DIARY OF ETERNITY
GOD LIVES!

PART ONE

AUGUST 2024

It seems evident, then, that the Power of the Son of Man to proceed to the Last Judgment is Everlasting, so that His Judgment is that of God. According to this Divine Power the Son of Man has the Power of Universal Absolution. It is His right.

But the King has a Duty to His Kingdom. Whatever His Judgment may be, he must respond to the Everlasting Peace of his People. Which leads us to his Revelation, where we read: “The Spirit of Jesus is the spirit of Prophecy.” What the nature of this Spirit is we have in Jonah, for example. God announces his judgment, but leaves it open to Conversion to execute his Sentence or suspend it. One or the other depends on those about whom the Judgment speaks.

We believe that the Conversion of the fullness of the nations comes from God. But there is no Victory without Battle. And everyone must choose their position on the field. We don't know what will happen next. But we do know positively that every man must answer for his thoughts, words, and actions. For Faith is the Key of the Door to God's Paradise, yet Faith is not a back door through which to sneak in the crimes committed here on Earth in the manner of the Ancient Jew, who invented the suicidal evil of paying for the crime he was going to commit before his execution, thus ensuring the priest's forgiveness. For this crime of wickedness, the Temple was destroyed and Jerusalem was reduced to ashes. Which means that God cannot be deceived. Faith entails the movement of the Self into the Image and Likeness of the Son of God; as far as the spirit is concerned, Man has been created to be a son of God in the image and likeness of the Firstborn of the House of God.

A man receives the call for help from a people under the genocide of a son of Satan, let's call him the Butcher of Damascus. That man has the armies on the coast, but he turns and abandons the Cry for Help under the boots of such a son of Satan. The question is: When human justice itself declares contempt for the call of Help a crime, what Divine sentence will fall on such a Murderer? “YES WE CAN”, remember? Hence it is seen that Faith without the spirit of the Son of God in the Image and Likeness of the Firstborn, Jesus Christ, nullifies the Argument of the other son of Satan about the Non-Necessity of works in Jesus Christ to cross the Gate of Life. Whoever does not act in accordance with human Law, his Source being the Divine Law, even if he escapes Human Justice, as long as he lives, will have to submit to the Divine Law for his Crime of Non-Attendance and Betrayal to the Cry for Help of an entire people.

We know that this crime was legalized by the UN through the argument of the Non-Intervention of nations in the internal affairs of a State, a satanic theory that Russia imposed on the world out of fear and terror of its nuclear threat. It is understood that in a Universal State, such as the Kingdom of God, such an Argument is an Unpardonable Crime for which every people and man must answer before the King of Heavens. To legalize such a satanic argument is to expose his Kingdom to Civil War, the consequence of which, calling in our Memory, was the Fall of the Human Race into a state of world fratricide. Under this Global Order: NON Intervention IN THE INTERNA AFFAIRS OF A STATE TURNED INTO A CRIMINAL ORGIZATION, Peace would be a chimera, and what is more absolute, the spirit of God would rise to destroy all that He created.

The living History of each and every one of the peoples of the Creation is the Responsibility of the Divine Universal King. To raise an Argument of inaction of all peoples regarding the uprising of a Genocidal Tyrant, an Evil Beast devouring his own people. is an unforgivable action in the eyes of God. If it were to be believed that the King should refrain from rising up against such a Criminal Nation, it would happen that the King and God would come into conflict, which is precisely what Satan sought when he threw the People of the Earth at the feet of Death. The King's Answer was God's Answer, for God lives in the King, answer that we have alive in His Resurrection.

To speak directly, any People that rises up against its neighbor will be banished from Life, any State that rises up against its People will be destroyed. There is no buying and selling of Divine Justice. The Spirit of God, in the Son and in the Father, is Incorruptible. Today and for Eternity, the living History of the peoples of Creation is the Responsibility of the Lord and King whom God has raised as Head of his Kingdom. And this Responsibility is the Inheritance of the entire House of God.

The whole House of God lives in this Responsibility. All citizens of the Kingdom of God have the right to Peace and the duty to defend Peace at home, wherever and whenever War comes around.

We all form the same Tree of Life, from whose Trunk we emerge, Branches of a body, the Tree of Life of Creation, which rises for Eternity to bring into Existence Branches without number. God is the gardener who feeds this Tree, his Spirit the Sap that unites all the Peoples of Creation in the arms of his Kingdom, the spirit by which we are all sons of God and form part of His Life for the Eternity of the eternities.

Whoever believes that he can mock God by using his Word of Life against his Justice and Spirit, annulling the Works, thoughts and words emanating from this Spirit by reason of Faith alone, let him know that the Devil also knows that Jesus is the Son of God. The Work of Faith is the Unity of all beings in the same Soul of Peace, Justice and Truth, so that those who despise the Works that are born of Faith despise Christ and worship Satan.

Which leads us to say to the heroes of the Protestant Reformation: Did Satan deceive Adam, a man forged by the very hand of God, and you believe that Satan would not be able to deceive you, children of barbarians, born of prostitution?

This is why not being able to be enslaved by His Creation, whose life has been raised to His Image and Likeness, that is, indestructible and eternal, God has ordained a Government in whose Body lives HIS Spirit. We are talking about the Holy Spirit of the House of Jesus Christ. Government with all Power, in the Knowledge of Good and Evil, and in Wisdom, to which all the armies of the Kingdom of God owe Obedience. An attack on one's neighbor is an open war against the King and God. Where a wound is opened, the whole Body directs its forces to close it. There is NO such thing as Nationalism in Heavens. Any attempt to break up people from people is a direct attack on Life.

All Peoples, regardless of their place of origin in the Heavens, we form a single Reality.

Satan and his brothers in the Betrayal of the kingdom of Eden is the origin of Nationalism, of the division of the families of the Human Race into blocks established on fear and hatred, parents of Terror. Every person who puts his land of origin before the Divine Reality of the Universal Brotherhood, human in our case, declares himself Enemy of God and Man. God will take the axe and cut off that branch of the Tree of Life; which is, in short, what has happened to the Enemies of Man and of God.

Man is a son of God. His House, his Country, his World, his People, is God. He who declares himself a Cain will be exterminated from the Life of Creation. He who invokes Terror as an instrument of Power is a demon, a murderous beast, and the Judge will pay for his Crime according to Wisdom: Terror will find Terror in the Judgment of his Banishment from Creation. There is no Power on Earth that can absolve Satan; nor is there an advocate in the world who can defend before God those who swore to destroy their neighbor through Terror and Hatred.

Since God is our Nation, there is no Language but that of God, the Language of Wisdom. Those who speak the Languages of Satan speak the language of Terror and Hatred, the Language of War and Genocide, of Tyranny and Theocracy, the part of such beasts in the Final Judgement will be the part of the Evil Beast.

The Holy Spirit, that is, the Body of the House of God, is governed by the Law of Universal Peace, whoever sows the Seed of Division among peoples declares War on the King, and, consequently, the universe of the Armies of the Civilizations of the Kingdom of the Son of God are activated at his service: To immediately stop the sowers and proceed to eradicate the seed sown from the being of creation. United Nations Law Enforcement: to turn one's back on the Cry for Help of a people, to abandon the one who is being slaughtered, to stand still while a Cain destroys another Abel is an Abomination in the eyes of God, and for this the UN will be dismantled and a New Organization of the Plenitude of Nations will arise to stand between Cain and Abel, and to break the hands of those who, despising God, the King and the Law of the Universal Unity of all beings in the Tree of Life of Creation, seek Civil Rupture with their neighbor, their brother. Such peoples will be eradicated from the Face of History. Speaking in plain English: God is Love, but He is not an asshole. And if anyone doubts it, let them read the History of the Jews. Out of Love, God gives everything; He even gave us His Son as Champion of our Cause. But when he is taken for an amulet, a totem, an idol of letters, his Spirit ignites and devours city and town.

