nations like armies of tin soldiers moved by the gods in a game of infernal chess to the health of the glory of the gods, is not the pastime beautiful?

What are all the peoples of Creation but dust moved by the wind of the will of the children of God, partakers in everything of the Divinity of their Father and Lord?

Eternity is a word of few letters, but what is the weight of its nature? For he who is True God that nature is in his Being. How beautiful it is to be Creator of Worlds! All created to enjoy eternal life in the Paradise of Hell, isn't it Satan? That is what you wanted. This is why you rose up against the Kingdom of God using Man as your battle axe.

What was the First Man? A creature in his Cosmic Infancy. There was no Evil in his Heart, like that of the Child who entered the Temple to take charge of the World and save the Human Race from its Perdition, the Mind of the Man that God had formed with his Hand was clean of all evil passion.

God had spoken and His Word was His Law. "Eat not, for thou shalt die". Was Adam mad? God was his Father, and of course he was, he was mad, but mad with Love for God, his Creator.

That son of God, the youngest of his House, knew the existence of the fruit of the Science of good and evil, War, as it is known in the Book of the History of Creation. And nothing more. He knew no Evil, it was unthinkable for him to Doubt the Divine Word. To love God with all his mind, his heart and his Law, and his neighbor as himself was his Law of Life.

What did you do Satan? Kill your own brother posing as a Messenger of his Father:

"Nay, ye shall not die, but ye shall be as the gods".

And Eve and Adam, as one who has the Blessing of God, declared themselves gods; henceforth the Word of the king would be Law. And the Civil War was made. For Man recognizes no God but his Creator.

The Hour of Vengeance, the Day of YAHWEH, had dawned. God had chosen for us as Champion the Son of his Uncreated Womb. How could we imagine that such a Father would choose his Beloved Child to take the Hammer of Vengeance and crush the Head of the Murderer of his little brother Adam!

The Incarnation of this Son, of whom God Himself says "Thou art True God of True God", and opening His Mouth His Word becomes no matter what the content, this possibility never entered Satan's head; not in vain did God say to him :

"Because thou hast done this, cursed shalt thou be among all cattle and among all beasts of the field. You shall crawl on your breast and eat the dust all the days of your life".

From what one eats one ends up being that which one eats. By making men his food, his thought became that of any other man. Were Jews and Romans able to discover the True Identity of the Prophet Galileo?

By his works, natural to God, could they understand that the one they had before them was the Son of God?

Accustomed to amuse himself by massacring nations of men and using men as pawns in his chessboard of war to the death against the Kingdom of that JESUS, whose Throne he envied with all his soul and being, Satan had ended up having the intelligence of just another man.

"If thou be a Son of God...say unto this stone that it may become bread".

Satan had NOT the remotest idea of the Identity of the One who had risen to avenge Adam's death. "Say unto this stone that it may become bread". Was he a fool, had he not read the Scripture? :

"Verily I say unto you, that God is able of the stones to make children of Abraham".

He had before him the Son of the Creator and all he could think of was to challenge him to turn his staff into a serpent? Had he not read the Scripture? :

"God will send you a prophet greater than I, and whoever will not listen to him will be cut off from his people".

What are the sons of God, magicians in the style of Pharaoh's magicians? Is the Power of God simply magic?

Satan's ignorance of the Incarnation was absolute.

But it was absolute for everyone. His Disciples knew it only when the MOTHER discovered it to them during the three days of waiting between the Crucifixion and the Resurrection. All those who had known the Incarnation: the maternal grandmother of Jesus, Joseph, the husband of MARY, and his brother-in-law Cleophas, brother of the MOTHER, Elizabeth and Zechariah, parents of the Baptist, had all died. The only living person who, apart from the MOTHER, knew of the Incarnation was the Baptist. The Silence of the MOTHER and the BAPTIST about the Incarnation of the Only Begotten and Firstborn Son of YAVE GOD was absolute.

The Incarnation was the most powerful secret ever best kept by those who lived its Reality. And at the date of the Encounter between SATAN and JESUS all those who lived that Event had died. In fact, before the Incarnation took place, YAHWEH GOD himself expelled from his World that wicked generation of God's children, led by Satan, about whom Moses wrote in his Canticle. With this expulsion it was announced to the House of the sons of God that the Day of Vengeance had come. Cast out of Heaven the DEVIL immediately sets out to seek God's chosen Avenger to call him to account for the blood shed since Adam. This event is recorded in Revelation for our intelligence and knowledge of Salvation History.

Thus, ignorant of the Identity of the One before him, knowing only that That One is the son of Man, God's chosen one to confront him, from whose Duel, supposedly, he, the Ancient Serpent, will emerge with his head crushed, after His reply "Man does not live by bread alone," the Devil continues:

"All this power and its glory I will give you, for to me it has been given, and to whom I will I give it; if, therefore, you will prostrate yourself before me, all will be yours".

And indeed the Crown "which came down from Heaven" Satan plucked from the head of the king whom God gave to men in the days of Eden. But God did not give the Crown to Adam to do with the Power that came with it as he pleased. God created Man in the Image and Likeness of His Son, in whose Image and Likeness He creates all His children. This is why the Ancients wrote that "the Crown came down from Heaven", and did not write that "it came up from Hell". Speaking in Christian, we can say that whoever wrote this statement, "the Crown came down from Heaven", like all the other peoples of the Earth was living in Hell. Ergo, the Sumerians could well have claimed the opposite, namely, that the Crown came up from Hell. But no, they did not.

The Power that God placed in his son Adam had Wisdom for his Scepter, Peace for his Throne, and Love for Life and for the Life of others for his Crown. Far from this Power were the words of the one who offered to the Creator of the World what belonged to Him by Right. The Answer of JESUS reveals to us the Nature of that Power:

"The Lord thy God shalt thou worship and Him only shalt thou serve".

The Power of God in His children has by nature to serve Him by governing the peoples of His Creation in the bosom of His Justice; in the Government of the Holy Spirit the Love of His Creator for all His creatures, over whom God extends His everlasting Paternity, is manifested Alive. This is the Nature of the Power that God deposited in the crowns of his children. Power in every respect the enemy of the Power which Satan enjoyed, and would lead him to ruin.

JESUS does not look at it. The Law must be fulfilled. The Enemy of His Crown must see red to face the One who came to crush his Head, take that Power from him, and sign the Sentence of Eternal Banishment against him sealed by his Father.

Satan goes on to want to prove that He also knew the Scriptures:

"If thou be a Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: for it is written, He hath sent his angels over thee to keep thee, and to hold thee in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against the stones".

And indeed Satan knew the Scriptures. Also the High Priest and the Temple authorities knew the Scriptures. Not for the same existential reason. Satan because it is the law of war to know the enemy in order to discover his weakness and destroy him. The Temple because its future depended on the Law. But as for the access to the Intelligence from which those Scriptures came neither one nor the other had the door open. Only their Prophets went in and out through that Door to the Mind of God with the assurance of those who were in their secrets ... for they were one with their Author.

Today, the Door to that Divine Mind is JESUS Himself who, without even looking at Him, dismisses from His side the Enemy against whom He let fall the Hammer of His Omnipotence.

IF YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD...

and what is your answer, you who read these lines?

DON'T MAKE WAR, OR YOU WILL DIE

We have reached a point of no return. We have followed JESUS into the desert. For 40 days we have been waiting by His side for His Enemy, Our Enemy, Satan, to appear. The Fire that consumes JESUS against Satan burns in our spirit, the heat of His flame is that of the Incombustible Bush in Fire from which YAHWEH GOD said of Himself: "I AM WHO I AM", I AM NOT that which you believe God is, or should be; I AM NOT that evil monster that from before the Beginning of Creation writes the Script of the Tragedy of the World that I am about to create, and I believe in the Universe that I have created to be my Paradise. MY Universe is My World, my Law is its Beginning and its End. I AM YAVE, Father of JESUS, the same one whom you have followed to the Desert by the hand of my son, now look me in the face.

Indeed, what is God seeing? There Satan and JESUS are, facing each other. Satan does not see the Fire from which the Words of JESUS arise; Satan has become a beast without intelligence, a loathsome Serpent full of venom, but a beast incapable of understanding or seeing GOD. Satan believes that JESUS is alone. He is NOT. HIS FATHER is beholding the GATHERING. And we are going to raise our heads and direct our eyes to YAHWEH GOD, our CREATOR, the Creator of the New Cosmos, Lord of Infinity and Eternity, whose Word is Law for Space, Time and Matter, and in whose Immaculate and Incorruptible HEART lives WISDOM, his WIFE. Yes, we have entered into the INTIMACY of GOD. His eyes are watching the Scene. And with the eyes of a son who loves his Father above all things we contemplate the Scene of the Encounter with his eyes.

We have before us two irreconcilable conceptions of the Nature of Power.

On Satan's side we have Power as a Natural Right due to a self-idolatrous Ego that recognizes no more Law than its own Pride, nor more Justice than its own Passion for Power;

On the part of JESUS we have Power as Love of Life, his Passion is adoration of the Law of the Spirit of the Creator, who for Love of his Creation elevates us all to the condition of his Son: we are sons of God.

Satan worships War, the Strength of his glory is based on Destruction; either he is given what he wants or he rises as a Beast fed by Hellfire, ready to devour all life. It does NOT recognize TRUTH as the Mother of Civilization. The only Truth is his own, either he is given what he wants or he declares War against GOD himself. He is the son of Death, the father of the Perdition of all who follow him. There is no more Love in him for his Creator and his Creation. He has dared to Threaten God, FATHER of JESUS, with the Destruction of his Creation, we, the Human Race, and even in his madness dared to Betray the Lord of Infinity and Eternity, Creator of the Galaxy Forest of the New Cosmos; and to challenge him to a Pulse for the transformation of His House into a Global Tyranny ruled by gods, he, Satan, its head.

JESUS loves the Life of Creation to the point of saying "I AM THE LIFE", he who attacks you, attacks me; he who seeks your, destruction seeks mine, and he shall meet me. Civilization is the Fruit of the Fraternity that proceeds from the Divine Universal Peace; no matter the people or the origin of your being in space and time, you are all Citizens of the Kingdom of my FATHER, and it is the KING's Sacred Duty to defend you, to protect you and to crush the head of your Enemy. Your Enemy is my Enemy.

GOD, Your FATHER, beholds the Gathering. We are at His side. The Fire of His Being is the LIGHT that brightens the soul and spirit of us all. There is NO FEAR, our eyes see what His eyes see. There is no turning back now. He has given us YOUR-GOD, His Son, the Son of His uncreated womb, for a Champion. THE POWER?

What is Power?

Nuclear weapons?

What can the cry of a disciple of the Devil threatening the World with a Destruction of which there will be neither "Victor nor Vanquished" to say to Him who with a single Word can reduce the Earth to dust wandering among the nebulae of the Heavens?

Fear of that evil murderer who rose up against a Naked Creature in the Sciences of War, and even being told "Do not do it, or you will die", believed that Death would be Stronger than the Creator of the Universe.

Behold, a nation strips itself naked, let us call it UKRAINE. For love of World Peace, like St. Francis on the day of his Vow to God, that nation disarms. It is the Third Nuclear Power of the 20th Century. Caught between the Ices of the Cold War, to raise the Temperature and feed the Fire of World Peace, UKRAINE dismantles its NUCLEAR POWER. It undresses.

U.S.A., RUSSIA, U.K., France and China swear in Budapest, by the Word of Honor of their States and Armies, the Inviolability of the Borders of Ukraine. The Violation of those Borders becomes from that day an Abomination, whoever violates them in the Future will know the Answer of the other Nations that have celebrated, for their Honor, that Nudity in the Name of Peace. The Law is Eternal: "Do NOT do it, or you will die". But they challenge the whole World to a War of which there will be neither Victor nor Vanquished.

God contemplates the Scene. Satan rubs his hands together. Yes, he recognizes to that UNKNOWN JESUS a courage unbecoming of a man. Any man at the thought of coming face to face with the Devil would have died of fear. This UNKNOWN JESUS not only did not run but had the courage to come to meet him. JESUS does not even look at him. He is repulsed by his Presence, but endures his breath. The Beast next to him, once a son of God, is unable to see the Hammer in the Hand of the Arm that will crush the Head of the Serpent within Satan. The Strength of that Arm is the Strength of the Arm of YAHWEH GOD.

God beholds the Serenity of His SON. There is NO DOUBT or FEAR in His JESUS, and JESUS knows perfectly well that His FATHER contemplates Him.

The dice had been cast long ago, from the very moment God said to Satan "My SON will crush your head", that head was already crushed.

Thousands of years had passed. The nature of being a son of God had disintegrated in Satan; for thousands of years he had devoured human flesh, millennium after millennium he had drunk human blood to the point of absolute drunkenness, dust had been his element, and now he was nothing but a Beast, his final decision signed with the Blood of Adam: "Rather a king in Hell than a mere Citizen in the Kingdom of God".

The answer of JESUS is the answer of his FATHER: "So be it".

We see, then, that each line of the BOOK OF GOD is the Speech of that Eternal Wisdom who, loving God with all her being, made in HIS Heart her Home, her House, her World, her Universe, her Paradise; world, universe, paradise, house and home, against which Death raised his Champion, invested him as his Prince, became the source of his Strength and now, without masks behind which to hide, throws himself into the FINAL BATTLE. Death has before him his enemy: YAHWEH GOD.

The Cosmic War between Life and Death has reached the field where one will celebrate His Victory and the other will be banished from Creation. LIFE not only finds in God its King, but incarnating His Son says "I AM THE LIFE".

So, having God with Us, where is the fear of Death?

Who are those cowards who in the face of the Threat of the Devil hide behind diplomatic walls, surrendering the lives of a people "sacred in the eyes of God" as the price for their miserable existence?

The Victory is the King's, the Invincible is God in Him. There is NO more Answer to Satan's house than "Do NOT do WAR, or you will die".

But let us return to our Creator's side.

JESUS hungers. HIS FATHER adores Him. Before He knows His Answer to the Devil He already cries it out before all His Creation, "Behold my BELOVED SON", the Son in whose Image and Likeness we are all formed; Image and Likeness Satan banished from His being; Image and Likeness in which we have our Glory.

God looks at us. He contemplates us, He smiles at us, where is the Fear, where is the sting of Death?

The beasts in the image and likeness of Satan believe that the Power is in the Arm dressed for War. His disciples have jaws of steel and teeth of iron, their mouths breath fire from hell, a homicidal poison that kills all their enemies, from within and without.

They have no law but Iron; they know no civilization but that which is founded on the terrors of War. They feed on the flesh of nations and are drunk with the blood of peoples. They believe themselves to be gods beyond good and evil; and like their master and lord, rather dead than men among men, citizens all of the same Divine Kingdom founded on Peace among true brothers, they invoke World War as the route to Universal Hegemony.

God and the King contemplate us. The King stands and God leads His armies. There will be NO Nuclear War, and those who have violated the sacred borders, if they do not leave the territory consecrated to Peace, will die.

But it is Time to eat. The entire Creation comes down to serve Its King. The whole House of God's sons waited with their hearts in a fist for the Meeting between the son of Eve and of Satan. They saw JESUS and understood what their Enemy had not understood: that this UNKNOWN JESUS was the Son of whom YAHWEH GOD says: "YOU GOD, my Son".

We come down with JESUS from the Mountain. It is Celebration Time; Victory is guaranteed; before he was born, CHRIST was already proclaimed the Victor.

All to the Wedding of Canaan. Raise your glasses. Celebrate LIFE. Laugh and rejoice without Fear of Death, is this not Happiness?

Lift up your souls, lift up your hearts. JESUS drinks, laughs, talks, lets himself be embraced and embraces, loves and is loved; let's sing and dance, for each day has its eagerness.

There is the MOTHER, her relatives, her sisters, her nephews and nieces, her sons and daughters-in-law, there are, although they do not know it yet, those who will be His Disciples. After accompanying him all that day, JESUS disappeared for 40 more days. Suddenly He is back.

As I said in the DIVINE HISTORY, He disappeared and appeared without giving explanations to anyone, and returned with that Presence of His that it was impossible to get angry or just reproach Him for anything. He appears at the wedding feast of Canaan with His Mother as if those 40 days in the desert were of no one's interest. He sits with the guests, his relatives, and enjoys the joy as any son of man. The Disciples meet the Son of Mary. Peter's mother-in-law is a sister of the MOTHER. Those present are mostly members of the clan of David of Galilee. They know that the Head of the Clan is, by tradition, the son of Jacob of Nazareth. Jesus is that son. But before him there had been many and none claimed the Inheritance of David. According to Andrew and John this son of Jacob was the Messiah. In him the line ended. To him and only to him, according to the Baptist, corresponded the Inheritance of the Kingdom of David. But what are we talking about? Independence from the Empire of Rome? Declaring war on Caesar? Where were the armies?

Of course during those 40 days James and Peter talked about the news brought to them by Andrew and John. Ok, Mary's son is the Messiah, so what? Who is Jesus? JESUS is a farmer, wealthy, owner of the carpentry of his brothers, bequeathed to him by his father Joseph, but farmer after all. And to make matters worse, a Galilean, what future did he have? With what power was he going to conquer the throne of his father David?

I insist, God did not write a single line in vain. His Gospel is the Door to the Memory of the events that remained on the other side of the Door of His Silence. From the beginning generations wanted to manipulate the Text of HIS Book in order to create for themselves a church of their own to live as high priests. They were not interested in Truth, their interest was always centered on turning the Letter into Gold. Quite the opposite of the interest of the one whom we immediately see turning Water into Wine.

JESUS knew the thinking of those who were to be his Disciples first and his Apostles afterwards. HE had no need to hear them to know what they were thinking; it was enough for HIM to set His eyes on a person to know his soul as if He had given birth to him. HIS Power is the Power of God. The Evangelists insisted again and again on this point. JESUS knew everyone's thoughts without needing to speak to anyone. His Look was the Look of God; our hearts and minds are naked before His eyes. So knowing the thoughts of his Disciples, God causes the scene to be transformed for the Manifestation of the Nature of the Power of his Messiah.

The sponsors of the Wedding run out of wine. In those days, like funerals, weddings did not end in one day. The longer a wedding lasted the more prestige for the house. A wedding that lasted one day said very little about the family, the length of the wedding said a lot.

That the people in the wedding was her family is revealed by the MOTHER when she addresses her Son. That this MOTHER knew the Nature of the Power of her SON is revealed by the Author speaking to HIM in his ear: "Son, they have no Wine". "What to you and me, Woman" reveals to us that JESUS discovers at that moment the Presence of his FATHER.

The Disciples must know the Nature of the Power of the Messiah. It is NOT weapons or armies that are the Source of His Glory; His Power is the Glory of the Freedom of God.

"Do whatever He tells you" says the Mother to her relatives. The obedience they render to her reveals to us the Authority of MARY among her own people. No one objects, no one knows what she intends. Nazareth is far away. SHE cannot bring wine from her house just like that. And yet no one stay sit. They do what SHE wants, do whatever her SON tells them.

JESUS understands; it is HIS FATHER who is speaking to HIM in HER. He calls to his Disciples, "Come with me". His Disciples believed they will accompany him to buy Wine. They do not leave the house. JESUS says to his Disciples : "Fill the jars with WATER". They fill them, they close the jars. And immediately he says to them: "Pour the WINE". They all look at him. Has he lost his mind? They open the jars. "It is WINE". And the Evangelist concludes : "And his Disciples believed". They already had the answer they had been looking for : "NOT the weapons, not the armies, the Power of the Messiah is the Power of God".

And so began the Great Adventure. The greatest adventure that any man has ever lived or could live. To walk with the Son of God, step by step, day after day, month after month, year after year. Until that day for Eternity: the day He said to Peter: "Put down your sword, Peter, he who kills with iron, dies with iron".

So Yesterday as Today and Tomorrow forever and ever, he who makes War, by the Law, shall die.

THE CROWN OF EVERLASTING UNIVERSAL PEACE

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a ruler among the Jews, who came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you have come as a teacher from God, for no one can do these miracles that you do unless God is with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born from above, he shall not enter into the kingdom of God....

Nicodemus answered and said, How can that be?

Jesus answered and said, ... If ye believe not when I speak to you of earthly things, how shall ye believe, if I speak to you of heavenly things? God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through him. He who believes in Him is not judged: he who does not believe in Him is already judged, because he did not believe in the name of the only begotten Son of God..... But he who works the truth comes to the light, that his works may be made manifest, for they are done in God.

Truth has but one Way. And JESUS having said : "Truth shall make you Free", and adding "I AM THE WAY", the conclusion of Intelligence is logical : "HE is the Way to Freedom". Any other conclusion comes from Satan.

I know that the Freedom of Science, just as the freedom of the Reformation led to the European Civil War of the 30 Years, the famous liberal utopia of Scientific Atheism led OUR CIVILIZATION to the WORLD WARS. And at present, SCIENCE, the darling-slave of Power, which did not want to be Free in the Kingdom of God, has dragged us, again, to the edge of the Precipice of the Extinction of life on Earth.

No one but Science itself is guilty of having installed itself in Genocidal Anti-Christianity against Humanity under the Lie of Scientific Atheism as the Path to Freedom.

For this reason I have undertaken the Great Adventure of Walking with JESUS towards the Freedom that from his Truth emerges and engenders in Man, we, Creation of God, a New Man. Citizen of his Kingdom, subject of Divine Right, and Object of the Duty that all the sons of God have to Defend and protect Their Own Life, and the Lives of our Neighbors and Brothers with the Force that, having in the Almighty Creator of the Heavens and the Earth as its Source; this Divine Right to Self-Defense engenders in us the Duty to defend and protect the Life of our Neighbor and Brother, their peoples and nations, all Citizens of the Kingdom of JESUS, whose lives God will ask us to account for, when having the Power to Defend those lives we simply stand by and watch as Cain destroys the head of Abel.

The Defense of Life in us and in the entire Creation is a Duty that comes from God the Creator, who clothes His Creation with the Almighty Power of His Arm, so that His sons may rise up between Cain and Abel.

To stop the Genocide of the Liberty and Life of a Nation of His Kingdom, Citizens of the Kingdom of God, is a Divine Duty. Cain must choose: submit to the King's Law, or die.

The JESUSCHRISTIAN Duty is a DIVINE Right that comes to us in Inheritance with our Birth from the Spirit of Our Creator. Consequently it is of Divine Right the Almighty Duty to defend the Life of our Neighbor and Brother without fear of Death; but on the contrary, the Fear of Death is our Enemy. It is written "Cowards shall not inherit the Kingdom God"; word of the KING, JESUS. Because God not being a Coward cannot leave in Inheritance what does not exist in His Heart.

The Doctrine of JESUS is Eternal : "For God so loved the world, that He gave us His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life". The Intimacy of this Declaration admits no darkness. God gave us as Champion and Model of Being, in whose Image and Likeness we are born again, the Son of His Eternal womb, in whom the Duty to defend the Life of the Citizens of His Kingdom is an Almighty Right innate to His CROWN, and as the Apostle says speaking of it: "... Incorruptible, Invincible".

A Creation alienated from this Right was the one that God rejected to Hell, and sending us his Son has opened us to all the Door to his Paradise, his World, his House, his Home.

In which direction shall we walk then in search of Freedom?

There is only one WAY. Any other WAY, be it religious, scientific, philosophical or theological, leads to Satan.

The structure of the JESUSCHRISTIAN Discourse is direct: "I AM THE TRUTH, I AM THE WAY, I AM THE ETERNAL LIFE". So, loving Life with all the strength of our being, where could we go, how could we raise our life to Eternity but walking with JESUS?

"We have found him": Andrew and John say to Peter and James. And yet we know that no one finds God, it is God who allows himself to be found.

Neither Judaism, nor Islam, nor Buddhism, nor Scientific Atheism, nor Materialistic Neo-Paganism. They are all speeches to hide behind their death threats the reality, namely, that not being able to find God without JESUS, they invented a god towards whom to derive this nature of ours created to run to the Meeting of its Creator. And if God withdraws, sons of Adam, how will anyone be able to bring his life to the consummation of his existence : life in the Image and likeness of the Eternal Life of the Son of God! But we are not children of Adam, we are sons of CHRIST.

And here we are, walking with Our Father who is in Heaven.

Indeed, "in the Beginning", when God said : "Let us make Man in our image and after our likeness", the Model was general, and hence God distributed the Regions of the Earth among his sons "not of our World". The Mission of those sons of God, the gods of Antiquity, before the Fall, was to lead to Civilization the Families under their Guardianship, thus making God emerge in the Human Genus Five Civilizations. It was Go's Idea to integrate them into one, engendering in them a New one. This is when the Reign of Adam, son of God, began. When the Process of the Universal Formation of Man was broken, the innate mental properties, with which each son of God impregnated the Minds of the Peoples under the Tutelage of his children, were transformed into Walls impossible to tear down.

And yet, as Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow, the Word is God.

God brings to its End the Work to which He gives its Beginning. His Word is God. HIS Word is Law to HIMSELF. "GOD says and GOD does".

The Word of God is not the Word of a State, nor that of a Man who signs a Treaty, a Memorandum, a Contract that binds him to Life or Death, and when he turns around he steps on his Word. God opens the BEGINNING and walks towards the END with Almighty Legs and Omnipotent Arms. And he who pretends to stand in the middle is mad. Satan, the Head of the Serpent, put himself in the middle, and we already know the price of his madness: ETERNAL BANISHMENT FROM CREATION. Sentence to which all the sons of God, of Heaven and Earth, respond: Blessed is God!

BY His Word God opened his Kingdom to the fullness of the nations of the human race. God had to consummate his Creation. For the World of Adam did not consummate His Work. Drowned in the waters of his Ignorance that First Man, the Necessity of begetting a New Man, born of His Spirit was made. And so God was ready to do it. But this time the Image and Likeness of God would not come to the New Man from just any son of God; the Almighty Creator of the New Cosmos gave us as Father the very Son of His Uncreated Womb.

And there He was, walking, Our Father who is in Heaven. Nicodemus approaches Him. How can man, being old, be born again?

Nicodemus puts in Doubt the Power of God; he subjects the Divine Omnipotence to the structure of the Impotence of human Reason.

Our Father's Answer is direct: "Indeed, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven".

The Creation of Life in the Image and Likeness of God has in this dimension its nature. First, Matter is created, finally Matter is invested with the Divine Spirit, which engenders in us a son of God.

We have the perfect image of this Creative Dimension in the Burning Bush. Invested with the Eternal Nature of its Creator, Matter is never consumed; Creation participates in the Life of its Creator through the Spirit of the son that God engenders in His Creature.

Although our existence is ascribed to temporality on Earth, we walk in the eternal Life that God has unfolded before us. We are no longer subject to the Walls of the Old Man, son of the Fall of Adam's World. The Model of our Being is the Son of God.

All the Old is dissolved. Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, Atheism, Materialism, all are false.

Having said this, we look Him in the face. He is CHRIST JESUS OF YAHWEH AND ZION, the Firstborn of the sons of God. He is the Invincible Champion that God gave us, and He raised Him to the Throne of the Everlasting Universal King, to Defend and Protect our Life.

YES: also JESUS was born again; God gave him a New Name: CHRIST. The CHILD had given way to MAN. And that Man is the Model in the Image and Likeness of which we are all formed, fulfilling the GOAL of the WORD: "Let us make MAN..."

Citizens of Thy Kingdom, the workmanship of Thy Being, subject of Right and Object of Duty.

PEACE is not built by not making War; PEACE is defended, protected with all the Forces of Being.

YESTERDAY: "If you do not believe when I speak to you of earthly things, how will you believe if I speak to you of heavenly things?"

TODAY "Yes". TODAY we have the Mind and Intelligence of those who being in the Intimacy of our Creator, having been born of His Spirit, begotten in His Image and Likeness, can understand, speak and make known heavenly things. Wisdom, "spoken among the perfect" YESTERDAY, is our Inheritance, and for this reason God said, "It was necessary that the Testator should die", for if He did not die He could not bequeath in Testament his Spirit of Intelligence to his Offspring.

