METHAPHYSICS

Man is the Creation of God. Given the Creative Nature of God's Intelligence, the Intelligence of Man tends to Creativity. Because of this, the Human Brain is an ocean in which Mankind, as Individual, sails forever, and from its vastness comes out the Social Nature of Man, which engenders in everyone the need of a Creative Civilization in order to realize himself.

Man cannot reach Civilization by his own. Man needs Society. Man needs Civilization to grow in Knowledge and develop his own Creativity.

This leads us to make Pedagogy the First shores to which direct the creative, social forces of Society. There is nothing more important and transcendental to Human Society than the Formation of Man's Personality.

Ergo, there is nothing more important and transcendental to Tyrants and Corrupt Governments than putting down the Nature of our National System of Education, whether causing the deterioration of the entire system, making of Man the closer thing to an intellectual idiot; or directing the spirit of Pedagogy to a specific specialization of the Individual, at the price of wrecking the multiform and poliphacetic activity of the creative human mind, this way making man good for one single thing, and worth nothing for the immense spheres of activities open to Civilization.

The Crisis of this beginning of the XXIST Century is a crisis of Intelligence. The Governmental Corruption under which waves the Democracies have turned their back to a Civilization grounded in the Intelligence of the Individual to look around, and to come together to share the Data on the table, this Corruption, has put Justice on her knees, and obliged her to accept a Society based not on Intelligence but on the Power that comes from the Number of Nuclear Weapons possessed by the Nations.

Because this Power, the Tyranny of Russia and the Dictatorship of China have put the League of the Nations on its knees; and because our Silence before the Global Terrorist Nuclear Speech of the Russian and Chinese Tyrants we are all to be blamed for the Genocide of the Syrian People going on, and for the many Genocides accomplished before our faces during the last decades of the XXTH Century.

A World whose Growth is under the Thread of Total Destruction is a World making its Path to its Total Extinction.

Accordingly the Christian Nations we require the Immediate Abolition of the Security Council of the United Nations.

If this happen not, we, the Christian Nations, we shall leave the United Nations, we will let free the UN Hall for the gathering of the Russian Tyrant, the Chinese Dictator and their satellites; we, the Christian Nations, we shall gather into a New League of the Fulness of the Nations, founded on the Equality of Will among the Nations, freeing the Will of the Nations from the Terror by Russia and China spread upon the World.

We will rise the New League of the Nations to the Nature of a Tribunal of Universal Appellation, before which the People living under the Terror of a Tyrant will bring their claim for Freedom and Life, and we will move, as it's has been shown in the Liberation of Libya, with the Force of the Law, which comes from Justice, against monstrous Tyrants and bloody Dictators.

The Will of the Nations shall be Supreme, and not limits will be set upon the Power of the Nations in the Hour of making Peace to reign upon all the People of the Human Race.

We, the Human Race, are being dishonored, disgraced and stained with the blood of the Syrian People, as we were by the blood of the Rwanda Genocide, and by the blood of the Sudanese Genocide. Had the power to stop the Syrian Massacre was not in our hands, not blood would be upon our heads; but the History of Libya in our eyes, the Horror our hearts are living, by the Russian Tyranny and the Dictatorship of China forced upon us, stain us all with cowardice, and make of us all terrorist equal to the Russian and the Chinese Governments, whose Power to bless the Butcher of Damascus is based in the Threat from both Nations against the Community of the Free World. "We do as they order, or we expose ourselves to a Nuclear War", this is their argument.

Let them hear our answer:

Man has been created to the Image of God, and as God does, we stand on our feet to live Freedom upon the basis of Justice, and we will not accept to live on our knees no matter the reason. If Nuclear War is required to defend Man's Freedom, Nuclear War they will have.

This stated we have to come back to the basis upon whose foundations Society was born, and Civilization carves its path to the Future on the rock of the Present.

Man, having been created to the Image of His Creator, looks at himself as a soul born to enjoy the fruits of a Living Creative Intelligence, which tends by inertia to Omniscience. Once this Fact assumed, nothing and no one can turn this page and make, suddenly, of Man an animal whose power is based on Reason, and whose strength is founded on the Force of the Individual and the Nations to fool Justice and, turning Justice into a whore, make of Power the source of their social status.

By Creation, Man is revolution in eternal motion towards a better Future. Education is, by this Divine Origin of Mankind, the most important stage in the Life of the Individual, woman or man. To leave this Transcendental Stage, the Human Formation of the Body Society, in the hands of political parties coming and going, it is, as it sounds, a crime against the Future of the Human Race.

Education and Politics got to be separated. The Pedagogic Body has to get in its hands, at a national level, the Formation of the Mind and Intelligence of men and women according to the Principles of the Natural Rights by the Creator given to His Creation, and the natural growth of our Race in the dimension of the Creative Omniscience.

It is all by itself given that in a cosmic situation room wherein the Intervention of a Divine Being is not computed, a Life and Death are left alone to their devices, and Natural Right is not taken as source of Law: the law of the jungle become the open source determining the behavior of the nations and individuals; but the actual Reality is this: the Divine Right of the Creator and the Right of the Creature are part of the same Book of Justice. This being the Fact, Natural Right is the projection of the Divine Right upon the Nature of His Living Creation, by the rising of the Soul of His Creatures to His Supernatural Existence, by and by we aspire to Omniscience through Intelligence and to Immortality through Faith.

To reach this final stage, it is absolutely necessary a Society based on Peace, Justice and Truth, the fruit of which Tree, Freedom, cannot be set aside in order to preserve structures of a Past that has already become a cancer in our very days.

Fear to Self-Freedom is pathology in itself, and the cause of the dictatorships and tyrannies are already on around us. God is Self-Freedom, we have been created to enjoy this Self-Freedom in the body of a Universal Society. Ergo, the Rising against a Tyrant it is the Right of men and Nations, a Right at this very day massacred in the fields of Syria, Ukraine, Yemen, Nicaragua, Venezuela...

What to say about that Policy by which the Tyrants are blessed by the Economic Powers through that ideology of non-Interference in the affairs of the national entities, while those same Apostles of genocide as a Right of the Ruler Class do interfere in the Rising of the people by arming the Tyrants?

We'll see, as Time goes by, that in a Society where Pedagogy and Politics are separated, the Rising of a Tyrant is aborted before being conceived.

Politics deals with the Process of growth of the body of the nations; by and by the meaning of the political body is to bring forth answers to the natural, logical questions arising from that same process of social evolution.

Given that the Future is the Unknown, the Incognita, the Frontier challenging the World Centuries to keep growing, Pedagogy deals with the formation of Mankind in order to prepare Society for the hour when the dealing with situations not envisaged by the past generations requires Intelligence. To answer the new Challenges with answers from the Past, called them as you please: Socialism of the XXI Century, Capitalist, Communism, or whatever you may fancy, it is to chain the Civilization to the Pantheon where the ghosts of the Past sleep forever.

Thence the First Challenge from this Century to Mankind, as a whole, is to proceed to the Separation of Politics and Education, raising the Education Body to the Rank of Metaphysical Need. And through it, by implementing a World Model of Formation, bringing the New Generations to a Universal Conception of Mankind as a Body, we shall proceed to banish from the Civilization that Criminal Ideology of Nations as Prisons ruled by tyrants and dictators empowered with Freedom to commit genocide in defense of their social status quo.

New questions require new answers. Capitalism, Socialism, Communism, Hinduism, Islamism, all are answers from the Past to situation rooms without alive actuality. All those old systems tend to implement the power on the hands of the dictator of the day. But as the New Questions stare at the World as One Universal Entity, those systems are in the roots of the Problem the Nations are going through today.

Irreligion, whether in the old or in new versions, all and each lead to nowhere, they only arrive to reproduce the same immobilism that was the point of depart against which Atheism came about. The more dangerous this immobilism because the self-washing brain operation involved in the process of the conquest of the Society by the Ideologies, secular and clericals, of today.

As much as Politics tends to be everything, so does Science. However, only Christianity has in its self the Power to get free from its own errors, and proceed to go forward.

Science and Politics have shown us all that they can do. Science and Politics has accomplished a frustrated destruction of the World Ecosphere by blasting an amount of six hundred megatons against earth, water and air during the forty last years of the past century

SEE this

Number of Atomic Bombs blasted during the Period 1945-1998, underwater not inclusive:

	air	earth	total
USA	141.0	38.0	179.0
URSS	247.0	38.0	285.0

TOTAL	427.9	82.428-.434	510.328-.334

Between September 1961 and December 1962, 244 megatons were liberated. This 244 megatons gives 16,250 atomic bombs Hiroshima-Nagasaki type. 510 megatons comes to be 33.000 atomic bombs. Plus the explosion under water, how many atomic bombs were blasted against the Ecosphere?

An Alien Civilization, wanting to exterminate the Human Race from the surface of the Earth, I ask: would had proceeded in a different way?

It is time for us, sons of God, to show what we can do.

SOCIOLOGY

The Origin of Society is Life. Nature itself, by its own system of Reproduction, implies Society. The Need of “You” and “I” to become “Us”: is the source of Society. Family, therefore, is the Cradle of Society.

However, a Revolution was made and consummated in the heart of the Universe when a Being, born not of Nature, but in Infinity and Eternity, decided, all by Himself, and by His Own Will, to become “He”, the Head of that Society by Nature existing in the realm of Life.

“He”, being Uncreated, therefore indestructible and invincible, with His Will of becoming the Head of a World Society, He caused in the Cosmos a Universal Revolution.... Because How could such a Being, who is Indestructible, share the existence of beings born to die? And what is more important: Why that Divine Being saw Himself sharing the Existence with worlds born to pass away?

To answer this Question we have to enter in the Heart of God.

That Will of God, by which He made His Mind to become the Head of the Universal Life, it is rooted in the Need that God Himself feels for Society. This Need of God for Society became the Source of the Revolution which, as Time went on, did transform Uncreation into Creation.

But it is obvious that to share His Existence with worlds born to die God had to raise Mortal Life to Immortality. To reach this Victory, God had to become the Source of the Creation.

And so it was done. God proceeded to create a New Universe and gave to the Three of Life a New Cosmos as its field of Manifestation.

In the Old Universe the worlds came and went, and nothing remained of them in Space and Time except Matter. In the New Universe God gives Himself the Work of a Peasant, cultivating the Tree of Life, which Fruit, the Worlds, He harvests and takes into His Own World, a World to be inhabited by numberless Nations.

By becoming the Creator of the Worlds, Life becomes Indestructible and Immortal; and by His coming to share Life with His Creation He takes the place in a Society where He is the King and Head of that Universal Civilization, in all its aspects: Religion, Defense, States, and so on and on. God becomes a Person among Persons: Someone you can see, Someone you can talk, the King.

Society then comes from Nature and aspire to eternity due to its Divine Source. It is from this Source that Life tends naturally to God. And it is because this Source Divine that Society tends to Justice as the road to Freedom.

It is because this Source that the Individual tends to Truth and Intelligence and feels the Need of Society not as a load but as the bridge to his happiness.

Concluding this first paragraph I say: We are Social Beings, firstly, by the structure of Life itself, and, secondly, by the Divine Source of our Universe, in which having breathed His own Being the Creator becomes the Ontological Force leading the Individual to His Source, in whom we Creature find out our Self-Realization.

But, obviously, Society means Freedom. A Society based on Slavery and on Tyranny of the few upon the many, is not a Society, not at all, it is a hell.

The Wonder and the Greatness of Society is based in the Sharing of Everything by Everybody. This means, of course, and God sees it so, that the Foundation of Society requires from the Creator of the Worlds the Sharing of Everything with Everybody. Assuming this Foundation as the Rock upon which to build the Society between the Creator and His Creation, God took an ultimate step, He adopted as Family the being of the Creature. The Relation Creator-Creature became the proper of "Father and son".

In this chapter it is very much interesting to define the line between the "being" as an "Individual" and the being as a "Person".

Even if the Individual is a complete existential unity with life in itself; this fact does not makes of him a Person. The Person is the Individual who reaches his perfection in the realm of Society, develops his potentialities in the heart of Civilization, this Need becoming in him a Power of Creation.

We observe that the Historical circumstances under which our World has made its way from the Neolithic to the Atomic Age, gives to the speech of those who deny the Existence of God as the Source of Life on Earth, some basis. While saying that Society means the sharing of Everything with Everybody, being God Indestructible and Immortal and All-Intelligent and All-Powerful, given the misery and tragedy of Mankind we find ourselves before this Dilemma: "Really is such a God out there?".

We should be very stupid when not accepting the basis in the Atheist Speech, and at the same time we would be very stupid in giving some credit to a speech older than Cain. What really hurts is not the stupidity of the Atheism, but the stupidity of those who calling themselves Christians do deny the Divine Principle of Society: "Everything for Everybody". Because at the end of the day the big question is not whether there is a God out there. The big question is whether we have His Spirit.

But to turn to the main, the relation between the Man and the Society, let's say that the Police is there to enforce the Law, but when Police is there to be the bulldog of a Political Party in Power, Police becomes a criminal organization.

Armies are there to enforce Peace, but when Armies are there to enforce the Tyranny of those in Power, Armies become criminal Organizations.

States are there to enforce Justice between the Persons, but when the States are there to enforce the Injustice of one Person against the others, States become criminal organizations.

Thus, Society is something more than a Modern Building founded on the ruins of the Medieval Structures. And while the Civilization keeps on looking away and denying itself the answer to the Dilemma between the Creator and the Creation, between the Individual and the Person, Society will keep on walking on the path of its total destruction through the Global Crisis already on.

It is more than obvious that. as the Medieval System was based on the Force of Destruction of the few upon the many, the Modern System has given way to that Old Theory of World Order through Power, on one hand, and Justice through Money, on the other.

A Society where the few give themselves the right to kill the many at will, it is not Society.

There's not Society where the few confer to themselves the right to dispose of the wealth of the Nations at pleasure, making of Police and the Armies Forces their House Dog.

The Structure of Society has the Goal of freeing the path of communication of wealth, material and spiritual, from everybody to everybody. Power is there to stop the madness of Individuals working to raise barriers along this Path of communication.

The States are there to enforce the Freedom of Intellectual, Scientific and Spiritual Motion from the Individual to Society. Because if the realization of the Individual in the Heart of the Society is the Person, the Person is the Core of the Civilization, the Self-Free Being in which the entire Civilization is conceived and projected to the Future.

There is no Society without the Individual. And yet, the Individual without the Projection of his Singularity into the Heart of Society becomes a self-destructive alien; it is in the Social Person that the Free Individual finds his perfection and happiness.

To conclude this second paragraph, I say that the step of the Individual to rise upon Society with the intention to enslave the State and the Nation to his will, this is madness, and by it the Individual becomes a criminal entity. The function of the State is to run straight ahead and stop the Madman, but when the State itself is the body of the Madman, then the State becomes a criminal organization.

Useless to say that the United Nations' talk with a State as the Syria of the Butcher of Damascus, which is in itself a criminal organization, it is a suicide of the United Nations, and a blessing to the Genocide of the Syrian people. Before which suicide the United Nations have only one alternative: To Abolish the Veto and the Terror Speech which the Security Council promotes, or to close the entire Organization of the United Nations.

Society, then, entering in a third paragraph, by these two foundations: Life and God, tends to promote the Perfection of the Individual by the impregnation of God's Personality upon the entire realm of Civilization. It is from the Personality of the Creator that the Individual, whether consciously or unconsciously, acquires a Personality.

We see sanctity referred to "sharing" Everything with Everybody. And this is so because this is, as I said before, the Spirit with which God came into the Society. He came to share Everything He has with Everybody He has created.

On the other hand, we see how the more the people get apart from this Spirit of Sharing the less humans they are. These two forces, the struggle between the Nature in us, leading us to share everything with everybody, and the Individuals, who want everything for themselves at the price of everybody's destruction, even of themselves, this is the real War going on. How to get rid of this madness in the root of the Six Thousand Year's World Civil War we have been through, how to heal this sickness affecting the Body of Mankind without destroying the Society, this is the challenge we have in this very day.

And as I said yesterday, I will say it again; this is a crisis of Intelligence. A crisis promoted by the Powers as a mean to extend World Control, necessary to World Order according to those Few, at the price of cutting the Formation of the Intelligence of Man under the premise that an intelligent man is and uncontrollable subject, and ergo, Idiocy got to be the goal of the Public School System.

Decades working on this field have given its fruit. We see how the worst people of a nation rise to Power, how the good men are being pushing away, (let's remember the case of the Spanish Judge Baltasar Garzón, a better man impossible to find), how the people vote again and again to those who lead them to ruin and misery.

Public Idiocy being the goal of those in Power, the harvest has been generous. Crisis is everywhere.

Which, to conclude this third paragraph, lead us to the final point, Where to buy Intelligence? Where is the shop where you can go and buy Intelligence, more and more?

Remember the Word: "Ask, and you will be given".

Is it not Intelligence the Nature of Man?

What else will you find Intelligence at the Image of God but in God?

Peace and Health!

PHYLOSOPHY

But what is Freedom?

The Power to destroy whether a human life or a wild species, is it comprise in the meaning of the definition of the word: Freedom?

To kill and destroy anybody who opposes me and dare to criticize me: is it a Power inherent to Freedom?

Well, if so, that man whose hands are not stained with blood he will be less free than that another man whose hands are full of blood.

If so, that China which patronized the genocide of five millions of Sudanese people, it is a Land more Free than France, or Italy. And the Russia, patronizing the Massacre of the Syrian People, is a land more free than the United States of America.

As a matter of fact, following this logic, the more people a man killed the more free he is. And so comes to happen with the nations. Ergo, following this suicidal logic: Freedom is the Power to destroy, and the Power of Total Destruction makes a man and a nation the more free. Which leads us to Perfect Freedom: Universal Self-destruction. As it's seen, the madness in such a conclusion leads us to say that Freedom based on Power is madness.