There is only one People, the People of the Fullness of Nations of the Tree of Life of Creation. One Sap feeds all the branches. One Universal King is the Head of the Divine State. He, Jesus Christ, is the Head of the Body that forms this State. And, as the Holy Spirit said: and the Head of the King is God.

Ergo, attacking the King is attacking God. Whoever hates Christ, hates God.

Thus, the Future of the Anti-Christianity of Agenda 2030 is to be erased from the face of World Politics. With your eyes you will see it, and you will all bend your knees before the King of Heaven.

23/8/24

Am I God, that I may see the future? Can one judge by what has not yet been born? Will the creature just born be condemned for crimes that have not yet been committed? And yet, we have seen the future, we carry it inscribed on our skin, the scars fill the soul until they erase the appearance of beauty that it brought when it was given to us. I am afraid to look at my soul in the mirror; there would not be beauty in it to congratulate myself for. Will my soul live such dark days again? ... by a senseless judgment of absolution on those who, even before the court, declare themselves traitors and swear not to waste time in taking the beast out of its wrapping again with words of superiority, to be more than their neighbor? Who is he who serves glory at the beginning and leaves the poison for the end? It will not be my God, You, Jesus Christ. You announced it at the wedding in Canaan, the Wine of the End of the Ancient World will be Wine from the Vineyards of God Himself, YAHWEH, your Father. Let your children come to the table, be living witnesses of your glory, and proclaim your Justice throughout all nations! Yours is the limitless Power of Him whom YAHWEH GOD has invested with the Glory of the Judge of the Universe. In your Wisdom your Mouth will declare Sentence: Holy, Just and Good. Let those who love you and take your Word fear nothing: "Whoever believes in the Son of God will not be judged but will pass from death to eternal life." I have said to myself: Here I am, walking among the dead as one who walks among shadows drawn by the "dust" of the wind. They speak words of their creator, the son of Death; a shake of feet and the dust returns to the dust of the road I left behind. Their speeches are arguments designed by madmen for madmen, and so their smiles are grimaces on the faces of beasts without intelligence. God forbid that such shadows should penetrate your world and, growing, rekindle the fire of the Hell of War in Paradise. Great is the Power of the Judge, Great is his Responsibility before God and the Future. Whoever wants to raise his voice to God accusing him of cruelty, let him do so. The whole Creation has had enough of Good and Evil. The Divine decision has been made: Evil to the Left, Good to the Right. Whoever wants to live, let him run to the Right. Those who hate God and his Son, let them stay on the Left, let them continue doing here all the Evil they can conceive and are allowed to do: civil wars, genocides, hatred of the law of Mother Nature, hatred of Man created by God in his image and likeness, worship of Satan and his hell of eternal celebration. Let "the dust without your Spirit remain in the dust."

Who will blame the Lord of infinite spaces for having elevated Life over Death, investing Creation with His Divine Indestructibility?

Men speak like beings without intelligence, worshippers of Power and Wealth, invoking the Need to be gods for a day in order to transform their actions and words into acts and speeches of demons. And God is silent. He has already said it all. "Whoever wants to live, let him live; whoever wants to die, let him die."

Who wants to live in a world where the existence of a Hitler, of a Stalin, were protected for eternity? It would be Hell.

Shall we blame God for having elevated Life over Death? Who does not want to live eternally? Who wants to live in the Hell created by their actions? There they will be gods, not for a day, gods forever, for the eternity of eternities.

From the Fall of Man, God has also learned the lesson: Truth has nothing to say with Lies. To do Good to Evil is to throw the pearl of Peace to a sow. The War against Lies and Corruption, daughters of Death, is without quarter.

Does the Creator not have the Power, the Right and the Duty to banish from his Universe, to Hell for which they long with their works and words, those who, forgetting that they are creatures, declare themselves gods? Will they blame God for having given them Eternal Life? Do they receive it and demand that He abandon them to live a life according to their thoughts, words and works?

They tried to banish from their Universe the one who opened the doors of his Kingdom to them. Is there greater madness? Heads or Tails. God gives eternal life to live with God. And we have the Divine Personality drawn in the Bible.

Each one must choose what he wants from God, whether Love or Hate.

This impassive God, without passion, alien to the life of his Creation, is an abomination in the eyes of the Spirit of the Creator of the Universe. The Sentence against the sons of God who wanted to be gods, equal to their Creator, confirms this.

The judgment of God against the Jewish people who wanted to make the Law a shield against Divine Justice, confirms this.

The Personality of the Creator of the Cosmos has been forged in the fire of the ages of Eternity. "I have been formed and after me there will be no other" is revealed in the Fire of the Bush.

"I am who I am" is the declaration of a Consciousness whose Consciousness lives in the dimension of an Incorruptible Law.

Why then does Corruption spread across the continents, watering the lands and seas with the blood of hundreds of millions of innocents?, the beasts ask themselves. What will the wise man answer to the pathetic discourse of rational animals devoted to the sciences of destruction?

"Fools, beasts without intelligence, how will we know what Corruption is if we do not experience it in our souls, how will we abhor War if we do not live it in our flesh! Did not the sons of God succumb to the idea of knowing Good and Evil? How will the Creator immunize his Creation except by making his creatures vomit the fruit of the Science of good and evil?

Once the Final Battle between God and Death is open, there could not be, nor is there, a turning back. Each one must choose between Life in the bosom of the Law of the Consciousness of the Creator or Death in the Exile for the Eternity of his Creation.

We are fed up with Lies, Wars and Evil. And yet rational human animals are not yet fed up with human flesh and blood; like the murderous beasts that once they taste human blood can no longer deprive themselves of it, so the worshippers of Wealth and Power need Corruption and War to live their passion without measure: to be gods for a day.

Their crowns and their laws have their source in Death; their destiny is Hell, but along the way they enjoy sowing Misery and Crime. Let them die, let their corpses be thrown into the river that carries the demons to the ocean of hell. All of them, the Devil's advocates, condemned God for his Conscience; they wanted the King to be one of them, they tempted him with the fruit of the Science of Good and Evil, War.

The madness of those children of God who offered the Almighty and Omnipotent Only Begotten Son of God all the kingdoms of the world if they would worship them on their knees, who will measure it? They despised Truth, hated Intelligence, declared Reason superior to Wisdom, they themselves signed their sentence of Banishment from Creation. Did they not read the Eternal Decree by which the Creator made his Firstborn Lord of all Creation? The Lord of all Life kneeling before a speck of dust animated by the Breath of God? What name shall we give to such madness! What shall we call those who worship such a suicidal species for its bravery in declaring war on the Creator of the New Cosmos!

Human Reason has gone mad, it loves Lies and hates Truth, it is fascinated by Corruption and is scandalized by the cries of Justice, it admires dictators and genocidaires, tyrants and theocrats, and despises those who make the Right to Liberty and Life, to Peace and Health, their homeland and flag.

What shall I say? Until when, God, will the King remain seated at your Right Hand? Let his Light rise and the darkness flee, and let those who say: There is no God hide under the stones.

The Battle is total, the War is absolute.

And in the middle of the field arise the disciples of that Eve asking man to bend his knees before their lord: Satan.

For thus says a man forged in the fires of the science of good and evil: There is no quarter, no pact, no alliance or truce with the servants of madness for Power and Wealth. All will fall into the same prison, from the East to the West, from the North to the South, the forces of Life will be deployed against the armies of Death. Whoever does not lay down his arms and bend his knees before the King of Heaven will perish, and if he escapes death he will be banished from Life.

It is not time for Lamentations or imprecations; it is Time to put on the armor of the Spirit, from the soles of the feet to the crown of the head, indestructible and incorruptible in the image and likeness of our Creator and King.