We are the Offspring of CHRIST, the Future of which it was written: "The whole Creation awaits the day of the glory of the Liberty of the sons of God". That Day is TODAY. And the Source of our Freedom being the Glory of JESUS CHRIST, Our Father in Heaven, the Glory of God's only begotten Son, where is the Fear?

Ours is the Promise: "Thy Offspring shall conquer the gates of their Enemies".

Sons of God, by the Truthfulness of the One who is His Only Begotten and Firstborn, we are the Future of the Human Race. We have been begotten in the spirit of eternal Life to call all Nations to the Citizenship of His Kingdom. The Nation that rejects it will be erased from the map of History, and its name from the Book of Life: "for he that believeth not in Him is judged already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God".

NO ONE who does not bow his knees before the KING will enter HIS Paradise. This is the Last Word of God.

The New Universe has been created by YAHWEH GOD according to the Laws of His Heart and Wisdom. And whoever does not want to live in the Light of his Personality, whose Love for his Creation is so enormous that he chose us for Champion His Own Son, even though His Victory would be His Cross, he will not enter his World.

"Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return" is the best sentence that can be wished to him who in his unbelief lodges in the arms of Satan.

And finally we return to History. We have already heard Andrew and John calling JESUS "Rabbi". Again we hear Nicodemus calling him "Rabbi". Far from opening an academic discussion, and starting from the biohistorical scenario that I unfolded in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST, it is understood that when Joseph died, and the kingdom of Herod had been divided among his sons, the synagogue of Nazareth was in charge of JESUS, the heir of Jacob of Nazareth, whose house had exercised the civil authority in the town since its foundation by Abiud, son of Zerubbabel.

That image of a MARY living almost in misery, and a Joseph Carpenter without education of any kind was imposed, during the Reformation, by its first hero, a Martin Luther whose Intimacy was not with God but with Satan; the homicidal fruits of his doctrine, whose nature was revealed in the 30 Years' War, on pain of being blind, speaks volumes about the identity of his Hidden God... Indeed we did not know that God was a coward and had to hide from Satan and his disciples.

But since I have already opened this subject in LUTHER, THE POPE AND THE DEVIL, and later developed it in CHRIST RAUL AGAINST THE ANTICHRIST, I will pass on opening a door that is always open. The fact is that, as can be read in the HEART OF MARY, his son, heir of his father Jacob, when He came of age became by the authority of his family the Rabbi of Nazareth. His upbringing in Alexandria gave him the mastery of the languages of the Empire, Latin and Greek, on the one hand, and on the other, of the Sacred language of the Old Testament, Aramaic, in addition to the Hebrew common among the Jews.

To know how to read and write, as much in the Antiquity as in the medieval ages, during the time of JESUS was an art and a science reserved to the families that could afford to have their children without working. Until he was twelve years old JESUS lived no other reality than that of a CHILD, son of parents without economic problems of any kind, who let him live the City of Alexandria of the Nile at his pleasure.

The CHILD was not a Prodigy; the CHILD was the Son of God; his Intelligence was natural TO WHO HE WAS.

After the Episode of the Temple the CHILD enters in a low profile of relationship, until dead Cleophas and Joseph, for his fortune and for his intelligence He becomes the Rabbi of Nazareth, in whom the families rested the religious education of their children.

“Let the children come to me” was not propaganda. The “Rabbi of Nazareth”, the son of MARY, did not take care of the children of the people in response to a contract with the Temple. The love for the men those children would become was His Devotion.

In front of their parents, on the religious days when the synagogue opened its door, the religious profile of Mary’s son was that of a Jew of the prophetic school. No one could see in Him the Messiah, an Intimacy to which not even the Mother herself had access.

When her Son ascends to the Cross, then she understands the Silence of “her Child”. Since He left the Temple, at the age of Twelve, “her Child” knew that His Return to His Divine Father was through the Cross of CHRIST.

Everyone wanted to give him the Crown of David. None knew that his Crown was the Crown of Eternal Life.

Whoever becomes a Citizen of his Kingdom participates in the Eternal Life of the King, whoever refuses to accept his Crown signs against himself his death sentence.

Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all that he does, and will show him even greater works than these, so that you may marvel... Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him.

Let it be known that Whoever in ecstasy before the Beauty and Greatness of our Heavens believes that he has already seen everything, let him not be depressed because GOD loves His Son, and shows him all that He does, and will show him even greater works than these, so that we may be astonished.

The Invitation is written. And God never breaks his Word.

The necessity of creating our Civilization on Earth in the Image of the Civilization of His KINGDOM in Heaven is then real.

With JESUS came the KINGDOM of God to Earth.

First the KING, for there can be no Kingdom if there is no King. But the KING had to be invested by God as King over all His House. The King had to return to the World from which he came to be Crowned before all the House of God.

Until HIS Return as King in the Fullness of His Glory, He left us His Church, who in His Name, as His Bride, has begotten Him on Earth a People. Dying, JESUS made a Testament, bequeathing to HIS Offspring the Spirit of Intelligence. Which touches us all. And born his Heir, it is to his Father, the KING, to whom his Descendants owe : Obedience, Loyalty and Fidelity. And this Obedience refers to the Edification of our Civilization in the Image of the Civilization of his Kingdom.

For we know what God said : "Make things in the image of what is shown to you". And later: "The New Jerusalem came down from Heaven". Statements that involve us in the Creation of our Civilization in the image and likeness of that which in Heaven God has built for the Kingdom of His Son, and who, following His Word, "The son can only do what he sees the Father doing", calls us to the opening of Earth to His Kingdom.

It is understood that DEATH, moved by its inertia, sought the Destruction of the Bride in which the King was to beget a Son to God, and once this Offspring was born, DEATH sought the destruction of Life on Earth, which is the Moment we are living in live to the Present.

Summarizing:

The whole Creation has YAHWEH for Universal God, Creator of his Son's KINGDOM; this KINGDOM has for everlasting KING his Son JESUS.

Thus, because he is the KING, the Son of God is the Head of all the hosts of Creation. The due Obedience of all the Armies of all the Peoples and Worlds of Creation is to JESUS CHRIST, the Universal KING.

The Law on WAR comes from GOD, and condemns to Eternal Banishment from Creation every People and Nation that rises up in War against its Neighbor.

War is an Abomination in the eyes of the CREATOR of the UNIVERSE; his Law : “Do not eat, you will die”, has eternal Value.

The Law of YAHWEH GOD establishes as Duty of all the sons of God and the armies entrusted to them for Peace, to rise up against whoever declares War to his Neighbor, and whoever does not rise up to stop a new Satan rebels against the KING: the Sentence against him is Banishment from Creation.

The Kingdom of God has a SINGLE RELIGION, entrusted to the Bride of the KING, the Catholic Church, Mother of His Offspring; She is His Body and He, Her Lord, is her Head.

Her Lord and Husband, CHRIST JESUS, is the Universal Supreme Pontiff of the ONE Universal Religion that lives in the Being of the House of God. Anyone who separates from this House, dividing the Body of the Lord, raising a new religion or church, rises in Rebellion against God.

The sentence for Rebellion against the House of CHRIST JESUS, His Bride, governed by the Holy Spirit, which the FATHER sent upon the Brethren of CHRIST JESUS and made His Twelve Disciples the Body in which GOD DWELLS LIVES WITH US, the church and people who remain in Division shall be cut off from the Tree of Life and cast out to be the fuel of fire.

These are the two Pillars on which God has founded His Kingdom and both are in the Hands of His Son, Almighty KING and Most Holy Lord. Whoever does not bend his knees before JESUS CHRIST, King and Lord, will not enter His Paradise.

The sons of God, of Heaven and Earth have only one VOICE:

AMEN.

"COME"

THE SONG OF THE SON OF THE KING

(16/02/2022)

"Where is Death your sting? Where is your poison?"

I was thrown into a mass grave, corpse among corpses, and you said to yourself, he will no longer raise his voice, I will close the gates, he will not come out of the pit.

I called upon the King. As a father running to the aid of his son, the King came to me, and giving me his hand he said:

"You are my son, arise. You have to speak to the nations, I have begotten you to bring my Kingdom to many peoples, and Obedience to my Will to the inhabitants of the Earth. I have given you my Name, you bear the Name of the House of the sons of God, do not fear, I will be with you all the days of your life".

What is now, rebellious sons, your victory?

I rise from Earth to Heaven, and before the House of my Creator I bless His Wisdom, because by overcoming His pain for our present misfortune He has opened to us the Paradise of His Heart to eternal Joy.

I bless God and bend my knees before his Justice:

Cursed for eternity whoever wages War against his brother,

Cursed is he who raises the battle-axe against his neighbor,

Let him be as the dust that the Wind of the Spirit casts into the abyss,

Let there be no remembrance of his existence,

Cursed be he who sheds a tear for the people who rebelled against the King's Peace and led their armies against the Throne of the Son of God.

Be for Eternity the fate of Satan the fate of all the enemies of His Kingdom.

The King, my Father, has said to me:

"Son, say to the Barbarian of the North,

Do you see the map of your glory?

I will erase the borders and I will draw new ones your name only will be found in the books of History, and your fall will be a lesson for all my enemies.

And you, my son, raise your arm against the Third Rome;
against the First I raised the iron scepter of my Father, and I broke her glory as a potter's vessel is broken;
the Second I delivered to the armies of Death; against the third thou shalt lift up iron scepter, and beat down the walls thereof, which shall be broken like a potter's vessel.
Do NOT be afraid, I am with you".

Who can stand before the Wind that comes from Heaven?
It is the Wind that comes from God sweet and fresh as the wind of springtime after the cold of winter. Lift up the heart and refresh the soul.
Open the gates of being to joy and the spirit to endless life.
Come, O peoples, come forth from the grave,
Lift up your heads, the Creator opens his arms to you,
Do not be blind like your fathers,
The Gate of Paradise of eternal Life is the King,
Seek not elsewhere, forgive your Fathers, But do not follow their way.
But follow not their way,
The way to God is his Son.

Yes, Today I celebrated Victory:
"Let us make Man in our image and after our likeness";
For this reason my being is standing before my Creator and My Voice has in its Breast the source of my Word.
The King is my God and I am His child. He has told me: "Thou shalt NOT die",
And I feel my strength growing as in the beginning. When He begot me, he held me in his arms, and looking upon my face he gave me his new name.

Do you not see, O nations, that Death has deceived you, that Satan is his sting.
and tempting you with Freedom, he has poisoned your minds, casting you one against the other like beasts hungry for beasts hungry for human flesh, thirsting for sisterly for sister blood?

There is NO Future outside the Borders of my Father's Kingdom.

Your visions were mirages behind which Death hid its world wars.

What do you want now, to banish Man from the Earth?

There is NO man outside the being of the sons of God. The Future of the Century is the Citizenship of the Kingdom of God, those who oppose and confront the Glory of the Son of the Creator of the Cosmos will be swept away like dust from the road shaken by the storm coming down from Heaven.

Listen, put your ears to the ground, an earthquake is approaching, it has already begun to shake the hypogeums of the earth, the tremors make the legs tremble, the buildings feel their foundations vibrate. How will you prevent the volcano from rising? Have you NO memory?

God will not again shake the walls of History by waters; it will be by fire that this ancient world will be left behind, and from its ashes a new one already emerges. It is like the pain of the mother who is in labor and begets in a single day a whole generation. Her husband jumps for joy. He calls all his brothers, for she who was childless gave birth in her old age, in one birth, to a whole generation.

The King's heart is enlarged. His arms are like the dawn, it embraces all, no one is left out,

His light announces a unique truth, we are not dead, the night is past, we are alive, and we have a whole life ahead of us.

What shall we do with the rising day?

Shall we return to Cain's banquet, Satan serving the table,

Abel's blood for wine,

his flesh for meat?

For this God loved his sons, for by their lives they vowed to shatter the fratricidal table, and never again shall Creation know such delirium.

Blessed are your hearts, never let your souls allow this tragedy that has scourged Man to fall as a deluge of hell on the Future of the Kingdom of your Father and God.

Men, do not be beasts like that Science which thought it could create a new universe and by converting the nations to its fratricidal discourse dragged the nations into the field of the wars of the twentieth century.

Do you think that God does not remember his speech?

“War is the weapon of the stronger, and his duty is to use it against the weak; the survival of the weak is to live on his knees in the service of the strong”.

And so it was;

Maddened by the speech of the Science of the nineteenth century, the nations, like filthy beasts begotten in the furnaces of hell, rushed to devour each other in the fields of Gog and Magog. Horrified by their crime the wise men washed their hands of the blood of the nations by placing the Ultimate Weapon at the service of their masters.

“Neither against Cain nor against Abel, neither against Satan nor against Christ”, here is their new discourse

Tell me, sons of those dead sacrificed to the glory of the Atheism of Science, what will be the judgment of the King upon your wise men, the creators of the universe?

Will he allow those apostles of War to cross the gates of his Kingdom, importing with them the Fire of Hell, or will he command his servants to put them in chains and cast them with their god and master, Satan, into the Abyss of eternal Banishment?

Who is the madman who, opening the door to a Freedom without borders, chooses prison unto death? Hell rather than Paradise?

Between Scientific Atheism and Divine Wisdom, do you still choose to be gods in the image and likeness of Satan? Who do you think you are? Will you raise your weapons against Heaven?

Come all you dictators and tyrants, gather and assemble against the King, say :

“We will kill his son as we killed his Father”.

And you, ignorant, fed up with your own pride, did you really believe that the King was going to come down to be crucified once again?

Did you really believe that God was going to send his Beloved Son so that you would again ask for his head?

Did you not declare yourselves “divine” and swear on the blood of the Wars of Religion and the Fratricidal War of the 30 Years that in you resists the Holy Spirit to interpret the Scriptures?

Did you not read what my Father wrote?

“I will give him my New Name, and the Name of my God,

and the name of the Mount of my God,

I will put in his Hand my Iron Scepter , and I will give him the Morning Star.

I will be his Father and he shall be my son”.

Behold, I am one with the King, He is my God, his Word is in my Mouth, my hands have been blessed to do His Will and lead the Fullness of the nations into His Kingdom.

What did you expect, a golden idol covered with diamonds, with a flaming sword in his hand walking his hell on Earth? Out of clay God created Man, will you tempt God by despising his Creature?

My spirit breathes the wind of Heaven,

My heart is enlarged drinking from the fountain of eternal life,

My legs make the Way while my soul sings for joy,

I have conquered Death.

Where is your sting,

where is your poison, Satan, with which you threw me into the common grave where so many dead lie?

Here I am, by the King's glory I am alive, and as a son who serves his Father with all his being,

I shall live days that never end.

Whoever wants to know this joy, let him follow me.

A Word has my God put in my mouth: “COME”.

THE POWER OF MAN ACCORDING TO JESUS

“A NEW WORLD, A NEW LIFE, A NEW HOME”

The question that concerns us all is the denial of the scientific animal intelligence to establish itself in the bestialism of an anti-Christian atheism, whose pathological derivation implies the universal genocide of all life on Earth, as the foundation of its denial of the Existence of God and the Life of his Son.

From the spirit of the patristic wisdom it was always understood that the denial of man to believe in the God of Jesus has its origin in the effect that the Tragedy, to which all peoples were condemned as a result of the divinization of the first king, Adam, the Alulim of the Sumerian Royal List, unleashed in all the peoples of the world. Likewise it is seen that having been Adam who committed such a great Transgression, by which the whole world was placed under the crown of Satan, a fact of which he boasted before JESUS; and, therefore, having been "that father", ADAM, the cause of so much misfortune, it was of justice that his son, CHRIST, for the sake of obtaining God's Mercy offered himself as the Lamb of Atonement for the sins committed by all the peoples from the Fall until his Coming.

Once His Blood was shed, that Justice operated on Earth because “that son” obtained from God the natural Grace established in the Law “for all the people”. For we know that God created all nations to be one People, and hence He said, “let us make Man...”. Whereupon He gave for the Head of the Body of that Man, namely, the whole Human Kind, that King, ADAM, of whose Flesh Christ was born.

This Wisdom, about which the Holy Spirit would later say in the Apostles that it was compiled in JESUS, gave rise to the absurd theory that all nations were born of only one human couple, denying with its denialist fundamentalism what MOSES said: “God distributed among his sons the families of the peoples, but his lot was Adam, father of Jacob, father of David, father of Jesus”.

We can NOT blame men, neither ancient nor modern, by reason of having lived and living in a mental building without a door to Creative Wisdom, for all peoples having been banished from Divine Intimacy, and given over to Satan by the loss of the Crown that came down from Heaven, all were locked into a positive intellectual disability which prevented them, and prevents them to this day, from understanding of heavenly things, that is, “the nature of the Cosmic Conflict into which Death dragged God’s Creation”.

Intelligence being established in its animal condition, Science having become an instrument of Destruction in the service of POWER, like Pontius Pilate, washing his hands of the blood of the nations in his Master and Lord the State, the question which, walking with JESUS and seeing Him at Work, comes to our minds revolves around and has its center in the nature of Power according to men, on the one hand, and according to God, on the other.

The swarm of Works that JESUS displayed by all the populations of the Israel of the sons of Herod has never been recorded because, as the Apostle said, if they were all enumerated there would be no books in this world to describe the army of sick people of all classes who enjoyed the Health that comes from God.

Evidently marveling at the Power that God gave to his Messiah, that army proclaimed him their King, and was ready to follow him to the end of the world. The refusal of JESUS to make that Power a Weapon of War was by them lived as a Betrayal, which was represented in the Sale of Judas, from which Jerusalem obtained its corresponding payment, also represented in the suicide of the Traitor Judas, that is: the destruction of her walls, and the exile of her inhabitants to be massacred by all the peoples of the future until the day of their Conversion.

The Denial of JESUS, walking with Him, open our eyes to the Spirit of intelligence at His Image, we understand it Divine. God abhors War. The Destruction that War represents is the Denial of His Creative Power. God's Power is in His Nature. HE is the CREATOR.

The very idea of entering into contention with Creatures which HE begets from the dust of the stars is in their eyes pure insanity. Can anyone imagine that He who has the Power to Create Galaxies and Universes, in which He cultivates the Tree of Life of the Worlds, would imagine HIMSELF entering the field of battle with the dust whose existence is in His Breath, when a single Breath of His is sufficient to cause all life to disappear from the face of Time?

The very Idea of a Creation based on the Science of Good and Evil, namely, to create some people for Hell and others for Paradise, is in their Eyes satanic from A to Zeta.

To challenge God, as Satan and his rebellious generation did, to create a New Man from the bosom of darkness, that is, from conditions of principle such as those experienced by the Generation of CHRIST JESUS, was a Challenge to which only a pathological suicide seduced by the homicidal and fratricidal schizophrenia that the Challenge implies, could give life. The mere Idea of entering into a contest with his Creature causes absolute incredulity in the Creator; especially when his own Creature counts in his Existence the glory of having seen with his eyes God in Creative Action.

The Brothers of YAHWEH GOD fell on their knees when they discovered, in whom until then they saw their Familiar, the Firstborn of the gods, the LORD OF ETERNITY AND INFINITY; and did those whom he created to be his children raise their Arm to throw a glove in the face of the UNIGENITUS of the gods?

For yes, from Satan's wisdom: the Fall of Adam was necessary to Tempt the UNIGENITUS of the sons of God, but the one he was really challenging was the UNIGENITUS of the gods. For just as by the PRIMOGENITURE of JESUS his Brothers have in HIS UNIGENITURE the TRUTH of their Nature as sons of God, so the TRUTH of the gods, Brothers of YAHWEH GOD, have in their PRIMOGENITURE their Divine TRUTH. Summarizing, that Satan's Challenge, pretending to tempt the Firstborn of GOD, seeking with his Fall to confront the SON with the FATHER, obtaining from this confrontation the dissolution in God of the Holy Spirit and the Law, this satanic wisdom was absolute madness in the eyes of God, and as I said, in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST, by logic the nature of this madness had to open GOD'S eyes to Death as the true Enemy of His Creation.

All this leads us to understand that the POWER according to Satan is the Power of men Born of the Fall, whose animal condition dragged them to believe that in Destruction is the true Glory and Strength of Power. Installed in this Political Theology of Power for millennia, the effect of such behavior on the minds of our contemporaries cannot be overlooked. That Political Theology has become an Animal Instinct in dictators and tyrants of our time. Embraced to the pro-nazi Darwinist gospel under the typology of 21st century socialism and its unmasked form of Communism, this instinct has its glory in the Political Power as a Legitimate Arm born to destroy all enemies, which they themselves create in order to establish their Crimes and Genocides on Legal Ideological foundations.

All this is the absolute opposite of POWER ACCORDING JESUS.

Let us NOT forget, nor let it occur to us to close our eyes to the One before us. This JESUS is the Son to whom GOD shows all that He does, and Works in Union with Him. Being born Creator from Creator we hear Him say: "LET THERE BE LIGHT". From the point of view of a madman: An almost kindergarten work, we would say.

We saw in the CREATION OF THE UNIVERSE ACCORDING TO GENESIS that the Object on which his Word was made was the Earth. In short, a demonstration of Power worthy of a son of God, but not enough to shoot rockets and worship him as if he were a true God.

Then we move on to the FOURTH DAY, and this JESUS with whom we walk, extends his WORD to the Heavens. It is NOT a Planet that feels his POWER; it is the entire Milky Way that receives the Astrophysical Configuration that we call the TREE OF CONSTELLATIONS, without whose FLIGHT CHARTER the NAVIGATION through the star systems that compose the Heavens would be an impossible Journey.

This speaking for the Future.

As far as the PAST is concerned it is understood THAT the Expansion created on the FOURTH DAY by the Son of God determined a lowering of the incoming stellar energy in the Biosphere, causing the change that determined the Final Jump of Animal Life from a prehistoric stage to the Historical stage.

This JESUS is the One who ten unfolded His Glory over men, and towards whom, hearing of it, all ran. What has this POWER, this Glory, to do with the steel fangs and the tongue of fire of the Power of the tyrants and dictators, kings and warlords of the Earth?

Of course, had He wanted to raise his WORD against Rome, his WORD alone would have been enough to cause the World Revolution of which the History of Life on Earth had been dreaming since the days of Abraham. The Confession of the Holy Spirit in the Apostles became true: "The whole creation is still waiting for the manifestation of the Freedom of the Glory of the Son of God".

A lamentation that only in the mouth of a Saint could sound like Hope, and as such, be included in the Testament of CHRIST.

The Lesson of JESUS does not admit discussion: "The Political POWER is to serve men, healing the evils that the FALL has spread throughout the nations".

Any other definition comes from Satan and its fruit is War, whether Civil, International or World War.

The man or people who bases his Glory on his Power to Destroy his neighbor, his brother, is an unclean satanic beast; it is the Duty of all the sons of God to hunt it down, and banish it from the face of the world.

Every man who seeks Power to make a slave of the people for the sake of his Ego, according to the vision of himself: Born to live a godlike life on the blood and sweat of all the families of the nation, and even at the cost of tyranny to maintain himself in that status quo, that man renounced Humanity, he is a beast, and as a beast must be removed from Power to answer for his crimes against the happiness of the people.

Against this foul Power of the kings and tyrants of the world, JESUS displayed the nature of the True Power given to men:

TO HEAL all the evils that have afflicted our Civilization for Millennia,

TO HEAL all the wounds that cause the mind of Mankind to bleed without ceasing.

No other is the Nature of the Power given to men. From the Laws, from the Sciences, from the Governments, from the ONE UNIVERSAL CHURCH: this is the True Nature of Power, and for what men do with that Power they will all have to answer before the DIVINE KING JESUS CHRIST: LORD and Universal JUDGE as well of Earth as of Heaven.

THE JESUCHRISTIAN DILEMMA OF THE GETSEMANE

(17/02/22)

Cowardice does not exist in the animal kingdom. To be cowardly, treacherous, murderous, is something exclusive of the human beast in its position against GOD for not having left in the hands of his SONS the nature of the Law under which THEY want or wish to be governed.

The insanity in this position is not necessary to crush it.

Certainly if cowardice were an animal instinct slavery would have no natural reason, for by law slavery would be nothing other than the instinct of preservation of life. To accuse the slave of being a coward is unnatural. And it is so inasmuch as Fear is not the origin of his social status quo, but only and solely his deprivation of Humanity by the one who, declaring himself his master and lord, holding in his hand his life and death, proclaims himself “a god”.

Then we have arrived at the core of the Temptation and Betrayal that took place in Eden: Nothing more and nothing less than wanting to be “a god” in the way the master is of the slave.

As will be understood, and we have JESUS at our side affirming our thought, the repugnance that GOD feels to this conception of divinity is the fire from whose flames HE cursed the POISON BEAST into which a son of HIS had been transformed, not by PREDESTINATION but by making use of the Glory of his Freedom as a son of God.

Satanic REASON does not stand before JESUCHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCE. The Absurdity of SATAN'S Revolutionary Philosophy of Freedom is unmasked in the Declaration of YAHWEH GOD when HE says: “You are Gods” But.... “gods” in the image and likeness of HIS SON.

It is true that while nobody saw CHRIST, and each one made an image of his PERSONALITY according to his little brain, the Divine affirmation was translated, among many others, in that satanic version that the kings of Antiquity welcomed as a patrimonial treasure:

“I am a god,
I kill at pleasure and I do not fear justice for who can judge a god?”

The Abomination that GOD lives against this statement lives in us.

BECAUSE JESUS with whom we walk with lives in His Being this Fire that ignites at the very idea of the conception of Divine Freedom according to the version of those who, rebelling against the Holy Spirit of His Father, wanted to homologate that Evil Dignity on the Blood of the Human Kind, we walk with Him, at HIS side, without Fear, because that Fire lives in us.

Instead of burning us and reducing us to ashes, this Fire is that of the Burning Bush. The Soul is the Bush, the Fire is the Spirit. We are sons of God, we are complete, Creation has reached its zenith... because it has begotten a son of God “in the image and likeness” of the one who said “LET US MAKE MAN IN OUR IMAGE AND IN OUR LIKENESS”.

Where is the FEAR?

TRUTH is our Father, the star that shines in the Darkness; His Light is in us. We walk with Him. We see Him and understand Him. The Glory of His Freedom is the infinite Power of His God. He has everything in God. His Thought is our thought. We can do our own will or do the will of our God; we can make everything revolve around our SELF; or let our SELF be put at the service of all. And this is the JESUCHRISTIAN DILEMMA OF GETSEMANE; to drink that CUP, put His SELF at the feet of all, or to place His SELF above all. In His Words, “He who does not forget himself cannot take up my Cross”. Starting with Himself.

JESUS asks nothing of anyone that He has not first asked of Himself. We do not walk with Him because He is the Almighty Son of the Creator of the Cosmos, and you know, whoever meets a rich man of his wealth lives; we walk with Him because His Personality amazes us, in the CHRIST with whom we walk lives GOD, and in GOD He shows us the Father and the Son, Two Persons: “One Spirit”, and this Spirit is of a Love of Life as infinite and eternal as are Eternity and Infinity. “I AM THE LIFE”. Who does not want to live eternal life next to This GOD?

The Jesuchristian Dilemma of Gethsemane has a clear, unequivocal philosophical nature. The Victory of God over the Devil is taken for granted. JESUS walks with sure and steady step to the other side of Death.

There is Resurrection and New Beginning. GOD is going to reconfigure HIS CREATION; the Necessity leaps into view. For the Fire that lives in GOD, if fanned by the winds of DEATH, if it continued to blow upon his Creation, would eventually reduce to dust the life of the Tree of the Worlds. GOD could not remain with bound arms, hand and foot to the Wall of Love for his sons. That way the End would come. His Son JESUS is seeing it.

Here enters the Gethsemane Dilemma: To whom does this reconfiguration of CREATION correspond, by which Universal Salvation will come to us? To Him, JESUS, or to YAHWEH His Father?

Man, it is true, here we play with an advantage. We see JESUS drinking the CUP to the Health of the Wisdom of His GOD... And even when that Wine will become bitter in His bowels, He takes the CUP. He lays his SELF at the feet of His FATHER.