Freedom is based on Peace.

Freedom is the daughter of Peace.

Freedom is the power to walk together towards a far horizon even when we know each other just a minute ago.

Freedom is the power to go through a dark forest with absolute trust in each other, even when we know each other just two minutes ago. Freedom is the absolute absence of Fear of each other.

We know each other minutes ago; you are from Africa and I am from Europe: "Let's go". We run, we laugh, we shout, we climb, we swim, we sing, we play, we talk. And you know why? Because you and I we love one same thing, and that same thing rules yours and mine, heart and blood with the same Force : Peace.

But again, Peace is something to define according to the need of the Individual?

Or is it Peace a Word which Definition belongs to the Universal?

Is it Peace my right to drink my wine upon the graves of my enemies?

Is it Peace the Power of a State to Govern upon the Freedom of the People in the name of Order, making of the Right of the People, to criticize the Government, a crime?

Why is it Spain raising a Decree against the Right of the People to criticize the Government a Crime against Order and Law?

Peace means the Silence of the Dead?

A Peaceful man, then, is a coward?

The Silence of the Coward is the Definition of Peace?

Take a look at Germany. Libya rises, and the Minister of Defense, a young and brave man, equal to Sarkozy and Cameron, want to join the Forces of Liberation. The Angel of Deutschland gets the scissors and cut the testicles of the New German Man. Then Syria rises, and the President of the State is there to rise his voice. Again, the Angel of Berlin uses the scissors to cut the testicles of the Man.

So, is it Peace the power to turn the back on our fellow men?

"I am Peace", says Berlin, "he is killing you, that's your problem. Here, no one moves".

Is it Peace the Silence of the Coward? Did not join Germany the Forces of Liberation of Libya because Deutschland is a Nation of Cowards, ruled by a Lady whose only interests are to make of Germany the Kitchen of Europe?

So, what is Peace?

Once said that Freedom is the daughter of Peace, and given that, politically speaking, Peace is defined not according a Universal Value but according to the Need of the Moment, we can't really break into Freedom's realm while Peace is in the blue.

We know something and this for sure: Peace has nothing to do with the Silence of the Coward. Curiously enough, the attitude of the Nations towards the Massacre of the Syrian People is positively related to the Silence of the Coward.

To enter in the Hall of Peace, then, we got to break, first, into the House of Justice.

It is God who said: "Truth is the Father of Justice, and Justice is the Mother of Peace". I'm not quoting Plato or Kant, but Someone who knows a lot more about Justice.

Why Truth is Father to Justice?

Let's be real.

We have King Solomon in his throne, and two women fighting for the same child. Both women are asking for Justice. The scene is clear.

We have a powerful man in whose hands are the Word: Life or death. Solomon could speak according to his Power or according to Justice. According to Power, as we see in the Trial of Christ, Truth is Nothing. "And what is Truth?" said Pilate to Jesus Christ.

But King Solomon did not speak Justice according to Power. He judged the case according to Justice as Universal Value, a value by which every man is subjected to its Nature and rules the behavior of us all.

Let's see it this way. If King Solomon was a Judge of our days, he would have not considered Nature ... but Money.

The natural mother has the right of Procreation by which the Child belongs to her. But she has no means to feed the child; or, at least, not the economic means that the woman claiming the child as hers.

King Solomon got to make Justice. He gives the child to her natural mother; and this even when the child will not enjoy all the commodities that the adopting mother could profligate to him.

If Justice got nothing to do with Truth, King Solomon, rising Economic upon Nature, having the Power to crush the Universal Reality and to configure a Pocket Reality, in the name of which to deprive the Child of his Natural Mother for the sake of his Security, and to pass on the kid to an adopted mother who, by her wealth, can provide for him the commodities her real mother cannot offered him, he should have done so.

But King Solomon did not crush Nature; King Solomon did not spit in the Face of the truth; King Solomon did not rape the Universal Value of Justice. The question is obvious, WHY?

He was the King, he was the Power, he was the Law, he was Justice.

However, what has to do Nature with Justice?

Look at the dogs. Will you get close to that sweet friend of yours, unable to bite the hand that feed it, in its days of puppy breeding? You can't get close to its little dogs while they are being milked. Mama dog gets wild. The call of Nature rings the bell of the beast. The Law of the Universe is Supreme.

Or see the elephant when the hunter gets close to its kid. Daddy elephant gets wild, he sounds the trumpet of war, he beats the drum of battle. It is the Call of Nature.

A man may not be able to give his son a castle and a kingdom, but he gets wild when the danger crawls around his house. A father may be the more peaceful human on Earth, but when the time comes to defend his child, watch out, because the wild beast is rising. This is the Law of Nature; this is the Call of the Universe. This is a Universal Value.

And this is why King Solomon gave not the child to the mother who had Economic on her side, and took back the child to her natural mother, because there's something that only a natural father and mother can give, offer and surrender for the love of his blood and flesh: Life.

A man will fight to death for his child. No man will do that for the child of someone else. It can happen, but it's not rule.

The Universal Rule is that Parenthood does relate Man to the Wild when the time comes for Protection of his Child.

An adopted child can get from his forefather lots of commodities, but it will never get that Real Love which can lead Parents to surrender their own life in the fight for their son.

This is Reality. This is the Universal Law. This is the Truth.

The Law of Adoption fighting its way in our days by which Children can be adopted by Gay Couples is a crime against the Right of the Children. Not because the privation of one of the parts implied in Parenthood, but because a Parenthood not founded in Nature cannot proceed to rise the Wild when the Bells of the Universal Law calls for protection of the Child at the cost of the Lives of the Parents. This answer is Natural only to the Parenthood based on the Law of Nature, and in its defect on the Law of Adoption by a Couple ruled by the Call of Nature. Children are not dolls. A child is not a play-thing. A mother and a father, whether poor or rich, is by Nature and Universal Law: the river from whose source comes out the most precious treasure in the World a child can receive : TRUE LOVE.

I hope to give you something to think on.

POLITICS

The State has the function of promoting Right and Law between the Individuals. Society is based on the genius of the Individual after all. The Individual as Being is Supreme. Society exists only because his genius: and the Call of Nature to Civilization puts at the feet of Man the higher state of existence in which the genius of the Individual reaches its top stage. The State therefore is an Entity created by a Society of Individuals regarding the Edification of Civilization upon the Basis of the Supremacy of the Individual into the Realm of Right and Law.

Let's put it this way. We have Cain and Abel. Right and Law is there. But Cain put down the State while assuming for himself the Power of the State, becoming a murderer. It seems clear that the function of the State has been abolished and turned into the criminal arm of Cain. But the State was created to stand between Cain and Abel and make impossible any crime, fratricide or civil war.

The State is a Body created by the Society of Individuals to promote Right and Law, and to stop straight from the source any movement of the Individual in the direction of Crime and Tyranny.

Given this function of the State the Power of the State to promote Right and Law and Stop the Individual moving to Corruption and Crime got to be Supreme; this is to say, the State is the Projection of the Individual to the higher state of Power conceived by the Society for the sake of the growth, in Time and Space, of Civilization.

While created by the genius of the Individual, the State is an Entity apart from the Individuals, which exists in the Heart of Society to maintain the genius of Civilization in Freedom. Accordingly, again, the State got to be All-Powerful to exert its Nature: The Promotion of Right and Law, and stop Corruption and Crime.

Christian as we are, having been given a Model of Civilization, and this Model created to give to Society the Higher state of Growth, we look at this Model as disciples studying the work of their Mentor, all of us moved by the mental principle that the work of this Mentor is the highest realization to be reached by a single Individual, this Individual being God. We see this principle ruling the Nature of the State in the Crown of the God-King.

As Society cannot by itself bring into Civilization an All-Powerful State based on an Incorruptible Disposition to promote Right and Law among the Individuals, God Himself becomes that All-Powerful Head of the State. This way while leaving Civilization in the hands of the genius of the Individuals, by assuming Himself the Head of the Universal State, God shows us the Nature of the Relation between State and Society. The State is there to sustain Freedom and Life, and at the same time, as God cannot be assaulted, or put on His knees, the State is an entity created for the sake of all, a Body beyond the power of the Political Power.

Returning to the case of Cain and Abel, a State founded on Right and Law, its Nature beyond the interests of the Individuals, that State should have moved on and placed itself between the brothers to stop crime and bring Cain to his senses. Fratricide, Civil War, is the rising of Murder to the dimension of the State. Cain said: "I am the State", this is to say "I am God".

We see this declaration over and over again being uttered through the millennia. As a matter of fact this assumption of the Individual becoming the State, this is to say, of being God, is the main cause perturbing the existence of Civilization on Earth ever since the Siege of the State by the seed of Cain was completed.

The History of the West Civilization is the record of a constant struggle between Society and Individual; struggle which will reach its final higher stage the day when a simple man may rises to defy a Government to the point of making fall a tyrant before the eyes of the entire nation within the security that no hair will fall off his head during the process.

Man, as Creation of God, is Supreme in his Source, Perfect in his Nature, and complete in His genius. Without this Individual there is no Society; therefore, the opposition of a Political Body to the rise of the voice of the people asking Justice and Freedom, right then and there, turns any State coming to the rescue of that Political Body into a criminal organization, and a criminal body ready to kill, to crush, over and over again, the genius of the Individual, upon which, in the first instance, came Civilization to existence.

Again, we see in the case of Syria the madness of an Individual declaring himself the State, this is to say, God; and God having the Power of Life and Death, the Syrian Butcher behaves accordingly, killing and crushing and massacring entire populations. Not that this Madness is a Syrian pathology. French Revolution was directed against the Madness of the Sun King, who had not shame to say "I am the State", ergo: "I am God". Soviet Revolution was directed against the "Czar-God" too.

The entire History of our Civilization is, straight from the start, a non-stop struggle to build this State born to promote Law and Right against Crime and Corruption.

The aim of the kings and queens and emperors were always to be like a God. To become the Head of the State was their madness.

The State is an Entity beyond the Individuals, created by the Individual for the sake of Social Freedom. This leads us to look at the State as the Model by our God set in motion in His Kingdom.

We see a perfect Separation of Powers in the realm of the Civilization of the Kingdom of God. When God assumes the Head of the State, He raises between people and people an All-Powerful Head born to perform these Two Main functions: Promote Justice and Peace, and stop Corruption and Crime in the name of Civilization.

Politics is bound to rule Society in the Realm of Intelligence, and this is its glory. Word is the Power of Politics. Any movement of Politics in direction of deploying Force makes of the day's Government a Criminal Organization.

The Nature of Politics is the Word, and, because, the Government of the Nation go to be deprived, by the Separation of Justice and Government of the Temptation to identify itself with the State. If a ruling party cannot find the answer to the questions on the table, the Government got to leave Power and leave the stage to the genius of other Individuals.

There is not "I am the State", there is not "I am the Democracy".

The recurrence to the Force, to Violence, by turning the bodies of Law into the arm of a Government, regarding to hold the Power, is a crime against the Nature of the State.

We see in the Arab Spring, just to refer ourselves to the immediate events, how this pathological tendency of the Governments in Power to remain in Power at any price, it is in fact the origin of the Arab Rising. Being the Nature of the State to promote Law and Right with an All-Powerful Arm, the Arab Governments have turned this Arm into a Terrorist Appendix of their bodies, from that moment putting themselves out of law, ergo: making any conversation with such a Terrorist Organizations in Power a crime.

It is, then, the Non-Separation Government-Justice the root in the Fratricide behavior of the Human Kind. Government is there to be a table around which the forces of Society gather to resolve the constant problems created by a Civilization in constant growth.

The Word is God. God is Power. Ergo: The Power is Word. Any recurrence to the Violence against the People, whether by turning the bodies of the Law into a criminal appendix of the Government, or using the Destructive Power of the Armies to crush the word of the opposition, any recurrence extraneous to the Nature of the Political Dialogue, it is a crime against the Nation and the entire Government is subjected to Prison if People's Blood is shed.

Of course, we see that what there is not, that what we don't have, and from this lack we put on the table what we want.

We, the Individuals, are Supreme, let's say it again, and therefore without us there is not Society. There is Society because we recognize Civilization as the higher state of existence where our beings develop its potentials and our Supremacy is promoted by the State according the Principles of Right and Law ruling the body of the Civilization.

Freedom is rooted in Nature, Equality is born from the Power of the Word, Intelligence makes of us People, and we define the State as the Nation's Arm to maintain the Supremacy of the Power of the Word free from the interference of the Pathology of those who love Power for the sake of Power.

Political Power is related to the Nature of the Word. And this is the Power of the body Politics. The Power of the Government is not based on the Power of the Army and the Police. But in the capacity to present the right answers to the questions by the times brought on the table. When the Government is unable to bring upon the table the answers to the problems of the living Society, the Government must to go and leave open the door to those who can do so. Any recurrence of Violence to shield that incapacity is a crime against the Nation.

We see that to Shield Abel against the Pathology of Cain we got to bring down to Earth the Model of State already set up in Heaven, where Political Government and State have been separated, closing to the Individuals in Power the Call to bring forth the Arm of the State in defense of their Pathological obsession to stay in Power no matter what.

We have to sit around the same table, naked, not armed, and rethink the Foundations of Society regarding to build the Civilization according Right and Law. The State is there to Shield the Individual, Society and Civilization: against the Pathological tendency of Governments to recur to Force in the name of their Love for Power. This goal can only be achieved following the Model we observe in the Kingdom of God; this is to say, Justice and Governments must be separated.

The function of the Government is to face the temporal, political problems and proceed to give them an answer. The Power the Government to proceed is the Word, expression of the Intelligence of Man. The recurrence of a Government to Force, using the bodies of the Law as their private bodyguards, put that Government out of the Law.

The natural function of the Military Arm of the State is to defend the frontiers and act at the order of the Geopolitical Structures in Power. Any subjection of the Army to the need of a Government for shielding itself in Power, leading to Civil War, brings forth God's Decree against War, of any kind, whether holy or political: Death Penalty.

This way God has freed His Kingdom from Civil War and has promoted between the Individuals the Word as the Power of Civilization.

While rising Himself to the Head of the Armies of the Nations of His Kingdom He has advanced the Impossibility of International Wars by the Obedience of the Armies of the Universe to His Direct Command. The Separation between Government and State Forces this way completed, the natural and historical tendency of the Human Nations to reach this stage of Peace Civilization, we see it in the Alliance of the Christian Nations; by which the Wars among the Members, in other times a rule, have been cast out from our borders and frontiers.

This is a first stage leading to a Universal Alliance of the Fullness of the Nations by which War will be forever cast out of the Body of the Human Race. It is the challenge for the Politics of this Century.

We will conquer, and our children will know War in the Books of History and only in the Museums of History.

ECONOMICS

HAMMURABI'S DUTY. REGULATION OF THE MARKET

The Golden Law of Society says as follows: Economy has three main walls. These are: Producers, Sellers and Workers. The Flow of Wealth from Producers to Workers determines the wealth of the Sellers. It is of common sense that if the worker is treated like a slave and, like a dog, he is obliged to do his work, the seller collapses under the simple law of slavery by the producer given to the worker as salary. As the seller can't buy to the producer, because the pipeline of wealth from the worker to seller has been blocked, the production falls by effect. And so on and so forth.

We see from the days of Hammurabi, a guy who lived three thousand years ago, that the duty of the State is to determine the motion of wealth among producer, worker and seller: by regulating the Contract between the parts.

Again, we see how the Persian Empire based its Power in the Duty of the State toward the Structure of the Social Contract, this way retaken the Hammurabi's Philosophy on the Necessity of the State as the Regulator Power of the economic relations of the peoples, this way making of the Economy the Column of the Wealth of the Nations.

Of course, this Philosophy of the State as the Regulator Power of the Motion of the Wealth of the Nation it has been always subjected to the perversion of the definition of Slavery as a Natural Law. The Ancient Greeks gave to this perversion of the Human Nature the character of Philosophy, injuring the progress of the Human Civilization enough to sink their own Nation in the Slavery they thought to be a Universal Law ruling the lives of the other but not theirs. The Universe rose as a body to bury the Greek Philosophy. When the Romans fell in the hole of the Greek Philosophy and made Slavery their mine of gold, Roman Society built its own ruin when the Workers were displaced by the slaves and by it the flow of the wealth from producer to seller was broken.

Christianity implemented the Flow of Wealth from Producer to Seller by the abolition of Slavery. The Producer must pay workers according justice, just because ... with a just salary the pipeline of wealth flow is restored.

Yet the Invasions came around and Civilization has to start all over again.

We see in the Codes of Visigoths and Franks how the basis to accept the Christian-Roman Code of Law was already there. And in this direction, the Restoration of the Tree Walls of Society, we were working at the time of Gregory the First, so to speak, when the irruption in the Civilization of the Islamic Law brought back Slavery Culture from the grave where Christianity had thrown the Philosophy of the Greeks. Suddenly the improvement from "slave" to "servant", wherefrom men would jump to the condition of a free worker, again was broken. However, the Christian Nations kept their fight to the teeth until at the end they broke the chains and became free. The Modern Era had begun.

From the Sixteenth Century to the Twentieth Century we observe a continual struggle between the Monarchies and the peoples. Revolution after revolution History pushed its way towards the Greatest Revolution ever lived until then by the Modern Nations born in Christian Soil: The French Revolution.

We observe how the Monarchies rose as a body to destroy in its cradle the Human Rights. But God was on Napoleon's side, and the Young American Republic was on the side of God. There was nothing they could do to stop the Birth of the Human Rights and the abolition of the servant condition of the people. Step by step the Absolutist Cultures of the Pre-revolutionist Era were given way to the New Status of Man, the Revolution Era ending with the Fall of the Anachronistic Monarchy of the Russian Czar.