The Enemy of God and Man has a date: 2030. That will be the year in which his forces will be swept from the face of the world. They hope to banish intelligence from Man, to leave him alone with his Animal Reason, governed by a Science devoted to the Destruction of Christian Civilization, sold to the Alliance of Civilizations signed by Socialism, Islam, and the International Criminal Organizations that operate, with the blessing of the UN, throughout the world. They want to banish from Being the Man created by God, Father of Jesus Christ. What man do they have in mind?:

A sheep without intelligence, a dog living off the leftovers of his masters, a worm swimming in the mud of the corruption of his politicians.

And what about the Woman he wants to create?

A female without a heart, her body a gift for all, a mother without a husband, a daughter without a father, the perfect prostitute, without gender consciousness, an enemy of her daughters, a whore at the service of her creators, a slave of Power, a worshipper of Wealth.

How can we not abhor such a creation: “Dust you are and to dust you shall return.”

God said it and his children agree with it. Just as we understand that a criminal, a delinquent, a corrupt person, a liar, a traitor, a genocidal... as long as he is shielded in his evil, he will continue to progress in his evil. Growing evil that they call Progress. And we see that even God had to face this all-powerful dimension of Death. A confrontation in which rational animals see a denial of his Omniscience, which they want to save by transforming God into a cursed demon, whose image and likeness they invoke to bless their own crimes, genocides and crimes. And yet God's true crime was the Love of a Father. What will we do, will we banish the Love of Being in order not to live with such an Achilles heel? Is it strange that Philosophy, upon encountering this God, fell dead and now wanders through the cemetery of its animal reason like a mafia ghost terrorizing disciples trained to hate the universal evolution of man to the natural condition of a son of God, jumping from Reason to Intelligence? For we all know that Reason is an animal property exclusively sustained in order to survive in the Here and Now, becoming in this dimension what claws and fangs are to beasts, and venom to the snake. Intelligence rises above Space to Infinity and in Time to Eternity, discovering God in the Heart of the Universe. So that if Science has as its goal the Destruction of everything and everyone in order to survive, Intelligence transforms the Being of Creation to rise to the Image and Likeness of its Creator. Science remains to lead the evolution from the animal entity to that of the destructive beast that does not recognize any force other than that of its claws and fangs. Intelligence rises to the Tree of Creative Omniscience to make Creation participate in the Life of the Spirit of its Creator. For this reason, God's Abomination towards Lies, Corruption and War comes in the Code of the Law of our Nature. That, evidently, once established in Freedom, each one can rebel against Truth, Peace and Justice, columns of the Spirit of that Creator of the New Cosmos who says of himself: "I alone have been formed in the fires of Eternity, and there will be no other after me," referring in this declaration to his Son Jesus, our Everlasting Universal King.

The murderous power of Reason isolated from Intelligence is visible in the events that caused the Lutheran Reformation, where we saw how the Invocation to “Reason alone” unleashed the greatest of the European civil wars of religion ever dreamed of by any European nation.

From the religious wars and their consummation in the Thirty Years War we all understand that the leap from Animal Reason to Intelligence occurred when the Creator of Man opened our Being to his Word: “Let us make Man in our image and likeness,” at which moment the Human Being ceased to be an Animal and became an Animated Being: a son of God.

Animal Reason looks at the Individual and his own survival; Intelligence in the Image and Likeness of God looks at the Universe of beings, hence Christ Jesus, the son of Man. So if the rejection of Intelligence leads the evolution of the being to its transformation into a Beast, the reason why Satan is spoken of as a Serpent, the Beast par excellence; the birth of the Divine Universal Intelligence opens the Door of Eternal Immortality to Man.

The position of Science, declaring itself anti-Christian, consummated its Crime in the History of the 20th Century. Man having been banished from Intelligence, and sold by Science exclusively to the Power of Animal Reason, which has its absolute bonum in the Individual, the Political Animal entered through the door that the Satanic Beast opened to the Uncreated Force that existed from cosmic eternities to fulfill its nature, to bury the Worlds in Dust, the reason why, having entered the Earth, Death said to the World of Adam, the first of the kings of Ancient Mesopotamia: “Dust you are and to dust you shall return.” Sentence that was definitely fulfilled with the Flood, and that would have been the End of Life on Earth if God had not invoked his Justice to establish a Day of Vengeance and Redemption. Because the Man delivered to Death was his younger son, through his blood he asked for Vengeance; and through the Blood of his Eldest Son he brought us Redemption. A mystery that without the Supernatural Intelligence that the Word brought us would be as incomprehensible to us as Atomic Physics to dogs.

In short, Science without the Wisdom that comes from Divine Intelligence transforms that donkey's jaw into the Whip with which Death, as it is seen in our days, strikes the nations, dragging them into the abyss of cosmic fate that during Uncreation was the Destiny of all Worlds. Acting as if Life and God had not become a single Cosmological Reality, sealed by the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit that lives in both, being an Uncreated Force whose Nature was to extinguish the flame of Life once its cycle of mortal existence was completed, Death operates as if this Cosmological Revolution had not occurred, and there was still time for the Divine Revolution to be absorbed in the hell of the events that the Creation of Life in the image and likeness of its Creator has caused in the structure of Space and Time.

The conclusion of the History of the Modern World is defined by the banishment of Intelligence to the Image and Likeness of the Divine, and the immeasurable embrace of Science to Human Animal Reason; in this way, placing the Individual over the Universe, the logic of the events experienced from the German Protestant Rebellion to the World Wars of the 20th Century leaves no room for Ignorance about the cause for which the Human Beast uses the fear of the Third World War as a whip with which to bring us, the children of God, to our knees. Our Response, today and always, will be that which the Son of God wrote in our Being: VADE RETRO SATAN.

Having understood this, our Generation has before it a giant challenge; to undo everything that Death did. Death is the “last enemy.” Satan’s hours are numbered on Earth, but Death lives in those nations that still refuse to believe in the Divinity Nature of the King of Heaven, our Jesus Christ. And yet Death will also be defeated. The Resurrection of the Son of God is the Invincible Guarantee of God's Victory over the Enemy of His Creation.

Man will not perish; created to know and live days that will never end, the Power of the Creator is inaccessible to Death. Through the Christian Faith an Immortal and Indestructible Covenant was sealed, thanks to which the House of Christ has withstood political earthquakes, floods of blood, wars of extermination. The Wisdom of He who built a House for God among the nations has been established. Today begins the Final Battle for the Conversion of the Fullness of the nations to the Kingdom of the Son of God. It was prophesied from Heaven and the children of God invoke its Seal.

Step by step, verse by verse... THE HEART OF MARY, LIFE AND TIMES OF THE HOLY FAMILY, is in the El Corte Inglés Catalog. 20 Euros. I still have to receive notification from the Red Circle about the other Catalogs in which it must appear. Patience! my friend; nothing is achieved by unleashing against the stones the fire that feeds the being.

The stones do not want to speak, nor do the walls ask for the word. What horrors would they not sing if the deserts were given the word? How many stories to keep us awake lie in the book of the oceans? If the Moon had a mouth, what would it say? Maybe: Blind me, I do not want to see more, do not shine my light on the massacres of the children of the Earth.

The stars have remained frozen in Time. “May God not wake us, until the day after the Final Judgement” says the oldest.

The show of the Alliance of Civilizations between those crazy for Power and Wealth is coming to an end, but it never hits the cliff. The stakes are high. A certain Zapatero acclaim his Master, the Bolivarian Capo of Cocaine Inc., a certain Maduro, about whom the first says that he is a democrat clean of all blood, an honest and unblemished politician, and Zapatero confesses it in front of everyone; elections in Venezuela, absolute fraud. And the slave, lackey, servant, worm, or whatever in the Resistance Manual of the political son of Caesar the existence of such monsters is called, the monster disappears like a monkey in the fog. Conclusion? We already know what was in Delcy's suitcases, handed over to a certain Ábalos in exchange for gold and diamonds: Ladies and gentlemen, pure coke, white cloud, make sure that the Falcon of Caesar's son doesn't lack the most expensive whiskey in the world or the best coke in the universe, ho ho, it's the fools who pay, take a line, vice president of my resilience, a shot, listen to the name: Waste of pro-dictatorial socialist political theory in the ass of the anti-Spanish pro-Civil War republican cocktail.