It is the Divine Lesson that comes down from Heaven, it becomes “flesh and blood” for all of us to learn it, and not as those who read a book and when the time passes they forget the letter, but as those in whom “that flesh and blood” becomes their own.

Inasmuch as the Letter kills, but the Spirit gives Life; God with the Letter kills us, and with his Spirit, like birds that are reborn from their ashes, raises us up and makes us : Citizens of HIS Kingdom, subjects of Right and Duty.

As sons of God we all enjoy everything freely because everything belongs to Our Father, but as Citizens of HIS Kingdom each and every one of us lives by the Light of the LAW of the KING. The LAW of the King has in the Law of GOD, HIS FATHER, the ROCK upon which His THRONE has been founded:

“EAT NOT; for in the Day that do thou SHALL DIE”;

Speaking clearly : “DO NOT WAR, for thou shalt be destroyed”.

The discourse of JESUS does not admit vain interpretations: GOD is LOVE; but He is also LAW, and the LAW says that whoever raises himself in WAR against his brother, against his People, against his Neighbor: He will be banished from Life.

Satan thought he could circumvent the Law, he thought he was INVINCIBLE. And rising, in front of the whole CREATION against the Crown of the First Man, on his Blood he proclaimed his Invincibility over all the nations of the Universe.

His End will be remembered for Eternity so that no one will forget that the LAW IS GOD. And in order that this Memory may live for Eternity, God gave this Memory a BODY, the HOLY SPIRIT made Man: CHRIST, whose Head is JESUS.

This means that as JESUS looked to the day after His Victory, we must likewise look to the 22nd Century as if the present Century were the road that leads directly to the other side of its borders.

Our Work is to shape the Building of Civilization in which the generations of the coming centuries are to live, leaving in their hands what is theirs to strive for. God lives in us, and God will live in them.

Like JESUS, our Master, we have to forget our SELF and direct our eyes to the other side of the frontiers of our Century; the Confidence that our Victory comes from the Invincibility that is proper to the one who enjoys the Glory of the Freedom of GOD.

Had GOD not introduced us to his Beloved Son and the Son not introduced us to his FATHER, our Confidence in VICTORY would be reduced to an illusion; but against the weakness of our position in the world he declares us Conquerors before we are even born, because GOD is in Him, and HE IS WITH US.

Having it all in HIM, as HE has it in his FATHER, we have only to do what is natural to us by the Spirit of Intelligence we have inherited: CREATE to Civilization the World that has traveled through the Millennia to meet us, a Generation of sons of God born to conquer the gates of their enemies, about which, seeing us in the Spirit, St. Paul wrote: “The whole Creation awaits the Day of the Manifestation of the Glory of the Liberty of the sons of God”.

So it is: we have been begotten to overcome.

The FEAR of TRUTH is FEAR of GOD. Justified in those who do not know JESUS, without justification of any kind in those who, knowing His Existence, refuse to BELIEVE that God lives in Him.

In the Hour of Biohistorical Praxis by our Spirit of Intelligence -- divine inheritance of our generation--, our geopolitical thought is governed by the Law of the King, which establishes UNIVERSAL PEACE on two Immovable Pillars:

The Right to PEACE and the Duty of the Defense of LIFE to the enjoyment of this DIVINE RIGHT by the Plenitude of Nations of the Kingdom of the SON of GOD.

PEACE has been founded by GOD upon the INDIVISIBLE UNITY of all the Armies of the Fullness of the Nations of His KINGDOM in a Single Universal DEFENSE BODY, whose HEAD is the KING, HIS SON JESUS CHRIST. Any division in this BODY, placing a part of its Members AT THE SERVICE to an individual, people or nation, IT is a declaration of War against the KING'S CROWN; God's Sentence against the Rebel is DEATH.

God's Victory over this Century signed upon the Incarnation and Resurrection of His Son opens our eyes to the ORGANIZATION OF THE FULLNESS OF THE NATIONS that will govern the UNITY of PEACE in the 22nd Century, from whose Political and Military History War will be banished from the face of the Human Race forever and ever.

Evidently from the Wedding of Canaan to the Garden of Gethsemane JESUS must make his Way step by step. As in Heaven so on Earth, as the Master so His Disciples.

There is NO Victory without Battle. Nor Battle without War. War was declared to us on the day when, deceived by an Imposter, posing as a Minister of God, Death spread his chains over all the inhabitants of the Earth. This is the Day of the Glory of the freedom of the sons of God, this is the Hour to put an End to that War.

Nothing is easy in a war of this nature, nor is a walk to victory against which dictators, tyrants, theocrats and egomaniacs rise like mountains to bar our way, and threaten us with ABSOLUTE NUCLEAR WAR if we do not get down on our knees and worship them. Our Answer is our eternal King's Word: VADE RETRO SATAN.

Whatever letter is added or subtracted from this Word comes from DEATH, and with DEATH will go to HELL.

SONG OF YOUTH

INVOCATION TO THE SON OF GOD

(18/19/ 02)

Glorify Yourself in your Creation, you are my God, look not that I come from the clay. Who can stand at your Height, stop your Arm, close your Mouth? See not that I am like the rock of the mountains; without gold or value to be prized and left to the weathering of time until the winds and the rains reduce it to dust. You are God, Yours is the Power and the Glory, You can make of the simple stone, formless and without beauty, a Work worthy of Your Power, before the contemplation of which all shall admire and give themselves to the praise of Him who made such a Work. What is for Your Impossible?

Lift up the head of Your Creature to heaven, let the clouds part before his eyes, let his feet be seated on the two sides of the Ocean and his Voice be heard in the four regions of the world, and seeing Your Work, let the nations say, who is this that has been lifted up to Heaven from the Clay?

You are my God, make a Wonder, that seeing it, all may believe that it is You who holds in His Hands the Life of the World. Do not take into account that I am only clay with no more value than what Your Breath wants to imprint on it. Remember Your Creation, do not let Your Creature sink in the waters and its light be extinguished by the darkness. Yours is the Power, Yours is the Glory, for this I invoke You, because I know that as Your Father loved the World, You love it, and You wilt not allow the Man to whom You hast given life with Your Breath to be like dust that the wind drags to the Abyss.

WALKING WITH THE KING

The Crown of the World belongs to God, and He has seated His Son on the Throne of Universal King. The Conclusion of the Gospel admits no doubt about this Fact. Colloquially speaking we can say that it would have been ridiculous that having been given the choice between the Crown of Israel or the Crown of this Universe JESUS would have chosen, for Fear of Death, to be nothing rather than to be everything. His choice was signed, and ready to be sealed, in the answer He gave Satan about all the kingdoms this World at his feet if on His knees He would worship him.

And yet, even when the Kingdom of God was founded, and its Beginning announced here on Earth, the Servants of CHRIST continued to speak of their LORD as if this Revolution from Empire to Universal Kingdom had not been consummated, hence even today when speaking of JESUS CHRIST the title of King of kings and Lord of lords is still used, as if nothing had happened.

The SILENCE OF GOD since the Fall remained in Christianity. Colloquially speaking we would say that the Homicide committed against his YOUNGER son, Adam, was suffered by GOD as a mortal SPEAR hitting straight into HIS HEART, in response to whose Betrayal HE closed HIS Mind even to HIS Beloved Son. Knowing this, St. Paul did not lie when he wrote that they spoke among Them a hidden Wisdom, known to the Apostles, preached privately to the First Christians, but forbidden to all others; when they left, it remained unknown again, with Their departure, by Divine disposition, to all, Jews, Christians and Gentiles.

Thus, the Door of that Silence already opened, it is good to say that A Kingdom belongs to Him who is its King. So that GOD having founded a Kingdom it is understood, on one hand, that it must bear his Name: KINGDOM OF GOD. And, on the other hand, that being GOD'S', on that Throne can only sit "Someone" who is True God, and only on the Head of that "Someone" can God place the Crown of His Kingdom.

It is also understood that by founding HIS KINGDOM no other kingdom can exist beside HIS. The very Foundation of HIS KINGDOM implies the Abolition of the Empire as a political mega-structure in which other Kingdoms do fit as integral parts of its Historical Building.

The Abolition of the Imperial Structure touches in Heaven as on Earth. JESUS enters on Earth as King of kings and Lord of Lords of Heaven, and returns to Heaven as Universal, Sempiternal King before whose Crown the whole House of God bends its knees saying: "Thine is the Glory, Thine is the Power". Universal Proclamation with which God gives His Answer for Eternity to the Question of the Divine Truthfulness of His Son JESUS.

Answer that is received from Heaven and proclaims his Church in the Council of Nicaea. In terms of logic it is understood that being the Kingdom "of GOD", the one who sits on that Throne is TRUE GOD.

There is then nothing to add or take away from this ANSWER. But then one may wonder why the Church continued to title her Lord as King of kings and Lord of lords when that Title was abolished at the very moment that GOD founded His Kingdom. Even today the churches of all branches of the Tree of CHRIST continue to speak of JESUS as that King of kings and Lord of lords. It is NOT a question here of making an accusation against anyone, but of bringing to light the nature of the Testament of CHRIST JESUS, for if to his Brethren in Abraham he bequeathed the Holy Spirit, and to his Church the Spirit of Faith, to his Descendants he bequeathed the Spirit of Intelligence. The Word of JESUS is clear as water:

“IF speaking to you of earthly things you do not understand how would you understand if I were to speak to you of heavenly things”.

And who better than the Son of God who with His Almighty Word created LIGHT could speak to us of those things?

It was in wanting to “speak” of those “heavenly things” that the “Child” went to the Temple.

As it is written in THE DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST, BOOK ONE; THE HEART OF MARY; HIS FATHER sealed His lips, and those of His Apostles, subjecting His Words only and exclusively to the Gospel of His SON. Hence Sam Peter said :

“THE FAITH... THAT CORRUPTS”.

The events of the History of Christianity leave us no room for Doubt: To the Bride he bequeathed him as LORD, but for his Descendants he made a Testament as KING.

So as soon as the Apostles left, Ignorance again took possession of the world, and with Ignorance came Corruption.

But God’s Answer remains: All Kingdoms have been abolished, as Yesterday in Heaven, TODAY they will be abolished on Earth.

Not in vain have the empires that have breathed their breath upon the face of the Earth, as well as the others who in their Ignorance aspire in our days to resurrect lost empires, all have passed into the books of History, just as into the pages of the Book of our Memory passed the Christian Empires.

Thus, the JESUS with whom we walk is directed to the THRONE OF GOD as the Eternal Inheritance. He is the Heir of GOD. GOD NOT being able to die the Inheritance of his SON is received in Life in the Fullness of his Divine Nature. It is GOD-SON who sits on the Throne of the KINGDOM OF GOD, and He does so as Almighty KING, subject to the Wisdom of His FATHER, before whom He bent His knees in Gethsemane, so that once His Offspring is Born in the Spirit of intelligence, He may unfold His Crown over all the nations of the Earth, abolish all crowns and call all peoples to the Citizenship of His KINGDOM.

The Ignorance that prevented all, Jews as well as Gentiles, from seeing the True Identity of the one who by His Works showed Himself superior to the Prophets, that Ignorance lived also in the Disciples before they were born again as the Apostles, Ignorance that remained in the churches until the times described in the Book of GOD were fulfilled, during which FAITH would be the Force that would keep their gates against Hell standing.

We are NOT walking on a battlefield in the service of a KING whose Identity and Nature we do not know.

And of the heavenly things which JESUS and his Apostles could not speak in Public in Obedience to the Silence of GOD, already being made known in THE DIVINE STORY OF JESUS CHRIST, you know now that the Expectation of Creation is ended, that the WIFE has given Descent to her LORD, and that the KING stands in the Fullness of the Glory of his Freedom to do the WILL of his FATHER and to Banish Satan from the Earth.

Now it will be the events that will speak.

For the rest you can see with your eyes what is happening, Death is deploying its Force against Life, Satan is like crazy looking for a Nuclear War. But when God in his Son proclaimed to be THE LIFE, THEY clothed us with his Strength.

The Past is behind us, TODAY the Future begins.

CHAPTER TWO
THE WAR OF THE SON OF SATAN

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

THE LAW OF PEACE AND WAR

23/02/22

Let us put ourselves in the shoes of St. Peter, head voice of the Disciples. But before setting out on this new journey let us make it clear that the Apostles arise by being born again of the Spirit. They were born first by Water, that is, believing that JESUS is the SON OF YAHWEH GOD. Which discovers to us that “he that believeth is saved”, according to His Word:

“He that believeth on ME is not judged: he that believeth not on ME is judged already, because he believed not in the name of the only begotten Son of God”.

The disciples believed in Him. The confession of St. Peter by the faith that comes from the Water is written :

“YOU ARE THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD”.

And yet this Faith alone was not enough to stop the Flight of the Disciples when the HOUR OF TRUTH came. That is to say, Satan and Death still had Power over them.

The Disciples had been born of the Water of Faith that proclaims YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD, and upon Them, just as anyone who believes that “by Water alone” comes the Spirit, that is, that “this REASON alone” makes SONS of God, as if Water were a Neo-Pagan Idol and by some Magical Power transforming men “into gods”; so also upon the Disciples weighed the Word of Him whom we call Master:

“I say to you, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven”.

This Birth to God by the SPIRIT is subsequent to the Water.

For by the REASON ALONE that recognizes in JESUS the Son of YAHWEH GOD, the believer adheres to the Word:

“He who believes in Me is not judged”, but this Faith, which leads to Water, and by the Water the Believer becomes the creditor of the One who spoke, this Reason Alone does not engenders in man a son to God.

This “Being born again by the Spirit” is realized in the Disciples at Pentecost.

Which leads us to conclude that one is born by Water to the Salvation of the one who will not be judged on the Day of Judgment, and will enter the Paradise of Creation by his Faith in the Word of GOD in the mouth of HIS SON:

“He who believes in ME is not judged”, but “being born again by the Spirit” is a Divine Work subsequent to this Baptism which confirms Faith and opens the Door of Eternal Life; Faith which, however, does not deprive man of sin and the weakness of the flesh, for by Water the flesh remains flesh, as seen in the FLIGHT OF THE DISCIPLES, experience of and by which St. Peter later wrote speaking about Salvation which makes Citizens of the Kingdom of God:

“Faith, hoary as gold, which corrupts”.

because they are still flesh and, consequently, man, although Christian, is still subject to the Power of Death and its accursed prince, Satan.

While by the Water the Disciples were born for themselves, by the Spirit that came from Heaven the Apostles were born for God. That is, they no longer belong to themselves. GOD is their LORD, GOD is from then on the one who writes their lives and directs their steps to an End Predetermined by His Wisdom for the good of the Salvation of the whole Creation.

For by Water, the Believer remains free to direct his life, always bearing in mind that the Law of Christian Freedom is the Moral Rule of his Conduct on Earth; here begins his Path in Eternity.

The Believer who is born of Water belongs to himself and is only subject to the Rights and Duties of one who is a Citizen of a Kingdom, in this case the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD. And I say KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD because GOD made his SON enter into his INHERITANCE, and inheriting the KINGDOM, YAHWEH GOD glorified Him before the whole Creation manifesting the ETERNAL TRUTH OF HIS UNIGENITURE. For YAHWEH GOD his Son JESUS is “YOU-GOD”, His Beloved Son.

Having said that, thus untied the Gordian knot that the Reformation and its disciples implanted, annulling the Birth of the Spirit, thus preventing “his disciples” from acceding to the Divine Filiation, and being content with the Citizenship, keeping them slaves of Death and under the Power of Satan, just as the Disciples were until Pentecost, I return to the side of that SON, HEIR OF THE CROWN OF GOD, whose CROWN awaited Him on the other side of His PASSION and CRUCIFIXION.

Insisting on what I said before, the MASTER did not ask anything of His DISCIPLES that He had not asked of Himself. Being born again to CHRIST, JESUS ceased to belong to Himself; from the moment CHRIST was begotten in JESUS, CHRIST became the Pen with which GOD wrote His HISTORY.

For he who is born of the SPIRIT is engendered by GOD to give LIFE to a HISTORY of which he is the star of Divine Action. From the Beginning his End is already written, and there is nothing and no one, not even he himself, to add or subtract a word to the History of his existence.

Hence, if the Christians, as a Citizen of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD, enjoy the Freedom to write his own life in the bosom of Faith; the sons of God are slaves of the Beginning and of the End for which they are engendered.

“By the Water we live, by the Spirit we are born to the House of CHRIST”.

Humanly speaking, it is logical that the Reformation would keep the Water and anathematize the Spirit. This means that:

“the Son doing nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father do”, it is understood that what is true for one son of God is true for another, whether he be a son of GOD from the House of Abraham or a son of God from the House of CHRIST, since the MASTER of the SON is the FATHER, from which the conclusion to be drawn is the same.

This little prologue consummated, we approach JESUS in the skin of St. Peter, as I said at the beginning, a St. Peter who with his ears has heard how “the son of a courtier” has received the lost health by the Word of JESUS alone. A St. Peter who with his eyes saw “a man get up from the stretcher who had been lying by the pool of the Temple for 30 years in despair”. It was a Sabbath day, and the ancient divines wanted to argue with the Son of the Creator of our Heavens and our Earth. But I will NOT stick my finger in old wounds.

Here the crucial and transcendent thing, once seated next to this Almighty SON, seeing first hand his unlimited Power, the crucial thing is to transfer to him the Great Question that hangs over Humanity since Christianity was born:

Why does GOD, Your Father, allow this Tragedy that preys on the children of Earth to continue, when with a single Word from You, horror would abandon the souls of His creatures and happiness would reign where now the terror of Death rules almighty?

What is happening?

How long will GOD allow the world to continue to suffer this hell under the reign of the law of Satan and Death? What must we do so that His Heart may be moved, and the Omnipotent Creator of the Cosmos may take up His garments of War and shout VICTORY, filling His Enemy with terror and banishing the Rebel from His Creation?

How long will Man have yet to be a Show to His Creation? Do not our tears reach His feet? Has not the river of blood that covers the surface of the lands yet reached His eyes? What must Man do to conquer His Heart, and as a father rising against the enemy of his son, to life or death, run to our salvation? ! WHEN and the Lord of Infinity and Eternity WILL rise for us?....

The anguish that runs through the being of the centuries we lay at the feet of Him who is the KING of the UNIVERSE, our KING.

What is Power?

The KING answers:

What are you seeing with your eyes and hearing with your ears, Peter?

What would you do, Peter, if you had the Power of God in your VOICE? Would you dress yourself for war, would you call the armies to your war, would you throw yourself against your neighbors with fire and iron until you subdue the nations of the world to your glory? Would you be their god for a day?

You cannot, Peter, kill and give life at the same time. Would you use MY POWER to give life, or to kill your enemies? What power has been given to the Son of Man? Power to rise up against the Caesar, or Power to convert the Caesar? Is the Caesar more blind than you? Is Caesar more guilty than you? What is POWER, Peter?

The question reverts to us, and flies over the whole House of God's sons.

POWER that raises armies for the glory of the god of the day to "make his war", is the POWER in the image of the throne that Satan claimed for himself and for all the sons of God. Let's remember those claims :

To be beyond the Law;

to be his acts and deeds beyond Justice;

not having to answer for the Government of their Peoples neither before God nor before the King.

Divine immunity for their actions, nationally and globally; freedom to, as gods, declare War on neighboring peoples and invade sister nations without answering to the Court of the KING.

This is the Freedom that led a rebellious generation of God's sons to declare War on the very Creator of the Cosmos.

Is that the Power given by God to his sons, Peter?

If MY Power were in your hands, what would you do, Peter, lift the man off the stretcher or raise your people on war? Is Caesar the true enemy of Man? Was it Caesar who raised the jawbone of an ass against Abel? Was Caesar the Serpent who came down from Heaven and crawled into Eden?

Do you not know, Peter, the LAW of YAHWEH GOD, whose LIVING SON you claim to be?

Over and against every People who rise up in war against another People of God's Creation, the LAW is ETERNAL:

"DO NOT eat, for you shall die".

Do you not believe that the WORD OF GOD is LAW for his CREATION? When has the Creator been disinherited from his Creature? Do you believe that for the love of the FATHER the CREATOR must abolish the LAW? Do you not see that GOD lives in the FATHER and in the CREATOR?

What, Peter, is the Nature of the Power given by GOD to his sons, will it be to serve him by lifting man from the dust, or by putting his people on a war footing?

The POWER given to CHRIST, Peter, has been given to heal the wounds of body and soul, to defend Peace in all the peoples of GOD'S Creation, to rise up and stand before Cain preventing Fratricide. Do you expect ME to make a sword of MY WORD, lift it up against Caesar, and refuse his Conversion?

"Put away the sword Peter, for he who kills with the sword dies with the sword", this is Eternal Law, and does not distinguish between citizens and sons of the KING. Whoever eats of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, War_i, shall die.

GOD has spoken and does not take away or add a letter to his WORD.

This is the LAW OF GOD ON PEACE AND WAR in force in the KINGDOM OF HIS SON:

“The RIGHT TO PEACE is Sacred.

“The Duty of the Armies of HIS KINGDOM to stand up in Defense of the PEACE of Nations, this Duty is Divine.

“The Generals of the Armies of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD, as well as the field soldiers of His Armies, in Heaven as on Earth, are subject to this DUTY, and this DUTY obliges them to Deploy the Fullness of their Military Power in the Service of PEACE all throughout the Fullness of Nations.

The Generals who do not stand up to Defend PEACE in the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD will be tried for Rebellion, and exposed to the Crime of High Treason against GOD.

If the political organs of a Nation of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD obstruct the Path to the Fulfillment of this DUTY, the Generals of the MAJOR STATE of that Nation are within their RIGHT to remove that Government from POWER and turn over the Administration of the Political State to whom it may concern.

The LAW OF PEACE IS ETERNAL, whoever breaks it is a disciple of SATAN.

If a Nation wants to be destroyed to the health of the glory of a dog, let Destruction be upon that people. For the WORD OF THE CREATOR OF THE UNIVERSE remains for Eternity:

“I will NOT have Mercy on whom have not Mercy”.

The GENERALS of the Nation, by the will of its political head, at War against a sister Nation, this NATION being subject to the CITIZENSHIP of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD: those GENERALS have the Duty to rise up and overthrow that political head, withdraw from the field of war and deliver those political organs to the COURTS to answer for the bloodshed.

THE FIELD SOLDIERS of a Nation against the Law of the KING led to War against a sister Nation, have the DUTY to rise up against the Generals in Rebellion against the LAW of GOD ON PEACE AND WAR; failing to do so they will be destroyed as one: GENERALS, Soldiers and political organs.

The PEOPLES of the Nation driven to WAR have the DUTY to rise against their Government, to overthrow it, to seize POLITICAL POWER and to order the immediate WITHDRAWAL of the armies of the Nation. THE GENERALS who declare themselves in rebellion against the NEW GOVERNMENT will be judged according to the bloodshed.

THE LAW OF THE KING is the ROOT OF LIFE of the FULLNESS of the nations of HIS KINGDOM.

This Peace is a Duty of all Peoples TO all other Nations.

This Peace is above the concepts of nationality and regions.

IN GOD all PEOPLES are BROTHERS, hence this LAW of the DUTY of the ARMIES, PEOPLES and GOVERNMENTS so that the Tragedy that the MAN of EARTH has lived in his flesh, and suffered in his SOULS his children of Heaven, may never again be repeated.

Thus has the SON OF GOD says:

“THERE WILL BE NO WORLD WAR, but he who challenges GOD, shall die”.

He who thinks he is invincible, step forward.

THE SON OF SATAN HAS SPOKEN

24/02/2022

It has not taken Satan long to move a pawn. His hours on Earth are numbered. God has spoken, His Son has arisen, He has a Decree to execute: to hunt Satan and to throw him into the Abyss; to free the Earth from his presence, and to extract from Mankind the poison of his Hatred.

The son of the Serpent has allied with the son of the Dragon. Masks off, they said, the Power of Death is with us, whoever challenges us will be swept away. By the Power of our atomic muscles we can take what we want, when we want and as far as we want, either we are given what we want, or we wipe out the Life of Mankind.

What was said in the darkness, the son of Satan has said in the light of day: The Power is mine, the Might is mine, the Glory of the World belongs to me, and woe to those who defy me, they will be swept away with fire which I will bring down from heaven upon their heads.

No masks, the son of Satan was born to do the will of his father, to take back the throne that JESUS CHRIST took from him. This is what the Serpent has sown in his soul.

Is that son unaware that Satan is sentenced to eternal Death in the depths of the Abyss covered by Darkness; that his only intention is to destroy the life of Man on Earth?

Terrible is the labyrinth in which the son of Satan has lost himself. If he does the will of his Evil father he loses his life, and if he does not do it his father, Satan, takes it away. The question is, are the people of Satan's son willing to sacrifice their lives to Hell for a dog?

Everyone is a child of the spirit that conceives him. Satan challenged the same God and Lord of Infinity and Eternity, YAHWEH GOD, Creator of the Cosmos, with destroying the Human Race and opening the Door of Creation to Death if he was not given what, according to him, as a son of God belonged to him, to sit on the Throne of God, in the Image and Likeness of the Throne on which His Firstborn sits. Demonstrating that he did not speak in vain, in his madness he went into action.

This is the spirit of Satan, this is the spirit of the one who has this day threatened Mankind with Total Nuclear Destruction should anyone attempt to stop his passage to the Crown of the World.

The son is a dog at the feet of his father, Satan, howling over his own grave. Blinded by the ambition that his father has planted in his brain, the son of Satan believes that the KING will get out of his way and give him what belongs to his father: the crown that JESUS took from him in the Garden of Gethsemane. He trusts the word of the son of the Dragon ignoring that the word of the Chinese is worth as much as that of the Russian.

How beautiful is the naked man, what nation on Earth is as beautiful as you, Ukraine! In the name of World Peace, you have threw away your nuclear earrings, your jewels were warheads with eagles' wings, strong as hurricanes coming down from the sky sweeping away populations and devastating entire regions; your atomic gold bracelets could make the scales fall one way or the other! For the love of Peace you have shed your earrings, your chokers and your bracelets, you have remained naked before God, for this the KING loves you more than any other nation!

What did you do Moscow? You dressed up as a bitch from hell, like a snake stalking its victim sleeping in the arms of a promise, waited for sleep to fall upon her eyes, and jumped up to devour her in the middle of the night.

How will GOD judge you, Moscow? Without mercy of a holy people you have given yourself to the son of Satan, you digested to the health of the son of Satan the flesh of Crimea. Don't you know that like father like son? Do you think that the hunger and thirst of this dog will be quenched by Ukraine? He wants the Baltic States, he wants Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Poland and Germany. Will you join his adventure?

They have deceived you Moscow, they have whispered in your ear that the son of the KING is a coward, that the peoples of the KING on both shores of the Continent will give you the throne of the kings of Europe in exchange for their life. With the Honor from which you detached yourself in the 2014t, you lost your head Moscow. You have let yourself be led into the labyrinth of Satan's son: to die yes or yes. If you kill iron to iron you will die, and if you do not kill, your idol will kill you anyway. Satan does not spare his servants. Satan has no servants; he moves his pawns and, like Kronos, immediately devours his children. If you do not rise up and destroy your idol, you will be destroyed along with your idol.

God does not lie; thus the King has told his son "There will be NO World War". Tell us Moscow, how do you want to die? Ask the prophet of your idol how you will die, because Satan does not forgive the one who does not serve him the table of abundant meat and does not fill his cup with abundant blood. He will devour your flesh and drink your blood, is that what you want?

Go and run to the pride of your eyes, the Cathedral of St. Basil, hire your All Holy Patriarch to make in your name a pact with the Devil and spare your life for having failed him and not having been able to enthrone his son on the throne of Europe.

The clock is ticking. This is why Satan has removed his son's mask and opened his mouth to challenge the nations of the Kingdom of the Son of God on Earth.