However, the rise of the Working Man brought with it a new struggle. The Producers always fought back the Freedom of the Working Man by subjecting his salary to the pay of a dog. The different Crisis of the Society of the XXTH century had in the rupture of the pipeline of Wealth by the Producer their cause. The Working Class once subjected to a salary of a dog can't lead the flow of Wealth to the Seller, and consequently the Crisis got to explode.

Crisis led to the World Wars and by the killing of the dozens of millions of working men in it buried, the Crisis was gone.

But the economic crisis as a phenomenon was not resolved. It was just suspended until the process will start again and once more to be resolved by a New World War.

On the way the War Forces of the Nations led the World to a new situation room. A Third World War had been made impossible. The Evolution of War Technology had reached the point of World's Total Destruction.

The States should had, by then, followed the Hammurabi's Philosophy and come up on to the stage as the regulator of the Market through which the Pipeline of the Wealth flows. Some did, France, Germany, and England. Some did not, USA, Greece, Spain... And so on and so forth.

What really characterized the Actual Crisis that already has swallowed the Independence of Greece as a nation and has jeopardized the Freedom of the USA' People by Bail-outs, it is the situation of the breaking of the pipeline of Wealth by the giving-up of the States as Regulator of the Contract Market. This is to say, the Producer had perverted the Nature of Democracy by placing in Power his puppets.

Let's start with Greece.

Greece is a Nation without technological Culture. Greece's richness is in its soil. Greece produces everything that is vital to Man: Greece cultivates all that kind of Mediterranean Fruit and Vegetables which makes Man's Life a splendorous time. Until the fall of URSS and Yugoslavia the Economy of Greece was healthy, and the Greek people lived in a kind of paradisiacal state where the Wealth followed the natural course from producers to sellers through the workers. Greece was Greek People's.

The Fall of the Berlin Wall caused the opening of the doors of freedom to the people of the Balkans, who, when Tito died, and with him the Yugoslavian Socialist Republic, led to a pacific invasion of Greece by the natives of Albania, Rumania, ex-Yugoslavians, a desperate people looking for work at any cost, which they found in Greece, though receiving a salary three times below the normal salary going on. The displacement of the native people by a foreigner working man selling his ass for a dog-bone had begun. As this displacement of the native Greek population became larger and larger the unemployment began to rise. It was the right moment for the Greek State to rise and regulate the Contract Market, this way stopping the displacement of the Greek People from the work market towards the unemployment bourse. But the Greek Government didn't do it.

The Greek Socialist Party left the displacement to happen, left the relation between the producer and the worker to the will of the first. Workers began to be treated like dogs, their salary could not buy them even a full day living. And as the time went on, the sellers began to count spiders and rats in their business, while the producers lost their Drachmas by the Millions. The pipeline was broken.

To worst the Greek situation, the relation between producer and worker was made without the need of any type of contract, which deprived the State of the Control of the Producers' Wealth. The ruin of Greece was on the way, and the Socialist Party all what was doing during that critical period was selling the Country by the Euro. Yes, as the State could not pay its own public employees, the State had to recur to the private Bank.

And here we got to ask, why did the Private lend Money to an Insolvent Subject?

If a man can't pay ten, how will he pay twenty?

The dynamics of the Greek Socialist Party was the following: Sign ten with one and thirty with another; fifteen to pay the Private and the rest to cover the need of the Public. But as nothing was done in the meantime to regulate the National Contract Market, it was just obvious that once swallowed that "thirty" the State had to sign seventy with the Private. And as nothing was done in the meantime by the State to work like a State, this dynamic would lead the Greek People to sell its Independence to the Private. At the end of the Process the Private would dictate the Policy to the Greek Nation. Point already reached by Greece thanks to the Wonderful Greek Socialist Party. Still so, the State is doing nothing to repair the broken Pipeline.

We have France, Germany... where the incoming of the foreigner to their working market is regulated by the State, this way controlling of the flow of the Wealth among the Three main walls of Society. You may be from Spain or from Algiers, but you don't come to France to work below the salary by the State stipulated. The flow from the producer to the worker must be, always, enough to fulfill a day living and an extra amount to pass on the wealth from the worker to the seller. Again, if the worker is treated like a dog, the seller can't sell, and the producer finally receives the evil he has created by losing his clients. And so on and so forth.

We see this evil in the South of the USA where the displacement from the fields of the Native Americans by the Mexicans, has gone through the same process, causing the bankruptcy of the Southern States because the States did not regulate the Contract between producer and worker. The producer got richer, the States got poorer, and the American People went to the unemployment bourse. Naturally this situation once created it does engender the hate of the native population against a foreigner who takes his job by selling his force for a dog's bone.

Have the USA regulated this Market?

NO. Why? Because if done so the People in Power could not bail-out themselves. And yet there is only one door out of this mess: Rise the Salary of the Worker, Regulate the Contract between Producer and Worker and subject the Producer to the Control of their Wealth. To be rich is good, but to get rich upon the misery of the worker, is evil.

The case of Spain it is the funnier because the Spanish Socialist Party had consciously dragged down Spanish Economy to ruin the eyes set on a 300.000 million of Euros Bail-out from the European Central Bank, after which to retire and live like gods upon the misery of the entire Spanish Nation. Thanks to God German and France had risen to become a Wall against it.

The answer to the Crisis has so been given. The Bail-out answer is the Creation of a black hole in the bottom of the sack of ambition. If the State take's not Hammurabi's Duty, some will laugh to death watching the USA selling American People's Independence to the Private, as Greece has already done.

Which lead us to the main point: Economics.

THE EVOLUTION OF DIGITAL MONEY

Yes, we are living under a World State of War. Peace is just an interregnum between the last and the next war. It has been so always. Peace is a space of time in which the nations get ready for the next war.

See the Commerce of Machine Guns all over the Planet, every move the Nations made during the interregnum of Peace is but a play in the next War's Waiting Room. The Foundations of the Politics and Economics are so much related to the Industries of War, that all it needs is a spark to kindle the Fires of War.

Of course, we have learned a lot from our History. One of the premises why War exists is the self-alter ego of those who have made the choice of the Devil, they want to live like gods, while at the same time they need to patronize the welfare speech in the name of their privileges and status quo. War is for them the way to get rid of trouble.

The day the British Messiah came around godspellizing the Empire of the Queen with the Good News: "War is a tool in the hands of the Chosen Ones"; well, that day was another very sad day for those who aim to build Civilization upon the Equality of the Individuals.

Two World Wars and the School of Atheism still patronize War as the Universal Legal Procedure to get rid of the weaklings? Don't you know who the weakling is? Tell you what; we are many millions in these days. See what they're doing with the weaklings in Syria. Get ready, you may be the next.

However, you can't stop a machine without immobilizing its wheels. Can you? To stop the Machine of War we have to interfere in Economics, the real foundations of War, and proceed to revolutionize the entire structure of Commerce and Industry. Well, here there is a bit of a problem. Is it really Economics the foundations of War?

The answer is clear. Why did Cain kill Abel? Cain wanted to control the whole global market, and as Abel thought it weird, Cain had to kill his bro to sit at the top of the world. Funny, but not to the dead. Abel was put against the wall: Slavery or death? Cain had it very clear: "You work for me, or you're dead". It is more or less the structure going on among the descendants of the blood of Abraham: They kneel before the law that their kings and prophets dictate to them, or they kill them at will.

Egypt made it through because Obama; Libya, had Sarkozy and Cameron; poor Syria, had no one to plead her cause.

Nations come and go; Mankind alone remains. Power change from hand to hand; Civilization keeps going on. It is to us to turn our back on War and stop its wheels.

But how? As I said above, by gathering all the Armies of the World into a Single Alliance, this way separating the interests of the individuals from the interests of the Fullness of the Nations. We see that since the West joined their Forces into a Common Alliance the most warlike nations in the world, the Europeans, have banished War from their political horizon. Get yourself a Book on European Modern History. Year after year, century after century Europe was nothing but a field where kings and queens fed themselves upon the misery of the commons. WWII was the last war ever Free Christian Western Europe was involved in. We got to follow this same rule, extend it to the Fullness of the Nations and see our World free from the sting of the Death, WAR.

Now comes the dismantling of its wheels. The goal is not to banish War from Mankind, but to stop the people of the future to put the wheels back on the road. This leads us to Economics, we have to put down the entire fabric upon which War is based.

Money is the fabric. We have to proceed, immediately, to turn Paper Money into Digital Money. The Magic of Money consists in its capacity to disappear. Once Money is transformed into Digital, we suppress this Magic.

We have seen in our days the new Magic Kings of the West using the Power to lead the Public Wealth to the Private Bank, then the Bank collapses, the Money disappears, the people in Power wash this Money in the public Debt, while refilling the collapsed bank with public money. The German Helmut Kohl, the Greek Papandreu, the Spaniard Gonzalez, the French Mitterrand, and their Italian Socialist partners used this magic in the '80 to make their parties real forces; not that this was their only trick, but they were, so to speak, the inventor of this one in particular. In the days before the Euro and during the same epoch, Germany became a Casino, the Socialist Parties in Power, and those fellows above named, used to depreciated the French Franc, the Spanish Peseta, the Italian Lira and the Greek Drachma against the German Mark, gaining tremendous profits in a matter of months. But this is Politics, not Economics. You have to see the line between Economics and Politics if you want to appreciate the details in the picture.

It seems clear to me that by the conversion of Money into Digital and its exposure to Justice and Law: that Magic is lost, and with it the destination of Money to Criminal and terrorist activities.

Same way, by becoming Digital Money the action of washing the products of the criminal activities is stabbed in the heart. Digital Money cannot appear and disappear, it can grow, it can flow, it can move, but it cannot disappear in the blue or appears from the blue.

Money is to Society what blood is to the body. It got to reach every single cell, some members get more than other depending on its functions, but every single part of the body gets the blood it needs to live and work. The Heart pumps blood not according privileges. The same blood reaches the toes and the brain. Depending on the running function some members drag to them more blood or less. While you are strictly watching, your legs, in comparison, gets less blood than your eyes; and when you are running your legs receive more blood than your ears. Blood does not disappear. The blood needed by the fingers is not deviated to the knees. So Digital Money also.

What we see is that the People in power drive the Money from the Public to the Private not to feed any function but to feed themselves. It is like the leg driving all the blood to them, getting big and bigger while the rest of the body gets weaker and weaker. They call this pathology, in our days, bailout. We understand that every nation has its own way to cause this deviation. But whatever they do, they can do this because while the entire Civilization is changing, Money is still under the laws of the Medieval Ages. This cannot be more so; we got to give it an end. You can have three trillions, but they will under the eye of the Law. Money comes: Where it comes from? Money goes: where it goes? Under this Law the body of Society gets healthy, strong and happy. Do whatever, but do it under the Law.

It gets two men to understand that this Conversion of Paper Money into Digital Money implies and signifies an entire restructuration of the relation between customer and commerce, in our societies nearly completed by payment with cards, and the relation between the bank system and the State.

It is to understand that in a first phase Paper Money got to stay alive for the relation between the International Blocks, this is to say, between the EC and US, Russian Federation and so on. And in a second phase the International regions will finally deal their economic relations through the Digital Money.

Every State is Supreme into its frontiers and every Justice Department All-Powerful to call every man, whether I and you or the President of the State, and render account of the movement of Money before its tribunal. Two Departments of Justice in need : One to have the eyes on the Private, and the other on the Public Treasure, and both All-Powerful to cause the fall, both of the private Powers and the Governments, when the individual wants to play the Wizard.

The rest is a question of moving on. The Bad puts on the mask of the Good to reach Power and from there to sack the Public Treasure at will. But what would happen if there is not Freedom to Sack the National Treasure after the Conquer of Power? And what if the Bad cannot transform the Blood Money into Goods?

The Process of Conversion of paper Money into Digital is already going on. To take this process into Consciousness means to give it the Power of our Will to reach its end no matter the opposition to it from those who want the Structure of the State to be as it is, for them to profit the day after their conquer of Power.

There is hundreds of detail more in the picture. To open the eyes is the first move.

DECLARATION OF FREEDOM : THE HEART OF THE NATIONS

The main factor in the origin of the actual situation of the people of planet Earth comes from the incapacity of the people to lead their lives for themselves, a factor which push the nations into the hands of, precisely, those who had in that incapacity of the individuals to create a world for their own good, their sources of revenues and privileges.

It is a situation coming from a long time ago. It comes all by itself that this struggle between the good of the individual man, unable to walk by himself on his own shoes, leaving to others to lead his path through life; and the selfish self-interest of those few who had in that incapacity their door to the life of a god, it is maintained selfishly by cutting down the access of the many to the cultivation of their own intelligence. Reduced to the conditions of domesticated animals struggling to survive upon the miseries falling from the tables of kings and queens, and though the concessions to the human domesticated animal increases as time goes by, the goal of the masters is no other but to keep their old privileges, which they do using many political subterfuges, according to which they supersede the language by depriving words of their natural meaning.

The fact is that after the massive attack on the fauna and flora of the planet by the madness derived from that struggle, and having failed to destroy the Biosphere during the Atomic Age, a massive attack of 30 thousand atomic bombs have been recorded, the rulers of the Nations, absolutely given to the total destruction of life on Earth, keep threatening the Human Race's Existence by turning a deaf ear to the Voice of Mankind.

The essence of all the political systems of the Earth is based on the impotence of the intelligence of the individual to write for himself his own future; the supremacy of the individual has been handicapped in the name of order and law.

The aspiration of the individual for breaking free, dies in the womb. The political systems created to preserve the king's and queens' status quo cannot allow the individual to reach his self-realization.

It is to observe that the masters of the United Nations are using the sacrifice of the Syrian people to warn the rest of nations not to cross that door, or get ready to suffer the consequences. In response to the impotence of the masters to create a new stage of history, the superpowers are gathering and getting ready to dictate to the entire Planet their rule: the entelequia of their economic systems the only choice.

And yet the many can crush the few, though some lives will be sacrifice for the good of the future.

There was two thousand years ago a Man who before this kind of choice led the people of the Earth to sacrifice themselves in the name of the fall of those systems during his days ruling the nations as animals worth only to live on their knees before the masters of the world. That man followed the example of Abel, choosing to die instead of raising his arm against his brother, who did not feel any scruple in killed his brother "in the name of law and order". Cain was the first man who perverted the nature of the political language and deprived words of their natural essence and substance, and acting as a lethal virus introduced in their womb the new meaning, he designed for them. Ever since the politicians, whether with or without crown, have been using this unscrupulous method.

Questions arise from the observation of the behavior of the human life on Earth. It is worth to live the life of a domesticated beast?

Like trees, people are born and die without moving.

The disease is so pronounced and its effects so powerful that even when told how to break free the domesticated human animal simply prefer the well-known chains to the unknown fortunes of freedom. Many waits for an creature from Heaven to come down and to resolve their problems. But all they have to do it is to break free. Gather together, define goals, fear not to die. Death plays with fear to keep us all as tree in a plantation.

It is very painful to see the kind of history life on Earth is writing in the book of Creation. Life loses ground before Death. Death is burning the doors of mankind and sacking the nations over and over again. What are we doing? Why let us again and again led to the same field of horror? Have we finally fallen in love with War, the child of Death? Look around. They are sacking us in the name of our own good. What? Can you believe it? You stab me for my own good? Who's the mad, he who let himself be killed or he who kills?

Domestication is the price to pay in the name of freedom? Better to be alive like an animal in a cage, than being dead in a grave called freedom?

Observation dignifies to whom watch closely the path to total self-destruction by this race written in the book of Creation. The lesson cannot be more direct and final:

War is a Crime; the Science of good and evil is the Door to Hell.

The Law against it cannot be but absolute destruction of the being of the Transgressor.

Let's free the Earth!

One by one, all the nations, let's create a Heart to the Nation, where all the wealth of the people will go and where from this blood of the civilization will come back, clean and pure, to the people. Let's take the wealth from the private banks and place it in the hands of the people.

Those dinosaurs which have been sucking the wealth of the nations will raise their puppets politicians in power to stop our freedom. We will advance. Fear will not detain our path. Those monsters will fall. We will not stab them. History will bury them.

Once this done, this bank of the people created, a heart for the nation, will be the hand who will sign the first home family, and will support the first work project of the individuals at the time to come into manhood.

Tell me, does the heart rates an interests on the members of the body for its work? Felicity is based on self-confidence. See the vision, where you are going, remember where you come from, and move. No rage, No criminal intention, justice and freedom the two eyes, the two arms, the two legs, of our actions in history. It is this lack of Heart what makes the body of the Nation enter in crisis and in a stage of pre-collapse.

Gather together, leave all the parties at the services of the masters of war, create your own, not to reach the power but to administer Justice, and give to Freedom a body.

Power belongs to the God-King of the universe; power that comes from the Soul, power to create: this is the power given to the human race. Power to be one single nation, power to be one single race, power to be one single civilization, power to give to peace one soul. This is the power of the sons of god. This is the last stage of the Creation: to be sons of god. Those who want you to be domesticated animals have to deny this ultimate, transcendental and glorious fact: man has been created to be a son of God. Now is up to you to act like such or choose to the freedom you are dying for those old chains ... so well-known.

UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF FAITH

1. The sin of Adam has injured not only the body, but also the soul of man.
2. The sin of Adam has injured not only himself but his posterity; and not merely the death of the body, but also sin, the death of the soul, has by one man come into the world.
3. Grace is not only granted when we pray for it, but grace itself works in us to pray for it.
4. God does not wait for our desire to be cleansed from sin, but HE works this desire in us Himself by means of His Spirit.
5. As the growth, so also the beginning of faith, the disposition for faith, is wrought by grace, and is not in us by nature. Were this faith naturally in us, then all who are not Christians would necessarily be believers.
6. It is not correct to say that the divine mercy is imparted to us when we (by our own strength) believe, knock, etc. Rather it is divine grace which works in us, so that we believe, knock, etc. Grace not merely helps the humility and obedience of man, but it is the gift of grace that he is humble and obedient.
7. Without grace, and merely from natural powers, we can do nothing which belongs to eternal salvation; neither thinks nor will in a proper manner, nor consent to the preaching of the gospel.
8. It is not correct to say that some attain to the grace of baptism by the mercy of God, others by their own free will, which was weakened by Adam's sin.
9. All good thoughts and works are the gift of God.
10. Even the saints need divine aid.
11. We can vow nothing to God but what we have first received from Him.
12. What in us is loved by God is God's own gift.
13. The free will weakened in Adam is restored only by the grace of baptism.
14. One who is unhappy can be delivered from his misery only by prevenient divine grace.
15. The condition of Adam appointed by God was changed by sin : the condition of man brought about by sin is changed in the faithful by the grace of God.
16. All that we have is the gift of God. If anyone fails to recognize in any good, that he has it from God, either he has it not, or it will be taken from him.
17. That which makes the heathen strong is worldly desire; that which makes Christians strong is the love of God shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost.
18. Unmerited grace goes before the most meritorious works.
19. Even if human nature had still the integrity in which it was created, it yet could not preserve itself without the aid of the Creator. If, however, it is unable without grace to preserve the safety which it has obtained, much less can it regain that which was lost.

20. God works much good in man which man does not work; but man works no good the performance of which God does not enable him to do.

21. The law does not justify, and grace does not consist, as some maintain, in the natural dispositions of man. The law was there, and did not justify; nature was there, and did not justify. But Christ has died to fulfill the law, and to restore the nature which was ruined through Adam.

22. That which man has of his own is only falsehood and sin. What he possesses in truth and righteousness he has from God.

23. When man does evil, he fulfills his own will; but if he does good, he fulfills the will of God, yet with free will.

24. He who has Christ in him and remains in Christ, advantages only himself thereby, and not Christ.

25. The love of God is itself a gift of God.

Second Synod at Orange, A.D. 529. .

WAR ON THE XXTH CENTURY COSMOLOGY

Whatever it is there to say, if there is something to say, we got to stick to those conclusions made out from our own eyes' observations, leaving behind theories whose only value is related to the impossibility to demonstrate their falsehood. At the end of the day at the feet of this stupid dilemma comes to die the entire Cosmology of the XXTH Century. No wonder the nations of the XXTH Century ran to the slaughter singing songs of scientific freedom.

POINT ONE : The eyes say that according to the universal, one way circular motion ascribed to all the star of our heavens, the astrophysical stability of its image in the eye of an observer requires that the velocity of the stars, around a common galactic nucleus, be increased with the distance. However, this simple truth is observed nowhere. This Phenomenon causes no shame to the Astronomers, probably because they don't know what Shame is. Did they not throw to the garbage the common sense? Logic is not a common sense thing?

Whatever, but to stick to the point I say it again: the Constellational Navigation Chart is more than a Babylonian map from the Chaldeans passed on to the Greeks; the astrophysical stability of Heavens' image is written in the phylogenetic structure of the Birds. I mean the completed book of the astronomical maps from the beginning of the civilization copied, that the Constellational Navigation Chart has stayed unchanged through the Millennia.

The observed non multiplication of the speed of the stars according to the distance from the center of the galaxy says that what we see is due to the motion of stars moving in orbits inside the realm of areas with proper horizons, touching one another as do physical walls, this way creating a kind of accordion motion, by which no harm is done to the Bird's Phylogenetic Structure : because this Macro-Molecular Astrophysical Structure is the source of that Navigator they are born with.

This on one hand. If you work with the eyes of your face you will arrive to this final statement. Astronomers are blinded by the structure of the dilemma by which that that cannot be proved wrong it must be right.

But let's hope that they shall correct their path.

They are sick; and this is a fact. It was one of their greatest scientists of the past century who made it clear that the suicidal behavior of the species is related to the false nature of the information, and when being false, suicidal destruction of the species is the result.

It is a Wonder to think that World War is not suicidal behavior, but Evolution.

And it is a still a greater wonder to hear them say that War is a tool in the hands of their Evolution Theory.

Geometrically considered the point in question, it is easy to understand why the first astronomers declared themselves for a Heavens without motion. If we follow their way of thinking there is nothing more natural than their conclusion. Considering that the Navigation Chart is based on stars situated at different distances from the Earth, the intensity of light determining this observation, from a Geometer ground the stability of the constellational images denies a circular motion around a common center, because this would imply a multiplication of the speed with the distance, and once assumed that the number of stars increase with the distance, it would mean that the background of Heavens would be full of stars moving faster and faster, this way creating a wall of light as Horizon to the Universe.

This phenomenon seen as an absurd, the stability of the Constellational Chart affirmed them in the thought of Heavens being static in space. And this is absolutely right from the point of view of the relative motion.

If you are a lover of Geometry you know what I mean; if you are an astronomer, no matter the truth, you would do as the atomic physician of the CERN, who after having discovered the stupidity in the General Relativity they have stated that they will not move from the ground where they are. Particles cannot travel faster than light, and if one does, they don't care.

They got the Power; it is not them but Truth which got to be on its knees before Science.

Wisdom gave Science her back, so what? Did not Science crucified Truth anyway?

POINT TWO : Run a sun on a circular trajectory, now shoot a planet hitting this trajectory as planets usually do.

You will find that after a certain amount of time and space gone your sweet little planet will try to escape from its orbit around its sun, but all it will do is to fall back, creating a loop. They call this simple fact Retrograde of the Planets, and as they have no clue where their noses are, they dress this simple fact inside one of those boxes where no one can stick their hands, and so, these magicians of the atomic age have fallen lower than their predecessors: the astrologer wizards.

The ultimate fact is that the Sun is not the Center but a star belonging to an open cluster whose main mass is Sirius. It is the fact of the retrograding of the Planets which speak of the Sun orbiting inside Sirius Open Cluster. The rest is nuts.

The poor fellows still think they are gods and can run the laws of the universe at will, changing them at their pleasure and even adjusting the image of the entire Cosmos to their passion for gold and fame. At the end of the day that's all about with them, gold and fame, truth the product, the question is how much.

If you bother to disturb yourself, God forbid that I do so, take a look at it, you will see that the retrograde motion is a half Analemma, which means nothing, but remind us of the infinite stupidity of the astronomers of the XXTH Century, people incapable to see with their eyes the things going on before their own noses, but very much able to see the far away galaxies.

People who know that there are not single stars hitting the Heavens, have no shame when dealing with the Sun, "our beloved Star is the exception" they say. Of course, common sense says that the Sun is one Star, and accordingly got to have a companion, this is to say, got to be a part of a cluster.

And so, talking on the fathers of the XXTH Century Cosmology, those who could not see the hundreds of Analemma by the lesser stars created around their giants companions, hardly can see the relation between the nature of the XXth Century's World Wars and the nature of the Information they were passing on to the Nations.

You may say that I am hard on them; I answer you that we are dealing with the worst kind of criminal mind to find on Earth, one to stab you on the back to death in the name of the Future of Science.

Three facts out of two points for this morning breakfast. The regular speed ruling the motion of all the stars in heavens denies the existence of that one-way, universal motion around a gravitational center. From the persistence of the Phylogenetic Navigational Chart natural to the Birds, a creation meaning millions of years during which those Images were kept constant, with their relative alterations, we can finally say that the Cosmology of the Twenty Century was one of the main forces leading the Nations to the slaughter; and, if maintained alive in this century, that force got to lead the Nations to a New World War.

The Star Systems behave like atoms in the realm of a macro-molecule.

The Sun is a member of the Sirius Open Cluster, it moves in its own orbit and this orbit is the cause of the Retrograde movement of the Planets.

POINT THREE: Now we come down to Earth. Of course, there are still hundreds of questions on the Heavens, but one by one all shall be answered along this XXIst Century.

Talking about Life we said that the Creation of Life on Earth was done under a level of universal energy much higher than it is now. If we compare the time already gone, between the creation of the Heavens and our own days, we may say that our heavens have been under an expansion motion, Life coming around at that time when the diameter of Heavens was much shorter as it is now.

Common sense says that in the Beginning the stars were younger and the radiation created, as a whole, being much higher than it is now, created a universal level of energy much higher than the actual going on.

Whether you take it from the stand point of the madness of the XXth Century's Cosmology, or from the Wisdom of the Introduction to the Creation of the Universe according Genesis by Cristo Raul, the fact is that the expansion of the galactic area between the creation of the Tree of Life on Earth and the Coming of the Man is a fact.

Being an absolute stupidity the Origin of The Milky Way according the XXth Century, the astronomer blinded themselves following the fashion of the times, which required a mind doctor to journey through madness before dealing with madness. The madness in the method being clear, but the nations followed blind masters, and they fell into the hell of the world war because, well : War is a True Evolution Tool, isn't?

The thing is that a blind man needs a dog, but being I a man it is not to me to pity the bastard. They love Hell, let them go to Hell. They led the nations to the slaughter in the name of the Science. Which takes us to a similar spot. Power needs a dog. The Devil came around and gave it Science. Ever since, scientists bark as their mother, Death, against Christianity.

You don't want a nuclear war? You will have it in the name of Science, to prove that there is no God.

This was the ultimate goal of the Scientist Community of the XXTH Century, and Total Destruction is still blowing in the wind.

Ergo, the Future of a World depends on the nature of the Knowledge it gets. And vice versa, from the behavior of a world you can realize the nature of the information is working with. Being the scientist community the human organ of acquisition of knowledge, which decides the path of a species, they close their eyes and want to know nothing on self-criticism.

A particle travelling faster than light? An heretic particle, burn it!

People is so cute! they don't know that was not the Church who jailed Galileo Galilei, but the University which wanted his head. The pressure of the scientist community became so great that the Church, and this was her fault, gave way. As Pilates of old, yesterday as today, after the Massive Attack upon the Biosphere during the Atomic Age, the Scientific Community simply wash their hands.

Unfortunately, so to speak in the name of so many millions of men who had lost their eyes-vision because the radiation coming from that Massive Attack and the destruction of the Ozone Wall, not to talk about the wave of cancer in the name of Peace they cultivated with so much love, I got to say : God was in the Beginning and God is at the End. It is He who has taken the decision to cure Science from Blindness, this way erasing from the Mind of Men the suicidal force which Science is breeding with so much care. In the meantime we got to stick to the Facts.

Creation of Life implies a high level of energy in the astrophysical system. And Evolution of Life implies a different level, which comes all by itself as the expansion of the system goes on. Remember that the Stars transform gravity in natural forces; as the Universal Gravitational Field is transformed the interstellar forces decline, creating the expansive motion. What we see in God's Intervention, taken place in Genesis' Fourth Day, we can call an acceleration of the natural process. And at the same time a Cultivation of the Branch of the Tree of the Species by which the Anthropos was to be born.

Talking about the Origin of Man we come to knock again on the door of that Mad House which was the XXth Century Cosmology.

To cut short a long History we may say that the phylogenetic line of Man is the oldest in the Planet, and it is due to this fact that his brain is the highest living system on Earth. Man comes from the Anthropos, and the Anthropos' Line never was broken; its beginning was in the First Wave of Life coming out of the waters beneath the firmament of Heavens.

We see in the gone world of the dinosaurs that with them entire branches of the Tree of Life were gone; many were before them and many should be gone after them. But the Branch of the Anthropos was never broken; the Mammal Kingdom which came out of the waters during the First Wave, also gave way to new species which also were to be gone. The mammals as we know it, they came during the Great Second Wave, right after the fall of the World of the Dinosaurs. But the Anthropos was already in the Forest from the very origin of the Dinosaurs World. When the Second Wave came around, during the Fifth Day, the Brain of the Anthropos was already the greatest living system on Earth.

To top their idiocy the Scientific Community wants us to believe that donkeys fly, and one of them, in form of a shooting star, fell on Earth and destroy the World of the Dinosaurs. Had any proof on the table, well, we would give it a second thought, but the entire System of the XXth Century Cosmology was based on this principle : "I can't prove myself right, but you can't prove me wrong; ergo, I am right".

Oxygen, as I said in the Introduction to the Creation of the Universe according Genesis, was the real "shooting Star" which blew away the World of the Dinosaurs, because their impossibility to adapt to the new atmosphere.

TRUTH will be the "shooting star" to erase from Science the XXth Century Cosmology and push Atheism to the Grave where the heroes of the Modern World do rest in peace.

A long time ago FAITH resurrected the poor thing, Science, from the grave where the Barbarian threw her. God had mercy on her and said: "Rise, on your feet". The Church nursed the poor thing, and when the thing became strong she showed her evil nature declaring war on that same One who had mercy on her.

The damage that Science had done to Civilization it will be not forgotten. We will conquer what belong to us, and every new root detected trying to get out of its grave to bring the Hell of Atheism on us, we will deal with it as with the Devil itself, no pity no mercy for the madman who promises Utopia with one hand and with the other brings us total destruction.

POINT FOUR : But this gorgeous astrophysical system that extended at the feet of Life the Kingdom of the Plants as a carpet, it would have been not perfect if Earth herself should have not been perfected with a structure from which the energy coming into the Biosphere is equal to the reason ruling the moment.

You see Earth and you see the global mass of the continents on one hemisphere. And you have the Planet turning around its axis. You got not to be a genius to understand that this concentration of mass is the cause of the bending of the Axis, and consequently the factor determining the quantity of solar energy entering in the Biosphere, according to the rule of the moment.

Everybody knows that the distribution of mass upon the surface of an object in rotation effects a variation in the angular rotation of its axis. God solved this equation by creating a Lithospheric Ring rotating upon a liquid mass on fire, by which solidity it is maintained the Angular Rotation of the Axis of the Earth equal in time.

The tracks of the Forces that God deployed during the Fusion of the Crust are still to be seen under the oceans. The rising of the Mountain Ranges during the Second Day created a geophysical system of liberation of the energy accumulated by this Lithospheric Ring, the Ring of Fire the Main Line of that System.

As I said before, in the Introduction to the Creation of the Universe, Earth's Core is a transformer of Gravity into Natural Forces, as all the stars are. It creates heat all by itself. This Natural Universal Reality causes the expansion of the Globe of the Earth. From here Earthquakes and Volcanoes.

Being Earth's Core a Micro-Star which depends on the Solar Energy to keep working, its rhythm of work comes determined by the quantity of solar energy reaching her Core. As the growth of the Tree of Life depended on a system ruled by a temperature equal to the evolution of the global structure, only a Lithosphere subjected to an angular rotation equal to itself through the different ages could grant God the Victory He was looking for when He said: "Let's make Man to our Image", this is to say, a son of God.

This stability is guaranteed forever and ever by the fixed structure of the Lithospheric Ring. Which lead us, again and again, against the stupidity of the Geology of the XXth Century and its "visionary" visions about Continents hitchhiking through the highway of the Magmatic Ring.

FIFTH POINT. This fifth point you can figure it out all by yourself. I will sign these four, will you sign yours? Get paper, draw lines, try to untie the shoes of the ancient philosophers, see the world and the universe with your own eyes, use the highest system on Earth, your brain, expel the works of the dead from your table, to the hell with their heirs, no one conquers freedom for himself with the arm of someone else, such a thing doesn't exist, don't be stupid. Have few days for you, don't let nobody kill your time.

There was once upon a time when some fellows thought all families of mankind, race question not bothering their wisdom, to be children of one and only couple, Adam and Eve, they said. You may laugh to death, if you want to, ignorance is not the monopoly of no one. Why those fellows treat their own brothers in blood as pigs and dogs, mystery is, but you don't cross words with a deaf, at least that you enjoy some kind of telepathy, and, even so, to make joke you need two, what if the deaf does not enjoy that supernatural property? The moral of the tale is that dogs and pigs became the masters, but could not get rid of their good time in the wild, if any good in it it's to be found, and they adopted the theory of the blacks and yellows, and reds and whites and greens, humans, becoming all from the same dick, if you know what I mean. Of course, such a theory was born to make of those fellows the joke of the world, and laughter to death was heard a lot, in the days of good old Athens and Rome, needless to say the heirs of the Romans did, not to die, but laugh heartily.

However, as in those fairy tales where the hunter becomes the game and the game the hunter, idiocy being not particularly attached to one single name, those who laughed to death, but not die, after a while, when the tears dry their eyes and wet their cheeks, making them look like roses and lilies, so sweet, those same once dogs and pigs came about swearing to death that all men came from a black dick, oh yes. But you know, these were very serious men, indeed, scientists all. And so, from the dick of a Jew it came to happen that all men came not; because, we were all born from the dick of a black man.

A difference was there though, and this difference got to be noted, and that difference between both jokers reside in this, that while the Jews made one single dick the source of all the nations on Earth, the scientist fellows made the spring of all, black and white, red and yellow and green, a bunch of dicks. However, all blacks, the dicks. A very serious theory, don't you think?

But then came the Pithecanthropus, and the Atapuerca's son of a bitch, bastards all, stupid bones making of the Darwin School the joke of the future. And as the Future is here, I laugh heartily.

It is a most conspicuous law, the one around the mosquito and the elephant, if you please to mind the gap. Scientists lives by that law ever since Reason fell in the House of the Atheism. They are all Pilatus's Disciples, they are never responsible of the blood by their theories promoted. War is a Tool in the hand of Evolution, didn't you know? Germans knew.

Me, a fellow very much formed in the School of trusting no one while walking in this hell of a world, I had a lot of fun when reading those conclusions, and more and more I have while seeing them changing their conclusions according the times.