Cockroaches must be killed.

Spaniards and geese, where is the difference?!

The show of national history. The return of the Bourbon to the stage of the Spanish Civil Wars. It is what the Bourbons always did, keep plunging Spain into civil war.

The King of Heaven deploys his forces in Europe and the Americas. Christian Civilization is going to take a leap in Time, the creation of the Society of the Plenitude of Nations was sealed by Divine Wisdom, reserved for the sons of God, of the House of the King, predestined for our Generation.

Today is the Day that was spoken of in secret Yesterday, of that wisdom spoken between the Apostles and their Disciples; that Tomorrow is our Today. How can I not enjoy it, how can I not feel encouraged by the fire of the Bush! There are so many thousands of years that we have been devouring Satan's health!

One day I started to make a list of the wars and battles in which kings and their uncrowned disciples played their kingdoms, empires and borders. I gave up. War is a global pandemic that has been operating in human beings for 7,000 years. It is genetic transmission. Just like cancer is transmitted, or low levels of hormones essential for the emotional and physical health of people. “Mens sana in corpore sano”. Soul and spirit coming down from the same Almighty Mountain where the Creator of the Cosmos has his Home.

The Soul is to the Spirit what the glass is to water; if they break the glass there is no water. For this reason, since the Fall, to destroy man the first thing that must be done is to destroy the glass created to contain the Spirit in Man. We have this reflected in the Union of Christ with his Church, Soul and Spirit, two dimensions, a single Reality. The fathers of the Alliance of Civilizations do not destroy the Vessel, they mold it from Childhood to fill it with the rottenness that is Socialism, in all its versions, seasoned with the most obsolete Scientific Atheism: Evolution according to Charles Darwin.

The Restaurant where this luxury dish is served is financed by Black Gold. Suleiman the Magnificent could not destroy Europe, rape and massacre the Wife of Christ. His admirers believe that they will succeed. They have the truth on their side: the human being has been created to worship his Creator and live in the light of the Law of the Nature of His Life. Once the Faith of Christ is extracted from the Being, the Soul is empty and will desperately tend to fill the void by drinking from a new religion, which the godfathers of the Alliance of Civilizations hope will be Islam, and the pawns on their board trust in being the first to reach the goal, replacing that possibility with an ideology founded on the religious principle of the infallibility of the Supreme Leader of the Party. This is Chavismo. This was Communism. And this is the Horizon towards which the European Progressive Forces are heading.

First, the common enemy of Islam and Socialism must be destroyed, that is, Christianity. Later, the friends of the Here and Now will wage the natural war between those who by law and history are lethal enemies. The race to be the first to reach that goal is a conversation between clowns.

Clowns are extremely dangerous. Everything is for sale. Everything is bought. Even Universal Suffrage for minors. They have NO shame! They have NO Morals, NO spirit, the Soul in which that body hides so much evil is a hell.

Will they be so crazy as to defend before the Tribunal of God that Alliance against his Kingdom?

Who will accuse God of being cruel for banishing from his Creation the enemies of his Law, be they children or servants of his House? Tremble all at this Morning Hour of That Day, for when the Day is over, not by the law of time but by the Will of God, you will tremble eternally for the crimes committed during one second of the Eternal Life that was placed in your hand.

The principles of Scientific Atheism, the putative mother of Socialism, are a Crime against Universal Truth. All life comes with a mechanism for preserving its existence; if under an unnatural law that mechanism were removed, the species would collapse into dust. In Man, intelligence is the biosystem of analysis and judgment on the information that reaches him from the external natural world; if this biomechanism is attacked and led to a pathological state, or simply given information of a cosmological nature without any connection to the law of Life in the Universe, the end of the human species, under that pathological law, will be identical to the end of the other species.

There are no weak and strong, Darwin was the creator of a scientific ideology that gave form to a gospel born to cleanse the face of the Empire of His Satanic Majesty of the British Isles, blessing its genocides and robberies throughout the surface of the Earth.

Love for the Homeland before God, is the origin of that maternal hospital where the flocks of fools dragged to the slaughterhouse of war for the health of the glory of the Napoleon of the moment are raised.

Will the son of Man grant amnesty to such gods for one day? Will he open the doors to his Kingdom and there open their manuals of resistance to continue in Heaven what they began and did not finish on Earth? Will they defend themselves from their crimes accusing, like Calvin, God of the role that they had to live in the scenario of the Human World Civil War?

To believe or not to believe, here is the Key to Eternal Life. When the Day is over, there will be no room for “I didn’t know” or “I’m sorry, I didn’t understand it well.” The Love of the Creator for his Creation is so great that instead of giving this Key to a Plato, an Aristotle, a Hegel, a Kant, he put it in the hands of simple fishermen, men without philosophical culture... so that even the most illiterate could understand the Message: “He who believes is not judged.”

Can there be a greater proof of the Love of the Creator for his Creature? What greater mathematical, metaphysical and historical impossibility did God challenge us to: to believe that the Gospel would be understood by all the Languages of the World!

Who would have believed it! The smallest plant, planted in the wildest soil, exposed to floods and earthquakes, raises its Trunk and extends its Branches to the ends of the Earth. To believe or not to believe? It is a fool’s game! That our peoples were reduced to such a state of ignorance...! There was Peter, speaking to people from all the regions of the Roman Middle East. God said it: “My word will reach the ends of the World.” And so it has been.

Believing in God is even an offense to the One of whom we say we “believe.”

Believing...? Love carries this “belief” in its Soul.

God Lives, He continues to work! God moves the King, and the King moves all the peoples on the stage of Universal History. “The Father shows the Son everything he does.” Will the King not reveal to his children what his Father shows them? Or have we not been created in his Image and Likeness? What God does with his Son, his Son does with his.

Believe and overcome Death. The Word of God is the Word, and the Word is God. The King cannot abolish the Law to justify crimes committed in the exercise of the fullness of intellectual faculties, conduct typical of the Enemy of his Kingdom.

As for the Nature of the Word, words are superfluous, it is enough to open our eyes and see the Creator among his creatures: GOD WITH US.

THE SCIENCE OF GOOD AND EVIL

“Of every tree of Paradise you may eat, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

This is a science that is not taught in any university, public or private. Why is that? Was God speaking in vain? Is there a science that has as its object of study Good and Evil?

Does Good exist? Does Evil exist? What is Good? What is Evil? Does this science refer to people?

And the most important thing for all of God's children: What does God understand by Good, and by Evil?

Men, once they have proclaimed themselves “the measure of all things”, and due to the changes of the times, as we have been witnessing and universal history is a direct witness, can change the content of both objects, Good and Evil, so that we have witnessed multiple transformations throughout the centuries, and we still see this drift in living societies. What is Good today, is considered Evil tomorrow. And vice versa.

What is Good in one area of the Earth is Evil in other areas. For a North Korean to worship his Leader is a sacred act, for a Christian to kneel before a dictator is an abomination: the Cross is better than kneeling before Satan.

For a philosopher the end does not justify the means; for the homo politico the means justify the end; that is, the end does not matter, the grace is in the means, because the end is none other than oneself.

We then see that if man were the measure of all things, there would be no Science of Good and Evil. According to such a pathological declaration, Good would be Life itself, and Evil would be all life: a lethal threat to its own existence.

In short, we could be going round and round in circles with this millstone until the end of time. Do Good and Evil exist?

Two witnesses, two invincible testimonies, we have before our eyes. The first is God, Father of Jesus Christ; the second is Universal History. Without the need to use intelligence, leaving thought free to ride through the books of the Memory of the peoples of the Earth, we find fixed laws, determining the ruin and disappearance of so many kingdoms, empires and civilizations.