Poor you, Russia, do you not know that you are walking to the cemetery of empires, you have invoked Satan, Satan has given you his son, and you have believed that Satan seeks your glory. While you seek to resurrect your glory, the enemy of God and Man seeks no other end than the absolute destruction of Mankind. Are you willing, Russia, to sacrifice your life for that of a dog? On your answer depends the life of your people; but your existence has already been judged by the KING: He will raise his Arm and his Rod will fall upon your Map as iron upon a potter's vessel.

Woe to the cowards who hide behind black skins and old women's skirts. Their responses to the Honor they betrayed and the Word they have violated, stripping a daughter of God to give her to the beast, weighs on their heads.

Is this the army of the KING of Heaven on Earth? Are there no men left in America? In the Islands they died with the Empire. They kneel to Satan's son; take what you will but respect our life, is today the Voice of England. How has the Nation that was in the Hand of God an Omnipotent sword fallen into the hands of a man without honor! What a shame! I look to the West, and see rats fleeing from Death. If to the North hens defending their golden eggs at the price of a holy nation. Where are the men whom God created in His image and likeness? For this reason the prince of darkness has said to his son: Whoever kneels before you, let him live.

This is the day of the Final Battle towards which Creation has been walking, for the Freedom of Man and for the joy of all Humanity. GOD moves the KING and the KING moves his sons. Who will take the VICTORY away from GOD?

WAR ON WORLD PEACE

25/02/2022

As we walk with JESUS along the Path marked out for us by God in His GOSPEL, we cannot take away from our intelligence the consciousness of the Nature of the Events experienced by the Human Race from the Fall of its First King to the Birth of the DIVINE KING, JESUS CHRIST. The statements on the principles of Consciousness I will expound as follows.

First, the GOSPEL is not of Matthew, Mark, Luke or John. The Gospel has only one Author, this Author is YAHWEH GOD, Lord of Moses, Friend of Abraham and Father of CHRIST.

I mean by this that having the GOSPEL not in Matthew, in Mark, in Luke or in John, but in YAHWEH GOD its TRUE AUTHOR, the New Testament remained CLOSED with the Omniscient Seal under which the Old Testament remained until its HEIR was born.

The Holy Spirit who came down from God said it clearly in the Apostles: "Where there is a Testament there must be a Testator". That is, God saying: "The Son can do NOT but what He sees the Father do", just as His FATHER sealed the Testament of Abraham until His Universal Heir, CHRIST, was born, so that those who read its Contents should have shut their mouths; so likewise the Apostles, knowing the Contents of CHRIST'S TESTAMENT had to submit to the Law which obliged them to shut their mouths and confine themselves to the work they were entrusted with in CHRIST, in whom becoming Brothers, being born again to GOD by the Spirit, the Water being a Promise of eternal life, by the Spirit they became HEIRS of ABRAHAM'S TESTAMENT.

GOD, Author of the NEW TESTAMENT, being John, Matthew, Luke, Mark, Peter, James, Jude, the Pen with which He wrote it, sealed the TESTAMENT of CHRIST, as He sealed that of ABRAHAM, until His Offspring was born in the Spirit, Seal which subjected His Brothers in YAHWEH GOD to the Law of Silence to which before Them the Holy Spirit was subject in the Prophets. The OLD was written for a Universal Heir, the NEW was likewise written for the Descendants of the TESTATOR, its Universal Content remaining sealed until the Son of CHRIST was born.

We see, therefore, that by the Water one is born to the Promise of Eternal Life, whereby he who believes is accepted into the Citizenship of the Kingdom of the Son of God, making the LAW OF CHRIST his Law of Life.

Born to this Law, the DISCIPLES, as Believers, could not, under any circumstances, penetrate the Mind of their MASTER. Their flight before Satan and DEATH opens their eyes to this TRUTH: By Water one is born to the Citizenship of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD, but only the SPIRIT that comes from the SON begets sons to GOD.

This First Principle stated, that Water is the universal manifestation of Peter in the Believer: YOU ARE THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD, with this Declaration becoming, by his own will and by reason of his own freedom of conscience: Citizen of his KINGDOM, by this Citizenship the WATER makes the one who receives the Baptism worthy of the Promise of the one who is for Eternity his KING : "Whoever believes in ME will enter the Paradise of MY FATHER without being judged". This is the Promise that by manipulating his spirit was launched by SATAN against the WIFE from whom a son would be born to his LORD, begotten in his Image and Likeness according to what is written by GOD in the TESTAMENT OF CHRIST.

That is, born by WATER to the Faith: "JESUS is the SON OF THE LIVING GOD", the Disciples were still blind to the true knowledge of the forces of the absolute war between GOD and DEATH. Ignorance that would remain in Christians until the Opening of the Testament of Christ by his Heir; Ignorance that DEATH and its prince used as a door to the house of the Servants of the Church, planting in them the Corruption described in THE STORY OF THE DEVIL AND THE NIGHT OF THE BISHOPS, an event of the Church Divisions prophesied by God and his Son in the Parable of the EVIL HEIR.

The Ignorance of the DISCIPLES as Believers remained in THEM waiting for the fulfillment of CHRIST'S WORD: "IF I do not go away I will not send you the Holy Spirit". Once they received "from the SON the HOLY SPIRIT", born into the INTIMACY OF GOD their eyes were opened and they saw the Nature of the Forces that on Earth came to wage GOD and DEATH, War in force since before the Creation of our World. The Lesson of Faith in the Disciples unveils a perfect reality: To see GOD in CHRIST and not to see in DEATH Satan is to live one-eyed. To see neither one nor the other is to live blind.

As Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God, we must open our eyes to this Dimension that pretended to put GOD, defying DEATH to HIS CREATOR, on his knees before Satan, his prince, or GOD would be bound to the consequences that would derive for his WORLD from the Destruction of the Human Race.

Being the Word and God a single REALITY the failure of the Formation of the Human Gender to the Image and Likeness of the sons of God, would imply the fallacy of that Indestructible UNITY between the WORD and GOD. The final cosmological consequence of this Victory of DEATH over GOD would be the Banishment in the CREATOR of the HOLY SPIRIT; that is, of his Infinite Eternal Love for Truth, Justice and Peace.

Opened the Universal Testament of Christ by his Heir all Citizens of the KINGDOM OF THE SON OF GOD must open their eyes and see those Forces, presently celebrating the Final Battle of that War opened before the Creation of the Heavens, imported from Heaven to Earth by the prince of DEATH, Satan, whose sole and absolute objective is the Destruction of the Human Race.

Anyone who believes that the Open War on February 24, 2022 in Ukraine has any other objective, is a suicide who, like Satan, his Master and Lord, is ready for World Genocide in compensation for his destruction; he will die, but he will take the entire Humanity with him.

We see in the GOSPEL OF GOD that this blindness was not exclusive to the Disciples. By the WATER the Disciples' eyes were opened to the Nature of the SON OF GOD; but the Water did not open their eyes to the TRUE ENEMY OF GOD, nor by the Water did the Spirit come to them. Water makes Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God, only the SPIRIT that comes from the SON and the FATHER begets in MAN sons of God.

Christianity inherited that Ignorance from the Disciples. TODAY we have our eyes open and we see the True Enemy of Man, and we know what his objective is.

The method of conduct of the SERPENT follows a pattern. We see him crawling in Eden waiting for the moment to inject his Poison. We see him again rapturing in the early centuries of the Second Millennium, working the field in which he would sow his Tares of the Division of the churches, from which he hoped to obtain the destruction of the Mother from whose Bosom the Lord would conceive to GOD offspring in His Image and Likeness.

The prince of Death waited for the Night to fall; the Bishops, asleep in the Indestructibility of the Church, promised by God, closed their eyes to the true author of the events that the Christian World had been suffering since the beginning of the Second Millennium. Total War between the servants of Satan, calling for the destruction of the Catholic Church, and moving all the kings of the North to all-out Fratricidal War, was declared. Neither the one nor the other understood that the Final Objective of the WAR OF RELIGION of the XVI and XVII centuries had for objective the destruction of the Descendants of the Sons of God, of the House of CHRIST JESUS OF YAHWEH AND ZION, when this Descendant was still in the Bosom of his WIFE. The Victory of the Catholic Church in that First Battle was armored in the Promise of His Indestructibility before the gates of Hell, under whose Prince the Reformers of the XVI and XVII served, under whose crown their heirs still live.

This is the JESUS with whom the Disciples walked; a JESUS who having all in HIS FATHER had before His eyes the FUTURE of the HOUSE He was to raise from His days to ours. Knowing the Deliverance of the DEVIL, written in the Sowing of the Evil One, the Final Battle that would take place between his Offspring and the offspring of Satan among men, on whose son Satan would rest his spirit of absolute destruction of the Human Race if the world did not get on its knees at his feet; this Final Battle between the house of Satan and the House of CHRIST, HIS HOUSE, was always present in the Mind of JESUS.

This is the Final Battle which has opened, and which has only one Victor, the UNIVERSAL DIVINE KING; against whose LAW the son of Satan has declared Open War, breaking, as his father did in Heaven, the borders of a sister nation with no other justification than his own glory and his ambition to be the king of the world: to remove and put dictators, to order and execute genocides.

Satan has given Power to his son with only one ultimate mission: TOTAL UNIVERSAL NUCLEAR WAR. DEATH will defeat GOD, and although banished from Creation, her prince will take to Hell the armies and peoples sacrificed to her glory.

The peoples of RUSSIA will have to decide whether, in addition to life, they want to sacrifice their souls to the glory of a dog.

It is from these Two Forces at work in this Final Battle between GOD and DEATH, declared this February 24, 2022, that we must understand the nature of the events we live and will live in the coming years. The Victory of the son of Satan is impossible, but it is not in his spirit to see his insanity. For if his insanity was not of national course he would never have dared to rise up Russia against the Nation which bared itself before the world and God in the name of the Peace of Nations.

It is not to UKRAINE that RUSSIA has declared war, it is to PEACE, to the RIGHT of nations to live under the Banner of WORLD PEACE, to whose Cause UKRAINE surrendered its Atomic forces in 1994, under the Promise of Moscow, Washington and London TO DEFEND THE inviolability OF ITS BORDERS FROM THAT DAY FOREVER.

A WORD which Moscow, Washington and London have violated and trampled upon, banishing from their States the Dignity due to the Word of those who have been created in the Image of the Word of God, and banished from their Armies the Honor due to those who live the Military spirit.

If Moscow has buried Honor and Dignity by violating those Frontiers, Washington and London have followed its example by not defending them with the Military Forces which they once placed at the service of UKRAINE, which bared itself before the nations and God in the name of Peace in the world.

That is why the Ukrainian people are the first of the nations before God: "For the Peaceful shall be called children of God", and those who make war, the word of the son of God, are children of Satan, and upon them is the Judgment of God: "YOU WILL DIE".

Now if the armies of the son of Satan believe that they can bring God to his knees, upon them is the Judgment against Satan that the Son of God comes to execute on this Day. They will seek Satan and they will not find him, his children and his peoples and they will not be found anywhere on the map of the Fullness of Nations, this is the Judgment of the KING, My FATHER, upon RUSSIA and her People. Now it is the People of Russia who must decide whether against JESUS CHRIST or against Satan, whether with the son of Christ or with the son of Satan.

INVOCATION TO THE LAW OF THE KING BY A SON OF GOD

26/02/2022

“... the Father judges no one, but has given to the Son all power to judge”

Never has the Conscience of men been raised to so much glory. He is JESUS,

God is with HIM,

we are with HIM,

God is with us.

We cannot continue to contemplate our Universal History closing our eyes to this Reality, who walks with His Son is the Creator of the Cosmos and Author of the Book we call the Bible, which tells us that we cannot continue to read His Book neither from Traditions, nor from pastoral Interpretations of “divines” whose conclusions sign a systematic alienation between Universal History and the Intelligence of its Author.

We know positively that the Ignorance of Our Historical Memory has its origin in the effect unleashed upon our World by the Event we call the Fall of Adam. In the waters of the Flood those first pages of the Book of Life of the Human Race were drowned.

We have no one to blame. None of us were there. Our innocence about that Event and its consequences was proven in the Blood of the LAMB OF GOD.

To bend down to pick up a stone and throw it at our neighbor is beyond our eyes. We have overcome that tragedy and now it is our turn to read God's Book from History and Intelligence. Our History is His History.

The Intervention of His Son in our History speaks for itself of this Historical Truth. Thanks to the Love that JESUS poured on Man we are Conscious of the Love of God towards us, the love of a Father that allows us to enter and leave in His Thought by the hand of His Wisdom, that embraces us as a mother clearing from our being any prejudice or fear to be part of His Creative Omniscience. Which takes us directly back to Eden after the Fall, just before Cain consummated his crime against his brother Abel.

A brother who has in the strength of his muscles his glory throws himself against a naked brother and splits his head. History that will repeat itself again and again during the following thousands of years until its malignity rises to the War of the New Cain, Russia, against the new Abel, Ukraine.

But more important than focusing on the current fratricide by this new servant of Satan, what interests us is to ask ourselves, how does the Evil One manage to implant in man such Murderous Hatred, satanic poison capable of making man his arm, at his command raising against his mother's brother the jawbone of an ass with which to smash his head?

But more than asking ourselves what is the temperature of the heat of this fire that the Crime against Ukraine of the Russian Federation has kindled in the Being of the KING and of GOD, his Father, what concerns us is to see how this Hatred has found in the veins of Moscow a door through which to enter his soul and transform a brotherly people into a nation led by demons whose head is this new Cain, son of Satan, and threatening the whole Creation goes about filling the cup of Divine Vengeance without fear of its destruction.

The answer is not far from us; a single word gives a name to that poison which, entering little by little, takes possession of the body of a nation and turns it into a people of murderers. That word is HATE! A hatred that as in the case of Cain, Satan was slowly but relentlessly distilling in the people of Russia, making their Nation a prison under the iron law of a clan of murderers without conscience or heart, throughout decades murdering all those who opposed his plans to resurrect a dead at the cost of the Absolute Destruction of the Human Race.

Where was the Hate in Abel, wasn't Abel naked, why crawl as an Evil Serpent waiting for Abel to sleep peacefully the trust placed in the word given before God and men?

Where is the man who arms himself to the teeth to throw himself without mercy against one who is naked? Is that the man God created?

Of what do you glory, Cain, that you challenge the God of Heaven to prevent you from destroying the Man He created?

Well, listen to what a son of God says:

To Heaven I lift up my heart

I cry Vengeance without Mercy for the one who has had no Mercy.

I invoke the Law against War:

He who kills with iron, let him die with iron.

Tell me, you divine and wise men of the nations, if the "peaceful one is called the son of God", shall not the war-worshipper be called the son of Satan?

For this, because the son has declared War on the KING and placed his armies at the service of his father, Satan, the iron will strike the clay until it reduces the vessel to dust, the water will fall on the pieces and drag them into the abyss.

And you, people, what are you doing, attending your own burial? Madness has seized Moscow, it adorns the cemetery where like a modern pharaoh it wants to erect a monstrous monument to its crime.

Will your head resist the blow of the hammer that God has in his Arm? Will the stone stand before the Fire that comes from the Lord of Heaven?

You threaten His Creation with fire that you can bring down from the heights of your insanity and do you think you will survive the Fire that comes down from the Revenge of God for your Crime against a Ukraine that for love of you, Russia, bared itself before the nations?

Moscow applauds the glory of the son of Satan, and boasts of his madness.

His madness is that of his father, Satan.

Well then, upon the son the condemnation against his father; since the one and the other are one in the insanity of believing himself superior to God, do not stop Our King Thine arm, be storms your muscles and lightning your nerves, discharge your omnipotence upon the army and the fratricidal people who kill from behind, crawl to the alcove where their victim rests, and raise their voice to hell invoking Death against the entire race of the Human Genus.

Cursed be he who mourns the Fall of the son of Satan.

THE WAR OF VLADIMIR PUTIN

“You have the devil for your father, and you will do the desires of your father. He is a murderer from the beginning and did not stand in the truth, because the truth was not in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar and the father of lies.”

Hard words! On that generation God let fall his Arm with fire in the Being of a father galloping stretched out on the horse of Vengeance against the one who killed his son, total war! NO victors, absolute destruction! So it was NOT time for mercy, it was the Hour of Justice, and the father was the judge.

Where is the lawyer who can make a deal with the Almighty? He called Jerusalem to Rome to plead his cause, and both fell into the pit. The lesson is eternal: when Malignity has taken hold of the whole being of a generation the only medicine is its destruction. The Judgment of God upon that Jerusalem and that Rome speaks with its Testimony clearer and stronger than the discourse of a myriad of wise men with their rivers of words, all empty, all sterile. The TRUTH has not only a way, the TRUTH IS THE WAY.

The War that has been waged on Earth, (the body of the Human Race its battlefield, its blood the rain that never ceases), had its Beginning in an insanity : a creature born of the mud of another world wanted to rise to the nature of its Creator and demanded to be worshipped as God.

The First Man? That First Generation was only a pawn in a cursed chessboard in which its Head of Power, the king of Eden, the First King of Mesopotamia, ignored even its nature. The War was not between Satan, Head of the Serpent, and Adam, first among the sons of God born of woman and man. The War was between God and Death.

The Man? The Victim immolated by Satan upon whose Blood he declared War upon the King of Creation, JESUS, the UNIGENITUS of His FATHER. This JESUS was the one who said “Let us make Man in our image and after our likeness”: a son of God. His Word is the Word, and the Word is God.

In his Dementia, that Rebel Generation of God's sons, led by Satan, challenged JESUS, (that Son of YAHWEH GOD, of whom His Father says “YOU ARE GOD”), to consummate his Work : to make of all the nations of the Earth a single BEING, the MAN, a single People: the HUMANITY.

Once the War was declared on the blood of the First Man, the “Benjamin” of the sons of God, Satan went into hiding, and became a HIDDEN GOD pulling the strings of the History of our World from the Darkness of Ignorance in which all peoples were plunged after the Fall of the First Kingdom of Mesopotamia. The diabolical Objective of that War was, and is, none other than the Total and Absolute Destruction of the Human Race, its definitive and final disappearance of Man from the face of the Earth.

GOD reveals to us in the war to the death between the Jews of that generation and CHRIST the true source of Evil in our World. As yesterday was his son Adam, a pawn in the hands of Satan, today men continue to be a pawn in the hands of that GOD HIDDEN begetting in the human being sons with whose arm continue to hold the jawbone of Cain's ass against his brother Abel. That is why he is called HIDDEN GOD, because his sons do not know who their father is, what his purpose has, where he is going, what he is looking for.

GOD THE FATHER does not hide from his sons. We see it in the BROTHERS of JESUS CHRIST. They inherit the Wisdom and Power of the One who is the Firstborn among Them. They know perfectly well who their DIVINE FATHER is; what Goal He has, where He is going. GOD made the whole Generation of His sons, of the House of Abraham, partakers of HIS Wisdom.

On the contrary, the Generation of the Jews of whom JESUS said to be sons of the Devil, father of the Lie, ignored what is the nature of the HIDDEN GOD who injected into their souls the poison of Hatred against all foreigners, and now directed that Hatred against his own brother, by flesh and blood Jew by birth. The Darkness of Ignorance prevented them from seeing the Truth, they had before them the Divine MESSIAH of whom David wrote: "The Lord said to my lord"; the true nature of their Ignorance was, and still is, not wanting to understand that "the Eden's Snake was not a reptile", but a son of God, "not of this world," and that this HIDDEN GOD has access to the human mind, and penetrating it, makes man's his own weapon of destruction, a Fratricidal Arm, ready to strike against his own brother.

We saw this HIDDEN GOD in the midst of the Total Fratricidal War campaign during the XVI and XVII Centuries. A New Generation of the Devil's sons threw themselves against the Work of JESUS, KING of Heaven and Earth; as their father the Devil threw himself against CHRIST, his sons threw themselves against His WIFE.

The Poison was the same, HATE. The Aim was the same; from the Beginning Satan has one and only true aim : Absolute and Total Destruction of Mankind.

It was the only way for Satan to defeat the Son of God; by his victory over the God who said "Let us make man in our image and after our likeness" GOD would be have to Satan's Throne to the height of the Throne of the Son of God.

A Wonderful Event came to pass, of which I will never tire of speaking, and which has gathered Eternity becoming a Living Body in the House of the Apostles. GOD proclaimed Himself THE LIFE.

Saying "I AM LIFE" the Son of God, by becoming a Man has clothed Mankind with the Natural Indestructibility of his Own. By becoming "THE LIFE" our Creator has made the Possibility of the DESTRUCTION of his CREATION a Madness.

Divinely speaking, on the one hand, when God proclaimed Himself the LIFE, is Indestructible became ours; and on the other hand, making He who HE loves more than Himself, HIS SON, "OUR LIFE", the Creator of the TREE OF LIFE OF THE WORLDS has made THAT SON the BODY of THIS TREE whose fruit is Eternal Life; in His Words "I AM THE VINEYARD...". Where is the one who can destroy this VINEYARD? How many centuries has DEATH been trying to uproot this VINEYARD? Where is the Victory of its prince the Devil? Where is the Fear of the Sting of Death? We have been created to live Eternity, and nothing and no one in this World can keep our feet from walking this WAY.

But... dementia would not exist if the Fool did not exist. And vice versa, for the Fool to exist, he who believes he can bring God to his knees, there must be a Dementia. This Insanity comes from Satan. And it was because of this Dementia that JESUS called that fratricidal generation sons of the Devil. The TRUTH was seen immediately after His RESURRECTION, when Jerusalem obtained from Rome a FINAL ANTI-CHRISTIAN SOLUTION.

We return to the same thing, whoever sought the DESTRUCTION of LIFE on Earth logically had to eliminate that NEW GENERATION of God's sons, born of man and woman. The difference between the OLD, whose Head was Adam, and this NEW MAN, whose Head is the Son of God in person, is that the OLD had neither lived in their flesh the Science of Good and Evil, nor knew the Nature of Satan's War. The NEW MAN lives in his flesh the fruit of the Cursed Tree, and is in the Intimacy of God.

We travel forward, and set foot in THE REFORMATION. Again Satan hides, crawls as a SNAKE, what he is, an accursed BEAST, reveals himself to his new son as a HIDDEN GOD, becomes the mind that directs the mind of his generation, and leads the nations of Europe into the Cainite War we call the 30 YEARS WAR. Nothing new under the sun!

Satan does not consider his War as lost. Even if God's Sentence: "Be cast out of the NEW COSMOS, is Irreversible, his HATRED towards those he cannot destroy is projected against those who can be destroyed: the human being.

Later, remaining the Hidden God of MARTIN LUTHER and his GENERATION, Satan became the God of Hitler and Stalin, the father of the two monsters of the 20th century, the source of the insanity of both. The one as the other had only one final goal: to be worshipped as gods by all the nations of the world, to inherit that Crown offered by Satan to JESUS. Let us remember: "If you worship me on your knees, all the kingdoms of the world are yours, for they have been given to me, and I give them to whom I will". The Victory of the Son of God written, that Crown passed into His hands, and though seated at GOD'S RIGHT HAND, as KING awaiting the FINAL BATTLE, the Crown of the Fullness of Nations is His.

But although losing the WAR OF GOG AND MAGOG, Satan was not banished from the Earth. Only GOD THE FATHER had and has the Power to Decree this Expulsion. Until then Satan, the Devil, the Ancient Snake, the Dragon, would remain on Earth in pursuit of the Nuclear War that he could not consummate in 1945. The Ultimate Weapon was already in the hands of Man. To lead the nations into an Atomic War without Winners became his objective.

As yesterday during the Reformation, Satan has beget today a man, leader of a generation, nourished by the evil milk of Dementia: to bring the nations of the world to their knees, to be worshipped as a god, in the image and likeness of his father, Satan. VLADIMIR PUTIN is that man.

The HATRED towards the WEST in him has a unique origin : Europe does not kneel before his Presence. Europe does not want to join his War against the World. Europe has said VADE RETRO SATAN; EUROPE has declared WAR to a god with atomic teeth and jaws that are ovens through whose mouth the Hellfire of World Atomic War has already begun to burn Peace on Earth; either the Fullness of nations kneels at his feet or the Fire of his Hate will ravage LIFE on EARTH. This is VLADIMIR PUTIN.

His Dementia is incurable. His father is Satan. He has been suckled by drinking the blood of his enemies. He has been fed by eating the flesh of his critics and opponents. His hands are a sea of blood and no one in Russia or the world has stood before him and said "you shall Die." He thinks he is a god. He lives like a god. He is RUSSIA; he is the RUSSIAN FEDERATION; and now he wants to be the WORLD. His Law will be "Word of God" for Socialist and Communists of all nations. His madness knows no boundaries.

The WAR of the son of Satan is the Final Battle of Satan's War against the Son of God. This is why GOD has given the KING the Decree of Expulsion from the Earth of Satan, thus announcing the Light of the Day when the Glory of the Son of God was to shine in the midst of the Darkness, and the Freedom that comes from the Peace of the KING will spread over the Fullness of the nations of the Earth.

There will be NO Atomic World War, which does not mean that we are not at WAR. For, the son of Satan, whose head is Vladimir Putin, has no power to turn back; his will is in the hands of his evil father, Hell is the horizon to which he intends to lead us and into whose abyss he seeks to throw us all peoples.

Satan's son believes that if we worship him his father will crown him over all the nations of the world; the insanity of Satan's son is absolute, his father never had any other objective than the total destruction of life on Earth. If his son does not give him what he wants, he will devour his son. There is no turning back now. Putin and his team is a dead man.

THE KING is LIFE, the KING is GOD, and GOD became MAN. Our Life is in the KING.

It is NOT Ukraine the enemy of Satan's son, it is KING JESUS CHRIST. And the KING as he crushed the Head of his father, so will he crush the head of his son, and we will all witness His Victory.

The Earthquake of the KING'S LEGS trekking the Earth is already beginning to shake the foundations of the world. BLESSED IS GOD, HIS FATHER, He gave us for the Champion of our Cause His Beloved Son, and seating Him on the THRONE OF THE HEIR OF GOD has given us as KING!

"You will die, Vladimir Putin; Ukraine is your grave". But will it be Russia's? Will Moscow immolate itself to your Dementia?

Snorts are heard in the bowels of the Generals; the Devil's breath begins to fill the Admirals' nostrils. The face of the Hidden God delineates its maw amidst the odors of corpses, where does this nauseating smell come from? they ask. Can the corpse smell its own corruption?

The stars sink into the breasts, where does this pain come from? In the darkness the howling of the wolf drives the foolish into his maw. The son of Satan eats the honey of the lion of hell, it tastes like atomic sulphur, it is a delight to his diabolical palate. He has his eyes set on Christian Europe, he challenges Christ to a duel to the death. Before the war begins he is already dead.

He is not a man, he is a monster, a beast worthy of the infernal glory of Stalin and Hitler. Like Stalin, he wants it all; like Hitler he wants it through Total War. The two monsters of the 20th Century in one body. Moscow congratulates itself for having given birth to Satan a son worthy of his glory.

Are there not men among the generals, but kamikazes, ready to die to the health of a dog?

Know this, men, this War is between the UNKNOWN GOD and the GOD whose NAME WE ALL KNOW AND WORSHIP "GOD WITH US, JESUS CHRIST". This War began in Eden, and this is the FINAL BATTLE. There is a WINNER... but woe to the vanquished.

CHAPTER THREE
THE WAR OF THE KINGS

THE PHASES OF THE WAR PLAN OF THE SON OF SATAN

12/03/2022

This is the son of Christ speaking to you. I am a sign to you all of the nature of the one who from the North is advancing against the Kingdom of God in Europe. He is the son of Satan. And as such he believes that the Inheritance of his father, Satan, is his, and the whole world must kneel before his nuclear force, or else expose itself to the universal destruction of all life on Earth.