From this I tell that the behavior of the scientific community is – old good Pasteur and Curie family taken apart- the study most disgusting to read. They asked for the head of Galileo Galilei, the church said “what”, and they asked again for the head of Galileo Galilei, “but why?” was the church's response, and a third time they asked for the head of Galileo Galilei, until finally they got what they wanted, killing two birds from one shot. Of course the vulgo saw what Pilatus wanted them to see, and the church took the blame for the crime of the university. Ever since the university has become the most pernicious brain washing machine.

The nail in position let's talk free.

Only a fool will believe in the theory of the Jews, and you got to be the perfect idiot to nurse the conclusion of a decimononical Science swearing on Africa as the Cradle of Mankind. To hold this delusion the university invented the fiction of the continents, while the Tree of Species was on the run, surfing the waves of the sea. Have they lost their mind?

Why were the Jews no good in the head, and were scientists mentally sane when sustaining the same thing? I got it, this they would not answer, mostly because if someone brought the question on the table his future in the university was “caput”. And you know, Truth is to buy and to sale. Tell any scientist to sign ... whatever ... but before, don't forget, sign him a check, cash always better, and a scientist will sing the song you want to. Transgenic is healthy, an example. Or the nuclear attack on the Biosphere during the Atomic Age, no related to Cancer and Blindness. Oh no. As a fellow put it once to me, in my face, you are ill because you are a sinner. Ergo, atomic bombs don't kill, your sin kills you.

Reality is the basis of the Future.

I don't like to bring the Bible on every line because prejudice is a big deal. Curiously enough the Lord of the Ducks gave it scientific form, to the divine Speech, and though the University shut his mouth, the more so because he was of a German Blood, a Nazi in the womb, no wonder he gave up the study of men and surrender his wonderful brain to the ducks, if you know whom am talking of, this man said it with all the words : “The Knowledge of the truth is the foundation of the Future of the Living things, of all the living forms”. The answer to it of the University was clear. Of course we know, motherfucker, now shut up, we are the sons of Pilatus and in this state we got to be kept, understood?

God said it in His words: You got to know where you come from and where you're going, and to reach your goal, you got to know Reality. Well He didn't say it with these words, but as am coming out of His Divine Dick I feel backed up enough to put it that way. After all clay is clay and the only thing that make clay to talk is the Magic of the Breath in the face, so to speak.

In our days, Knowledge is called Information, but this is a perversion of the nature of Reality. What both words have in common is, mostly, Scientists and Politicians fucking in the same bed.

Socrates, my friend, is dead. There was once upon a time a Newton, and a Cuvier, and a Pierre Curie.... Yes, Science is dead. Technology has taken the place. Technology has no moral, no ethics, no humanity. Scientists are dead. To the Scientist was the Description of Reality, Universal and Local. To the Technicians of today is the Manipulation of Reality.

The failure of Science a reality, technology has to manipulate reality. And this is all about.

To turn back to our main path, we understand that the Three of Life spread its roots on the Main Continents around the Equator at the same time, being the pulse of evolution the same for all the first lines of the human type. The races of men had the birth in the same day, and the proof is that when the Civilization came about the first cities spread all around the world, and had their birth around the same time, the Neolithic Age.

The contrary, the root of the species springing from one primitive global continent sailing the seas to take to America the First Pilgrims, and so on, it is a theory to make the perfect idiot, that perfect idiot to be butchered in the name of flag and country. One World War, in Two World Wars, are you ready to for a Third World War? Watch out, boy, because they don't know how to get out of the Crisis and in the meantime we humans keep procreating like rats. Why do they not follow the rule of the Chinese, or adopt the policy of Mister Obama? Kill the man in the womb!

The failure of Science to radiography the Structure of Reality was called Cosmology from the moment that the holy ghost of the New Pagan Religion, the Scientific Atheism, invaded the kingdom of the Truth and made Reason its God. Not to accuse, but to learn, I say it, that Mankind is doomed to Extinction from the moment Man sold Wisdom and bought War as the Road to World Civilization. Adam was, let's all the Jews to hear, the first Man on Earth that called his fellow men to "Holy War". God made Man to His Image, and Man made his choice: "Fuck Peace!"

You can't teach a donkey to fly.

No one can. Well, Science taught it could do so.

Adam though that without God he could bring Civilization to the Four Regions of the World; Science thought that without God she can make "the kingdom of heavens" on Earth. Adam is dead, Science is dead. She made herself a wonderful grave, XXth Century Cosmology.

Science could not reach Reality; ergo Science would invent a New Reality.

The Far East religious mentality saw as the Source of the Cosmos a kind of sleepy god opening and closing his eyes. He wakes up, here it comes, a new universe; he fell asleep; here it goes, to the rubbish, that universe. And so on and so forth.

The West thought the source of the cosmos a thing called Gravity which once at a time eats all the matter and once at a time expels that matter.

I never really knew which of both theory is more full of shit, but giving it a second thought the only difference between both is that in the Far East vision the Cosmos comes and goes through the eyes of the thing; but the black hole where the cosmos comes from and goes to, according to the West, while being an hole, oh yeah, is not in the face exactly.

Reality is beyond our Power of manipulation.

You can manipulate yourself. You may construct the most magic and wonderful of the universes, for you, but it always will be in your head. You can die for it and you can kill for it, to find out at the end of the day that all and all it was the product of your madness, you were a madman, lived like one and died like one.

Have you not got the right to do so? To construct your own world?

Let's say yes, of course, if you were living alone in a world in contact with no soul, yes, you could. But from the moment that your world interferes with the life of another soul, "Game is over".

You might say then, that you have no freedom. And me, in the name of the other soul, I answer you: Motherfucker, go to hell and kill your mother if she is for and with you.

If you build a reality counting exclusively on you, you become a madman and your reality is madness.

Ergo, when Science gave herself to create a reality of her own and for her own, acting as the Church didn't exist, Science became a School of madmen, and her cosmology the madness of the XXth Century.

Failure leads to recognizance the own capacity to overcome a challenge.

If you build a reality to hide from yourself and from everybody, your failure, to say that God does not exist, no matter how innocent and pure may be your intention, when not taking in mind the existence of the world as it is, you become a madman, and Society is doomed.

How do you call the Two World Wars and the Nuclear Attack on the Biosphere during the Atomic Age?

Let's say that a Peace Maker is not the one who runs to separate Cain and Abel, but the one who turns his back and let the Syrian Butcher to commit genocide against the Syrian People. Power have a tremendous Reason to manipulate words and minds.

The Question is why Reality is ruled by Universal?

And this is the biggest question ever a man had put on the table. To reach the Nature of Reality you got to deal with it. I'm saying that nor even God can manipulate the Universals Law upon which Reality is founded.

I say it: Melons don't grow in apple trees.

Are you an idiot? You want Peace for everybody and you call on Holy War as the Road to Universal happiness! Wake up. I drink, I get drunk. I stab you, you bleed. There is Organized Crime because there is money. There is women trafficking because there are very honest buyers paying the sex-working-proletarian-woman the service. Take the one out and there will be no two.

Reality is to the Universe what Earth to Mankind. We don't make the Earth, we live in it, we can play with nature; we can't change Nature. The Universe can't change Reality, the Universe is defined by Reality. God lives in It. God became One with It. We can't picture a Reality without God. Reality is in God. He defines the Creation, but not the Nature of Reality. He said it: "I am who I am". Ergo: Not even God can change God's Nature. To live Free Will we must to count on the God who says "I am who I am", because if God cannot change the Nature of God, how shall we?

There are Universal Laws. Society is founded on Law. Law has not the function of destroy Liberty, but to teach us how to live Freedom without being a tyrant one to another.

This life is mi life, you cannot take it; from the moment you think it is of your Freedom's dominion to take ne down, you accuse the Law of being a tyranny depriving you of the exercise of your free will; from that moment you are a madman.

The Law, by God decreed for all the Creation to follow, got to be taken as the Column of the Universal Peace of Mankind. There can be no Justice done without the death of the Tyrant. Justice was done to the Americans with the death of Osama Bin laden. Justice will be done to the Syrian People with the death of the Butcher of Damascus.

THE UNIVERSAL SOLDIER LAW

We have seen, and those who didn't or don't they matter not much, that the fabric of the Universe is based on one single Principle: THE LAW. Those who think God as a kind of Magician making the Universe out from a nothingness, they are not good in their head. Those who think that God has brought to the Universe a New Law to put the Universe on its knees; they are no good in the head neither. God and the Law are one and only reality.

Matter, Space and Time are of the same nature of God Himself, this is to say, of Uncreated Nature. God may destroy the Universe, but God cannot create a Universe except by and through laws natural to Space, Matter and Time. This is not a limitation of God's Power, but an identification of the Intelligence of God with the Laws of the Uncreated Nature of Matter, Time and Space.

The existence of Matter, Space and Time, in an abridged form called Eternity and Infinity, being of the same nature of God, Creation came to be possible through God's recognizance of the Universality of the Law ruling the inner Nature of the Cosmos. God cannot change that Law, but becoming one with it, God could, and did, revolutionize the Cosmic System. Uncreation gave way to Creation.

The Law of Infinity and Eternity on the system of Life in the Universe is one and simple: "A World based on War as the engine of its Civilization is doomed to its total self-destruction". This Law is beyond the Power of the Creator of the Universe.

The Creation was not, and is not, based on the alteration of the Laws of Nature. (We call here Nature the result of the interrelation between Space, Matter and Time). Not at all. Creation is based on the Supremacy of the Law, through which mastery God can act as the Gardener giving shape to the tree by playing with the branches already growing. Of course, the Revolution of Creation means God choosing the Seed of the Tree of Life itself, by which Act God knows from the beginning which will be the Branch to evolve from animal to life at His own Image.

We see, therefore, that God does not erase the Laws of Nature; all the contrary, it is playing with its Supremacy that Eternity and Infinity open to His Act of Creation unlimited possibilities.

It was taking this Supremacy on account that God brought the Law to the frontline, and because the Supremacy of the Law is the Basis of the Civilization, He fought back the Transgression by rising Death Penalty on the Soldier, of whatever rank, be prince, general or lieutenant, coming out of the military barracks to wage War on the People. "You eat, you die", this is the Law.

From the Divine Book we see that this Law is supreme.

In the case we are giving to study (the Eden Chapter) the Transgressors were two sons of God. Both were subjected to the Universal Law, both were giving Death penalty according to the Law. Later on, to end the matter, God sent His First Born Son to an encounter of life or death, the Supremacy of the Law once again commanding the action. Through the Son of God Himself the Last Word on the Relation between God and the Law was giving: Any man, of any rank or social status, political or religious, rising Civil War, or International War, or World War, is subjected to Death Penalty, non-exception. From the King who sits on the Throne of God to the lesser soldier of the commanding line, all of them, non-exception, are subjected to the Eternal Law on War: Death Penalty on the Law of Peace Transgressors!

From this Fact, based on Six Thousand Years of Experience, on one hand, and the Experience of the Cross, on the other hand, we understand that the Right of the Foot Soldier to rise against a Commander decided on Civil War: It is Supreme.

The Soldier has the Supreme Right of putting down the Command Line driving him to Civil War.

The Soldier has the Right to execute his commander on the spot if his life is in danger.

The Act of Civil War has one Prize: Death!

The Soldier will never trespass the Door of his Military Home based on political or religious questions. The soldier only can leave his Military Barrack on the basis of an Invasion of the Frontiers of the Nation.

These first facts established let's keep on progressing on the subject.

The foolish of a World without a Military Defense Body is a Suicide. It will be as self-destructive as a human body deprived of its immunological system. In the very Beginning of the Creation of His Kingdom God Himself thought so, and did according to His feeling. This faith, this is to say, a kingdom without army will be beyond War, and always in Peace, this faith cost Him dear. War became the Big Game of the kings. Against this Game, hoping to give it an end, God brought forth the Law: Death Penalty upon the kings themselves if they dared to begin a New Game.

In the Book of God we read that the kings became so fond of the Game of War that not even the Fear of the Law could keep them away from the battlefield. Earth became the battlefield of the Princes of the Universe. God's Anger was right and just. But the fact of His displeasure and confusion did not at all soften the lot of humans. It is now more than Six Thousand Years that we are living in a situation of World Civil War.

To end this Situation is in our hands. And not because we can do what God cannot: to fool the Law; but because the Death Penalty on the Transgressor of our Race was transformed into a Prison Sentence for a space of time only known to God, after which time the Human Race had to be given the chance to stand on its feet and say its last word : Peace Forever or War to the end.

The choice belongs to the Nations. As an individual every man has his own word. We see on the ground the choice the Syrian Butcher has made: War to the end. He will die, and the Commanding line of the Syrian Butcher will be put to the death, to the last man.

We are not concerned in here with the Tyrants of Russia, China, Iran, Venezuela and those who threat the nations with civil war in the case they were prosecuted according to their crimes. History is a Book and we must take the Book to its conclusion. We got to take conclusions.

There are men on Earth that will rather put the world on flames than to live by the Law. This is not a pessimist conclusion. We are seeing this reality, alive, as it is going on in Syria. Also we are seeing what is going on in Europe today, wherein Germany is sucking the blood of the nations in the name of her own prosperity, Stalinism her new political system, a dowry from the daughter of Hitler, Berlin, to Deutschland. Of course, to see we got to have eyes, and not only to have eyes, but to open the eyes to the reality as it is. Murderers and thieves oversee the Nations. This is the reality. This is the consequence of a World based on War as the engine of its Economy and Civilization. If we keep running on this train the logical end will be the self-destruction of our world. They're messing with the sky month after month, they see the effect on the ground, tornadoes, outer space waves of ice-cold, floods, but they can't stop the engines, the train is going on all by inertia, pushed by the millennia to the abyss of self-destruction. It is the Law. Politicians are beyond control. Scientists want to know nothing. We must take the wheel. This is the final move.

But let's get back to the main subject: The Right of the Soldier to rise against his Commander and to execute him in case of threat to his own life.

The Creation is based on one Principle: Life to the Image of God. This means: that the Right of Man as Individual to Self-defense is Supreme. Ergo, if pushed to Civil War, the Law on Civil War being Death, the Soldier's life being threatened, the Soldier got the Right to put down the Commander on his knees, and in case of threat to his life to execute the mad on the spot.

It is on this Divine Right that a Civilization can hold Peace Forever and its Future can keep keeping on the run without being shaken by the obvious changeable circumstances always waiting on the other side of the centuries.

History has been a record of blood and carnages because the Power of Commanders to kill soldiers at pleasure. Once the Civilization was based on Death Power and not on the Nature of the Law, Right was taken away from the soldier. It is not the commanding line who saves the nations, but the Soldier : his blood and flesh. It is time, then, to bring forward the Law and take back to the Soldier what belongs to him by Creation: The Right to put down the murderer, whether a lieutenant a mayor or a general, and to execute him on the spot in case of Self-Defense.

It is only on this Right that the Civilization can count on when the hour comes to separate Politics and Defense. Civil War has a prize, Death penalty. No excuse, not justification. The changes of mood between the politicians and the people got to be resolved by the civil laws, any intrusion of the Soldier in the circumstance means Civil War. The meaning of the Army being the Defense of the Frontiers, Civil War is an invasion of the Nation from the inside. In this situation all the "invaders" are characterized as an alien army, and, therefore, all are under the Law on War: Death Penalty!

The mission of the Soldier being the Peace of the Nation, it is his duty to fight back Civil War by putting down the transgressors on the spot, not allowing their Commanders, being at the service of political interest, to trespass the door of their military stations.

We have had Six Thousand Years of World Civil War because this Divine Right was taken away from the Soldier. Giving back to the Soldier what belong to him, the Right to defend the Nation from madmen, tyrants and murderers under the skin of kings, prime ministers, presidents and so on, in doing so, we give Peace a Body, flesh and blood; and to the daring insane men putting their own interests upon the good of the nation we give them a choice : Life or Death.

THE PROJECT FOR THE GLOBAL CONTROL OF THE FOOD WORLD PRODUCTION

Philosophy didn't go to the grave just because the ineptitude of the human intellect to recreate the Real Image of Man, God and the Universe. Philosophy as well as History died because they did not accept that Image. Historical Sciences died because men did not accept the Image coming with the Broken Puzzle in which Reality was transformed by the Biblical Fall; they wanted to create with those here and there scattered pieces a new Puzzle. This was, and is, and always will be madness. We can't change the laws of Nature, or give to the Universe a New Reality. Man is born inside a Reality already installed as the Universe's Structure, and it is this Structure which determines the Laws of Nature. Man is the son of this Nature.

The Recreation of the Map of the Evolution of Mankind from the Paleolithic Age to the Neolithic Revolution and up to the Creation of the First Civilization it was a puzzle to the Scholars of the Ancient History because installed, as they were, on their conception of Mankind as a Beast, depredating on their own fellows human beings, they could not conceive a civilization established upon the sum of the experiences and abilities of the different families of men for the sake of their mutual progress.

So, when they came to respond the challenge by the strata beneath the Origin of the Egyptian Civilization, and so of and so forth, they took with them the term of INVASION, born in the times of the European Barbarians, to define the movement of the families around a world, a world let's not to forget it, without political boundaries.

INVASION, stupid to say it, is a political term. Natural History understands not of INVASION, but of MIGRATIONS.

For us, away from the graveyard of those Saviors of our Civilization, Champions of Reason, who swore to bring Peace and Happiness on us, once the nations were freed from the Yoke of Faith, and after their Miracle of the Two World Wars and their Nuclear Attack against our Biosphere before our eyes we are still alive, for us there can be no doubt that the Origin of the Civilization came along with the Self-Recognition of the Homo Sapiens as Man, and Man as a Family of nations.