Because of its History, the Earth seems more like the Cemetery of a Collection of beings driven mad by Power than the Memory of a mother beloved by her children.

Curiously, all the tombs bear the same epitaph: "Here lies in the dust another who wanted to be a god for a day."

We would not have any kind of intelligence if we did not know how to recognize the difference between Good and Evil. We know positively that Evil tends to dress up as Good; now, experience, the mother of science, and hence the Existence of the Science of Good and Evil, is logical and natural that someone who has lived an Eternity and seen worlds born and die throughout the Cosmos has discovered the laws by which both objects, Good and Evil, are governed; it is only natural to discover the nature of Good and Evil from the Intelligence of that Eternal Being.

Evil can deceive due to the absence of experience; the impossibility of deceiving someone who has Infinite Experience on the object of the Science referred to is absolute. So to speak of Good and Evil we must refer to Good and Evil according to this Eternal Being, who happens to be our Creator.

Good has a very transparent and concise path; until reaching the Supreme Good, giving one's Life for another person. The dimension of Good lives within the Law of our God: DO NOT kill, DO NOT envy, DO NOT bear false witness, DO NOT steal, love your neighbor as yourself, honor your parents, DO NOT condemn, share what you have, love Peace, defend Truth, embrace Justice, love God, your Creator, with all the strength of your being.

This code is sacred to some, demonic or fascist to others. Why? Because he who considers himself the measure of all things cannot accept, under any circumstances, a Dimension of Justice and Truth that does not correspond to the dimension of his personal declaration manifest in his words and his works: "I am the State."

So, since the contemplation of the nature of Good and Evil is a dimension manipulated by human reason, and because History is a World Fratricidal War for the imposition of the pathological criminal will of an individual over all the other human beings around him, just as in these days we have seen and are witnesses of the madness of the individual Maduro in Venezuela, an absolute mental patient, his whole being consumed by the Evil of Satan: believing himself to be a god with all power and omniscience sufficient to challenge even the Creator of the Cosmos; seeing what always happens, the Madness for Power, the laws of Science that has Good and Evil as its object are determined by who its experience with such objects, Good and Evil, is infinite. In such a way that if this Divine Being affirms that the opposite of Killing, Envy, giving False Testimony, Adultery, Stealing, execrating God, dishonoring parents... is Good; By inertia we understand that Killing, Stealing, Envy, Adultery, Dishonoring parents, Hating God, etc., is Evil. Good produces Life and Evil produces Death. He who hates, ends up killing or being killed; he who loves, gives rise to new life.

But what awakens our Thought and activates our intelligence here is the Divine Counsel:

“Do not eat! ...for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.”

Translated to Christian: There is no need to put your finger in the socket to know that the electric shock can kill you: better than experience is Knowledge, I explain to you what electricity is, what functions the socket has, you understand it, and using your intelligence you refrain from putting your finger in the socket, not out of fear of whoever tells you and has explained to you the reasons for not doing so, but because the Truth is sufficient for your intelligence to love the law and live according to its steps.

Which leads us, returning to the Parable of the Paradise of Eden, that the First Man had Knowledge of the Wars of the sons of God. Formed in the Wisdom of God, Adam, king of Mesopotamia, lived and governed according to the Law inscribed in the Being of Creation, namely: All the Citizens of the Kingdom of God are brothers and share in the Universal Family absolutely all the goods that come from the Omniscience of Creator, and from the Love of the Creator for his children and his people.

The Law of the spirit is superior to experience, since without suffering it we believe in the conclusion to which the knowledge coming from experience would lead us, which being, in this case, Death, it would be madness to turn our backs on the Divine Word.

The Battle between Good and Evil, between those who want to be the measure of all things, and those who believe that the Measure is the Word of God, is a Cosmic Battle that God closed by becoming one with Life; and that Death reopened in Creation, declaring God a liar, thus sowing the Tares of Lies in the hearts of the children of God. Some fell and others remained faithful to the Wisdom of the Eternal Being. “Not the Creature, the Creator is the Measure of all things,” this is the most absolute Cosmic Truth existing in the Cosmos.

Once the Creature moves away from the Law with which the Creator has invested the Creation with its Eternal Nature, and goes deeper and deeper into its own law, making the end the justification of the criminal means it must employ to make its own personal law: the law of all, “the law!”, the end of the road is Death.

To be god for a day and a demon for all eternity. Only those who give themselves over completely to this pathology of the intellect are capable of rising in the image and likeness of Satan; on their knees for the scepter of god for a day.

“Heil Maduro! Your days are numbered, you and yours will be banished from life. Soon the King of the Earth will deploy all his armies among men against your satanic glory; your thirst for riches and your hunger for Power will open an abyss under your feet. Your victims, men, women and children, cry out for justice before the Throne of the King of the sons of God; they will see you dead and thrown into the Darkness with your master and lord, Satan, in whose name you have transformed a Christian nation into a prison from which the Cocaine Cartel infects the entire world. Do not retreat, remain on your knees before your lord and master, the prince of Hell. You ate the fruit of the cursed tree, the curse will lead you to where you belong. Like that of a rabid dog, your corpse and that of your loved ones will be burned and thrown into the garbage containers: you will not live in the memory of men.”

Does Good not exist? Does Evil not exist? Who are these insane murderers? Disciples of that son of God who said to the first Man:

“You will not surely die; for God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Our eyes are already open. God spoke the Truth; the Serpent that Satan carried within, lied.

For Man, there is a hope of Salvation; for the one who lied, a condemnation ad eternum: Exile from Creation.

Whoever loves Life must turn away from Lies; whoever loves himself above all things and wants to enjoy it being God for a day, must continue, the abyss is the end of his path.

Good always speaks the Truth; Evil has its mouth full of the word that betrays the last word spoken.

Evil is a traitor to its own word; from the sack of lies that is its being, emerges the weeds of corruption, and the fruit of corruption is civil war. Ergo, Death.

This is what we have seen and learned, enough to bend our knees before the Word of our Creator: “Do not eat.” Now, whoever wants to eat, let him eat. But let him know that before him he will have the Son of God, the Everlasting Universal King, JESUS CHRIST, whose Almighty Voice created the Light, the Firmament, the Oceans, and all life on Earth.

Until today it was heard: How long, Lord?

From today it will be said: Blessed be our King, who has banished from the Human Race the dictator, the genocidal, the corrupt, the liar, the traitor, all formed by Death in the image and likeness of Satan, his son.

ZION IS ETERNAL

No one intends or can intend to build a Civilization, with universal characteristics, on a substratum of Lies, Corruption and War; on this basis, a Dictatorship, a Tyranny, a Republic, even an Empire can be built. Universal History has put on the table and before our intelligence multiple and varied forms of civilizations and societies, enough to be able to affirm that we have learned the lesson and are perfectly intellectually capable of discarding those models from our sight and begin to raise a universal building, without limits in Time, whose basic property is Truth, Justice and Peace. It is within this Building and only in it that the Creation of a Civilization born to be eternal can be carried out. It is, on this Original Property that God has created a Kingdom for his Children. Experience is a teacher and with the passage of Time it elevates the creative genius, natural to God, to the Omniscient Wisdom of the one who is the Lord of Infinity and Eternity.

But we would not be thinking this way, nor would anyone have ever been able to think this way before our Generation, and they did not do so because they did not know the Revelation about the True Personality of Godhead by his Son, and because we know it we can think the way we do, saying that: The sacred vital core, and of absolute existential value for us is the Magnificent Conclusion that we received from the lips of the Son of God, and that his Disciple abbreviated by affirming: "God is Love." An Affirmation, neither vague nor lazy, signed with one's own blood, and sealed with the most powerful Testimony that can be offered before a tribunal: One's own life.