Satan's son has on the table the plan for the conquest of Europe, by his father developed for the destruction of all mankind. Satan's son believes and he thinks that his father has no other purpose than to reconquer the kingdoms that the Son of God my Father, took from him two thousand years ago. The son of Satan is convinced that this is the goal of his father, the Devil. As in the beginning Adam fell into Satan's trap, and in our times we saw Martin Luther fall back into his Power, Today we have his new victim, Vladimir Putin, the head of a Beast at whose feet we see the Can of War, Russia's Foreign Minister, howling lies whose fruit is destruction. Let us remember Syria.

The Lie has for its palace the body of the son of Satan. The Military plan of this satanic palace is to make Europe believe that the War in Ukraine is a battle between David and Goliath, and that Goliath is losing it. The truth is that Goliath is playing dead. In their euphoria for the resistance of this new David, the European nations provide the weapons with which an army of child soldiers is being slaughtered, while the real professional military force is waiting for the Final Battle shot. By this strategic chicanery, David harassing Goliath's forces, the son of Satan and his court of demons spreads in the Russian Federation the propaganda of the annihilation of their Ukrainian salvation force by the European armies, thus laying the foundation for the necessity of a war of conquest of the enemy: Europe.

The lie is working. Free legionaries from all over Europe come to join the Ukrainian army of resistance, while for his part the son of Satan opposes them Syrian mercenaries, coming from the Islamic world open to NATO imperialism. The military strategy is perfect. While these legionary forces devour each other, the real military force of the New Soviet Federation is deployed on the borders of Russia and Belarus that Omnipotent Word which, backed by the Nuclear Arm of the son of Satan and his court, awaits the shot that will start the First Phase of the Invasion of the Borders of Poland, Slovakia and Romania, Berlin and Germany on the horizon of the Second Phase.

The theater of Ukrainian David's Victory is showering with the desire for revenge a population that sees how their children, teenagers, are being massacred. The force of Vengeance will legitimize in the eyes of the Federation the impact of the Shot with which the son of Satan will end the Battle of Ukraine and will start the War of Europe.

The Second World War ended with an Atomic Shot. The Son of Satan's War against Europe will have in a Controlled Nuclear Shot its Beginning. With the Word of Satan made flesh, the forces of Poland, of Romania, of Slovakia and the Czech Republic, of the Baltic countries, and border regions, terrorized by the Absolute Evil of the son of Satan, will lay down their arms and surrender their countries without offering resistance.

The son of Satan has not removed from his barracks and hangars the real strength of the Machinery of Mass Destruction created during the last three decades. He has thrown to the Ukrainian David the flesh of innocent children without any experience in War. And Europe has fallen into the trap.

This Plan that Satan has put on the table of his son to collect his world inheritance, which was taken from him by my Father, Jesus Christ, King of Heaven and Earth, has been accepted by Russia and Belarus on the basis of the Betrayal of the United States of Joe Biden and the United Kingdom of the British Crown, to the Defense of Europe in case of Nuclear War. Possessed by the spirit of Judas they have already publicly announced that they will not put a soldier on the ground in Europe nor will they lift a single finger to respond to the attack against Europe as long as this attack remains limited to the European Continent. This is the Secret Treaty signed in the darkness by the British Crown and the American Democratic Party, its media and economic court with the son of Satan.

And yet nothing done in the Darkness can be hidden from God. This means that NATO is dead.

NATO Defense, as we all know, has depended on two pillars, the atomic forces of the USA and the UK.

During the past two decades, with the EEC enslaved to the interests of the German Angel of Death, European Defense and Defense Technology Development, in the hands of a woman and her European female puppets, was abandoned and replaced by a policy of "here we are all good, and even Satan has a place in Brussels". Corruption came from Berlin and settled in Brussels, through whose door sat in the European Parliament all the anti-Christian and pro-Russian forces that we now see playing along and ready to submit to the law of the son of Satan in case of an atomic military deployment, giving them in exchange for Peace: Poland, the Baltic States, Romania, Bulgaria, Moldavia, Slovakia and the Czech Republic. Raised in Corruption and having entered Brussels through that door, the intelligence of the current European leaders is the most docile ally that the son of Satan has to save his father from the eternal banishment of Creation.

Believe these politicians, who were unable to predict the Invasion of Ukraine, when the UK and the USA already saw it on the horizon, and understanding that the son of Satan is WILLING TO DIE KILLING if necessary, the former caused the BREXIT, agreeing with the son of Satan an Absolute Atomic Neutrality. Traveling in the same chariot Universal History the USA rose up to oust from the White House a President who refused that Pact with the Devil and opposed the Satanic Word a speech of Atomic Response in Defense of NATO Allies.

With the Withdrawal from Afghanistan and the delivery of war weapons to the Taliban, weapons owned by the USA, the new President signed with the son of Satan a Secret Treaty of Neutrality by which his War would not transcend the borders of the European Continent. Treaty signed on behalf of the American People, thinking of their Survival, and to spare them an Atomic War between two nuclear powers that would throw the whole world back to the dust from which it was created.

Europe, NATO is dead. The two columns on which, in the name of the War of the Sexes, you based your Defense have left you alone. The BREXIT had this end. The coup d'état that brought back to the White House the Puppet Master of Barack Obama had this end: To surrender Europe in exchange for the survival of the Anglo-Saxon World. Germany's part in this Secret Treaty forged in the Darkness had as its horizon, saving its skirts, to offer Moscow the resurrection of the USSR.

Europe, this is the Reality. There is no other. I speak to you in the name of the King of Heaven and Earth, your Creator. You must face, assume, believe in the Truth: NATO is dead, UK and USA have betrayed you, leaving you alone in front of a Power in which the spirit of Satan lives.

Europe, you have to wake up! The Battle of Ukraine is not the War, it is the Battle of the First Phase of the Conquest of your nations. France, you say? France is not going to engage in a nuclear battle alone against the son of Satan, it will sign a Pact with Moscow to stop its advance on its borders. Changing the French government to a puppet government would be child's play to Moscow. The Left Parties would see in this New Master the bridge to Power.

This is the Plan of Destruction of the Kingdom of God, their Enemy, that Satan has put on the table of his son, Vladimir Putin, a madman, as were Hitler and , who believed that Satan worships his children and offers in his servants peace to the nations. Satan has no other goal than the Absolute Destruction of all life on Earth. This was from the beginning his goal, and he has been trying for six thousand years, and this is his Final Battle.

Having said this, we have to focus on the Answer of King God, Jesus Christ, Creator of Europe. The anti-Christian forces deployed by scientific atheism have blinded European Intelligence from seeing face to face the true nature of the spirit coming from the North. He who is slaughtering lives and destroying cities, after the pattern of the Syrian Beast, has in his being no sense of the Humanity by which we call ourselves human beings, and by which we recognize Man in our fellow men. Man does NOT live in the son of Satan and his court; s fed on human flesh and human blood for three decades is what they are. Man is their enemy.

Europe is the mirror in which he sees the son of Satan and his dogs see their true face, and he has only one way to show his face, as he sees himself, the face of a go : by Destroying this Mirror. This Mirror is us, Europeans in whom lives the founding spirit of Europe, the spirit of Christ.

So, Christians all over Europe, we are alone in what concerns the funeral of NATO. With the Alliance betrayed by the UK and the USA, our solitude is our glory. We do NOT depend on external forces for Victory. Our Victory is our King. Our Victory resides in the Alliance that our King and Lord sealed with his Blood, by which God, his Father, swore by his Name and his Glory that the Name of Christ would have his House, forever and ever, among us. For this reason the son of Christ is for you all a sign of this Covenant. Our Ally is God. Let the son of Satan tremble.

But, as JUDAS would have us believe, Victory is not achieved outside the battlefield.

Do not drive the wounded lion to absolute despair because his attack will be bloody until he dies killing. This is the fruit of the Anglo-American Sanctions policy by the Brussels puppets embraced as the way to Victory without setting foot on the battlefield. Every military strategist with knowledge of the sciences of war understands that this victory is an illusion, which only strengthens the enemy and opens the gates of the frontiers it is intended to defend.

The response of the European nations with the Victory on the horizon must be forceful and immediate.

First: Expulsion of all diplomatic corps of the Russian Federation back to their Cave of Origin, Moscow.

Broken free Communication between Europe and the Federation these diplomatic corps will bring vociferously to the federated nations the true nature of the conflict, about the Battle of Ukraine, and the true inhuman identity of that Clan of murderous beasts with aspirations to collect the Crown of Satan.

NATO is dead. Europe invokes the Covenant of God with the Life of Christian Nations that His Son Founded, and as children of God we have in War an Abomination. Peace is our Banner. Liberty is our Cry. Christian Civilization is our Cradle. Many have tried to destroy the House of God in Europe and none ever succeeded. All the efforts of Death and its King, Satan, have crashed against the Wing of the Divine Arm. It is against this Arm that the son of Satan has risen in war.

The Russian peoples have no other means of communicating with this Truth than by getting this Message to them through the diplomatic bodies in our nations.

Diplomacy is dead. The Massacre inherent in the Battle of the Ukraine will not cease until the Word of Satan gives the order to fire the atomic bomb upon European soil, creating Terror and destroying any semblance of resistance before the armies of the son of Satan; that Firing will be the Beginning of the deployment of all the machinery of professional destruction hitherto contained in their barracks and hangars. At that moment the ships of mass destruction will take over the skies of Europe, his warships our seas, his armored armies our borders and lands.

This is NOT a time for words, but for action.

Europe, all our armies must be activated without any delay. Before that Shot sounds against Europe our borders adjoining Belarus and Russia must be a Wall of millions of soldiers and armored forces, the military might of our planes and warships supporting their actions.

Before the son of Satan dares to go through his First Phase, leaving the Battle of Ukraine to foreign legionnaires, the peoples of Russia and Belarus must know that if they do so: millions of soldiers and military forces will enter from all sides of their borders with only one Law in their eyes: "Do not eat, because you will die", and having eaten, the War against the invincible armies of the sons of Satan will be in accordance with the Law.

Europe, this is not the time to live the fantasy of David versus Goliath and the Fifth Article of NATO. NATO is dead. The Anglo-Saxon Judas, with the connivance of the Germanic Angel of Death, has sealed a pact with the Devil. There is NO justification in the eyes of the King, my Father, for what they have done. The anti-Christian blindness does not allow them to see that it is not with a man with whom they have sealed a Pact, but with the Devil, that Hidden God of Luther who moves his pawns on the board of the War of Kings, that of Heaven and that of Hell, seeking only one thing, the Destruction of the Human Race, and this in spite of having before them the Universal King, the Everlasting, Creator of Heaven and Earth, Jesus Christ. Is it not insanity that the creature rises against its Creator?

Insisting, there is no Victory if there is no Battle, and there is no Battle if the army does not put its feet on the field. This is the strategy sought by the son of Satan, deceiving all European nations with the dream of the Ukrainian David defeating the Russian Goliath, while imposing on the European Socialist Left the policy of collusion with Moscow's Law in case of Conquest of Berlin and Brussels.

Our enemy comes from without, but is also within. This enemy is containing the Military Response that the development of events is drawing on the board of the Military Geopolitics of the moment. The Atomic Shot will stop the Battle of Ukraine, will deliver the population to the Massacre by the foreign legionary forces, and will disarm the resistance, so far exclusively moral, of the nations included in the First Phase of the War against Europe.

Those Pro-Russian Containment forces installed in the Left and Nationalist Parties must be removed from the path of Europe's Military Response to the Invasion of its Life and Liberty. The sooner the Powers in Europe unite to bring down those pro Russian forces and move on the way to the European Borders with Russia and Belarus, the sooner that Shot that is on the table of the son of Satan can be averted.

TO THE ORTHODOX CHURCH OF RUSSIA

Here is what the Spirit says to the Russian Orthodox Church.

You despised your Lord and made the emperor of Constantinople your lord. You rose up against your elder sister, the Roman Catholic Church, the Bride of the Lord, a Lord whom you despised by sleeping with the lord of Byzantium. You became his harlot. You despised the Word of God, “whoever serves two masters will hate the one and love the other”, you chose gold and silver.

You denied the Lord, before your Sister, the Bride of the Lord, and you chose to live under the Law of Death than in the light of the Law of the Lord whom you denied.

Remember your birth and your childhood. You were born on the Day of Freedom, the day of the Victory of your Elder Sister; you did not know the blood, the terror of the Circuses, the persecution of three centuries against the Herds and their Shepherds of Italy, Spain and France. You were born to be the spoiled child of your Elder Sister, your words were Golden Tongues in her ears.

How then did you despise her in her days of humiliation and gave yourself to the Devil, abandoning St. Peter?

“Before the Devil than St. Peter”, was your last word.

And do you wonder that God gave you over to the Devil's law, and took away your lord's house and land, reducing his empire to ashes and dust? You were incorrigible. Your passion for gold and silver led you to curse the Invocation to the Son of God, giving the people for God your idols of gold and silver.

Therefore, I say to you, whoever invokes one of your holy idols of gold and silver for that holy one will be cursed before God. Cursed is every man who calls on God outside the Name of Jesus Christ.

As a Harlot fleeing from the destruction of her lord, your Second Rome demolished to the ground, you went to build yourself a Third Rome in the steppes of the North. You took away your idols of silver and gold, clothed your old wolves in holiness abominable in the sight of God, and set your flocks again to fatten for your new lord, the Czar of all the Russias.

Truth sets free, but you, who have Today given yourself as lord the son of Satan, made them Yesterday slaves to your lord the Czar.

Unintelligent, a worshipper of gold and silver, you learned nothing of the lesson. You did not look back to the Rome of your dreams swallowed up by the earth; but you said to yourself, “I will rise up to Heaven, I will stand before the Almighty and Creator of the whole Cosmos. His Son will bend his knees before my silver and my gold, my idols which I forged for myself in the days of Byzantium, the Empress of the East”.

Maddened by your pride and believing yourself eternal at the feet of your new lord, the storm and the whip fell again upon your idolized Third Rome. The Wrath of God fell upon Temple and slaves; they were devoured by wolves in human guise, whose fathers were slaves fed with the bread of hatred and the water of poison against your master that you served them with abundance at the table of their prostration.

You fattened the lambs and served them to your lord amidst orgies of harlots and murderers, thieves of souls in your service, all unclean, all inscribed on the thongs of the whip that fell upon your dream, the Third Rome.

Where is the insane one who, beaten time after time, returns to the executioner and implores him to again shatter his back?

Foolish, handmaid of Death, how could you not bless the War of the son of Satan! For this, because you have blessed the son of Satan and have dreamed of sitting on the seat of St. Peter, the Lord of St. Peter will behead you, the Lord Jesus to whom you said “get out of the my way, we come to see God, we do not need you for anything”, that Lord whom you despised will melt all your gold and silver, he will strip your walls of their colors, you will remain headless until St. Peter sends you Shepherds chosen by the Lord to shepherd his flocks of the North.

The Lord my Father, the King, will tear away your property and your livelihood, you will be judged for Crime against a holy people; the wolf in shepherd's clothing that survives the trial will be thrown into the street to live on the waste that the dogs abandon, fed up with the abundance with which their masters feed them.

God will not be sorry to see your Pride crawling in the dust, for your Wickedness has awakened the Wrath that once devoured Satan and again fell upon the children of Abraham. To these God left a remnant, that they might return to the land of their fathers, and remembering their Crime, bow their knees before his Son. But the wolves in the mask of saints of the daughter of Constantinople will never return to the temples in which they prostituted themselves before God and Heaven.

This Judgment will be fulfilled by the Lord in this generation. The son of Satan and his Orthodox Harlot will both fall into the same pit.

THE EUROPEAN UNIVERSAL CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE FOR THE DEFENSE OF LIFE

14/03/22

This is Military Day. The Threat of the son of Satan is true. He is gathering evidence against the nations he is going to launch himself upon, with which to make his people believe that the Invasion is not such but War of Defense of their borders and nations threatened with Total Destruction by NATO.

NATO is dead. NATO does not exist for Europe.

Europe is reborn to the Kingdom of the Son of God. All the Major States have in Paris their Permanent Council. From Paris all the armies of Europe move according to the Action on the Table. This Council is open Video-Conference to all the Major States, whose Spokesmen sit this Universal Council of Defense of Peace and Freedom of the Member Nations of the European Universal Christian Alliance. In times of Threat against this Peace and Freedom the nations delegate all Power on this COUNCIL to move armies according to the Necessity of the Event.

The National Ministers of Defense do not intervene in the choice of the General Staffs of their States nor have any part in the choice of the Spokesman permanently seated, in hierarchical rotation, in Paris. Peace and Liberty established on this Incorruptible Pillar, the Council of Universal Defense is subject to the Council of the Fullness of the Member Nations, organized in a Court of Appeal formed by a Council of Citizens, elected by the universe of the member peoples of the Alliance of the Nations of the Earth with the Crown of the King, who with his Spirit raises his Ministers so that the Obedience to the Law of Creation may remain for the eternity of the centuries.

War is an Abomination in the eyes of the Creator of all things, those of Heaven as well as those of Earth.

The Council of the sons of God has the Obedience of the Council of Universal Defense in time of Peace, and its spirit being a Court of Appeal the Duty of Relief to neighboring nations is Law, its Transgression by this Court will be judged according to the Law of the Crime of War.

God alone is Perfect, the King alone is Incorruptible and Holy. The Law does not recognize between Citizen and Citizen at the time of Crime, those who believe themselves superior to Justice are judged by the Law according to the consequences of the Crime.

This is the Future; the Future begins Today.

The Threat of the son of Satan is true. His dream is to be the god of Europe, Moscow the queen of the European capitals from which dictators are placed and removed, his church the New Jerusalem trafficking in silver and gold, bribing the shepherds with his idols. To sit in the Chair of St. Peter, this is the promise of the son of Satan to the Patriarch of the Russias. Because he has fallen into Temptation, the Lord has already sealed his judgment.

This is the Day of the King of Heaven and Earth. Let it be done according to His Prescience and Omniscience.

CHAPTER FOUR
THE WAR OF THE SON OF GOD

Cursed be he who mourns the death of the House of Satan.

The Eyes of God

“They came to Bethsaida, and brought to him a blind man, begging him to touch him. Taking the blind man by the hand, he led him out of the village, and putting spittle in his eyes and laying his hands on him, he asked him, Do you see anything? And he looked, and said, I see men, something like trees walking”.

The history of the Acts does not lie. Created in the image and likeness of the Son of God, the anthropological revolution accomplished, it is impossible for us to be men and not see Reality through the eyes of our Creator. The Spiritual Biography of Jesus is a full-fledged Discourse of God the Father, every step, every word, every gesture, every work of his is a discourse of the Wisdom of YAVE GOD, Creator of the Universe. We are trees. Every man is a tree of life. All together we form the Tree of Life of the Human Genus. The tree is nourished by the same Sap, receives the same Light, breathes the same Breath. And this is the Man that God created on Earth. How this Tree was injected with an evil virus, against the Will of our Creator, causing this global fratricidal schizophrenia that we have been living for the last six millennia, I have already entered the Divine History of Jesus Christ, so I will not repeat myself. How to get out of that hell and open our way to the Full Health of our Being, reincorporate all of us to this Universal Tree whose sap waters the whole Tree of Nations. For it is evident that the First Tree, of which a Man was its Head, that Tree has given way to a New Tree, the Tree of Nations, whose Head is the Son of God, King of the Tree of Life of the Worlds of the Kingdom of God, his Father.

Developing this theme we understand that God is the one who cultivates this Tree of Life of the Worlds of the Kingdom of his Son, both on a general level and on an individual level. Let us remember the Parable of the Vineyard and the Vinedresser, the Son is the Vine, we are the vines and his Father is the Vinedresser, and Owner of the Vineyard. Since we are the Vines, the sap that nourishes us all is the Sap of the Spirit of whom, being the Vine, we all live by his Nature. If we raise this Parable to the Nations, each Nation being a Vine, the same. This Unity in Nature is what was ultimately broken six thousand years ago.

We already know that the all-powerful Reason of Modern Science, spurred to Anti-Christian Rebellion by the Protestant Reformation, threw to the ground the Nature of the Events described by God in His Book, thus banishing the Creator of His Creation. With the happy consequences of the World Wars and the tragedy of the Atomic Age. Happiness has these surprises; when they already believed themselves in the paradise of the utopia of the Atheism of Science, hell came to judge them by their words, thoughts and deeds. And so, up to the present living moment, when an alliance between men who have renounced Humanity, having chosen the evolution without turning a leaf towards the Beast, have bet on the last world war if Christ in us does not get down on his knees and we adore his glory.

We are living trees, branches of the same Trunk, and as such we bear fruit. In whom the Son of God lives, whether as Lord, or as King, or as Father, or as Brother, or as Citizen of his Kingdom, we are all part of the Tree of the Nations of Mankind. And as living trees in whom lives the spirit of the Son of God, in whose Image and Likeness we have been begotten, we bear fruit, and this Fruit is in accordance with the Nature of the Field from which our roots are nourished.

He who loves War is not of God, and because he loves Hell his father is Satan.

He who loves Peace loves God, and he who loves Peace and does not love God does not love Peace, he lives in the Lie and lies when he defends Peace, his Peace is the Door through which the worshippers of War freely enter as the way to World Power.

Whoever divides the Peoples of a Nation are not of God, they serve Death, the fruit of their Hatred is Terror, such beasts are abominable in the eyes of God. The King's Judgment upon them is that which weighs upon their father Satan.

He who thinks himself superior to his neighbors by reason of the dimensions of his territory is abominable in the sight of God.

Those who divide men and peoples for religious or ideological reasons are unclean in the eyes of God; the blood they shed will be a flood that will fall upon them and drag them down to the Abyss where Satan dwells.

All the branches of the Tree of Nations, whose fruits are generations, form one Body before God, a Tree created, cultivated and nourished by Him. We are His living fruit, Consummate Beings, full of Intelligence and Faith. The Sage who gave us life continues to give her Fruit according to the Nature of the One who is our King, Lord, and Father. The Man we see in HIM, in the Book of God, is the Man who manifests in us and with whom we Walk here on Earth during the time given to us and then in His Kingdom for Eternity.

As the First Man we are cleansed of all Crime, in Christ Jesus by the Knowledge of Good and Evil in which we have been raised from the dust to which our condemned World was, we assume Responsibility for our thoughts, words and deeds. By these thoughts, words and deeds will be judged those who, despising the Crown of the Son of God, have given themselves to be governed by their own laws, annulling Divine Justice, and banishing from the human being the spirit that gives him eternal life. For they have banished God from His Creature, the Creator will banish them from His Creation; He will not differentiate between man and devil, for the Devil was once a child of God, and he chose to be a murderous wild beast rather than remain a Citizen of the Kingdom of the Son of God, a freedom of choice that every creature formed in the Image and likeness of its Creator enjoys. Those who make War, spread Terror, sow Hate, abolish God's Law on the Nature of Man and Woman, those serve the enemy of God's Creation and all will be banished. Be they of this world or of any of the other worlds created by God before our Creation, so Yesterday, as Today and Tomorrow the Sentence upon him who departs from the Spirit of the Creator is eternal Banishment from the Cosmos, his Creation.

The eyes in which the Reality of the Cosmos is reflected are in the Face of God, its Creator, the vision of which we inherit by the fact that we were created to rise up into His Image and Likeness. And anyone who does not see the Universal Reality with the Eyes of JESUS CHRIST is blind and like the blind man to whom Jesus smeared mud in his eyes. Whoever sees, sees himself as a tree, a Vine of His Vine, a child of God begotten in His Image and Likeness to bear in us His fruit. To see what the nature of this fruit is, it is enough to read his Life.

And needless to say, the nature embraces the Individual and the Nation; a Branch cannot bear anything but the natural fruit of the Tree, and if it is a different fruit, it is because a branch from another tree has been grafted in.

IF the fruit is evil, and brings Death, Death is its Origin. The Vinedresser cuts off the Branch, and throws it into the fire.

Begotten in the spirit of Intelligence we have the Power to distinguish nature by the fruit. Foolish to say, "by their fruits ye shall know them".

THE END OF TIME

Cursed is he who mourns the death of the House of Satan.

The Holy Spirit says that “God so loved Man that He gave us His Beloved Son ...” as the Champion of our Cause. But we also read that “the Son so loved his Father so much that he put his Life in his hands”, and this in spite of the fact that, humanly speaking, it could be said that a father who sends his son to be slaughtered to save the life of a stranger, interpreting what is written, it would seem legitimate to deduce that God loved Man more than his own Son.

And yet in JESUS is found the True Nature of the Declaration of the Holy Spirit: “GOD IS LOVE”. For, evidently, had not JESUS loved Man with the strength of his Father : his diligence and obedience to the Necessity of CHRIST’S Death would have been checked by his Intelligence.

The Love of God to Man and the Love of Man to God were found alive and personified in CHRIST JESUS. For finally the Love of both God and Man met in JESUS CHRIST.

So, following the Wisdom of the Holy Spirit, we understand that God perfected his Beloved Son making him sit as Divine King, assuming with the Crown the Social Responsibility in the Creation that until then, as King of and Lord of lords of that same Universal Creation had been, we can say it was honorific, allegorical, even metaphysical.

The Responsibility of the King of kings and Lord of lords, as Head of the Empire of God rested on his Father. It is this Responsibility that God finally makes to rest on the Throne of his Son, so that all the members of the House of YAVE say: “All Glory, All Power, to the Son of God”.

As it were, a Child entered the Earth in the Question of the Wisdom of His Father, in whose Mantle of Wisdom rested His Crown before the Incarnation. But in the Resurrection is born “the King, Head of all the Powers of Creation, JESUS CHRIST”, and assumes this Responsibility in the Fullness of His Being as God the Only Begotten Son.

Nevertheless, the King is still subject to the Wisdom of God, who before seating him on his Throne says to him: “Sit at my right hand until I lay my enemies at your feet”.

The Obedience of the King to God is perfect. It is the due Obedience of every Citizen to the King himself. Which leads us to ask why, why sit down such a King, Almighty and Omnipotent, instead of blessing the Glory of his Liberty, and this Glory upon us?

Instead of this blessing the World became subject to the Law of Death which had been in operation since the Fall. Why we know already. The Sentence against War being the Banishment of the Cosmos, cast into the Outer Abyss covered by Darkness, with Origin in the Ancient Cosmos, hence God says “I created the Light and the Darkness”, sentence of Banishment ad eternum, which may seem rather harsh, God wanted to open our eyes to all of us, first to his children of Heaven, to the Absolute Evil “of the divine lords of War”, who led by Satan caused the Fall and Tragedy of Man, and later to us, the children of God of the Earth. That Evil of the Damned Satan is the one who in our day lives in his son and spreads his hell before our eyes, so that in unison our mouths, of Heaven and Earth, bless without fear or weakness the Curse of God against all those who make War and find in it their glory and divinization. The Curse of God against the lords of War lives in us.

Thus, it was logical that the Holy Spirit, knowing these things, foretold the Day of the Glory of the Freedom of the Son of God, who opening his Arms covers with his Cloak all his House, investing it with his Invincibility, Intelligence and Almighty Power to extend his Kingdom over the Fullness of the nations of the Earth. Battle that would be held at the End of time, established as a consequence of the Fall and Redemption, called Final because finally the restoration of Man to his Creator would be consummated, and Peace, established on the Justice born of Truth, will bring to the World the Liberty, Fraternity and Equality that could not be established because of the Necessity of War being its foundation. It is this Final Battle that has opened in the North and extends its alliance to the nations of old anti-Christianity.

This is the End of the World born of the Fall of Adam; this is the Beginning of the World for which CHRIST died, in order to bequeath in Testament to us, his Descendants, his Spirit of Intelligence, over which the Lie has no Power, and we being his House inherit his Invincibility for the Good of all nations and peoples of Mankind.

To those in the North who have raised their arms against the Kingdom of the Son of God we can only say: Lay down your arms, return to your homes, depose your Rulers, do justice to the blood shed on the sacred Ukrainian soil, or give account before God for the blood of your children and the blood of the children of your brothers, which you have shed under the law of terror to the son of Satan and his Can of War, worshippers of horror.