While the Paleolithic Man lived in a Self-Exclusive Family-Society and wandered around maintaining this original social cloud as the core of his existence, the Neolithic Man came about by the fact of this Self-Recognition bringing together the Human-Families scattered all over the World. The Speed of progress determined by this sum of the experiences and abilities from the different Paleolithic families, the Man in them already activated, as we see plentifully in their Temples and Monuments, brought together the different strata already observed.

CONCLUSION: Men did not invade each other, but came to live together.

Two Principles made possible the Revolution of the Neolithic Man:

First, and most important of both, the Perpetuation of the Sacred principle upon which Rock Family Society had been created: The Fight of EVERYBODY for EVERYTHING under the premise of EVERYTHING for EVERYBODY, or: ALL for ALL.

The Second, and no less transcendent, the discovery of the Law of the Evolution and Growth of the Intelligence: The greater result from the less effort.

As a matter of fact, Men came to live in an Inter-Family Society because Society made life easier for all.

Even so Man would have never made it from Local City to World Civilization if the existence of Society were not a source of self-realization on a higher level of Existence.

Family Society had been going on during all the Millennia natural to the Paleolithic Age. The Temples and the Monuments that the Paleolithic Families left behind are scattered all over the Planet. The Paleolithic Age was not an arena for the destruction of the different generations coming from the Anthropos, as Science did pretend to make us believe and their slaves do believe so, but a continual Stage of Evolution from a Morphological State, similar to the Ape World, to a New Stage of Being, MANKIND.

It is just natural to see that from the Anthropos, the Ape-Man, to the Man as we know it, the Modern Man, there took place a constant process of Morphological Evolution, to which the Homo Sapiens, in all its different generations, lent it its bone and flesh.

The successive generations from Anthropos to Man, the Homo Sapiens the road between both extremes of the line, did not played War on themselves, as it has been told, but simply the older generation gave way to the newer. The different species of Homo Sapiens, from the Anthropos to the Man, did not disappear, they jump from one into another. Man was not one day "a monkey" and next, when he woke up; there was the "Man". In every way the entire Ecosphere was in process of transformation. And with it the Human Being.

As the tracking of the Wandering Homo Sapiens it is visible in the temples and monuments left behind all over the planet, I will not insist. What it is important in this moment is to grasp the Core of the Paleolithic Family, because it was in that Core where Society, founded on Duty and Responsibility, was born. This Family Society carved in the Human Genetics, during Millennia without number, the Principle of All for All as the Heart of the Human Society, a Golden Principle that could not be thrown away without provoking a tremendous drama in the heart of the cities.

And this drama is the drama that we have represented in the Fratricide of Cain.

The situation is clear. City Society was founded on the Golden Principle moving on the Family Society, "ALL for ALL", and accordingly the first cities of the Age of the Neolithic Revolution neither had no Weapon Stores no Land Property. The Temple of the Neolithic Man, the Homo Sapiens in his final Stage before Man, was a Communal Hall where the fruit of the labors of men and women were stored to satisfy the needs of the different families.

This fact, City and Family ruled by a same Golden Principle, puzzled the Archaeologists so hard that they simply ignored it.

But we find the true answer once we apply to it the Drama of the Fall.

YES; Of course, if a FAMILY (read Corporation) makes of the City Food Global Production his Property, that FAMILY would control the City and become the POWER. The Control of the City Food Global Production will be the source of a New World Power.

Stupid Idea? Hey boy, what do you think is behind the Transgenic Project of Monsanto Corporation and its brothers in arms?

The thing is clear, he who controls the World Food Production he shall be the Master of the Universe.

But as to do this you got to slave the entire mass of the world producers to your Plan, you got to have the control of the Seed. Could be this done?

In the glory days of the end of the XXth Century, when still were some men on the scene, they stood on their feet to call the World to stand against the Project of the Extermination of the Natural Seed and its substitution for a Terminator Seed, in the hands of a Corporation, whose victory would mean the Control of the Food World Production, and therefore, GLOBAL SLAVERY.

Today, whoever dares to ask for a Map of the Transgenic Project of that Corporation, as it stands at this moment, most probably will end up in jail, or in a psychiatric, or dead. Not many days ago some daring voices rang the bell to relate Transgenic with Cancer. The dog of the Global Corporation headed by Monsanto hit the tail's dog and the dog barked. As the news is witness, I shall not insist.

The Transgenic Project for the Control of the World Food Production is before us all. The last battle we know of it is going on in Argentina, where the Black Widow is selling the country to Monsanto Corporation and friends in Hell at the price of the Tyranny for life for her and her home-male-prostitutes.

Spain is contaminated to the bones, and so France and India, where the suicidal behavior of the producers, crime Against Humanity by Monsanto Corporation committed, with the blessing of the Politician Order, it is rising the Suicide toll from one half million to one million men. The scandal has been shut up the fuck up by the Politician's Media under the control of the Monsanto Corporation with an answer to remember eternally: "SO what? There is one billion men in India". Amanpour my witness.

We see, then, that the Drama of Mankind began when the City Temple took in the eyes of a group of men the image of a Source for World Power.

Nonetheless the Drama of the breaking of the Golden Principle of Society had to revert on the Family of the Dreamer too; ergo, the Civil War Cain versus Abell.

Six thousand Years after, that Dream has been resuscitated from Adam's grave by a Corporation whose Goal is to Slave the entire Human Race through the Global Control of the Food World Production.

Coincidence? Six thousand years after we are on the same stage, facing a World Civil War because some men want to be "Gods"?

What to do? Money buys Politicians.

That Corporation for the Slavery of the entire Human Race has already in its hands, as we see in the battle going on in Argentina, political parties at its disposal.

India is their hands, and with the blessing of the Political Parties they Kill by the hundreds of thousands, and like gods beyond the law, they keep displaying their murdering web all around the Planet.

We are being dragged down to the point of taking measures for ourselves, the politician at this stage simple dogs barking at their master call.

Even so, if a man says "destroy the plantations, the stores of the transgenic", that man would be called by the MEDIA-DOG: a terrorist. Because, as we are seeing in Syria, the definition of Terror, Terrorism and Terrorist is in process of transformation, and any man who, according to the Charter of the Human Right to Independence, dares to fight for his freedom and life against another man in power, he is a terrorist.

The Alliance of China, Russia Federation and the League Arab in this point is clear: the Human Right to Independence, that TEXT saying that Tyranny got to be fought back, according to the NEW CHARTER it will be read as an apology of Terrorism.

Any man who fights back a Man in Power, any Nation who interferes in another Nation's internal affair, independently of the political nature of the ruler, he is a terrorist.

So, how would a man ring the bell for a total war on Transgenic when men in Power form part of that Corporation?

Science is dead. She was found under the hooves of the horse of Attila; the Church took her home, healed her wounds, made her sit at her table, copied for her books and books, built for her universities. All for what? When the bitch felt strong, she rose to declare War on her adoptive mother. A bitch she was, and as such she went out to prostitute herself with any son of a bitch ready to pay her services.

The British Empire had its Gospel of Justification; the Russian Czar too; and Hitler, the son of Luther, couldn't help falling in love with the New Prophet. Yeah, at the time when the Divine Right of the Kings was already lying dead, Darwin came to the rescue of Cain to give it a new Gospels, the Theory of the Need of the Strong to kill the Weak for the sake of its survival and world power. Heil Darwin!

The Church as Spiritual Human Factor did never fight back the Evolution as a scientific Data, but the Ideology in which was dressed the Evolution of Mankind by the British Empire most darling bastard. It was that Crime against Humanity assumed as Law of Nature which molded the mind of the Germans to accept the unacceptable, Adolf Hitler; and has left the field open to the New Enemy of Mankind: The Project for the Control of the World Food Production by the Transgenic Corporation, its visible head, Monsanto.

You can guess the rest.

GLOBAL POLICY OF WORLD HOMOSEXUALIZATION AS MECHANISM OF FIGHTING BACK THE FALL OF CIVILIZATION

The reasons to kill a man may be as many as ambitions and passions the murderer may hold in his heart. History keeps a record of the many ways a man can be killed and why a man engages himself in killing another human being. A striking Horror Room is Universal History! Scientists have wasted many words in telling us that murder is bread to mankind; from the theory of the divine right of the kings to kill entire nations, to the theory of the biological universal right of the nobles to annihilate entire populations, well, how many wars?

But at the end of the day the Story of the Fratricide of Cain is an intellectual monument to a philosophical process of thinking on the Metaphysical Cause of Self-Human Destruction. Of course, we all know it, from the standing point of the Darwinist view the murder of Abel was not a crime, but the simple, natural right of the strong to kill the weak because he refused to serve his master.

How the western wisdom came to adopt the eastern religious point of view on life and the universe it is a most conspicuous mystery; but it is obvious that the biological right of the strong to kill the weak got to envy nothing of the eastern philosophy: The weak is weak because his past sins, and because its past sins, the weak got to kneel before and give way in to the will of the strong, his master, and because free from sin, master is a saint.

The difference between both conclusions relies in the rebellious nature of the westerner; while the easterner had been on his knees ever since memory can tell, the westerner has been fighting back the divine right of the kings and the hitlerian-darwinist theory non-stop. Unfortunately, the westerner is losing his own identity and under the pressure of the circumstances a new strong beast is making its will supreme upon and over the impotence of that no long before freedom-forever soul, to keep on dying with the boots on.

The Global System is doomed to fall from the moment we raze to the ground the Roots of Human Society. Without entering in the Creation of Man in the midst of the Ape Branch, between the Mammals the Ape branch the most clustered sociability to be found, surrounded by which Branch the Concept of Family did reach in the Anthropos the Solid Structure on which Rock was to be built the new Biological Branch : The Homo Sapiens; and going straight to the point, my Word cannot fail in hitting the target when I say that the Victory of the Homo Sapiens, getting up on two legs to make with his arms the world of the mammals his kingdom, his Victory was based in a single Rock : HETEROSEXUAL FAMILY.

The distribution of activities implied in the Conception of the Sapiens Family by the Wisdom of Nature constructed upon the Revolutionary Feeling called LOVE, a feeling known to no other species, it built in the Human Mental Structure a behavior equal to no other in the world of the mammals. The complementary activities by the father and the mother, put together, brought to History the Conception of Society. The duties of both, father and mother, were opened to their Children, creating in them the conception of responsibility. This unity, wandering in space and time, became solid as a rock.

The possession of all by all ,“the Principle of Family Society”, when the Sapiens Families got together : the Preservation of this Principle, built on flesh and blood during millennia and through Ages, made possible the opening of the Natural Sapiens Society to the Human World Family, from here springing the first cities known to us.

No War Weapons have been found before the Fifth Millennia BC because the War of the Homo Sapiens was referred to the Mastery of the Wild World. If the Sapiens were enemy to the Homo Sapiens never a Society beyond the limits of the individual families would have been possible. Upon the premise of the conception of the Sapiens as a Murderer by birth, the theory advanced and promoted ever since Darwin and fully adopted by the Atheist Scientific Community, Civilization cannot and would have not been possible.

This is to say, if the roof of Mankind is “man is wolf to man”, the destruction of the Human Kind and its replacement by a New Species through Clonation and Transgenic, it does not hold any weight on the conscience of that Global Power by which order the Heterosexual Family got to be replaced by an Artificial Family based not on Duty and Responsibility but in Self-Sexual-Hedonism.

Here these two conceptions stay face to face:

1 : Is it the need of the subjection of one family to the power of another, at the price of murder, the origin of Society?

Science says, “it is so”, since man being an animal and animals have no law but the law of the stronger, Cain did not murder Abel, Cain simply exercised upon Abel the law due to an animal not responding to the call of its master;

2 : Christianity says “it is not so” : the murder came about because Cain wanted to make of Abel what mammals were for Adam and Eve. Cain wanted to break the Sacred Principle upon which Rock was Human Society: “Mankind is a Family”. Abel opposed the will of his brother. Ergo, Abel had to die.

Millennia after, and after many theologies and theosophies and philosophies and scientific theories have filled our heads during those resting time between the past murder and the future murder, we stand watching the show, and with a cynical smile in the eyes we see History writing one more time the end of the world. Notwithstanding the number of empires and kingdoms and civilization buried under our feet, their ghost stuck to the pages of the Book of History, men in power don’t learn, their passion for gold is that much great as were their predecessor’s, still they think they can fool Nature, Universe, History and God. The pages of History say it with a mouth wide open: The Epilogue of all the Empires is advanced by the rising of Sexuality as the Mayor and Supreme Pleasure to live and fight for.

The problem of Mankind is that men in power think “this time we are going to fool Death”. But Death cannot be fooled. Death acts by inertia. Its existence touches the individual and its universe. Death is an ocean born from a drop of blood and keeps on growing until it covers the entire surface of the Universe. Death has a pattern of behavior, as much as Life has it. The destruction of what Life built, it comes naturally to Death. And as everything else has an inner behavior, so Death.

From the study of Death on Earth we observe that the alienation of Man from the Laws of Nature, from which sprang the Inner Laws of Man, it is the Common Factor announcing the Destruction of a System. Whether Kingdom, or Empire, or Civilization, it does not matter: Death, if not fought back, devours its worshippers.

This is the Law of Death; this is the Law of History under the Rule of Death.

But if the justification of a murder may sweeten the pain, in our times the Rising of the Alienation of Man from the Natural Law of Family, upon which Society and Civilization was built, writes its justification in the failure of the Nations to resolve the World Population’s Growth.

In the twentieth Century the failure of the Social Systems to keep sustaining the growth of the populations was responded through a world war. The social and economic crisis before the two world wars speak volumes on the relation between War and Social Systems rooted not on Nature but on Blood, not on Wisdom but on Power.

The world, as a whole, has entered in a crisis of the same kind which prorogued the XXth Century's world wars. In a XXth century scenario, the millions of unemployed people and the challenge represented by the constant growth of the world population, it was answered with a world war. We see that after the orchestrated massacres of the world wars, the nations, free from the load of the millions of unemployed people filling the streets, entered in a baby boom age, excepted the Chinese, who with a vision more open to the future fought the next mass population crisis by prohibiting, under death penalty, the making of more than one child per family.

Soon or later, decade up or down, the Twenty First Century had to fall in a Crisis of the kind of the Twentieth Century. Aren't we falling into it already? The question is: How can a system, unable to sustain an out of control crescent population, how would it support the existence of this population in constant growth?

Of course, the answer is simple: Change the System.

But changing the System means to change the status quo of the Kings and Leaders of the Nations.

There is another road.

Instead of changing the system bust the population by changing the nature of the Family.

If you know some of the mathematics: one sterile couple, this is to say, one Homosexual Couple, means the annihilation of progeny, ergo, the burn of a genealogical branch of the tree of life.

By raising this as UN'S worldwide strategy Policy the suppression of the growth of the world population is avoided.

Ergo, instead of arriving to the point of Civil Wars as a Birth Growth Control Need, which is always annoying, see the Syrians, making noise, for heaven's sake, why they don't die quietly?; instead of arriving to that crazy point: by a Global Policy of Homosexualization of the World Population we obtain the same result without the annoyance of the shouting and the yelling and the cursing. O Lord, so disturbing to us, the champions of the World Peace, please, can you shut them up?

And this is all behind the Policy of Homosexual Marriage and Sexual Freedom. Instead of recognizing, once and for all, the Failure of a System based on Man as a Murder by Nature, the G8&G20 had made their minds to die with their boots on, but dragging down to Death with them the entire Civilization.

The thing is that by erasing a chapter you don't fool the book, all the contrary, you arrive before to its epilogue.

UNIVERSAL KINGDOM : WORLD DEMOCRACY

Let's start from the very beginning. No one can't build a World Civilization to hit Eternity Road without giving to it a real organic structure.

Time and Space the two other parts of the trilogy on which forces rest the creation of Life, Matter being the third, let's be real, the biological expansion of Life implies the conquest of Space.

We see this law in the History of our world, where the expansion of the biological mass of a nation implies the conquest of new lands. Of course, the utopic, ultimate barrier to overcome it is the falling down of all the frontiers. And so on.

As Life advances from Space to Time, the horizons open to the Future the touching the frontiers of the Universe. It is a natural vision. Had Life weren't created to live in Time the question wouldn't be this one. But this is the way it is.

From the standing point of view of our Christian Religion the whole thing, Life on Earth, became a mess the day in which the first kingdom, ever, gave way in to the Holy War as natural tool to keep the process of expansion and growth going on. Holy War was the Sin.

Death against Civil War, in particular, and International War, in general, was punished by God's Law ("Eat and you shall die") with Death. But the king of the Day sent God's Law to hell and he proceeded according to his own will.

The problem of Life, on Earth, in particular, and on the Universe, in general, ergo, it is related to God from the moment that this Universe has Him as its Personal Creator. Had it weren't so, Mankind wouldn't be God's Problem. Unfortunately, or fortunately, who knows, God created Heavens and Earth, and Man too. And as the Creator of the Universe the Future of His Creation is His Future too. Therefore, the falling of the King, whom He Himself took to the Throne of the World, into the Doctrine of Holy War as the bridge to the Future; that Fall broke the entire Structure of the System of Civilization of Life on Earth.

But let's take a new stand and break inside the Mind of God.

God took a very large and deep step the day He made His Mind and decide to come and share His own Life with People. His breathing Life to His Image in the soul of People brought forth the Need of His Wisdom as the Source of the Universal Future. He knew this, and He went for it. The Question became "How to maintain the Growth of Matter in Space and Time", "How to avoid the collapse into an Apocalyptical War of the Universal Civilization He had in Mind", "How to keep onto the Path of Universal Peace this Universal Civilization, made out of many nations, each created at different times, each with its own specific mental particularities".