We know for a fact that when Corruption becomes Government, the State institutions become criminal appendages of the Criminal Organization that acts as a lethal virus and spills its poison of hatred over Society, hoping to proceed through its accumulation to the Marxist theory of ADD chaos to chaos in order to make the Dictatorship of the Progressive Socialist Worker necessary, good and just, a direct highway to the grand show of a Civil War.

So, if we, the Human Race, after 7000 years of surviving against Death and its law, the Science of Good and Evil; if we, with our experience in life short as the sigh of a galaxy in the immensity of the Cosmos, can write a book about models of societies and civilizations, and we have the Power to reject the good and keep the bad, and vice versa, we must understand that the Creator of our universe, whose Life has its History in Uncreation, and whose Age is measured by Eternities...; Not only must we understand, we understand that his scientific experience in the field of Birth and Destruction of Worlds with their Civilizations allows him to Create and build a Universal Civilization born to never fall and to have the doors of Eternal Life open. This Divine Creator is the Father of Jesus Christ. From which it follows that we are not interested at this moment so much in the Prehistory of the Kingdom of the Son of God as in the Foundations of its Creation by YAHWEH God, his Father.

The general vision of the Kingdom founded by God and on whose Throne he has placed his Son JESUS comes to us from the Glorification that YAHWEH God Creator of the Cosmos made of his Son before men and gods:

The King, JESUS CHRIST: is the Universal High Priest whose Faith, Truth and Wisdom lives in all the Peoples of Creation.

He, the King, JESUS CHRIST, is the Head of all the churches of the Kingdom of God, his Father; All priests owe obedience to Him and exclusively to Him, regardless of the structure that this Truth, Faith and Wisdom has in the respective Peoples.

The King, JESUS CHRIST, is the almighty and omniscient Lord whom all priests and religious of Creation serve to keep Faith in God Alive among all those in His Kingdom.

All His priests receive from Him, through Him and in Him grace and wisdom; and no one receives anything from God except through the grace and Wisdom of the Lord JESUS.

GOD THE FATHER gives nothing to anyone who, violating the Law, intends to remove from his path the Eternal Universal High Priest, JESUS CHRIST, the Only Priest who stands before God and speaks face to face with the Lord of Infinity and Eternity.

HE, JESUS CHRIST, is the Word of God; it is through his Mouth that men and the entire creation hear the Word of God. Any man who claims or intends to come in the name of YAHWEH GOD, speaking in his NAME, commits the Crime of High Treason against the Everlasting Universal High Priest. God gives nothing to anyone, if not: in and through his Son, JESUS, His High Priest, the Only Priest who approaches God standing up and speaks with God, his Father, face to face.

Any man or living being who claims or has claimed to receive directly from God as if the Everlasting Universal High Priest, the Lord JESUS, did not exist, he and they did not come from God. God does not make known his Word except in his Son. Precisely this Violation of the Holiness of the Law of the Divine Priesthood, engendered to administer the Word of God in his Son JESUS, was the Crime committed by that Satan who passed himself off as the administrator of the Word of God the Father; a word that, as it is written in Genesis, is made known exclusively by the one who is the Word of God, in whose lips he lives and from whose lips he opens his wings saying “Let there be Light” “Let there be Firmament” “Let there be water, earth and sky, fish, birds and animals”, and “let us make Man in our Image and Likeness”, ergo, a son of God.

Historical experience is crucial to clothe our behavior with a Divine Thought, invincible in its Truth and Incorruptible in its action. Whoever comes from the Son of God comes from God; whoever comes from God, but not from the Son: he does not come from the Father of JESUS CHRIST.

The Priesthood has a single soul and spirit: To administer and cultivate the Faith, Truth and Wisdom of Christ Jesus in all the peoples of His Kingdom.

Whoever comes attacking this soul and spirit, and passes himself off as a Servant of God, violating the Law of Divinity of the Everlasting Universal High Priest, JESUS CHRIST, does not come from God. He who comes from the Son comes from the Father; he who comes from the Father but not from the Son does not come from God.

The lesson comes from the Fall. Not that God wanted to give it to us, but after the Event of the Betrayal and War of a part of the sons of God against the Holy Spirit, the lesson has been written for all so that no one, neither Today nor Tomorrow, falls into the trap of a son, servant or creature of God who passes himself off as a Divine Messenger, his Message being the death of whoever listens to him.

He who comes from the Son comes from the Father, comes to Unite, not to Divide; He who divides peoples and throws them into the infernal flames of religious war comes from Hell, his mother was Death, his king is Satan.

The Faith of Christ consists in the Revelation of the Infinite and Eternal Love of the Creator for his Creation. The Truth of Christ is all-powerful and omnipotent: “God is Love.”

God is Father, and He extends in His Son and through His Son His Fatherly Arms to all His Creation.

Any thought, discourse, article or doctrine that denies or puts into judgment, or simply subjects to discussion this Faith, this Truth and this Wisdom, is an attack against the Universal Law of Life in the Cosmos. God has not created a Universal Church to speak for itself and dictate its thought; The Immaculate Conception of the Church is born with

Jesus, her Universal Visible Head, whose Body lives in her Being and is the Supreme Incarnation of Divine Truth: The King, JESUS CHRIST, is True God, of the same Nature as his Father, YAHWEH GOD, Creator of all that exists. The Spirit that lives in the Father lives in the Son; there is no Division in the Spirit of God: “Two Persons, one Spirit”, the Spirit of Wisdom:

“... intelligent spirit, holy, unique and multiple, subtle, agile, penetrating, immaculate, clear, harmless, benevolent, sharp, free, beneficent. Lover of men, stable, sure, calm, almighty, omniscient, penetrating all intelligent, pure, subtle spirits. Because wisdom is more agile than everything that moves; its purity spreads and penetrates everything; For it is a breath of divine power and a pure emanation of the glory of Almighty God, so that there is nothing defiled in it. It is the brightness of the eternal light, the spotless mirror of the action of God, the image of His goodness. And being one, it can do all things, and remaining the same, it renews all things, and through the ages it pours itself into holy souls, making friends of God and prophets. For God loves no one except him who dwells with wisdom. It is more beautiful than the sun; it surpasses all the stars, and, compared with the light, it is in first place. For night succeeds light, but evil does not triumph over wisdom.

What shall we say in the face of this praise from God Himself about the Nature of the Spirit that lives in Him and His Son, and embraces the entire Creation in His arms so that all beings may experience the Joy of the One who has been clothed by His Creator with the natural properties of His Son: Eternal Life, Indestructibility, Invincibility, Incorruptibility, and the most precious jewel of CHRIST: Limitless Love for God, Infinite Trust in His Love for all His children, each and every one created in the Image and Likeness of His Firstborn, whom we know to be His Only Begotten, limitless love from God to this Only Begotten who opens Him to the entire Creation, in His Universal Public Declaration from the Cross, where He declares His Primogeniture, the Heart and Life of HIS Father to all His Brothers, to be True!

On what other Rock than the limitless Love for one's own and another's Life can a Civilization in Space and Time be sustained! I do not know it, the peoples and nations that preceded us did not discover it, they pursued it but did not find it, and their reward was ruin, decadence and fall. A civilization founded on terror, fear, the whip, fire and the blood of one's neighbor is born marked with its destruction and disappearance in the dust of oblivion. The Earth is drowned by the dust of the bones of hundreds of generations exterminated on the battlefields to the glory of dynastic houses born in the bowels of Death, houses fed by a single force: to destroy the Image of the Son of God in Man.

Continuing with its natural action, Death generates Images of gods and men whose prototype we have in Satan, the Ancient Serpent, the Dragon that twice rose up against the Holy Spirit during the Days of Creation, before the Creation of our Heavens and our Earth. It was in that cave of hell that the kings, emperors, tyrants and dictators who watered the centuries with an endless flood of innocent blood were suckled.

It was not with armies that God conquered our hearts. Nor with the wisdom of long speeches unintelligible to slaves. God reconquered the Heart of His Creation by ascending the Cross. Because He even gave His life for the Salvation of His Creation.