THE DANCE OF VICTORY. SONG OF THE KING'S SON

The bonfire is already lit,
Already the warriors leave their colts.
Already the wise men are stationed on the hills.
The wind brings from the clouds the hand that rocks the fire.
Let the dance begin, let the flames devour hearts and souls.
Drums, beat the silence.
Let the skins speak with the voice of the Spirit.
Hear, warriors around fire and wise men upon the hills
The song of the star that rises from the banks of the river of life.

"Blessed is the arm that lifts up his sword
Blessed the fist that does not tremble
Blessed are the eyes of him who strikes the blow Against the foul beast."

Bloodthirsty devours flesh and bones
It has demon in its tongue
Hell is its cradle,
Strike without fear, warriors,
Make your stars shine,
Let your breasts be as the heavens

Bright in the night,
Joy of old men, women and children.

How beautiful are the legs
Running to meet the brother besieged by the Phantom of the enemy!
Are their muscles columns holding from the sky the roof.
The stamping of his feet on the earth is a song that awakens the ocean
What face can compare to his!
What light can not be ashamed... not be the cradle of his shadow!
He is already approaching the enemy, he leaps over the abyss.
His cry is a unique song,
All the birds of the firmament take flight...
No creature wants to leave its hero alone.
The drums of war do not cease
Their song has a name:
VICTORY.

But hands to mouth, a wise man speaks,
From the hill of silence his voice is storm.
"Cursed is the warrior who does not dance, the star that does not shine,
the sword that rests,
the voice that invokes peace,
the prayer that asks for clemency, the hand that does not write in his eyes
one Word, one Word only

VICTORY"

The fire that burns my soul
Is the fire of the spirit that fills the sky
I am prey to its flames
And I have no one to pull me out of the fire.
My legs are crazy, they jump on their own,
My arms are lions on the run
The spear in my hands has a bull's eye
The heart of the Enemy of my People!
As I run I hear a voice, the voice of my King:
"Seal the tomb,
Build a wall around it dig around it a pit, the water be fire that never burns, write on the wall
Cursed be he who crosses this fence!
And on the gate of the keeper, engrave a word:
VICTORY!"

But what's that sounding, is it rain?!
It is the speech of decrepit old men
Souls wandering in search of glory
Their words are echoes from beyond the grave
They think they're alive, they're dead,
They stink, their breaths are crimes
They defend their cowardice in the name of peace

Their speeches are seeds of the Evil One's sowing.

You, son, dance, jump, shout, roar like a lion in the sun

The moon is your sister, do not shame her,

By the stars of the heavens shout

VICTORY.

Warriors, the dawn has broken, it's time to dress for war

Hellfire has been unleashed in the fields of the Lie.

From the North comes the Beast, spitting fire of absolute destruction.

"Who is that dog that howls with the voice of a wolf against my lambs?" Says the King of Hosts

"The Universe is mine, the Earth is ring in my right hand,

Thus will I do: I will tear the cords from his throat.

I will tear off the toes of his feet

The hands will only be stumps

I'll throw him into the Square where he is worshipped as a god

And I will sit him on the ruins of the Temple that blessed his fire".

He is a dragon that has come up from the fields of hell

He was fed with the flesh of young in his virginal springtime

The milk he drank from his mother was the blood of women and children

It was his delight to preside over genocides,

His favorite banquet to devour worms

All plump, ministers of gold, maddened by silver

Gods for a day, demons for eternity.

The Phantom of Moscow rises from the tomb

It is a prodigy of the harlot of Byzantium
The New Pantocrator of the Adulteress of Constantinople.
How beautiful she was in her youth, the lady of Orthodoxy.
Nor the glory of the face of Helen of Troy
Nor the grace of Diana the huntress, the daughter of the stars.
Athens was her mother, daughter of perdition
She bore it written on her breasts,
With which she suckled the Second Rome

The pact was between the Devil and Satan
Listen Justinian:
God hath sworn by his glory that my gates shall not fall
God has sworn that he will cast yours down,
Come, my beloved, enjoy my flesh,
Devour me before the eyes of the King of heaven.
Let the King know that thou art my lord, my love of Byzantium

The Adulteress went north to seek a new lord, new lovers, New Rome.
Worshipper of gold, tongue of silver bipedal head, fountain of hatred, lethal poison you despised your Lord and seeking, faithful to the Word of God
"he who seeks finds"
You have found your new lord, the son of Satan,

For this, I, the son of the King whom thou hast despised

I dance around the fire the Dance of Victory that my Father will light on the rubble of Red Square, turned into a lake of blood and said to you:
you will drown in its waters with your lover.

Warriors, this is no time for dreams
All hands to arms, all hands to battle
The monster of the North has struck again
The Phantom has risen again
He does not want Peace,
Freedom is abominable to him
The Joy of the young is unbearable to him
The laughter of children is a curse to his ears,
The poetry of blossoming trees ruins his nights,
The waves that roll over the seas are nightmare of his days.
He is NOT a man, he is a monster that emerges from the abyss.
He hungers that never ceases
Now his neighbor
Then his enemy,
Then you,
Your brothers, your children, your parents!
All on their knees before Satan's heir.
Is his father's name written on his forehead.

My King looks upon us
As a father touching up his children's war clothes.

The words already spoke
He embraces his lion
Blesses him with blessings from the Divine Creator.
"Let your arms be an ocean devouring dry land
Let your legs be volcanoes in the fields of Mars
Let your voice fill the plains and let the high mountains be turned aside at your word
Let your feet be rivers of life, watering the bent seed, the broken reed, the fallen tree the broken reed, the fallen tree.
Do not be afraid at the sound of the roar of the Beast.
The Beast will tremble at the sound of your cry
VICTORY.

It has already dawned, O God, so many centuries, how many millennia waiting for this dawn.
What are you doing Europe?
Do you see your sister and do not run to meet her?
Are you devoured by Cainite wolves
And your salvation is to throw meat on the grill?
Where are your children, those proud warriors
Who stood up to the Armies of Death?
You've staked your bet behind the crown of the Antichrist,
You hide behind the corrupted hide of the Happy American.
Don't you know that they delivered peoples to genocide, served up meat in abundance to their servants and enriched themselves by trafficking in the organs and blood of peoples?
When your turn comes, your plump flesh, your rich blood, will they be respected?

The Devil has made a pact with the Antichrist,

Between fifty stars both have lain down

Together they dream of dividing the spoils

Berlin for you, says Washington

Paris for me, says London,

Rome for him, says Moscow.

He is Hell.

And I said:

"With this sign I shall overcome."

CRYS

CHAPTER FIVE
THE WAR OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

THE NUMBER OF THE STRAW THAT BREAKS THE CAMEL'S BACK OF GOD'S PATIENCE

19/03/2022

What is time?

The butterfly is born, flies, in 24 hours perishes.

What is time?

God has seen universes disappear, He remains.

A sucker is born, as soon as the winds have finished furrowing the oceans, the sucker feels eternal, god at his banquet, and when he thought he was a god, he disappears.

What is time, a cross that we drag cursing, born to die, and we die killing?

How will a god kill time? To raze a nation, a fascinating spectacle! Isn't the street full of the dead beautiful? Babies in their cradles, boys and girls in the prime of life scrapped like cars abandoned in the gutter, dolls and dolls disemboweled upside down to the health of the sucker.

And those buildings in ruins? paintings worthy of Picasso, Rembrandt, Van Gogh.

And that divine music of missiles dancing in the air, falling like delicious bonbons on schools, hospitals, are they not a symphony worthy of Mozart, Brahms, Wagner, Tchaikovsky?

Vladimir Putin is a god. His kingdom is not of this world. He goes around handing out comfort, have you nowhere to drop dead? At least you're alive, dance on the Ukrainian grave, you cretin. The poetry of his biblical testament makes the prose of Shakespeare, Cervantes and Dostoevsky a kindergarten book. He is the Quixote of our time. Europe bows before his verb: I am the embodiment of the ultimate weapon, he says. My legions are angels of the underworld, my generals are cherubim from beyond the grave, they have no heart, no soul, they are not human, they are children of my darkness, specters of the abyss climbing the stairway to heaven, we will conquer Olympus, we will destroy Asgard, Jesus Christ will kneel before the son of Satan.

What is time? A movement between two points in space: start and finish, cradle and grave, warm entrails and cold cemetery. There is a way. 120 years God said. 120 years dying killing! What a joy.

As one walks, famines, genocides, wars... the horizon is an open-air movie screen, the decades are the stage, the actors come and go, different names, the plot is always the same. No wonder God cursed whoever turned on the projector again, God's patience! If it were up to me and I had a nano-millionth part of his Almighty power right now I would rise up and reduce to dust all the madmen who think they are gods playing war. But I am not God, and God is not me. The closest thing to a god is the Happy American and the Bitter Russian of life. The two faces of the same face. One kills and the other lets him kill. One threatens and the other replies "do as you please". Who is surprised that men do not believe in God? That is the image and likeness of the gods?

The coffee is good. The Russian calls his enemies at home traitors, the American hurls his thunderbolts against the traitorous opposition; same speech, same inbred evil. At least we drink coffee, we should not complain, or would we rather be in Kiev?

I return to the road. JESUS has always been with me. When I glance down the paths of time I see hidden snipers killing time by shooting down lives. A pastime like any other. There are many ways for the gods to kill time. In the middle of my path, the door of crossed wisdom, I have seen what is not written about how to have fun killing and there is no god to call you to judgment: Create a Pandemic, for example; give birth to an AIDS epidemic; turn entire cities into ruins to the health of the Mass Media; declare wars in the name of the Silence owed to the gods that rule the nations.... I know that if God allowed it, the ways of killing time invented by the sons of Hell would be without number. That is why God gave it the number "the famous 666". Once this number is reached, the party begins.

Which has already begun.

What I will see from today onwards is blessed glory. Each one has his eyes, I see with mine: the Light of the Truth is the one that paints the firmament of blue on my thought. What each one sees is the problem of each one. I came into the world laughing, and I shall leave this world laughing. Hear my laughter:

It is my laughter the spring wind rushing to meet the summer, Sitting on the hill I hear the judgment against the whole house of Satan, of Heaven and Earth: "To Hell". And I clap my hands until I run out of strength. There go the Hitlers, the Putins, the Stalins of all times and places; all together they follow the Beelzebubs and Satans of the worlds that were before ours. Hooray hooray, I shout without rest. The time has come to collect the salary;

who worked for Death, Hell, who worked for Life, Paradise.

And among the clapping, the jumping and the tears of joy I understand the Patience of God; He never wanted to open the door of the Eternal Banishment of His Creation to anyone.

This is Life. A path between two points, point of departure and point of reunion. Time is what lies in between, the perpetual adventure, the bliss of infinite creation, the opportunity to know and understand the value of eternal Love. The other is not life, it is death.

You have NOT read what JESUS CHRIST said, "We are trees"; but you, ignorant, are a potted plant. Tell me; what do you want legs for? Give them away, what good are they to you, to say you are human?

Is he really human who kills his brother?

Moscow is slaughtering his mother, Kiev, what will be the judgment against such a beast?

The generals rose against Nero for the crime against their own mother; the Mongol generals of Moscow hold the arm, the people hide for fear of the Beast.

This is the Final Battle. Whoever does not choose sides on the field of the Son of God's War is crushed in no man's land. This is NO time for pathetic Cowards, nor for Old Men meaner than the Devil, nor for Eve conjuring Adam to make a pact with the Serpent.

Children of God: The Cup of God's Patience has been spilled and the whole House of Satan is going to drown in the blood they have spilled on the face of the Earth.

Time comes and goes, returns and says goodbye, it is like God, it never leaves you alone, it only lets us live life, God also has His, He needs His Space, the Lord cannot be a slave, nor can the Father be an Ayo. I do not know if I am making myself clear. I understand the saints, and I believe that the saints understand me, it is a question of time and space. The one who kills time is because he is bored, and the one who is bored has a problem. I do not know if I am making myself clear. A Society built on Perpetual Fratricide must logically make war its apotheosis, the sublime act that closes the Tragedy, the final explosion that announces the Final Judgment.

Come, judges of the supreme courts of the nations, and answer me, what sentence does the daughter who murders her mother deserve? What sentence will you sign against those who sit and contemplate matricide? What is your judgment against those who whip the hand of matricide?

Can a coward be a judge? Can a corrupt man do justice? Who will God call to sit in the seat of the Almighty Judge, and invested with His own Eternal Glory, judge without fear according to His immaculate spirit of justice?

I am on the mountain, on my knees, begging for mercy. God is watching me. Okay, son, in 40 years come back to this same place, you tell me.

It is hard to open your mouth before God to speak to Him about Judgment. Silence is worth Eternity. The two points are before my eyes. Here, the starting point is Eternity; there, the meeting point is Infinity.

Let each one write on his forehead his sentence. I have chosen my Way. He has begotten me and I am his son, He is the Way, the force that moves the wind, the energy that inspires my nerves, bones and muscles, the joy of my life: Rain hailstones in the open field on my nakedness, the whip of the wickedness of men burst my back, or the spear of their betrayals drive into my chest, I am still alive. My Father is the Spirit, and all else proceeds from the Devil.

Let each one decide his destiny, to live free in Truth, or to be a slave to the Science of good and evil; to be a slave to God for the love of Life, or to be free to be a slave to Death.

I am not one to say, "you here, you there"; but I am what I am, I bless the Judgment of God without thought of those who will go to Hell, I live as if they had already gone, I live Here as if I were There. I do not understand the rest. The King's Law is eternal and clear: He who does not help his brother shall die.

He who has the jawbone of an ass in his hands, let him leave it on the ground.

Whoever sees his brother killed, let him rise up, and stand in the way; if the murderer does not lay down his arms, the defense of one's own life is sacred, let the blood he shed fall on his head.

Whoever rises up against his neighbor, destroying his land and his people, let him withdraw, or he shall die.

The Lord God, Yahweh of hosts deploys his forces on Earth, at the head comes the King. There will be no World War. Justice will be done. The cowards shall fall from the heights, they shall break against the Law their skulls.

The creators of pandemic and warlike Panic shall answer for the darkness they have spread over the nations. God knows their plans.

All that is hidden will come to light. Crimes and massacres in the name of Dynasties and States, the Lies of Power and policies to imprison the minds of the peoples.

Dictators, tyrants, murderers of the masses, of women and children, your days are numbered, the drop that fills the Cup of God's Patience has been spilled. Centuries has the House of God's children been waiting for this Hour.

It is written, the mourners shall be comforted, the peacemakers shall be called children of God, the poor shall possess the earth, the meek shall rule the nations, the humble in heart shall see God; the hunger and thirst for righteousness of all men shall be satisfied.

The Intelligence of God will be poured like rain pregnant with all kinds of sciences on the earth condemned to give thorns and thistles; the flesh of the Kingdom of God on Earth will be healed, its blood will flow clean as water coming from the high mountain where the Creator dwells.

Two thousand years the children of God have been waiting for this Day, how can they not laugh, how can they not jump for joy! How to put locks on the mouth that wants to sing songs of Victory! To the guitar, to the violins, to the organs, these are the weapons that come like a diamond ring to the hands of men. Drums and flutes, oboes and lutes, sitars, brushes and pencils, these are the instruments for which man was called to be wise and master.

Mouths that ruminate words of hell, fingers that caress triggers of atomic destruction? It was never in the Mind nor in the Heart of the Creator of our Heavens and our Earth to make man a Beast, his world a field of war.

Wisdom will draw near to our children and will beget in them children to God; the Firmament of the ages will be filled with her stars; there will be no more darkness, no more confusion or ignorance, sickness and loneliness will retreat before the advance of the Spirit of the Son of God in his Creation.

To those of you who have poured out that drop that bears the Number of the Beast, in his Testament written to keep hope alive in the children of God in Heaven, where will you hide from the Gaze of the One who with his eyes makes light out of darkness? You thought that God could not penetrate the steel walls dug in the depths of the earth, where you gathered to write the Future you have finally unfolded.

What shall I say? I will speak in the name of the Son of God, for He has put His Word in my mouth, a word of purity, more beautiful than the purest gold. In his Name I say:

Withdraw from doing Evil, from making your house in corruption, and your fortune in war.

Stop planning genocides and pandemics, femicides and epidemics; break the pact with the servants of the House of Satan; you still have time to choose between the Kings, the King of Heaven and the King of Hell.

This Battle is Final; after it there will be no more wars on Earth. Creation will not know this Tragedy again.

Even the Door of eternal Life is open. Forgiveness is of God, and he who is forgiven much will love much.

Be wise, do not continue to think that you are gods. He who is True God has deployed his forces and the earthquake that will lift his legs will tear down cartographic borders, ideological walls, temples and palaces. Nothing will withstand the weight of his Spirit. This is not for Tomorrow; this is why the House of Satan desperately seeks the Absolute Destruction of all life on Earth.

Do not believe that you can stop the Glory of the Creator of Light; he has it all in his Father : the Creator of the New Cosmos who as an Ocean of living waters extends his shores to the Infinite.

We are nothing, but we can be everything. The choice is up to each one of you.

I carry your message, I carry your oil, but once the choice is made the arm that holds the Iron Rod will strike as one strikes an earthen vessel. Dust to dust, ashes to ashes.

THE FEAR OF THE TRUTH

Does the creature that comes out of the womb know what its destiny will be? Had the Disciples known that their destiny was to be the flesh of wild beasts, torches to illuminate the gardens of Nero, shepherds leading innocent flocks into the mouth of the wolf; had they known this before Jesus called them, would they have joined the party? Does the father who conceives have the right to write a future for his child, and couldn't the mother who gave birth to him abort the project in the unborn phase, without being accountable to anyone?

The Millennium that died, denied by all the churches to have been the Millennium of the Devil, some for not recognizing that they were his servants, and the others because they were found sleeping, began with a Man for eternity, worthy successor of Saint Peter, his name: the Roman Bishop Gregory VII, Saint Satan as he was called by the first children of the Devil, all of them Germans, as it could not be otherwise. The Devil and Germany were during the whole Millennium of the Devil what the adulteress and her bed were, the diary of her prostitutions. It was natural that the epilogue of this Evil Diary of the Devil's Servant, filthy Germany, should close with two World Wars. The judge of Eternity has that Diary; the fire is ready, her Judgment is perfect, the name written on its pages will be dry wood in the flames.

The Devil's Millennium closed its orgy of destructions and crowned celebrities having to endure a hallucination impossible to believe. The Millennium began with a Man for Eternity and God closed it with another equal, John Paul II; Roman Bishop, worthy successor of St. Peter. Both Divine Servants are seated around the Lord who governs the Church, for he who lives in Christ does not die but crosses the Gate and passes into eternal Life.

But let me tell you about the first, Gregory VII, who had a short pontificate, like that of his Lord, Jesus Christ.

What three years those were! Eternity has gathered them in his bosom with the love of a father to his only son.

The truth is that Jesus was crucified for being brave. He was told many times. "We are going to kill you, now shut up". There was no way. That Prophet was not afraid of Death.

Because of him, the People, repressed by the Fear of the Tyrant, the Genocidal, the Dictator, the children of the Devil, rose up, reclaimed the garments of their Hero and the world was filled with Brave.

With Gregory VII more of the same happened. "Shut up or I'll kill you" repeated again and again that son of the Devil, Henry IV, the first of the beasts with which Germany, in the name of Satan, her Hidden God, Cursed Lover, watered Europe and the World with blood.

What was the Crime of that Saint? Why did the Devil want to shut his mouth? Why was he crucified by History?

The Propaganda of the Antichrist, seated on the British throne, put all his academic batteries firing massively against the Gregorian Epoch. The Antichrist, son of the Devil, could not admit that his Crown was subject to human laws. Neither to human nor to divine laws. Such a satanic doctrine, in the opinion of the Antichrist, who to hide his evil face put on the mask of a female of the whore species, was a thing of Christ.

How can it be accepted that a god can be subject to any law!

It will be understood, and all the divine scholars of the Empire signed, that such a doctrine is an infernal thing, it does not come from the Wisdom that came down from Heaven, but from that which ascends from Hell.

The Divine Right of kings is supreme, and in their hands they hold the life and death of their subjects. Amen, hallelujah, and whoever does not bend his knees, let his head be cut off.

The question is clear: how did a people of braves overnight become a nation of cowards kneeling at the feet of a monster! The Word of the Brave echoes through the Four Regions of the Cosmos: VADE RETRO SATAN. That of the British people was to declare the London Harlot Divine.

For that Gregory VII, servant of the Devil according to the Anglo-Saxon Antichrist, came to impose the Doctrine of the Absolute Universality of the Divine Law. His Axiom for Eternity was this: "All Creation, whether of this world, or of those that God has already created, and of those that will be created: is subject to the Right and Duty that emanates from the Justice of the King. No one, neither son nor servant nor citizen of the Kingdom of God is beyond the Law, is immune or has impunity of any nature whatsoever before the Justice of the King that God has given to all his Creatures".

Simple to understand, isn't it? And yet today they are not kings, instead of one king the nations have hundreds of them, all immune before the Law, all beyond the power of the arm of Justice, all with their thrones in Parliaments and Senates.

Is it understood why the British school found in the nations disciples?

And it is deduced from this doctrine the derivative Corruption that has sunk Democracy on Earth, at present a mockery.

I close the memory of that Saint by saying what all could see and did see. "They persecuted him, rounded him up and killed him". As the Lord so his Servant. Both crucified for not being Afraid of Death.

The Millennium of the Devil closed its History with another Saint. A star arose in that thick darkness that the Soviet Empire spread over Europe and the World. Moscow spread genocidal dictatorships, financed Nationalist Terror, blessed wars.

Like that of its sister Germany, Russia's Journal of Crimes against Humanity lies at the feet of the Divine Judge.

Then, it already seemed that Moscow's Socialist sowing had found fertile soil in Europe, and was beginning to bear fruit, sinking European Democracy in this ocean of Corruption over whose storms the Brussels School swims like worms in fetid waters, when the star of John Paul II arose.

From Moscow, Berlin, London and Brussels Roman Apostolic Christianity was being attacked without truce or quarter. The spirit of the Lord in Gregory VII arose from the Tomb of the centuries and dressed in the prophetic spirit opened his mouth to illuminate the Earth with the Truth of the one who is not Afraid of Death.

In his time, a Saint and a Brave accompanied the Feast of the Freedom of the one who is not Afraid of anything or anyone, but only and exclusively of losing the Love of the Beloved.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta and Ronald Reagan, Grace and Strength, in union with the Servant of the Lord raised the spirit of Christian Civilization, and joining their moral and political forces brought down a building that was rotten, the Empire of the Soviet Union, heir of the Doctrine of the Antichrist, Today imposed on the UN by the son of Satan, his Axiom :

1^o:Power has the Right to defend itself and the Duty to crush any criticism and position to its Government.

2nd: Any interference by a foreign nation in this Duty to Genocide of the Government in Power is a declaration of war.

Indeed, the Antichrist sat in London, extended his satanic borders to Berlin and Moscow, and has finally made the UN his throne and seat.

And a son of that Lord whom those two stars for Eternity served by illuminating the Way amidst the darkness that the Devil's doctrine sowed on Earth, that son of that Lord wonders. Where is that spirit?

Who is that who sits today in the Chair of St. Peter? Why should he open his mouth so that the spirit of Jesus, the spirit of prophecy, may speak to the nations words of judgment, justice and truth, but his mouth is closed: in the name of a fight against the sins of the servants of the Church?

Are the priests of Christ not servants of Jesus, the Lord, but of the Bishop of Rome? Is it not written: "Cursed is he who by his works defiles the Immaculate Face of the Lord"? Where then is the question?

What pact can there be between Christ and the Devil? Does the doctrine by which kings and all men live by the Divine Law not understand the servants of the Lord? Have the Servants mocked their Lord by electing as Head of the Bishops a peacemaker who is used to making pacts with tyrants and genocides, filthy dictators, murderers of families, women and children, young and old? Is the Successor of St. Peter now making a pact with those who live in the Curse of the Lord?

Has the prophetic Voice died in the Church?

Does the Silence have words? The Voice of John Paul II and Gregory VII is conspicuous by its absence.

As in those old days of glory, when the Alexanders held filthy orgies in the light of day before the nations, is the Roman See today a banquet where the new Alexanders consume their orgies in the dark, far from the eye of the light of Truth?

Is the Lord blind, is the Omniscient Creator of the Forest of the Galaxies whose eyes penetrate the Infinite unable to penetrate the Wall of Silence of the bishops? Is not the Ukrainian church a sister, is not the Ukrainian people a child of the Lord?

Who is he who has come across the seas to govern a Ship that makes its voyage over the troubled waters of Europe, the mother of the nations of the Earth? He has hidden himself in the belly of the Ship, he does not want to see Jesus walking on the waves rising to the top of the mast.

What is this spectacle we are witnessing? The servants of the Devil are joyfully shooting their arrows, The King of Heaven is at War against the king of Hell, and all the Roman Bishop can think of is to suffer and be silent? Will that peacemaker make a pact with the son of Satan for the peace that would devour the Church? Will the son of the Lord stand by and watch how his Mother is besieged from without and from within?

It is not a Day of Peace, in War there is no Silence. The crimes of the ruling houses in Europe will come out of their graves. The earthquake has already begun. The hurricane from Heaven is already spreading its thunder and lightning over London and the enemy crowns of the One Universal King, JESUS CHRIST.

The fire for His House was kindled when He saw Antichrist seated on the throne of England; His Father stopped Him. "Remain at my right hand until I lay your enemies at your feet." The Son lowered his eyes. The time of the Devil was not yet over. There would be a 30-year Fratricidal War, European revolutions and world wars. The Devil had the Second Millennium to deploy his forces and lead Humanity to Ruin. "Patience, my Son; Your Victory is not for one day and the next we turn back. It is for Eternity. All the sons and Servants of God lowered their eyes.

Time is a force on the way; the Arm from which it proceeds is from the Lord God, YAHWEH, Creator of the New Cosmos; its Heart shines with the Light of a Star, the Love of His House. "Patience, children, let the Vessel be filled, and the Cup be poured out. My Creation will never again live this Tragedy. The Judgment is already written and the Sentence awaits its execution; let Wisdom make her Way. He who wishes to die, let him die. He who prefers Curse to Blessing, let him embrace the eternal Banishment from my House. Yet once again I will pour out my Mercy in Obedience to my Unifying Will, whoever runs to me, by his Obedience shall live, whoever remains in the division created by the Devil between churches and nations shall be a branch plucked from the tree of life and cast into the fire."

Where are you going Peter? The Spirit of prophecy is the spirit of the Lord, and lives in his Servant, therefore the Lord will raise up a Servant of his pleasure who will put on his lips his Spirit and the nations will know the Judgment of the King of Heaven and Earth against those who yearn for the spirit of the Antichrist.

LONG AND NARROW IS THE WAY THAT LEADS TO LIFE

20 /03/2022.

I

I am going to tell you the History of a world as told to me by my Father, It is the History of your World, you will do well to pay attention and learn the lesson of wisdom, your life depends on your intelligence.

Once upon a time there was a universe inhabited by different worlds with origin in different stars, after some time they met and formed a civilization of civilizations all sharing the same universal values, which we can define as Fraternity, Equality and Freedom.

Thus they had been sharing for millions of years the Joy of a Natural, Divine Peace, which they did not want to lose for anything in the world. They had known fratricidal crises some time ago and had overcome them, they had been cured of that evil virus and had never again suffered from that disease. In fact, no one remembered the Fratricidal Disease of War until one day they discovered the existence of a World in bloom.

In the beginning it was happiness, paradise, those worlds participated in the creation of civilization in that new world emerged among the stars of the heavens, and cultivated in the peoples of that world the values that were natural to them for millions of years, and formed the backbone of their Peace, which were: Fraternity among all families, Equality among all peoples, and the freedom of all individuals to love each other, to know each other, to live together, and to move through all nations according to the soul of each one.

Like all new life that arises in the stars, in the beginning the Nature of the Earth was an explosion of animal and vegetable life. This explosion of life always occurs at the beginning of all life in the universe; the tree of Intelligent life in the image and likeness of the Divine Universal Intelligence has its origin in the tree of species, then the creative intelligence arises in a particular species of the new world and from that moment begins the path that will lead that species from the animal condition regulated by instincts to the natural condition to intelligent life in the Universe, the backbone of whose Reality is regulated by Divine Truth, Law for all Worlds.