God knew War. O yes! God knew the Science of good and evil, indeed: corruption, ambition for power, craziness for absolute power, systems of societies born from hell and aspiring to getting back to hell, these were not phenomena unknown to Him.

Even so, He is God after all, He is Indestructible. Why should He care for the People born out of the dust and back into the dust?

Why to bother? He would be fun to see the People crawling their way from to womb to the grave. You know I mean?

Let's play the Gods!

The Universe is our playground. We call the actors; we fill the stage and proceed to write a script. Now, we begin!

Dust to dust. So what?

God creates a new world, new People, fresh meat and blood for the next play. Who wants to write the next script?

To live forever, Eternity, you know?, can be a boring fact.

Hey, why not? Has anybody got a better idea? Let's have fun! Olympic Gods ruling Matter, Space and Time, the Father of the Gods serving the meat for the next play. Come on, Father of the gods, give us more!

What was wrong with this picture, Father of the Gods?

Why couldn't He find any good thing in the Big Game of War?

Look at Syria, is it not a delightful scenario? What a wonderful game! People beheading a man in public and filming it for the pleasure of the news.

What is wrong with the picture? God has no sense of humor.

Where's the fuss in calling Himself "Saint"? Come on, "Be saint as I am". Ye ye all right. What's next?

He could, God has always the choice, of watching His sons behaving like demons of war, princes of hell, the Universe their playground. Why not? Come on, Father, give us more and more and more meat, we are hungry, and blood, we are thirsty, O yeah!

God could. Of course He could. But He didn't. Call it as you fancy. I don't care. The thing is that He didn't. And the fact is that He brought forth a Sentence of Death, meaning destruction, against whomever, son of God, or brother of God, or servant of God, daring to declare War on his fellow people.

This is the nature of the universal stage when Mankind came around. God had made His Choice. War on People meant War on God. And God would answer the call with total destruction of the Enemies of His Kingdom; they would be treated like demons, and as such thrown down in a Hell made in God.

It was a bit of a shock. The Father, eternal Love, all loving Good, bringing Death Penalty on His sons, because Love for War. However, as the suite is written I will entertain no one with its repetition. The important thing is what God had in Mind.

All and all it was "Universal Kingdom".

The only way to rage War on War, make War a thing of the Forever Past, it is having God as Universal King, and as such King: "the Universal Head of the Armies of the Nations". No Army moves out of their barracks without the Call of God, the Head of the Universal Body of the National Armies.

From that moment, from the Day God took the Throne of the Universe in His Hands, National Government and National Armies became two realities. The Armies of the Nation is beyond the Power of the National Government. The Army only responds to the Call of the Son of God. Any movement in the direction of Civil War, or War of Invasion, from a General or Major, a Call not implemented by the Universal King-God: is subjected to Death Penalty.

If one national army rises to declare War on another Nation, or on its own people under the subjection to a political head, all the Armies of the Nations rise as One Body to put down the Rebellion. The Rebels, political and military, to be cast down in jail, and if blood were spilt, death proceeds.

The Son of God is King! And there is no King but God! This was the Revolution consummated upon the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

This Revolution consummated, to the Governments, once deprived of the Forces of the Military Body as final part of their speech, it was left the Power of the Word. The Political Body was left naked. As Man was in the beginning.

The Power of the Word, “and the Word is God”, is given to the People as their Power. No recurrence, under no circumstance, to the Army.

The Political Body has only One Power, the Power of the word, “and the Word is God”.

No matter the difficulty of the problem, no matter the impossibility of the question, the Power of the Word is the Power of the Political Body, and only to it and through it the answer got to be reached.

One Universal Kingdom ruling a World Democracy, then, was the answer of God to His Problem.

God’s Problem, as I said above, is to conquer the Challenge of the Existence of this Universal Kingdom while Life proceeds to expand the Number of the Worlds under the Crown of the Universal King. As Matter grows, Space and Time do so too. How could God keep the Growth of such a Universal Kingdom in Time and Space but upon the Crown of One Universal Kingdom, Head of the Armies of the Nations?

God, as we have seen in His Memoirs, had gone through an experience of this kind we are going through, not quite likely, but just likely, during His days of Youth. The Apocalyptical Universal War under which wars the worlds of that Empire were turned into dust, had in the association of the Political and Military Bodies the trigger. The Power of the Political Body was not the Word but the Force coming of the Speech of the Weapons. While sitting around the same table the speech on process was not the speech of the word but the sound of the weapons. He who had more weapons could speak louder. The Epilogue of the History of the Empire of the Youth of God was Apocalyptical Total Destruction.

As Then, Now, instead of sitting naked, this is to say, no recurrence to weapons, the political bodies sit around the table of the nations to speak louder or softer according to the number of nuclear bombs possessed.

The answer to the questions being founded on the armed fist of Cain, Abel is left to kneel or to die before the eyes of those who challenge the entire world based on their power to destroy the nations, even at the price of their own immolation.

This is the world against which God brought forth the Decree on War: Death penalty against the Politicians challenging the people to Civil War, or to Word War, based on the Military Power of their Nations.

Democracy, ergo, is that system in which the Political Body has no other Power but the Power of the Word, “and the Word is God”, which means that speaking and speaking and speaking and speaking... soon or later the crooked answer shall be overcome.

Democracy is that system in which the people around the table are under the law of the nation, and accordingly if demanded to leave free the seat for others to come and keep the search of the answer so long looked for, they do so willingly.

Democracy is that system in which no man is beyond the law, and every man is under the same universal common law.

On the contrary, Dictatorship is that system in which a man is beyond the law and can’t be called to give an account of his deeds.

As a matter of fact, this is the system that the sons of God wanted to implement on the Kingdom of God. They wanted to be Gods. Their Father is God, why weren’t they treated as Gods? Can anybody call God to trial? Who will force God to come and answer about the nature of His deeds? Why had they to be treated as common people, born under a common law?

From the very beginning of the Fall of Mankind the sons of God, not of this Creation, as Saint Paul said it, did implement on Earth the rising of their own madness, and with their blessing the world became the game of the war of the kings, each claiming for himself that divinity for which the Devil was fighting for. The kings became demons. Under their rule the nations became meat and blood to kill the hunger and the thirst of those bloody Blue Blood Houses, born straight from the Flesh of the Demons. And so on until now.

The existence of a House beyond the Law implies the existence of a source of political corruption from which to implement the dictatorship of its members. Corruption the natural sea on which waves the Dictatorship, “which came down from heaven” as the Sumerian Chronicles puts it, sails through the centuries, the Power of the Word, the Power of the People, has been always put down and on its knees before the threat of death penalty for high treason against the crown of the heirs of the “Blue Blood of the Gods”.

Democracy cannot reach its natural status while a body or a house is beyond the law. This status quo, whether for a family or a political body, means the need of corruption as the natural factor on which dimension to base the possession of Power. But the Power of Democracy is the Word. And this is not a Power to be possessed by one single part of the nation.

The Possession of Power means that the Power of the Word is taken away from the people and put in the hand of a Family, Party or Clan. This is to say, Democracy is killed, Dictatorship takes its place.

Democracy exists only, and nowhere else, when no Status of Immunity exists.

There where the Political Body is not subjected to the Law but it has its own way of Justice, Democracy is a fake.

There where the Political Body protects its own members from the course of the Justice through Senatorial or Parliamentary Immunity, the impeachment of an Individual beyond the Law, and only under the Justice according to the political body done, there Democracy does not exist.

But it is a reality that the Politicians have fought hard to get for themselves the Power of the kings. And because, Corruption is but the fruit of this status quo under which the democracies are falling in pieces before our noses.

But what then about the Military Power of the Nation?

Is it not Civil War their domain?

And what it is Civil War but the fight to the death of the political body to keep in possession of its Power?

We see both cases in Syria and in Egypt.

We see the madness of a tyrant, who has dragged down to civil war the military body of the nation just because the Corruption implemented by the political body headed by the Butcher of Damascus was so total and absolute that they had no choice, the possession of Power was shared by both military and political bodies.

On the other hand, we see the deeds of the Egyptian Military Body, twice in these couple of years. Firstly, not entering in the arena of the political situation during the days of the fall of Mubarak. And secondly, taking out of Power a mad man who was bending for Civil War, a mad man who though Power was his, just as the Syrian Butcher, and was ready to take the Nation into a Civil War for the sake of the Possession of Power.

The Lessons of History are to be taken.

The Power of the Military Body to push out of Power a Political Party, or Crown in Possession of Power, depriving the People of his Power, “the Word”, is a Constitutional Right of the Military Body of the Nation. This Power does not inflict damage to the Democracy, all the contrary; it is to the Democracy what the Immunologic System is to the Human Body.

When a House, or Political Party claims to be beyond the Law, and dare to threat the Nation with Civil War in case of their coming down, the Military Body has the Legal Right and the State Duty to put out and away from Power those subjects.

Egypt is an example for all the Nations to follow, and a warning for all the “Possessors of Power” of the Nations in the running days.

The people’s word is God’s word.

THE BATTLE FOR THE XXIST CENTURY

To close the eyes does avert not the danger; what has to be faced it got to be faced from a position of power and strength: you got to look at the enemy straight in the eyes.

The more you hope the Devil to kneel, the weaker becomes your position and the strongest the enemy in the day of the battle.

There is a wisdom which is madness, and a prudence which is cowardice.

Mankind must face Death. You can wake up or you can keep on sleeping happily on your bed; the fact is that the Battle for the XXIst Century is raging and one day or another we all shall drink blood, the blood of the tyrants of the nations.

At this side of the world, Germany has done what the Persians could not: To crush the Freedom of Greece. And now Germany wants to do to Spain what the Moors could not: To erase from the Spanish the Spanish Soul.

The sweet daughter of Hitler, the Bride of Moscow, is carving a grave for herself. And no angel in Heaven will rise a pray for Berlin. After one millennium doing its best to destroy Europe, Europe will pay back to Germany what Germany deserves.

What then, Princes of Peace, is it that prudence of yours: wisdom or cowardice? Will you let the Devil build his new religion: Cain is supreme, Abel got to die, and he who rises to stop the murder he is a murderer himself?

The Battle for the Twenty First Century is on. Raise your hope and your faith, your Right to stop Cain is supreme, and if Cain does not put down his weapon, Cain's arm got to be chop off.

We want Peace, but the Human Race is under state of War ever since the Devil declared War on God. Our desire of Peace is our enemy's best ally. But at the end of the day no one can escape his doom.

The facts have been growing ever since the War against God's Policy on the Brotherhood of Nations was pulled down by the First King by Earth knew, the father of Abraham, father of Christ, and father to the Jews, the Adam of the Bible. The father of the Jews was the first man who brought on Earth, straight from Hell, that Phenomenon called Holy War. Ever since Mankind has been living under a World Civil War equal to an eternal fratricide of Cain upon Abel.

But while the millennia have been growing, with it one question in our soul too: "Has the man observing a crime going on the Right to raise and stop the bloodshed?"

This is the Question going on ever since the Arab Spring came along. This is the Question on trial this very day after "Obama's Red Line" has been crossed.

We have the Three Tyrannies of the beginning of this Century: China, Russia and Iran, telling to the entire world that the Right of Man to stop Cain and protect Abel is a Crime against the International Law.

We have the cry of indignation of the nations demanding of those who have the Power : to rise and save the Syrian Abel from his extermination.

We have a body politics which doubts whether the Intervention will kindle a Cold War already past, even a World War; and in the name of this fear they waste no time in looking for an excuse, good enough, to justify their inaction.

As people, as humans, as individuals, as men, how could we agree with a Tyrannical Position from which the act of separating two men involved in a struggle to the death becomes a crime in itself?

What International Jurisprudence can come out of the Victory of the New Tyrannical Axis, but freedom to kill at pleasure before the very eyes of the people around?

Shall a man found intervening in a fight be taken to court as a criminal because his intervening in a crime scene?

Shall the people separating two men in a fight be called to trial because the act of intervening it is a crime against a Law enabling the stronger to massacre the weaker?

We see, then, that what is at stake in this Syrian Affair it is not so much the salvation of the Syrian Population as the Conception of Freedom, Peace, Right, Power, and Law.

The Tree Tyrants, the New Axis of Evil, these three tyrants want to break the Nature of Freedom, of Peace, of Right and Law, and are pushing the Human Race to accept the Doom of Abel as the Natural Right of the Ruler to exterminate any Opposition to his Rule.

If this New Axis of Evil wins the Day, the Human Right Code, the Future of the Nations, the Spirit of the Law, will be crushed forever. The Question is then: Do we have the Right and the Duty and the Spirit to fight for the Life of another Nation to the point of risking a World War?

From fear of getting hurt do we have to leave alone Cain and let him massacre Abel at will?

What is it behind the Religion of the New Axis of Evil but a Policy by which the Tyrants and the Dictators receive, on the basis of their Nuclear Power, the Right to massacre the Opposition, and, as the kings of old, to be beyond the Law and no answer of their deeds before the Justice?

But that Russian Tyrant who is pushing forward the right of the Syrian Cain to massacre his people, while he is defending the Intervention in a Local Conflict by the International Community as a Crime against the Law of the Nations, has he not been arming the Syrian Butcher and his régime? Where, then, is his Authority at the hour of giving Moral power to his claim?

The fact is the fact: A tyrant is a brother to another tyrant. And what the Syrian Brother is doing with his people, the Russian Tyrant will do with his own people when the day came for the Russian Riots to spread from one corner to the other of Russia.

But to turn to the Syrian Affair, our hearts are in suspense.

The British and the French knows that in the Syrian Affair something greater than the Salvation of the Syrian Population is at stake. But the American Prince of Peace is a very hard thinker, he needs a reason, the blood of a people so strange to his Afro-American blood does not make him "marching". He seems not to understand this fact. And what it is most sad: it was he who had the idea of marking that "Red Line", which now weights so much against his own credibility as the Most Powerful Man on Earth. It looks like he is trying to find a way out for himself, to escape from his own words.

The question on the wind is clear: Is it worth to risk a World War with China, Iran and Russia for the sake of the Syrian Abel?

And if not: What will happen next?

The Right of the Ruler to massacre the opposition to his rule will become Law?

How could we accept a Right so contrary to the Spirit of Man?

This is the soul of the day. The Devil has launched his New Religion on Russia and has found a Faustus ready to sell his soul for Power. Iran was sold to the Devil ever since the Ayatollah Khomeini came around. China has never drunk the sweet cup of freedom.

On this side of the Ocean the same old faithful servant of the Enemy of Europe as a Family of Nations, Germany, keeps attacking the brotherhood of the European Community, as from old always buying her glory upon the ruin of the European Nations. Leadership for Germany means Supremacy. Not happy with having crushed the Greek Freedom, while the Battle for the Century is going on, the Germans speak of buying the Acropolis, and are already dreaming with buying Palma de Mallorca, their Summertime Island, once they're done with Spain. They can't help being mad. They were born to slave or to destroy Europe.

They are already dictating which nation can come in to the Community and which nation cannot, speaking of Bulgaria and Rumania.

They have raised themselves as the Model of Democracy in comparison with which to mark the level of democracy of the other nations in the neighborhood. A nation in which the integration of the foreign element, even when born in German soil, is absolutely impossible, a fact to be observed in the absolute absence of Turkish Politicians, while the Turk population is to be counted by the millions; these Germans, who had preserved the main frame of the fascist Sate of Hitler, they want to be seen as the Democracy par excellence.

The Crisis of the European Community is not of economical nature, it is the Rise of the Fascism under the Flag of the German Supremacy, the force which is dividing the European Nations, collapsing the Power which comes from the Union, while identifying this Power with the Supremacy of Germany.

What fool Obama was when asking from Germany more leadership on the Affairs of Europe! Where is the mad who puts a torch in the hands of a fire lover?

Germany was born to glorify herself on the shoulders of Europe or to destroy the Brotherhood of the European Spirit if rejecting Berlin as the Olympus where the law comes from. Germany does not understand of Equality, Liberty and Brotherhood, Germany only understands of Supremacy.

And because it the European International Brotherhood is in process of disintegration.

And because, Germany must destroy the wealth of the Mediterranean Nations to rise her new supremacy on the pillars of the Stalinism System by Berlin inherited and by the Angel of Death adopted as her New Religion.

Why have we the European Community of Nations to relay on the USA to run to the battlefield and stop Cain killing Abel when the killer is by in our neighborhood?

As in the old good days Germany is spreading Hate among the Nations of Europe, and by this division Germany is handicapping the Power of the European International Democracy as the Main Power in the World on which to relay at the hour of International Freedom and World Peace.

Germany will move no finger for nobody, except to rob the children of her neighbors of their bread and feed her own fatherless children with the milk of the defenseless mothers of Greece, Portugal, Spain, Hungary, and wherever the German sets his feet.

But it is written from old : There is a time to rejoice and another time to be torn apart; a time to enjoy the fruit of the robbery and the murder, and another time to pay for. And so be it.

THE NEW GEOPOLITICAL BOARD

Yes, in the short space of one decade the geopolitical structure of the world has been turned inside out. At this very day the pawns on the board where Death and Life, Christ and the Devil, Freedom and Tyranny, fight for the Century shows this alignment:

- 1) Russia has taken over South America, allying to her tyranny the dictators of the so-called Socialism of the XXIst Century.
- 2) Iran has made a covenant with Russia of mutual friendship by which the Iranian Theocracy stays away from the Muslim countries of the Federation.
- 3) China has taken over Africa and is promoting the Muslim Sharia as the natural ally of her economical interest.
- 4) Germany has embraces Moscow's New Religion and is carrying out the Policy of Russia on Europe: the weaker the European Union the stronger the Federation of Russia; in exchange Berlin has received the status of privileged economical partner of Putin's Tyranny.
- 5) The Will of the English Democratic Government has been the overruled by the Power of the British Theocrat.
- 6) The European Union has been reduced to the position of a pawn in the game of Germany and her northern allies; the Political World Power of the Union has been erased from the Mind and the Will of the European Nations, its Union reduced to a mere covenant between lobbies and kings under the leadership of an Angel of Death representing the interest of the New Stalinist Deutschland.