It is not by armies or by wise men that we surrender our heart to our Creator; we give ourselves body and soul out of Love for the One who revealed His own to us to the point of becoming one with His Creation.

Any other Foundation that is chosen to build a Civilization in the hope and confidence of being eternal is a chimera. The Love of Being for Life, one's own and that of others, and love without limits, as it is written: "You shall love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself," only this Foundation can make the Hope of eternal Life a reality.

Not in vain did God forbid his Son Jesus what he forbade his son Adam: "You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil," that is, do not live under the Law that has War as a means to an end. Namely, if you cannot save yourself, how are you going to save your neighbor!

Do you want to establish Peace on the other side of the War? Is not hatred the horse on which Death rides?

Do those who cultivate Hatred of their neighbor by signing laws that are the Seed of Hatred not advocate Civil War as a means to the end sought: Lifelong Dictatorship?

Hatred engenders Violence, and Violence engenders War. Hatred of one people for another is the absolute final expression of Justice having been brought to its knees before Corruption. How could a Being who has lived through the birth and destruction of worlds throughout the Cosmos conceive of a Civilization on that basis, when the Civilization he created was created to subsist for Eternity. ZION is Eternal!

The Love of God for the Spirit of Creative Wisdom is the Source of the River of Life, from whose banks all the Creatures of his Paradise drink the Waters of Intelligence. What can we say then? That once the Word is expressed, the Victory of the King can be stopped by those who have Hatred as their good and life?

Before God in action, there is nothing else to do but Obedience, bending the knees and asking for Forgiveness.

And each one with his own choice. Because even though he created him to be his son, Satan decided to Hatred the Holy Spirit of Creative Wisdom, preferring to be a prince in a Hell in Perpetual War than to be a king in a Paradise governed by the Universal Peace of the King: JESUS CHRIST.

THE LANGUAGE OF POWER

"Engender in your Omniscience, Our God, a generation of wise men breaking down the limits and frontiers of Knowledge, crossing the door of Intelligence and making the tree of science grow to the ends of time."

How great is your Wisdom, you have opened my eyes to the borders of the Cosmos; sitting on this wonder that you called The Earth I observe the Universe in which you have created me and I contemplate on the borders of the Cosmos a Night of endless Fireworks. In the Heart of Infinity and Eternity you have raised a World for God, your Son, our God, whom you have called us to be Citizens of his Kingdom: Eternal Citizenship for all who love Life and the Law. Shall I not marvel?

I will open my soul in praise of your Wisdom: “Spread, Our God, the wings of the hands of your children until they reach the ends of our world.”

What is more beautiful than your Truth, what is greater than your Justice! Your Peace gives me the Strength to want to live days that never end. Will I see the Cosmos that your Father created with the eyes of God? Can the penetrating eyes of the eagle compete with the vision of a child? The condor flies over mountains and valleys, but the eyes of your children are planted before the Coasts of Creation.

“The galaxies are cannons of cosmic energy, you have told me; when they reach infinite speed, they transform energy into matter, extending the coasts of the Ocean of Creation in their journey through Eternity, filling the spaces with new galaxies, globular superclusters that are planted as continents, islands and archipelagos on the Waters of my Creation.”

Will man see this Reality with the eyes of God? Were not the gods crushed by this Reality whose Nature amazes every Creature that in your Greatness you raise to your very Height? You are Magnificent, the genius of every man is a reflection of your star, rays of the immense beauty of your Creative Wisdom. Who are these who sell their soul for a day of power and riches?

“Dust they are and to dust they shall return!” my God has told me; “you, my son, be faithful to my Will, embrace my Intelligence and love the Immortal Life that I sowed in your Being. Whoever wants to die, let him die.”

Yes, I have seen Hell; my God has been good to me. The infernal machine plays against itself; tired of its invincibility, after winning countless times, it challenges itself to defeat itself, and in this war it loses itself in eternity.

Such is the scenario of Hell. Attila invading the worlds, defeated but never dead, always seeking a new way to achieve his victory, his defeat forever written. Hitler on his side, Genghis Khan on his side, Stalin on his own, all those who loved in themselves the Image of Satan and despised that of Jesus Christ trapped in an eternal timeless loop that repeats itself to infinity; in the heart of the Absolute Infernal Power; those who despised the Holy Spirit of the Creator and loved the Power of the Beast, the Serpent, the Dragon, the Devil. Who will defeat that Power, who will stop rising up against the Prince of Darkness? Do you not see what you do, humans?

In one hand the Paradise of God, in the other the Hell of the gods banished from Creation for Eternity, thrown into the bottomless pit of the Abyss that covers the infinite outer spaces of the Cosmos. Choose with your head, think with your heart, once you fall into the sleep of those who await the Judgement of the Son of Man, there will no longer be a “I am sorry”, a “I did not know what I was doing”! Hold on to the Word of God as a lifeboat that approaches to pick you up in the open sea after the sinking of your boat:

“He who believes in me will not be judged”.

Open your eyes, let the praise of God flow from your lips. Let us follow in the footsteps of the King, we are Citizens of his Kingdom, here on Earth as for Eternity in his World we will live his Law: “He who despises his neighbor accepts Satan as lord and king” is a sentence with no back door. For we are all brothers, branches of the same tree, stock of the same Vineyard; he who divides peoples and proclaims the superiority of his race, and separates himself from his neighbors like someone fleeing from leprosy, that people walks to the kingdom of the Prince of darkness; he hates the Creature, he hates his Creator; They will awaken to meet their lord and god, the Serpent of Eden, the Dragon of Paradise, the Evil One, named Satan.

In their day it will be seen and those who today mock Truth, Justice and Peace will tremble with fear and live to buy the status of god for a day with the riches of all.

I praise you because you have given me intelligence to see the course of events in the world; your wisdom has immunized me against the lies of the Powerful; loving me as a son you have shielded my heart against corruption. My Being is full of visions of your Kingdom, of the Glory of your Creative Arm, worlds created to share the same Paradise, all children of Peace, born to be free as is the one who is a son of the Lord of the House.

Where is Evil? Is it a crime to aspire to Happiness? Who are these people who have ruined peoples for their progress? They are gods who claim to be able to erase the Laws of Nature that You created, and to dictate to the universe a new code of global behavior. Does Death not exist? What is the door through which it slipped into the Creation of Life in the Image and Likeness of God?

“You will be like the gods, knowing good and evil.”

And Adam proclaimed himself king-god. His conduct soon began to scandalize other men. He had been chosen among his brothers to govern in the Name of God as king on Earth. But the Universal Brotherhood in God is inviolable.

Son of God, the very Only Begotten Son of God sits on the Throne of the King of Heaven as Brother of all the sons of God, Father of all. Where are you going, Adam? Who do you think you are? When did God tell you: “Enslave your brothers”? Are you the State, are you the Law?

Who told you that you are a god?

God’s Law is our Strength, and his Spirit is the source of our Freedom. “Leave the throne that you dishonor. Let each City govern itself until God returns.

But God did not return and Confusion arose. Man desired his neighbor’s wife, and woman her neighbor’s man. Reason alone gave birth to Passion, Passion to Hatred, and Hatred conceived Crime, Murder, death that justifies the end, slavery as divine grace. The cities opened the door to the game of games, the game of Power, the game of War.

Created to have an image of the Cosmos and Creation ad eternum in our intelligence, treasure of Wisdom in our Being, overnight, the Law of Life banished from the human heart, the Law of Death brought its code of justification of criminal means in the sacred End sought. Seven Thousand years under the Law of Hell; the same demons with different names aspiring to the same crown: The World Empire.

The first of the kings of the Earth had to abdicate when the Cities broke Obedience to the king that God chose for them to lead Civilization to the four corners of the world. He wanted to be obeyed as one obeys a true god. The cities rescued from the cemetery of the millennia have made us know this evil as a generalized monarchical law from the Middle East to the Far East. Mesopotamian, Chinese and Japanese records are before us to see that this Evil became widespread and led, time and again, to cities, kingdoms and empires to their ruin and destruction.