Welcome to the Kingdom of Heaven.

But one day the virus of Fratricide found in the intelligent creature of the new world arisen in the heavens fresh flesh, fertile soil. The virus became pandemic and all the families of the Earth began to engender Cains devoured by a pathological thirst for absolute Power. Soon the Cities began to be ruled by these Cains. One Cain devoured another Cain. Cain could not bear the existence of another Cain, and families continued to beget Cains, an invincible pandemic disease.

For a time the Cains signed peace, but it was only to declare fratricidal war until only one remained, emperor and king of kings of the Four Regions of the World.

Then the Worlds of the Heavens withdrew. If that Pandemic Virus were to leave the Earth it would be a universal war whose future would be a cosmic apocalypse. There was no other cure than to abandon Humanity to its own self-destruction. Dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return.

The disease was incurable. Even God had tried by erasing from the face of History the world that emerged from that first generation of peoples who raised their souls to the Citizenship of the Kingdom of Heaven. All for nothing. The disease that found its breeding ground in the flesh of Cain was incurable; it reproduced, transmitted itself, infected all families, spread through all peoples, had become a pandemic disease with no cure; the Future of human life on Earth was its return to cosmic dust. As time went by, those Worlds would remember the Tragedy and the lesson to be learned is never to allow Death to find an open door in their minds and souls.

Indeed, the world that emerged from that first generation of peoples that structured itself socially as a kingdom, in the image and likeness of the worlds existing for millions of years in the Universe, drowned in the ocean of its own blood, blood spilled during wars that know neither father nor mother, brother nor sister, friend nor neighbor. Cain cannot bear the existence of anyone remaining in front of him with his boots on, all on his knees, head or no head on his shoulders is his last word.

The survivors of that war of Cain against the whole world learned nothing, and as soon as they began to multiply the same pandemic evil began to manifest itself. Families united into tribes, tribes into cities, cities into nations; it was not long before they declared war on each other. The Old History began to rewrite its new pages by dipping the Pen of Hatred in the inkwell of the blood of the brother.

It was obvious: the Disease of the Human Being had no cure.

Human nations were walking towards the abyss of their massive self-destruction on the horse of war.

The decision was hard but necessary: It was necessary to prevent that Pandemic Virus from leaving Earth. It was necessary to surround the EARTH with an External Wall impossible to break down by the growing intelligence of the human being. War and the human soul had become one.

The diagnosis was final: man had no salvation, the future of the Earth was to see its children return to the dust from which they emerged. One had only to contemplate the behavior of the peoples and nations that filled their continents.

Cannibalism was the daily bread in most of the world in the days of the Roman Empire, the highest that Civilization had been able to rise was not to eat each other alive, but to throw those others to the wild beasts for circus amusement of the masses was a pleasure that could not be renounced.

Crucifixion was the gentlest death sentence ever conceived by mankind. The refinement of the death of the other by the oriental civilization has bequeathed us that phrase that we know as Chinese Torture. To kill the other in a thousand ways and each new form more refined in pain and monstrosity was the supreme aspiration to which the imperial terror of the Eastern nations devoted its civilization.

Cannibalism among the Incas, Aztecs and Mayas was religion. In Africa it was pleasure and feasting. War was the science, the art, the greatest adventure to which youth aspired among the North American Indians.

The Roman Crucifixion was the most visible and revolutionary advance of the moment. Impaling entire defeated armies, skinning them alive and putting them on the grill as one does with pigs at a friendly party, were part of the rite of victory celebration among the Barbarians.

In short, the human being had no salvation. For a while peace was signed, but it was only to rearm with increasingly destructive and powerful donkey jaws, and return to the field of fratricide.

The history of peace and war was the never-ending story of the Earth. Until one day a new Cain would find the ultimate Weapon and call all nations to their knees before his World Destroying Power or suffer the consequences: Death of all life!

So the Worlds of the Heavens settled on a Final Truth : The disease of the human being had no cure, Man had no salvation, his future was to return to dust, to leave in the History of the Universe a Memory for Oblivion.

The answer to the threat that the expansion of that man would pose to the Peace in the Heavens could not be other than to abandon man to his self-destruction, to close the door to the creative omniscience, to let him continue cultivating the Science of War, the Final Cain with the atomic jawbone of an ass in his fratricidal hands would sooner or later be born and the vision of the God of the Heavens would be fulfilled: "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return".

Today we have alive that Final Cain, Vladimir Putin, a Mongol, son of Genghis Khan, of the race of Attila, a monster devoured by the thirst for unlimited power.

II

That was the way things were, the mind of the lice of the God of Heaven was already made up, namely: man, insofar as world, had no salvation, his fratricidal disease had no cure; when suddenly a Voice was heard, saying : Man's disease DOES have a cure; there IS salvation for his world.

They all turned their heads and stared at the speaker. If God says so, it shall be so.

None of God's children could see how it would be possible to save man from that monstrous beast who had found in his soul his paradisiacal jungle, his perfect habitat. But since it was God who spoke.... all his children put their hands to their mouths.

Not all of them, but most of them.

Who were they to answer God, "Come on, give us fairy tales; is this monster going to abandon his fratricidal rites and his cannibalistic feasts and give himself to Peace and Justice?

But stand still, the children of God count their years by millions of centuries, but God counts his by eternities. If God says there is Salvation for Man, blessed be his Wisdom, for what is theirs could not see beyond the Final Apocalypse.

Soon a voice began to be heard in the wilderness:

"A son shall be born to us, who has on his shoulders the sovereignty and shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Everlasting Father, on whom shall rest the spirit of Yahweh, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, of understanding and strength, counsel and the Fear of God. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and her son shall be called Immanuel, God with us".

To the first impossibility, to see life to the Future of the Human Race on the other side of his Cainite Apocalypse, the Prophet added an Impossibility of the same Divine nature, (understanding here by "Divine" a reality that only God can conceive, in this case a Woman and Virgin begetting a child without the reproductive participation of the Male). But well, it is Two who told that man to speak and that man spoke. Hence the term Prophet.

Because to say that there is going to be a final judgment, and that some go to paradise and others to hell, or that the world is going to be destroyed, are not things that make the prophet, to speak of these things is something elementary, something that enters the head of the human being and has been conceived by the nations since the most remote antiquity. But to come saying that a Child will be born of a Virgin, and that this Child will be born with the Power of God among Us, this IS.

And it is so because it does not fit into the head of any human being, first, that a Virgin should give birth, and, secondly, that any man can have the Power of God.

The Prophet was a madman. Or a man who responded to God with the same look and attitude as his children: God is the Creator of all, who will dare to penetrate His Eternity? If He says so, it shall be so.

III

It is in this way that the History of the Salvation of the Human Genus begins . "God says, and so it is done". Any "but..." or "see it to believe it..." it is the seed of Death in the soul of creation.

"God says, and it is so".

There is no room for a dot or a comma. God said Let there be light, and there was Light.

The Doubt comes from Satan. Who is Satan to limit the Power of the Creator of the Universe of the galaxies and Creator of the Tree of the Worlds? In whose head is it possible that a creature, be it from another world or from our world, dares to count the years of his existence, the width and depth of his Intelligence, to put barriers to the Creative Power of his Wisdom, to put himself before his Omniscience?

The answer of creation to its Creator has no other words than the one written in this "Amen".

Evidently the Prophet was a madman. To speak to the human beasts that were his contemporaries with the Language of God is like explaining mathematics to a mouse. The mouse, if it could speak, would treat the madman who spoke to it about numbers and numerical letters as a madman.

A Virgin is going to give birth to a Child to whom God will give the Power to be God among men. The Prophet was mad as hell!

And yet that Madman was followed by another madman. And this madman was followed by a disciple, as mad as his master. NOT only the wise men of the neighboring nations who knew the sacred prophetic scriptures of the Jews were taking their fingers to the loose screw that was slipping out of the heads of their people; the Jews themselves had them for crackpots, holy, but crackpots without a cure. They even raised further their response to the Prophets than the Gentiles. They killed them.

Unlike the case of St. Paul before the Greeks, who laughed at his Grace, the Jews killed them. No one is or should be surprised that by killing their own brother Prophets, they conspired against the Christians until they left not a single one alive on Earth.

The Evil of Cain found in his father Adam the open door to the world, and spread pandemically through all nations. Salvation was also for them, but they refused to answer God with the Silence of their children before his Voice: Man has Salvation.

IV

Although, of course, it must be understood that to make of that monster, into which Death had transformed men, a son of God in the image and likeness of Christ Jesus, "the son of Man", would not be a thing of magic dust. You do not go to bed one night in a bed covered with blood, with which you have drunk yourself into unconsciousness in the ecstasy of your strength and glory, and suddenly, as if by magic, you rise at dawn in a bed white as snow, and your soul cleansed of criminal desires as if you had never, in perfect happiness, had enough of devouring human flesh.

The Road to Salvation would be long and narrow. The malignant disease from which mankind had suffered had been active for the past thousands of years. Kill or be killed was the law of life in the days of the Birth of our Age. Either you prepared for war or you were devoured by it. Either you owned the empire or you would be a slave to someone else's empire. And the existence of slaves was not exactly that of the modern proletariat. The slave was a beast whose life depended on the word of his master; it was enough for him to lose his life. He was his property.

Man did not exist in the human being before the Birth of Christ. He existed once. He ceased to exist. To resurrect him was the question. To beget a son of God in the womb of those conditions, resulting from thousands of years thrown into the hell of the Cainite passions, was not going to be exactly a here I catch you and here I kill you. And yet, here we are.

We have Cain before us, the announced Cain, with the Atomic Ass Jaw in his hands, in fratricidal action, as he crushes the skull of his Ukrainian brother, threatening all life on Earth with absolute destruction if they do not kneel before his presence.

And there is the Word that God has given us, not to destroy His House among Us, and, amen, to extend His Kingdom of Justice and Peace over the Fullness of the nations of Mankind.

A madness, another Impossible! One of those things before which to say Amen or to take the hand of Doubt to one's head, turn the screw, and believe that God has lost His mind. This answer is up to each one of us.

I, personally, mine, is AMEN. And formed in the Knowledge of His Being I have written the Divine Story of Jesus Christ in order to eliminate the possibility of Doubt in my fellow man. I know it will be so. The End of the World born of Sin has entered its last straight. The Way has been long and narrow, hard as the Crucifixion of His Son was for God. But there was no other Way than the one we have made from his Birth to our days.

The response of each one will determine the future of his being. No one will die for the crime of another. The nation that continues to live under the law of Cain, by that law will disappear from the face of the twenty-first Century.

Truth has a very simple Law to understand. She is the Mother of Justice and the Daughter of Justice is Peace. In the House of Peace are born Fraternity, Equality and Liberty. Without the first three the second three cannot be sustained. Hence the world wars of the twentieth century.

Therefore, lay down your arms; abandon the Power, dictators and tyrants; those of you whose glory is the accumulation of wealth, making the peoples your slaves, cease and distribute what you have gained among those who have served you as slaves. I say: Cursed is every man who remains in the Ideology of War as a Weapon of Natural Selection.

His name is Christ Jesus, He is the Man whom God has raised up, and whose Image and Likeness in Us opens the Gate of Life for us. Whoever does not advance in the growth of this Image and Likeness in Us, will not know life, will be dust that the Wind of Time picks up and blows out of the Way.

He is the Salvation of God against the spirit of Death which entering the World spread its Fratricidal Disease through all nations. He is JESUS CHRIST; our KING, the Word of God is His Word, by the Covenant He signed with His Blood between God and Us we know that there will be no World War, that there is life on the other side of the Apocalypse that He will stop, and the Fullness of the nations will be healed of the Evil that has afflicted them for generations.

I say Amen, and let everyone say what they will, their answer will determine their future. But the Future of Mankind is the Kingdom of Two, whose King is His Son.

CHAPTER VI

APOCALIPTICAL VISIONS FROM THE BUSH ON FIRE

MISTRESSES

The fact of being alive is the beginning of all things. If God were dead nothing would exist; but because he is alive, the Universe exists. It is the same with us, if we were dead there would be no thought, but because we are alive the future is ours. And here begins the fratricidal struggle.

The battle to be the owner of the Future of Life on Earth gives rise to war. The ideological differences based on how our Future should be and who should be the god before whom we must kneel proceeds to open a contest that does not stop before anything, neither before the Law, nor before Civil War, nor before Genocide: Dictatorship is the road to Glory.

The dictator born in the belly of democracy believes that because he was born in democracy his dictatorship is legitimized.

In short, it is enough to detach oneself from circumstances, to sit naked, and dressed in abstract thought, and from the Fire of the Bush to contemplate the movement that shakes the surface of the waters of nations, and to draw conclusions.

Yet he is mistaken who thinks that eyes and ears are enough to legitimize conclusions.

Creative Thought is the true Nature of human intelligence: sustained by a brain articulated in order to proceed to the isolation of the circumstances that tend to annul the Power of Human Nature, Thought cannot draw the necessary legitimate conclusions that allow it to understand the space and time in which it moves without an Accurate Knowledge of the Past. It is thus understood that every dictator aspiring to tyranny, or only dictator for a day, the first mission he owes to his happy existence is to amputate the Memory of the People, to limit its dimension in Time, and to proceed to a corruption of Historical Truth within the Strip left to study. This is a general law.

No matter what ideological or religious cradle the would-be god for a day comes from, in his Manual of Resistance, or Mein Kampf, he must by logic integrate this Manipulation of Historical Truth, necessary for the lobotomization of the masses upon which his existence must rise in order to live the life of "god for a day".

The god for a day is like a butterfly who knows that his existence lasts 24 hours, with the difference that the butterfly has a natural labor, and the dictator causes the ruin and misery, if not civil war, of the people over whom he raises his throne of corruption.

But the mere invocation of the Creative Thought, even when the edifice of its Conclusions is supported by an Encyclopedic Knowledge of the Memory of Universal History, this Natural Power is not sufficient to recreate the True structure of the Time in which one lives if the Intelligence does not reckon with Him who is the Creator of the Universe, and therefore Creator of the existence of Man.

The lesson of History is clothed in wisdom when one contemplates the Death of the Philosophy of Science which in the 19th Century declared the Death of God.

With God dead, that is to say, His Law in Man, and Universal Moral Society abolished, the nations became murderous beasts, and hungry for flesh and blood they gave themselves up to the fratricidal orgy that we call the World Wars of the 20th Century. We must thank Scientific Atheism and the Ideology of International-Socialism for this Lesson, from which we must draw true Wisdom.

That Atheism and that Ideology are in motion live and direct at the present time; for what is natural to the Beast is his inability to make his Intelligence an Instrument of creation in the service of all other members of the Tree of Life.

As a man I could well invoke the argument of St. Paul when, addressing his critics, he put on the table his struggle in defense of his Faith. From a very young age I have lived my life in a continuous journey through the nations, I have lived in many of them, and through others I have traveled in an adventure of knowledge of Nature and its people. I learned to get by in the main languages of the Planet, Spanish, the language of my parents, and English, to which I added French, and a basic knowledge, learned on the ground, of Modern Greek and Italian. I have bathed in the waters of oceans, seas and rivers whose existence is just that, a name on the map for the vast majority of the human population. My legs have kicked through mountain ranges and valleys in Europe, Asia and America. Europe has become my backyard.

London, Rome, Athens, Madrid, Paris, were the neighborhoods of my life. From them I jumped to any part of Europe as the wind of the spirit rose and took me from one place to another. Venice, Florence, Corinth, Argos, Salzburg, Bratislava, Vienna, Colmar, Helsinki, Vienna, Budapest, Berlin, Klagenfurt, and many other cities as beautiful as exotic for most Europeans, enclosed within the limits of their native regions, free for a crazy weekend of drunkenness in some of the macabre islands of the Mediterranean, the Aegean, the Adriatic or the Atlantic, were the neighborhoods of my city; from this city I jumped to Africa, Asia and America, my World.

40 years for a youth is a long time: can one be an ant and a cicada at the same time?

In the interregnum between my travels my passion was Reading. I ate entire libraries. Others buy houses, cars, things they buy, and when you die you can't take them with you. My things were the masters of the giants of science and literature. If Newton threw himself flowers saying that he walked on the shoulders of giants, having so few in his days, and even if there had been a billion more than today, I made my journey on the Tree of Knowledge by the hand of the Creator of the Universe. HE amazed me and I allowed myself to be amazed. Then it was time for recess. The wind would pick up and I would return to my other passion, traveling.

Because the Vigilance alone does not give any man the power to penetrate the nature of the events that unfold around him. The makers of those events erect an impenetrable wall around them so that no one can dissect the nature of their intentions, penetrate the structure of their brains and discover the impotence in which they exist and by reason of which their actions follow the law of St. Paul: "I want to do good, but it is evil that clings to me". And this speaking from the Christian Charity that wants to see in that evil that is born of their wills a little bit of that goodness. Because we already know that some are more evil than Satan.

Without God, to whom nothing is hidden, nothing is seen. And with God as a father who teaches you as a son the true nature of the events that transpire over the decades, darkness becomes light. It should not surprise anyone, then, that the first thing any aspiring dictator does is to rise up against God, in schools, in cities and in nations, of which the best example is Brussels and its crusade against Christianity since Socialism in the 80's of the 20th century made the palace of the gods its Olympus. The Secularization of Europe is nothing more than a hidden war, initiated from Berlin, against the Foundation of Europe by Christianity, hence they have even tried to erase Christmas from the European Calendar.

Having said that, being a Christian by birth and a son of God by right, according to the one who has been born again of the Spirit, as powerful as my brain allows me to believe myself when interpreting Reality, without God as my personal Master I could not have gone further than any other intelligence could have gone on the wings of the same conditions that I have lived for my joy and happiness. God is the one who makes the difference, and it is HE who seeing in the darkness makes his creature see with his eyes what is really happening.

40 years going by HIS hand is a lot. Above all it gives the Freedom to open the words of the leaders, wise and holy, that they claim to be, and to see in the light of day the true nature contained in their statements "for the gallery".

For the Power of Man is in his word, it was by the Word that the First Man was deceived, and by the word that leaders, sages and saints proceed to create ruin in our day.

Learning to discover by the fruits of men's Word the true nature of their intentions, where they are going, what they want, is vital to avoid our ruin.

Man that I am, in the Word being my life, if I did not live on Earth I would have no duty to others; the Duty to his Creature is of his Creator. But I am here, on Earth, and what others do reverts on me. And I would not want it, but it is impossible to avoid the existence of that pathological nature of those who do not want to live from the sweat of their work but do the impossible to live on the story, lying, cheating, if necessary killing, whatever it takes to live like gods on the account of a population that wants to believe in human kindness but does not know how to accept that they are using it for that, to live without giving a blow, unless that blow of the one who makes the Treasury of the Nation his Ali Baba's cave.

Spain is not alone trapped in this web of corruption that from Brussels has spread throughout the EEC. But being currently making my life here, force majeure forces me to analyze the nature of the circumstances that surround me, affect me and I see that they make a population suffer, all their lives working to finally open their eyes to the fact that they are nothing more than the victim of the national-socialist political vampire, always biting their neck but never ending up tearing out their life, because it would be to remain without the blood on which it feeds. In general terms, this is the true nature of the stage Spain is going through.

From the window of my apartment of 200 euros a month, living on 420 euros, plus the benefit of my books on the Internet, I contemplate the struggle of a people that from so much work forgot one thing: To cultivate the most wonderful tree that exists, the Wisdom that is born from the experience of a life open to the living Knowledge of the people of other nations, the joy of traveling around the Planet, the mother Earth, and from this Ship open the eyes to the infinite and perfect beauty of the Heavens.

Enslaved to the daily bread, the people have been denied to eat this bread that makes them strong before God, and of themselves when they look at themselves in the mirror and within their being they carry that album of their own memories, divine personal wealth that makes life a luxury and existence a blessed glory, even when existence goes through narrowness on the way.

To have a rich Past is the foundation of a Future when youth is gone and we must begin to prepare ourselves to live without that natural wild force, now transformed into Existential Power.

The Future of Man is, then, what we must see on the Horizon. The civilization of Life on Earth must break all its ties with the last stage of the Medieval Age which was the Society of Modern Nations, a deception born in the Protestant Reformation, under which Lie it was intended to hide that the Reformation of Christianity was not a step forward but a 190 degree turn towards the Bestial and Brutal Past from which it was expected to emerge after the Renaissance, and that walking by that lie of the so-called "Modern World" could not be expected more than the Fall of the Imperialist Neo-Feudal nations in the World Wars. As it was.

Those same Neo-Feudal Imperialist forces, supported by National-Socialist Ideological Atheism, silent during the Interregnum of the last 40 years, have returned from the Ice, throwing smoke messages and beating drums of fratricidal world war. To know how to read those smoke messages, to stand firm before the noise of the drums of war, to prepare to defend World Peace, is everyone's duty.

The Future is built from the Present, and destroyed from the Past by bestial forces that refuse to be part of the same Tree of Nations, branches of the same Tree of Life, brothers and sisters of the same World Family, living under the same universal law of freedom and justice. But how can we ask those whose master is the Devil, and who live by his infernal inspiration, to listen to the Voice of God in Man?

This is the Dilemma that is hitting our pockets today.

Life is an adventure. To have life in the image and likeness of God is a marvel. There are contradictions in society, if on the one hand it opens the door to this freedom, on the other hand it enslaves you to the need to work, which God does not need. God does not need to work to live. No wonder God calls work a curse.

Civilization was not made by slaves but by men who were oblivious to the need to work to live. And when slaves wanted to create a civilization they created one in the image of their chains.

Communism is the civilization born of utopian socialism which, like the serpent in paradise, promises you glory and gives you ruin. No wonder then that Ukraine, knowing firsthand the malignity of 21st Century Socialism, whose head is the Moscow Monster, has preferred to die rather than live under the law of slaves.

But what is amazing is how the slaves of the other nations do not learn the lesson, and embrace socialism, the mother of communism, as if the poison that kills some would not leave a corpse for them. To this, to learn the lesson of Life, whether on one's own flesh or on the body of others, is called Wisdom.

Because if life is a personal adventure, the fact of living in a world of slaves and masters in perpetual fratricidal war produces in the intelligence an external reality that, by force of impossibility of catching a ticket to some other star, it has to live by force, and has to suffer it as an experience.

This experience, the hallucinating contemplation of a being who, just by raising his hand, can have everything, and prefers to have nothing, a bird in his hand to a hundred flying... when he was born to be one of those hundreds of creatures in freedom, is a pathological phenomenon for the study of a collective psychiatric anthropology. On second thought, it is not strange that extraterrestrial life has erected a cordon sanitaire around the Earth; rather than live under the law of a Cosmic Putin it is better to let our world devour itself, if our world is not able to rise up and cut off ears and tails of the Minotaur of the North that the world perish in its fratricidal-suicidal apocalypse. What can you do! You give them Peace, and they get bored. You give them science, and they create weapons of mass destruction instead of opening themselves to star travel. Only in War do they find the ecstasy that aspiring to be like the gods has lost the north and instead of looking at Jesus Christ they look in the mirror of Satan. The best thing is for them to believe that there are no other worlds, that they are alone in the Universe, that they are the only life in the cosmos, and to return to dust leaving no other inheritance than the memory of the madness that the Science of good and evil generates in every world subject to its laws. Blessed be God: "Eat not, that thou mayest die". Behold the Earth, behold the test.

Thus, forced to live in a world where to be a beast is the seed of Pride, to be corrupt the path that leads to Power, and to make a pact with Crime the guarantee of survival, one stands still, nole me tangere, or I become a worm.

And I think: Who is surprised that when Europe is governed by worms, they laugh and congratulate themselves for their charity towards Ukraine? They are better than them! Against hypersonic missiles, biological and atomic weapons, they send to the Kiev Spartacus water pistols and Halloween rifles. It is the way these civilized worms have of making a pact with the Devil; as if the Devil were for pacts with worms swimming in the corrupt waters of Brussels like swans in the Danube, more beautiful than, all dressed in white, the mask paid for by the slaves of all Europe, the haircuts of them, the smiles of them. Happiness, long life to the gods of the new Olympus!

To be born again to the life of Intelligence in the image and likeness of God is an event; to die is a Fact necessary to resurrect; not that in the Beginning God made it a sinequanon condition, Immortality was His personal scientific victory, before He created Man, upon whose Origin He sowed and cultivates the Tree of Life of the Worlds; Man chose to die rather than to live forever; it is also true that deceived by the cunning of a Serpent; since then War was our Daily Bread, Bread that came from Hell, contrary to the Bread that came down from Heaven and that, placing both on the Table again God gave us to choose: the Bread of Peace or the Bread of War.

As we can see when we move our eyes three hundred and sixty degrees, we are not mistaken in saying that there are two human groups that have chosen the Bread of War. One is the 21st Century Socialism Bloc, led by the Ukrainian Warlord, and godfather of the New European Lefts. The other Bloc is Islam, in Perpetual War of Slaughter against Christians in Asia and Africa. From the events lived by the Universal History of Humanity in the last Millennia we can deduce without mistake in comma, dot or accent that WAR is the total, absolute, definitive renunciation of Humanity. He who feeds on that Bread of Hell is not Man. The Man who lives on War has legs and arms, eyes and ears, but all beasts have arms and legs, eyes and ears. What distinguishes Man from the Beast is the Bread of Peace, the Bread that came down from Heaven. Two realities therefore: He who eats the Bread that came up from Hell is a Beast; he who eats the Bread that came down from Heaven is a child of God, a Citizen of His Kingdom. The Question is obvious:

What does one do with a murderous wolf who, fed up with the flesh of lambs, wants the flesh of the shepherd?

Brussels and Washington, London and Paris say that the shepherd must be sacrificed, let the wolf feast on the meat of the shepherd, because once his stomach is satiated, the blood and flesh of the Ukrainian people devoured by the wolf and his dogs, the Great Can of Hell will return to the divine Moscow of the Patriarch of the Third Rome to share the spoils with the 150 million national-socialist slaves on whose spiritual and intellectual misery the Moscow Monster, of the race of the White Huns, has raised his throne.

From the fire of the Divine Bush opens the horizon of the 21st Century. Can there be a future for a world ruled by mass murderers and cowards who instead of facing the wolf, as the Shepherd does, they line up to make a pact with the Monster once the meat has been devoured?

Do NOT ask the scientists. Scientists are silent. Nor the Bishops, the bishops put their hands to their mouths. Nor to politicians, politicians grow the flowers with which they will adorn a cemetery called Ukraine.

Is it so difficult to break the chains of fear of death?

This Fear is the wind on whose wings travels the terror of the Devil's son.

God created Man to be his equal, Fearless of Death and Invincible in his Battles. Behold Man now, hidden behind skirts and on his knees before the Hun of the North.

From the heat of the Fire in the Bush you hear words of an unknown language, which translated into Christian comes to say that by 2025 Europe is going to create an army of 5,000 tin soldiers. Destruction is knocking on its doors and all that occurs to the god of Brussels corruption is to throw balls outside?

The gods of Brussels are so used to making pacts with criminal organizations of all nations and species, with dictators and genocides no matter the flag or the dimension of their crimes, that they have finally become blind. Seeing what we are seeing in Ukraine, do the gods of the European Olympus believe that the New Attila of the Race of Genghis Khan is going to stop, supposedly in terror, before their 5,000 tin soldiers. I repeat the question, who is the madman who, being able to have everything, chooses to have nothing? Why would the Butcher of Ukraine stop his war for all the kingdoms of the world on the shores of the Black Sea?

It is the experience of being alive. Here, in Spain, dictator be damned dictator be damned.