We understand that Obama's Red Line was marked as a Line never to be crossed by the Damascus' Butcher, in the hope that sticking to that limit his crime will be not punished by the world. But it is not for men to decide the movement on the Geopolitical Board of this Century. There can be no limited action against the Butcher of Damascus, he knows he is dead and he will die bringing hell on the Syrian Population. He got to fall, and with him all his generals. How could Obama's Administration know that his words would compromise the Honor of the Unites States of America? As there can be no covenant between Christ and the Devil, there can be no covenant between Democracy and Tyranny.

"To the one who is victorious and does my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations—that one 'will rule them with an iron scepter and will dash them to pieces like pottery'—just as I have received authority from my Father". (Revelations 2, 26/7)

Let the Victorious Nation dismiss the Old League of Nations and lead the Fullness of the Christian Nations to a New League: No Veto, and let the Armies of the New League be One World Army, devoted to erase from the History of the Future of Mankind any coming of Tyrant or Dictator, to protect the Freedom of the People of the Human Race and establish the Peace of the World upon the Rock of the Brotherhood of the Nations.

The Syrian Régime got to fall. Iran is the source of the massacring of the Iraqi people ever since the Dictator was gone. Iran is the mother of the Afghani Taliban; Iran is now backing Syria in order to advance the Iranian republican Guard into Lebanon, getting closer to the frontiers, to storm Israel. The Iranian Theocrat wants to honor his word: "Israel will be erased from the map of the world".

THE FINAL TRUTH ON THE FUTURE OF THE CLIMATE CHANGE

Lets' begin from the beginning. First thing to have very clear is the relation between fathers and sons. According to the Law of Christ the sons are not responsible for their fathers' crimes. And so happen with the nations. Which is to say, we haven't created the world. The world was already here when we came around. Our duty is with our children, with the living, not with the dead. However, the world is on motion, and the effects of the actions of our fathers are ruling that Motion. Our mission is to create a world of our own, but to reach this stage we have to enter in the nature of that Motion, in order to act in it and change its course.

The global nature of the Motion by the Atomic Age put on rails it is mainly concerned with the effect of the 666? megatons by the Superpowers of the XXth century blasted against the Biosphere. I have already published the tables relating the birth of the Atomic Age with the Change of Rising of the Earth's Thermodynamic Pulse. I won't insist again and again in something so clear that even a fool can take it for granted. The main point to entertain ourselves with calls our attention on the Abyssal Waters' Temperature.

To the Oceanographers is to tell us about the total volume of the Waters of the Oceans subjected to the +4 Celsius degree natural to the deep waters from the beginning of the Earth's Biosphere. Why is this +4 Celsius so important to us?

Well, take a look at this new table:

Density of liquid water

+100 =	958.4
+80 =	971.8
+60 =	983.2
+40 =	992.2
+30 =	996.6502
+20 =	998.2071
+10 =	999.7026
+4 =	999.9720
0 =	999.8395
-10 =	998.117
-20 =	993.547
-30 =	983.854

So what? It may be your first thought.

Take a better look, I say. Focus between the + 10 and -10.

What do you see?

According to the progression from the +100 to the +10 it seems obvious that the 999.9720, this is to say the higher density for the liquid water, it would be natural to the Zero degree. However to the Zero degree it corresponds a lower density than to the +4 Celsius. This is what is called the Universal Anomaly of the Water, a phenomenon with non-equal in the world of the liquid elements. Only the Water breaks the progression from 100 to 0 and reaches its higher density at +4 C.

Still, so what?

Well, if I was a scientist, I would shut my mouth at this point, I would put a chain on my hand, and forbid my brain to take control of my fingers. This is the image of Today's Scientist. A slave of the private companies and the States the scientist cannot speak the truth or even get close to it, all he can do it is to speak when his master says so, and sign what the master tells him to sign.

Thanks to God, I have been born free and my fingers and my brain are one single thing. Accordingly, I can speak the truth in perfect freedom. And it is from this stage that I am putting before you the fact of the +4 Celsius natural to the Abyssal Waters of the Earth.

I return to the beginning, for you to understand now the nature of my question to the Oceanographers : Which is the Total Volume of the Mass of Earth's Water subjected to this Universal Anomaly of the Water?

In the first place, because if we, in an imaginary experiment, suddenly could rise that temperature to +6 C. or + 8C., an example, the density of that Total Volume will be lost, and, ergo, the natural space to the new figures would imply a rising of the level of the waters, at world level, equal to the difference of temperatures.

In second place, because if this Universal Anomaly of the Water did not exist the pressure of the Total Volume of the Earth's Water on the Lithosphere it would be not that much as actually is.

It is for this reason that I say that Science is dead. There is Technology; but Science there is no more. If there was Science by this day the Data about the Total Volume of the Earth's World Oceans exposed to the +4 Celsius it will be on our table; and with it the numbers defining the Pressure of that Total Volume on the Lithosphere.

But again, I must ask, what is the Lithosphere?

Stupid question as it sounds, most probably a 98% of the population of the Earth has no clue, in no way whatsoever, about what the Lithosphere is. And of this 2% more than a half do not understand the relation of the Lithosphere with the Body of the Earth.

No wonder, when we consider that the fathers of Geology left in their testament a Picture of the geophysical Body so erroneous and misleading. Talking about the surface of the Geophysical Body their picture was nearly correct, but when it came to the Dynamic relation of the top layers, Lithosphere and Mantle, with Earth's Core their ignorance fell on that picture as a blot, damaging the process of deduction to which Geology as Science is subjected.

As in the Introduction to the Cosmology of the 21st Century I have dedicated a Chapter to the Astrophysical Nature of Earth's Core, and I see no point in repeating myself; let's work with the common image going around about the relation between the Lithosphere and the Mantle.

The top layer of the Mantle is a Magmatic Bed upon which the Lithosphere floats. As the production of the heat is a constant the Volcanic Biospherical System behaves like a chain of valves allowing Earth's Production of heat to come out.

Everybody understand that if the Lithosphere had not this System of liberation of the Mantle's Heat the pressure would increase to the point of global explosion. The Creation of the Lithosphere having based in a perfect Volcanic System of Liberation of the Heat produced by the Mantle the Continents have been able to maintain their existence from the beginning of their History.

But it is obvious that heat tends to expand and with it to behave like a force against a wall. In this case the Wall which constrains the expansion of the Mantle is the Lithosphere.

The figure which killed Geology as Science and made of it just Technology it is related to the erroneous conception of the nature of Earth's Core. The picture of Earth's Core as a mass of iron under gravitational pressure, by this pressure exposed to its point of fusion, misled the geologist to see the root of the Mantle; instead of relating the Nature of the Mantle with the Astrophysical Nature of Earth's Core they saw the origin of the Magmatic Bed in the down progression of the temperature from the Iron Core to the exterior of the Globe.

However, the Temperature of the Mantle being a constant, and this constant rooted in the Astrophysical Nature of the Core, which at its turn is regulated by the Cycles of the Sun's production of Electromagnetic Waves, once the ups and downs of the production of heat by the Core a dependent to the Cycle of the Sun, by the Creation of the Seismological Global System the equilibrium between Ecosphere and Biosphere was not perfectly completed. God had to close this relation between the Ecosphere and the Biosphere by making of the Lithosphere a perfect Wall against which perfect solidity the waves of the Magmatic Ocean under the Lithosphere, or top layer of the Mantle, would break. This is the Geophysical Function of the Total Mass of the Oceanic Waters subjected to the Universal Anomaly of the +4 Celsius.

This +4 Celsius gives to the bed of the lithospheric oceans the consistency of a Wall, whose mechanic I will compare to a river and a nuclear plant. Without the cooling down of the nuclear core the creation of energy would mislead the Plant to a Chernobyl stage. Which is the effect to obtain if the Lithosphere were not enforced by the Global Oceanic Pressure.

The mass of the Lithosphere which form the Oceanic Bed, by this Pressure of the +4 C. Mass reaches the same solidity as the mass which forms the continental beds.

This relation between the Pressure of the Oceanic Waters and the Expansion of the Magmatic Bed is the scenario that the Superpowers and the actual nature of the world technology has but under the test.

You have to understand that the geological constancy of the Universal Anomaly of the Water depends on an external source. When God created the Biosphere He gave it this external source, as a matter of fact : The Polar Caps.

By maintaining temperature of the sea on the top of the +4 C. inside a certain margin, He sustained that +4 C. throughout the geological ages. Again and again, this Global System came accompanied by an Atmospheric System based in the relation between the Electromagnetic Field of the Earth and the Mountain Ranges.

The electromagnetic lines of Earth's field behave like shepherd of winds, maintaining the Mountains Ice System from the beginning of History. If the Atmospheric temperature rises the Source of the +4 C. begin to decline. Ergo, the temperature of the waters on top the +4C. begins to rise. The defrosting of the Polar Caps, therefore, is accelerated. The measure of the heat liberated subjected to a constant, and this dependent of the Volume of the +4 C., once this pressure begins to decline, the Force of the Mantle increases, and with it a process of expansion of the radium of the Earth comes out.

This is actually the process we are assisting to. The accelerated defrosting of the North Polar Cap has two sources.

One is the rising of the atmospheric heat by the nature of the world technology going on.

The second is the effect of the accelerated defrosting of the Artic Polar Cap on the mass of the waters on top of the +4 C. Global Volume.

The final effect, the rising of the temperature of the Lithospheric Ocean Bed, follows.

The pseudo-scientists of our days play the amazing fool who with open mouth assists to the defrosting of the polar cap without understanding why its speed. But it is only natural to see that once the global waters of the light zone are increasing their temperature the zone of contact between them and the bed of the North Polar Cap is breaking, this way causing the ice plaques to slide quicker from their bed to the open waters. This is to say, the defrosting, which begun from top to bottom, has begun from bottom to top, and it is accelerating the speed of the destruction of the Polar Source of the +4 C.

The scenario coming on, considering that there is no action from our part to be taken, is this : The Rising of the Pacific Ring of Fire will be next.

In a global picture we say that we will be assisting to an expansion of the Radium of the Earth. By the declining of the +4 C. Oceanic Volume the pressure of the Lithospheric Wall will decline and the Force of Expansion of the Magmatic Bed will push the Wall back. Ergo, new islands will come out to fill the shores of the continents, while the actual island will sink beneath the New Level of Earth's Waters.

It is to the Oceanographers to calculate, on a global scale, the meaning, on a global scale, of this tiny difference between these numbers :

$$+4 = 999.9720$$

To us it is to understand that a rising of the waters of the world waters it'll be equal to a rising in the temperature of the waters cooling the core of a nuclear plant; soon or later the core would explode and would destroy the entire plant. As a matter of fact we are assisting to the explosive behavior of the Pacific Ring of Fire, at a slow motion, this way allowing us our Creator to take the measures due to stop this explosion.

The causes leading to this Explosion of the Ring of Fire are related to the Atomic Age.

On one hand, the 666? Megatons blasted against the Biosphere by the Superpower and their Slave, the Science of the XXth century, kicked the temperature of the Atmosphere to an unnatural level.

On the other hand, those Megatons damaged the Wall of the Ionosphere, which is, as a matter of fact, the geophysical Valve which controls the amount of electromagnetic energy allowed to come inside the Biosphere. Once this Window in the Ionosphere was created, the rising of the amount of electromagnetic energy passing inside the Biosphere turned on the global temperature, bringing to the ground the effects, on one hand, of the accelerated defrosting of the Mountain Ranges Ice, and on the other hand, the consequent rising of the waters of the oceans, direct cause of the defrosting of the Artic Pole.

The final effect began to touch the Abyssal Wall, making its solidity fail and the Force of the Magmatic Ocean below to gain power. From here the rising of the Volcanism all over the Planet, but most especially along the Pacific Ring of Fire.

These two final effects, the decline of the Pressure of the World Ocean Waters on the Mantle, and the rising of the Force of the Magmatic Bed as its consequence, are the two Main Factors in Motion and taking the Natural History of the Earth to a New Stage. Our fathers did unchain these processes and our work is to minimize their effects by fighting back the causes which are breeding their growth. These are:

1.- The denial of the World Science to become a Universal Body, independent from the Private and the Public, bringing forth a Science devoted to the Mastering of the Solar Energy and the Interactivity with the Electromagnetic Field of the Earth.

2.-The denial of the men and women in public office to proceed to the termination of the Age of the Paper, the Black Oil, and the Coal.

3.- The intellectual incapability of the Governments to understand the Nature of the Earth and the nature of the effects by the Atomic Age brought forth.

4.-The devotion of the Governments to the Industry of War as backbone of their Economy.

5.- The maintenance of the Division among the Nations by the Religions as a mean to hold the Power as a possession.

6.- The relation of Technology and Power to Money, which has given Inertia to the movement of the destruction of the Biosphere as a natural consequence to be assumed and accepted as the only Road to Civilization.

Ergo, in a scenario where this causes keep their functions, the door out is the Explosion of the Ring of Fire, the out of control Expansion of the Radium of the Earth, and the natural destruction of the, approximately, three of the fourth part of the World Population. If a man thinks he can survive this World Effect, he is a fool. We have no experience whichever in this kind of dealing. All we can say is that God caused a similar effect in the days of the Deluge, but He was on control and He knew perfectly the consequences, who would live and who would die. In this case, if left alone the forces already on, the effect of the Inertia will be an unknown factor to us all. All we can say is that few people would survive, if any.

Even so, the scenario is not final. We can slow down the process and move on from stage to stage until the process is finished. Only God knows the new physical surface of the Earth at the beginning of the 22th Century. But there will be no man on Earth if we do nothing. The measures to be taken are on the table.

1.- We have to turn the World Economic Crisis into a Miracle. There is a human force of hundreds of millions men and women ready to reforest the Planet. The Botanic Community is requested to lead that Human Force and reforest the mountains and the plains according to the original nature of the Vegetation of the Nations.

2.- The destruction of the Original Forests and Flora in the name of Paper got to be given an end. Paper will be a Museum thing. We have all the Technology to proceed to it.

3.- We have to limit the flights beyond the human Biosphere and into the stratosphere till the New Technology, based not on fire, allow us to do so. All kind of rockets propelled by Fire got to be banned from the Future of the Civilization; every single time we launch a rocket into the high atmosphere we destroy a certain volume of the Ionosphere, this way widening the dimension of the window by the Atomic Age created; ergo : amplifying the level of energy coming into the Biosphere, and therefore accelerating the defrosting of the Artic Cap. The sooner the Artic Cap is gone the stronger will be the Explosion of the Ring of Fire. We can assure that the Shores of the Ring of Fire, on both sides, will take the worst by following the Tables of the rising of the Seismological History through the Atomic Age. Though we are witnessing the rising of the Atlantic platform touching the African-European Shores, due to the shorter diameter of the Atlantic Ocean Bed, which gives it a greater solidity, this movement is proceeding through earthquakes of non-catastrophic nature. On the contrary, due to the larger extension of the Pacific Ocean Bed, we are witnessing the rising on the its Ring of Fire, and every time of a more and more destructive nature.

We can only stop the human causes already on and pray to God to have mercy on us all. But if we don't do nothing the prayer will go with the world population to the bottom of the new Ocean Bed.

4.-The Atomic Race got to be finished once and for all. A nation keeping on by its own decision to attack the Biosphere becomes an enemy of the entire Human Race, the World Community got to rise to put down that Government and erase from the face of the World the frontiers of that nation.

5.-Let the Solar Energy Scientist Community give for free the Technology to produce Electricity and Solar Batteries to the Nations where the sunshine is all year long.

6.-The Mastering of the Solar Energy will imply, at world level, that the Nuclear Plant Technology will be shut.

7.-Every time we light a fire, a single cigarette means the destruction of a cell of the body of the Biosphere, a cell which cannot be recycled because the nature of the final effect of the burning. Let's ban Tobacco from the surface of the Earth.

8.-Wars, of any nature, got to be forbidden, and the weapons of the Law based on fire be substituted by weapons based on paralyzing-sleeping bullets.

9.-We cannot erase the World Destruction Effect by the Past put on Motion, but we can slow it down; giving to ourselves this chance we can walk to the other side upon a road moving under our feet, but not big enough to takes us to the bottom of it.

10.-God, the Creator of the Earth and Mankind, is with us to lead us to the other side of this Century, but we will not make it if we do not begin to walk.

11.—Resuming :

A : End to the Age of the Paper, of the Black Oil, and of the Coal. End to the Atomic Age. End to the Nuclear Plant Technology. End to the Fire Rocket Technology.

B: Beginning of the Solar Energy Age and the Interactivity with the Electromagnetic Field of the Earth as Sources of Transportation and Home Living. Reforestation at World Scale of the Mountains and Plains. Reduction of the Air Public Transportation to a minimum till the Jump from energy to energy is done.

Conclusion : Mankind has a room of 30, 40 years to proceed. If nothing is done, Mankind is doomed. The Inertia already on is wild, and is out of control.

The Pseudo-Scientist Community, heir of the 20th Century, is slave of the Public and the Private and like Judas from old, is selling Mankind with a Kiss, Technology, for 30 coins. But if the pseudo-scientists of these days think that they and their master will survive to the Explosion of the Ring of Fire, they are out of their minds. Freedom was the goal of the Modern Age Science, how she became slave of the classical powers from the beginning living upon the blood and the flesh of the human race, this is a question they have to answer to themselves.

The Truth is written. Now only rest to see what we will do.