The de facto socialist dictator went from aspiring to manage 140 billion Euros, and retire like his master Zapatero, to live the life of a god, to truly believe in the promise of the pro-russian communist party, creators of Venezuelan Constitutional Tyranny. By the Grace and Wisdom and its ANTI-SPAIN allies, Spain paying for the Life Power the price of the Disruption of the Crown of the Catholic Monarchs, the National-Socialist Democracy would be transformed into a bridge of assault and conquest of the dictatorship of the XXI Century in the Peninsula.

The principles of the transformation of a democracy into tyranny, using the mechanisms of democracy, are simple. Sink the Economy, clear the land of all enterprises not akin to the Dictator, create a cushion of survival in misery for the slave class, make those who want to live see that only by supporting the Dictator will they be free from the general misery necessary for his elevation. The Universal Subsidy as a high-speed highway leads the Free State to a State of Legal Corruption at whose feet the Prosecutor's Office, the Treasury, the Armies and the Security Corps must be on their knees, eliminating the healthy apples from the basket and filling it with rotten apples. The message penetrates the people, whoever wants to sign up to the Socialism of the XXI Century survives, whoever does not, every man for himself.

Unions, Nationalists, Independents, Terrorists, "all united will never be defeated". Nazis are all those who oppose the enthronement of the National-Socialist Dictator.

The final phase, at the end of the first two legislatures, is to follow the example of the Russian and the Venezuelan, amputate the Constitution and create a tailor-made one so that the dictator's suit will accompany him until his death.

So far so good. The misery of the subsidies is spreading through all the Hispanic regions like fire on a powder line; the attack against freedom, and prosperity, is massive; and as the Devil comes to the aid of his own, the Pandemic and the Ukrainian War are the two crutches that will help him to install the Socialism of the XXI Century in the Spain that one day was the Pride and glory of Europe, and today prepares its pact with the Russian, once Berlin and Brussels surrender to his demands. They hide this pact with the nutty noise of the disagreements between master and pupil.

History as a living intellectual experience is a great lesson.

But where is God? Does the Devil help his own and Jesus Christ abandon his people?

The Devil is in a rage. It has backfired on him. The cordon sanitaire to Vox, which his servant agreed with the PP of Casado, has been undone.

Casado was a traitor to the PP; as was his mentor Rajoy; what is called a rat, a mole of the enemy, a mine under the wall to blow up the opposition building. Had he been a PP man, Rajoy would have resigned, passing the presidency to the vice-president; but instead he preferred to hand over power to the enemy, in exchange for his immunity from the corruption cases of his team.

He sold the PP and placed a rat at the service of the PSOE with the mission of stopping VOX, and the promise of passing the baton of the Government to the PP after 8 years in power.

A fool is a person who trusts someone whose word is garbage. Europe is governed by fools. They believe that the son of Satan who swore freedom for Ukraine in 1994 and has fulfilled it as it is seen, massacring its population, that same Muscovite snake is going to keep his own in front of the borders of Europe the day after the destruction of Kiev.

The Brussels gods are so used to dealing with worms of their own kind that they have dared to lump the Butcher of Mariupol in with them.

The Brussels philosophy is "he who does not make a pact with the devil, dies", and they are already preparing the New Memorandum by which Moscow will stop its War on the borders of Europe in exchange for an Economic Compensation for the damages caused to its Economy by the interference of Europe in its War against Ukraine.

From this position one can understand the Heroic Declaration of the Brussels Foreign Minister stating that by 2025 Brussels will create a Praetorian Guard of 5,000 legionnaires ready to die killing. 5,000 legionnaires against 500 million of the Russian Federation. Truly pathetic!

The trick to avoid the Brussels War Crime is simple. Since the International Human Law includes NO Relief as a Crime, Brussels sends four little bangers to Ukraine, and thus while making a deal with the devil on the Border Memorandum on the Ukrainian Cemetery, they make a mockery of the Court of Human Rights.

It would indeed be strange that God having written “let us make man in our image and after our likeness” and having before Him what we see before us, God could look in the mirror and say to Himself “I am God”. Quite the contrary, since on one side the metaphysical conception we have of the Divine Being, intellectually elaborated, a conclusion suggested to thought by the existence of Jesus Christ, and on the other side the daily vision of the human being, whose supreme example we see in the Butcher of the North, visible resurrection of the Butchers of the 20th century, In the face of this comparative reality, we have no choice but to agree with Martin Luther in affirming that his Muse was a Hidden God, a God who, in the face of the comparison between the Metaphysical Model and the Visible Image at ground level, would have no other option but to hide in shame.

In what way is the man of all centuries similar to that God who wrote “let us make man in our image”? Taking Scripture literally, erasing the New Testament from the Bible, what we are left with is Calvin's Monster, a Being not of this World who amuses himself by grilling some and filling his paradisiacal Zoo with monsters similar to himself.

Our Classical Thinkers by what they saw they deduced what he was, and seeing the man that they were, and around him they moved, they deduced that being the man of the gods his like by logical force the immortal gods had to be subject to the same passions as mortals. The Morality of Classical Mythology was thus blessed; the Hero was the one who conquered the most land, being worthy of Olympus the one who subjected the most peoples to the speech of his sword. Not having the Original Model, having to deduce from what they saw the Mold, Classical Mythology became the highest Thought so far on human Morality.

We are subject to the same structure of Thought. We must not forget that Classical Logic was adopted by European Christian Thought, was developed and exported to Medieval Civilization by St. Augustine, working on which, having overcome the Crisis of the Fall of the Ancient World, Intelligence reached its highest structure, its Power of Abstraction, with St. Thomas Aquinas, from which the progress of the abstract capacity of Thought made the sciences its field of cultivation, a field in which the giants who carried Newton on their shoulders were born. The Victory of the Resurrection of Intelligence in hand, Newton's successors did not take long to turn their backs on the Civilization that made possible the birth of those giants. But this is Bio-History of Science, a different matter.

The Fact does not lie. The Question cannot be left aside: Who was God's equal: Cain or Abel? Let us transfer the question to ground level: Who is the man cut after the divine pattern we have in Jesus Christ : Putin or Zelenski?

From the fire that fuels the War of the existing Morals, Thought cannot remain oblivious to the Slaughter of nations en route to the self-destruction of life on Earth.

It is evident that the entry of Jesus Christ on the horizon of our intelligence revolutionized the Classical Mythology, overthrew its Olympus and confronted us with the True Man contained in the Word: “Let us make man in our image and after our likeness”. Because there is Jesus Christ, Luther's Hidden God was Satan and Calvin's Monster was the Devil. If Jesus Christ had not been ECCE HOMO Luther's clear reason would have been holy and pure. But, there was Jesus Christ, and in HIM we saw the MAN that GOD begot, first in his BEING and then in FLESH, to live in every man as a child of God and Citizen of His Kingdom.

Here enters the Problem of the Millennia, solved by the Doctrine of the Holy Mother Catholic Church under the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit; so I am not going to add or take away a word from His Created; and I am going to pick up the first flame that ignited these lines. I mean, God could not have looked His Son face to face and even less open His Mouth saying what was written if His Victory on the Question of the Immortality of Life in His Universe had not been conquered before the Creation of the New Cosmos. Could God sit His Glory of Creator on an insurmountable impossibility for His Omniscience? Finally, here we could get lost in the trash literature so fashionable for some time now, with which the youth is fed from childhood in order to amputate their power of Critical Judgment. It is understood that a citizenry incapable of analyzing the words of its rulers is the dream, the utopia of every aspirant to be god for a day.

The Event of the Resurrection of the Son of God is God's Discourse on the Immortality of Man, whom He created in His Image and Likeness to have Eternal Life like His own, that is to say, clothed with Indestructibility. God not only defeated created Death by elevating Life in his Universe to Immortality but advanced a step further by investing it with the Indestructibility Natural to his Being. The Created Being was clothed with the Uncreated Nature of its Creator. Words that would have been carried away by the wind if the Son of God Himself had not descended from the Heart of that Universe to become man and write with His Resurrection the Discourse of the Victory of His Father over Death.

In the Divine History of Jesus Christ I dealt with this Theme of the Revolution in the Cosmos that took place when the Divine Being was formed in the Creative Omniscience and set as a Personal Biohistorical Goal the Creation of a Universe of His Own in which Life, free from Death, would enjoy existence in His Image and Likeness. Written what is written, we pass to the next level.

Obviously Immortal Life in the image and likeness of the Creator of the New Universe implies indestructibility. Which has two sides. Let's put it this way: I can commit suicide, but I cannot die. I die, but I cannot be destroyed. As soon as I close my eyes, I open them. God has made me in his image and likeness as the Self. In this way what was a Divine Good becomes to me a Diabolic Evil, because wanting to die I cannot consummate my desire, so that the indestructibility that was my Paradise is now my Hell. Hence the question: Why didn't God ask me if I wanted to live Life in His Image and Likeness?

An idle question: Should we ask our children when they are not yet born if they want to be born? Will creation rise up against its creator and say: Why have you made me? Will the Ninth Symphony accuse Beethoven of being evil?

Thus, the Discourse on the Resurrection of Jesus Christ has two fronts. On the one, blessed glory, we have been created to enjoy Immortality, with the bonus of Indestructibility, in a Universe whose King is this same Jesus whose Story we fear in the New Testament. Blessed Bread that came down from the Universe that His Father has created, by Him and for Him, in order to nourish our Courage and shield our Thought against that Monster of Calvinism creator of some for glory and others for hell, by reason of which He had to Hide His Face after having shown us that other Face, Divine, in Jesus Christ. The Conclusion of the Divine Discourse was written thus, GOD IS LOVE. Period.

But on the other hand, although created to be Immortal and Indestructible, this Reality depends on the Personality of this same God who defeated Death in the Cosmos, and has created a New Universe in which the Tree of Life of the Worlds has been Immunized, let us say so, against the Destruction that Death, doing its work from eternity, operated in all the Worlds before the Creation of the Universe by God created to be His World. The fact is that this God has a Moral, Social, Philosophical, Theological, Anthropological Personality, foundations of an Ontological Consciousness on whose Building He says of Himself: "I AM WHO I AM".

And here begins the dilemma. The Creation of a World built to be the Home of many Peoples, each created in different spaces and times, implies a Universal Constitution, Legislative Trunk of the Kingdom to which God gives rise. And evidently this Universal Law reflects the Intimate Personality of the Consciousness of the Lawgiver. The Kingdom of God is a Society established on the Principle of the Moral, Social, Metaphysical and Theological and Anthropological Personality of God Himself. The Incarnation of the Spirit of this Universal Law, JESUS CHRIST himself.

To love or not to love to live in this Society of the Creator with his Creation is a Decision that every Creature born in his Image and Likeness, in terms of being, must make. Not that God, as Creator, would ever consider this act: would a father consider asking his son, when he grows up, if he still wants to be his son? It is absurd!

But the fact is that this Act came into HIS world as a consequence of some children who asked themselves if they wanted to remain children of God. This is very serious. For having been created Immortal and Indestructible, to leave the House of God implies Banishment outside the limits of His Creation, and the whole Cosmos being His Creation, and outside the shores of this New Cosmos, expanding to infinity for eternity, what exists is the Cemetery of the Old Cosmos, where will you be able to go?

So bad is the Universal Law from which God has articulated his Kingdom so that all peoples, governed by the same Spirit, may find together in his Creative Wisdom the MUSA of a Divine Future? What are the principles of that spirit, the land where the Law has taken root, and as a Trunk has given its Justice an Incorruptible Body?

Obviously the Personality of God, as we saw in Jesus Christ, God's own Discourse on Himself, in a Wonder to him who loves Truth, has in Justice its star and in Peace its life. But this same Jesus Christ, that is to say, the Living Image of the Divine Personality, is a Fire that is never extinguished against him who makes life his War, Justice his harlot, and Truth his murder weapon. Before this Discourse of God, man's intelligence cannot remain seated to see what happens. MAN in Jesus Christ is the Measure of all things, the Rod that raises the Wall between Good and Evil, the Mirror in which we see the true face of all men. By Him we know that he who loves War is a child of Satan, and he who loves Peace is a child of God.

Now, between Putin and Zelenski, who is the son of whom?

It is obvious to say that what is true for a son of God is true for all creatures. That is to say, the circumstantial fact of the death of the body does not annul the Creative Act of Man in the Image and Likeness of God. Indestructible the Universal Soul that God rests in Life, clothing it with His Divine Nature as far as Existence is concerned, the mere thought of having to face God in a Final Judgment to answer for the crimes and offenses committed on Earth when the King's Law is written, this thought alone is in itself sufficient to kneel down on our knees, throw down our arms, throw away our crowns from our heads, remain naked and convert to the Universal Law by which we are all Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God, the sublime expression of whose Personality is the Apostolic Declaration: GOD IS LOVE. And Father's Love, which never dies.

Whence it could be said, but well, if Satan was His son, and this Father's love never dies, why banish him from His Universe as if he had not been His son?

And here I will have to answer with what was written before. That once he comes of age a son has the personal power to abhor his father, to disinherit himself, and to prefer to live at infinite distance from his presence rather than to remain living under the law of his house. This is a Power we all creatures have from the moment we are created in the Image and likeness of our Creator. Satan and his rebellious brothers chose this path. We know why. They abhorred the Law of Peace and went mad for the Power that comes from the Law of War. They chose to be murderous monsters rather than remain united with all the children of God by the spirit of freedom that is born of Peace. They assumed with full intellectual responsibility and mental awareness the consequences of a Total War against the Law of the Divine King. The Law was pronounced. "He who makes War against his brother, shall die."

Which brings us back to the same dilemma.

God having defeated Death in his Universe and invested his Creation with Indestructibility by this very Reality, the Transgressor knows that his death is the Banishment for eternity of the Cosmos of which God is Lord and Creator. Lord because it is His Property, and Creator because He is the Origin of the Creative Force that upon the Matter of the Old set in Motion the New. Conscious then of these facts, the Transgression having been consummated with the Declaration of War signed with the Blood of the First Man, son of God, Adam, the Sentence had to be fulfilled.

Why it has taken so long to be executed, I have already written in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST.

The fact is that this same Sentence is still in force against every man who remains in the Law of War. For the King's Law is eternal. His Word is the Word, and the Word is God, as we all know. Which means that unlike the men who signed the Budapest Memorandum, and in the name of their States swore that the Borders of Ukraine would be inviolable, and after two decades betrayed the word of their States, thus making the Treaties with their States trash talk, for whose betrayal of the Honor of their States they should answer before Courts of the Nation; unlike the Word of the States, the Word of God is Eternal, and His Law for Eternity is irrevocable.

For, indeed, if God had not sent us His Son, man not knowing HIS Spirit, even though guilty of crimes committed in his Ignorance of the Personality of God, the Penalty could not be to Eternity precisely because of this very Ignorance. And hence a First Judgment was held first, after the Resurrection, the Old World answering for its crimes, and the Universal Judgment was left for a Final Judgment, once the Ignorance was erased from the being of the Human Race, so that by the works born of True Knowledge the behavior of all Humanity would be judged.

There was Redemption because the Son of God believed that once established our People in the True Knowledge of the Spirit of his Father the nations would run to the Citizenship of his Kingdom, and detached from Ignorance, once healed the Tree of Life on Earth our world would give to its Creator divine fruits, a generation of children of God who leading the nations would advocate with their actions for their People, the Human Gender, before the Almighty Judge, our King and Lord, the same Jesus Christ.

The future is in check with the present. The war between Life and Death has opened its final battle, it is played out in Ukraine; on one side man in the image and likeness of Satan, on the other a people born from the bosom of the Faith of Christ. What we do now, whether we sit back and watch Cain smash Abel's head in, or stand up and run to his defense, will mark the nature of the actions we will see unfolding before our eyes in the times ahead.

The battle that is being fought at ground level is being fought over our heads; the King of Paradise has been commanded by his Father to hunt down Satan and his forces and banish them from Earth. As the snake whose head is crushed keeps desperately wagging its tail, so Satan and his forces seek the world war which our King takes out of his hands. The existential question is for Russia and its allies, either they lay down their arms and their peoples bring before military tribunals the fathers of the satanic war against Ukraine, or Russia will be dismantled and disappear from the political map of the Earth. The King has the Iron Rod with which he strikes the nations and they break like potter's vessels; the time is running, the more innocent blood runs, the stronger will be the blow against the Third Rome.

It seems clear after the study of the Universal Memory of Life on Earth that no World can subsist in the Universe as long as its Technological Progress of Expansion towards the stars is subject to the Law of Perpetual Fratricidal Civil War.

As we are currently living, the existence of the Ghost of Cain is a constant. The nature of the fratricidal weapon changes; yesterday it was a simple donkey's jawbone, today it is an atomic jawbone of worldwide mass destruction.

Even if this World were to overcome this new crisis of the threat of absolute thermonuclear war, the Time Line of the last six millennia tells us and affirms us in the final conclusion: This World is condemned, by this Law in force, to self-destruct in a universal conflagration.

No matter the dreamed utopias, the incarnated illusions, the developed ideologies, the blessed religions, the Ghost of Cain, dressed in new clothes and new jaws, returns from the tomb more and more powerful and strong to consummate his sacred mission : Destroy Life on Earth.

In the meantime, each individual to live his time of existence as best he can, leaving each one to fend for himself, and there each nation will manage to give itself an existence as prosperous as possible until the Clock of Time reaches its goal and the Final Conflagration reduces to dust what came out of the dust.

It seems evident that the Expansion in the Universe of a World can only be realized through the Unity of all the beings of that World in an explicit Universal direction, implying the Abolition of the Law of Perpetual Fratricidal Civil War whose effect is, irremediably, the Disappearance of its World in Space and Time.

As far as we know and understand from the Sentence of God against the one who invoked this Law as the Motor of Civilization, this Law of Impossibility of Expansion in the Universe on the Science derived from this Law, this Impossibility is Absolute. God merely laid His Experience in the Cosmos at the feet of our World; having seen World after World fall into the same Abyss, God simply announced the End of the Path. "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return". Termini Station; finite journey, the Perpetual Fratricidal Civil War Train has come to an end. "Bye bye baby; enjoy the written chronicle of your Death".

The question is how to abolish this Law, and how to make the Universal Unity of the Fullness of the Nations of this World a Fact. For, from what we have seen until today we can believe that the mere idea of building a Universal Organization for Peace is answered by the nations with a struggle of hegemonies, of individuals to be the most powerful, the greatest, the divine head, the god of all and for all before whose presence all, individuals as well as nations, must bend their knees and close their mouths, being allowed to open them exclusively to breathe an amen.

Such is the situation today, when the New Cain announces the End of Life on Earth in the name of his glory and the sacred hegemony of his people.

Copying the classic saying: "Nothing new under the sun".

And yet the Vision of our Need to look at the Universe remains in us. The Knowledge of the Earth's Timeline does not lie. The Earth has a time of existence, relative to its Life sustaining capacity, limited in Time.

The pathological belief of science and the international powers that be in the possibility of continuing to live on Earth for a few thousand more years is comprehensive suicide. The desertification of the Earth and the loss of Water from the Polar Caps has been a constant since the Creation of the Biosphere. Climatic changes have been a natural dynamic inherent to the very structure of the Solar System, and above all, to the Temporality of the astrophysical structures. Within this Law of astrophysical structures, Life has a Time of Growth from Animal Reason to Creative Intelligence, during which, as a World, it must direct its Scientific and Political Resources in that Universal direction. In order to this Attainment World Unity in Universal Peace is the Way to Victory.

This Law, Universal Peace as the Way to Life in Time, is the one that was broken when the first king that the first peoples, organized in city-states, had, decided otherwise. Instead of Peace that king chose the path of War as the vehicle of expansion of his Civilization throughout the Four Regions.

Instead of remaining as one more Citizen, elected to maintain in Peace the Unity of all nations, that king chose to be a god among men, to establish his word as a law of life and death before which all men had to obey without limits, or suffer the consequences. The effect of rebellion, as was to be expected, immediately unleashed the consequent revolution; his kingdom entered into Fratricidal Civil War, which in time proved to be Perpetual Civil World War.

God, who already had ample experience with Worlds that passed before His eyes for being unable to recover from that Wound of Death, leaving in His Memory the memory of a broken Promise, seeing the Civil War already unleashed among the City-States of the First Kingdom known to the History of the Earth, foretold to our World the fruit that it would reap from its harvest of Death and Destruction. Almighty Truth that has been swallowed up in the Dust kingdom after kingdom, empire after empire. And, in the meantime, the Earth dying.

The Dilemma we face Today is how to recover lost Time. This on the one hand; on the other, how to close this Perpetual Fratricidal Civil War, not only at the local level, but at the World Level, establish Peace at the Universal level and Unite the Fullness of Nations in the same Law and Intelligence.

The clashes of personalities and powers leave us powerless to bring them down from their podiums of glory, to make them renounce the privileges they have inherited and conquered to live as gods for a day. For such rational animals the very idea of the Creation of a Peace governed by a World Unity on the way to a Civilization with a horizon in the Stars, it is unfortunate to say, is a heresy, a direct attack against their fantasy of remaining, as long as the Earth lasts, gods for a day.

And here we are. The growth of the Intelligence of Life in us has run its course despite its long and narrow journey even against Science itself. For we must distinguish between Intelligence and Science; Science is the necessary instrument for Intelligence to develop its creative activity. The other, to believe that there is no Intelligence outside Science is the Evil Philosophy which having penetrated during the XIXth century the minds of the powers that be led and dragged the XIXth century into its Wonderful History of Heroes and Villains which we know as the World Wars.

The Reality is that if there is no Intelligence there can be no Science, but without Science Intelligence remains. Prehistory is the invincible proof that makes it unnecessary to raise dust by discussing what is indisputable. Unless scientists now wish to deny that Art and Religion have nothing to do with Intelligence, it follows that Science is the final stage of Intelligence itself.

True, without Science the idea of subsisting in Space and Time is incredible. Not in vain, invoking again the Jesus-Christian Thought, God spoke of Science of Good and Evil, thus opening Intelligence to a Law which, if we were subject to its dimension, would lead our World to the Instrumentalization of Science as a Weapon of Self-Destruction.

Unfortunately that generation led by the Adam of the Bible believed that it could elude the Divine Truth and impose its own law on Death itself.

And here we are, witnessing the Fratricide of the new Abel by the usual Cain while the Judas who sold out Ukraine once and have now abandoned her to destruction, gather to congratulate themselves for their Cowardice to stand up and face the son of Death.

The Battle ahead of us to build this World Organization of the Fullness of Nations, Unity for that Lost Universal Peace, in the light of whose Law the 22nd Century will live, is under our feet. We are in the Battlefield; there is no turning back now. Judas refuses to hang himself and believes he can lead his colleagues to his camp after having made a pact with the Russian Caiaphas to annex Ukraine.

Neither the Russian Caiaphas nor the Anglo-Saxon Judas ever expected that the Ukrainian Abel would rather die with his boots on than return to the law of the Soviet Neo-Empire. In the announced Chronicle of the Annexation of Ukraine signed by NATO it was taken for granted that in 24 hours Kiev would fall. And everyone was happy.

It is a law among cowards that the sight of a brave man is offensive to their pride and they prefer the prompt death of the hero to being accused of having been a party to his death by following him alive. Under this law they have gathered today, March 24, in their European lair to wash their hands and make believe that they are doing something other than certifying the death of Kiev.

For its part, the Moscow Cain maintains its nuclear war theater to hide its pact with the traitors to the Budapest Memorandum. Everybody wins, nobody loses. Ukraine? Let's see, who would think of stripping itself of its Nuclear Force in the name of the Judas Peace?

And the question born of this Betrayal is clear: which nation will ever again sign a Peace Treaty with another nation if the Word of the States is garbage in the hands of the Wolves that the nations give themselves for Presidents?

On the other question everyone knows the answer:

After this War the sale of arms all over the world will skyrocket. long live business! And the arms race of all spectrums: nuclear, biological, drone, will skyrocket to the necessary limits to activate that great orgy that would be the Third Absolute World War.

But in the meantime, the Bidens and their ilk will have a divine life, and will dance on the Ukrainian cemetery with the clean and clear conscience of those who prevented an atomic world war.

Hallelujah!

MISTRESSES

What is this that we are living? Who is this God who delivers his children to the slaughter? Who will say from now on? "I am a son of God".

Where is the madman who wants to be born to be torn to pieces by Satan while God celebrates a banquet of silence over the tomb of his children? What God is this? Is this the destiny of the children you create: to be torn to pieces for the entertainment of the gods? Who will welcome in his bowels the fire for your Name? Is NOT Ukraine your daughter? Or is the word of your Son, the Almighty, the Omnipotent, true God of true God, worth what the word of those who celebrate banquet pouring in their cups over the blood of your Ukrainian son? "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called children of God". Didn't Ukraine undress in the name of Peace on Earth? Or will he be called Peaceful who turns his back on Cain and blesses his Crime, that dog of war, daughter of Satan, Russia?

For this God has written his sentence in the Fire of his Oath against the murderers of his daughter, saying:

Against Russia : Celebrate your orgy, daughter of Satan; devour the flesh of the children and the women of my people while you still have teeth. Thus will I do to the daughter of Satan: I will tear her pride and her garments of war; from every city of her empire I will make a nation, and she whose name is Russia shall be a curse among all the nations of the Earth; whoever says "I am a Russian" shall be cast out of fellowship with every people and banished from the society of every man as one who has before him a child of the people of Satan, a citizen of Hell. Your teeth and your iron paws shall be brought to the house of my daughter, which I will make into the Tower over which the banner of my Peace shall fly.

Against America: Behold what God will do who was in his arm a sword of salvation and in his pride went to lie with the Devil's daughter.

As a grouping of stars scattered by a hurricane wind coming down from the Cosmos, so will God do with your flag, every star will shoot out of the Union, your glory will be thrown into the mud from which you were formed, and the very idea of returning to the Union will be drowned by a rain of blood in which your Creator will make drunk the lovers of the daughter of Satan. The Judas who gave you for lord and king will answer for his war crime against Ukraine, daughter of God.

Against The United Kingdom : You rose up against the King of Heaven and declared yourself god on Earth. You accused God of being the godfather of your genocides and your savage crimes against my people of Earth. You have consummated your crime by handing over a daughter of God to the son of Satan. And do you think you will escape your ruin? Was not man created in the image of God? and at the cost to the speaker of his own life? In what image were you created London? In the image of Antichrist, thy god and lord? Your kingdom shall be broken, never to meet again. The diamonds of the crown of Satan's wife will be cast into the waters of the Thames, and whoever rushes to rescue them will drown in the depths. The Kingdom of God is a People of the brave, each one is a hero; about the cowards, it is written "Out". Now ask your divines, servants of Antichrist, Satan's wife, how you can buy the Judge who against you has signed Sentence. Dance, London, while you can. The borders of Europe shall be closed to your children, and the song of your people shall be abhorred by those whom you abhorred.

Against China: Your mother is a Dragon that came up from Hell, since you set foot on the earth, from your plants came out fountains of blood all of innocent peoples trampled by your thirst and your hunger for power. God will take the Sickle and will reap the harvest; he will take the Hammer and will break your strength, from every region of your infernal empire a nation will be born, among them your name, China, will be an abomination.

Against France: What have you done, my first-born daughter, how have you slept with the wolves and delivered your sister to the slaughter? Having beautiful nations, all your sisters, with whom you could go to contemplate the stars of my heavens, you went with Judas the Anglo-Saxon to bless the slaughter of my daughter? Paris, your glory, will no longer be counted among the great cities of the Earth; Madrid will surpass you in beauty, Rome in joy. But God will not destroy you, for He will have mercy on France, his daughter.

What are you looking at, then, nations? have you not attended the funeral of NATO on the day before its demise? do you not believe that the King of Heaven has the Power to execute the Sentence that his Father has written with Fire?

Weep, Ukraine, for from your tears of sorrow will be born a river of joy that will lift your head above the nations of the World. God will rebuild your cities, which will be the admiration of the nations of His Creation; your land will be Holy Land, he who does not take off his shoes when stepping on your borders will be consumed by fire. Thus the nations will see that the daughters of God are the apple of his eye, and whoever dares to raise his hand against a child of God will be cursed for eternity.

When all these things take place you all shall know that the kings is God.