The origin of all the evils of nations was in the Passion for Power, a force unknown until the Fall in the genetic behavior of the human being; as if it were the door to a new state of evolution, the progressives caught in the clutches of the Passion for Power and Wealth, transformed themselves into abominable beasts unleashing their evil on all the neighboring peoples after killing their brothers, rebels to the will of a god. Since then the social structure based on a god-king has experienced many transformations.

Similar to the infernal machine in search of an impossible victory over itself, trapped for eternity in the loop of its unsolvable paradox, the children of Death progress in the attempt to create a social building in which this divinity is realized, even if only for a day, for which they protect themselves from justice by dictating laws that immunize them against the effects of their crimes.

Walking is learned to walk, and as a child in its infancy learns to take steps until it can run, the next building was a Military State, plundering neighboring towns, making War its Social System. As the Sumerian Royal List reveals to us, they were not kings, they were men and women with their own army imposing their law.

The third stage was the patriarchal monarchy established on the victory of the head of the clan of clans, from which point we returned to the primitive phase: king-god.

The deification of the king of the Third Dynasty gave way to the banishment of Abraham from the City of Ur.

Immediately there was a return to the military monarchy, of the Assyrian, Babylonian, Chaldean type... The success of this new sociological monarchy brought to History the concept of Empire, established on the throne of a king of kings, not worshipped as a god but feared as if he were.

The Discovery of Athenian Democracy brought to the eyes of Knowledge the possibility of a New Social Building based on the participation of Citizens in the destiny of their Civilization. A very small seed in the middle of a field bristling with all kinds of weeds. Witness that was collected by the Rome of Romulus and Remus, after the anthological sacrifice of fratricide, natural to the origin of all peoples. But with the growth of the Power founded on Death and established on the slavery of the vanquished: Democracy gave way to the Republic and the Republic to the Empire and with the Empire saw the original sin rise up: the god-king: Caesar Augustus.

The destiny of every empire was written in the books of the History of the Ancient Peoples, the Roman Empire fell because that was its destiny.

The Christian Medieval Age brought to History the separation of divinity and king, and although working together, that fusion was closed which supposes the ruin of every State founded on that evil principle. Byzantium was able to hold on on that basis for a thousand more years after the Fall of the Western Roman Empire; but because it was Roman and the Judgement of God against the Empire that signed the Condemnation of his Son was sealed, Constantinople walked towards its ruin with the certainty that the waves ride towards the shores.

Since then, men sought a Model of State that would not succumb to the blows of destiny. Germany at the beginning of the second millennium believed it had found the formula in the union of Crown and Church in the same bed of prostitution; Henry IV of Germany wanted to make the Bride of Christ his concubine. Henry VIII of England won; since the Bride of Christ would not undress before any king on Earth, he would create a church born to be his prostitute.

And we return to the empires: all born to be erased from History once the time that God gave the Devil of freedom on Earth to lead all nations to the Third World War was over. The natural disappearance of the modern classical empires had its origin in the resurrection of the Idea of Democracy, in its form of Republic. France was the standard-bearer, under whose armies the empires trembled, were shaken to their foundations, and although they won the battle of the armies they lost the war of ideas written in the colors of the French Republican flag.

The Charter of Human Rights brought about a remodelling of social structures. The existence of a masked crown that hides from the eyes of the people the true face of kings, tsars and sultans, a science of deception in whose laws their houses had been imbued with the need to kill, to commit genocide, to steal, to plunder, making the family goal: “to keep the crown”, the sacred argument of the justification of the means employed, in conjunction with the new ideological doctrines justifying the death of the weak before the strong, made their encounter in the virgin stage of the 20th century. The two world wars took place and because of them the modern classical empires fell.

Communism brought a new version of the Emperor-god with Infinite Power to eliminate every being that stands before his face. A version that could not be sustained, fell, and was resurrected following the law of the loop of the infernal machine, namely: creating a federation of Political States under a Central Military State that assures them Internal Peace and Freedom in obedience to the Supreme Leader.

In the case of the Theocratic State, the need for the Supreme Leader, although a religious version of the resurrection of the god kings of Eastern Antiquity, the effect is the same, the slavery of the people on whom that throne of a king without a crown is raised, because a god is more than a king.

Again I return to the loop of the infernal machine. A machine that cannot be controlled: the only way to defeat it is to destroy it.

Finally we have the Federal Political Monarchic State. Different states are united to the same crown, a guarantee of peace and unity between the federated states, over whose peoples the Supreme Federal Government and the Crown unite to protect their social model by anathematizing and demonizing the Opposition, an opposition fueled by the need to break the equality between the federated states because of the support that the Political Federal Government needs to keep the Crown on its throne.

Anyone who has intelligence sees that this Federal Political State, by basing its existence on the weakness of the minor states to confront the Government of the larger, or privileged, states, leads to the ruin of the system thus created. This is the case in Spain, where some privileged minor states govern the other regions from Congress, implanting a political state that would exist exclusively to feed their populations, turning the other regions into slaves of their own needs and aspirations.

Everyone sees that when Justice is violated, the effect is Hatred between the subjugated regions, and that the Nazi dictatorial regions on which this Organization is based, created to serve, but converted by the Passion for Power and the Wealth of a Clan into an infernal machine for the repetition of the Civil War, which they believe they can win by enlisting the entire LGTBI Community in their armies, everyone sees that the general staffs seek this Civil War as a means to achieve the national goal of glorious nationalist independence, an end to which as many lives as necessary must be sacrificed to be achieved.

Then History is rich in political lessons. It allows us to see how the same tyrannical beast dresses itself in different rags to deceive the people and establish its personal and group dictatorship over them. A man does not walk alone to the Power that is born from the Wealth of the Nation's Treasury; the conquest of this Key makes necessary the dictatorial unity of a hard core that imposes Corruption as a payment system to all members of the group; Once the Treasure Room is conquered, everyone will be able to make their crimes disappear. It is the magic of the dictator, to be beyond good and evil, to be like the gods, to erase the laws that brought him to Power and dictate new ones that will give him Power for life. Is there greater madness? The Century will swallow up all systems based on Fratricide and the unlimited Ambition for Power.

THE LANGUAGE OF THE PARABLES IN CAIN AND ABEL

Adam knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, "I have gotten a man from the Lord." She gave birth again and gave birth to Abel, his brother. Abel was a shepherd, and Cain a farmer. After a while Cain offered to the Lord some of the produce of the ground, and Abel offered some of the firstborn of his livestock, some of the best of them. The Lord was pleased with Abel and his offering, but not with Cain and his offering. Cain was angry and his head was downcast. The Lord said to him, "Why are you angry and why are you downcast? If you did right, you would walk upright, but if you did not do right, sin would be at the door. It is attached to you, and you must rule over it." Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go into the field." When they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him. The LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" Cain said to him, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" Cain said to him, "What have you done?" the LORD said to him. "The voice of your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground. Now therefore, cursed are you from the ground that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. When you till it, it will not yield its fruit for you, and you will be a fugitive and a wanderer on it." Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is too great for me to bear. Because you have driven me out today from the field, hidden from your face, I will go a fugitive and a wanderer on the ground, and anyone who finds me will kill me." But the LORD said to him, "If anyone kills Cain, vengeance will be taken sevenfold." Yahweh set a mark for Cain, so that no one who found him would hurt him. Cain, leaving the presence of Yahweh, lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

The fear of Truth, a sure path to the Cross for all who cling to following in the footsteps of the Man who led the way, Jesus Christ, and the Zeal with which Wisdom guards the secrets of the Thought of its Lord, YAHWEH GOD, has kept men on the other side of the Knowledge of the Need for a Final Reconfiguration of the Political Structure of His Creation, as a Response to the Tragedy to which, both in Heaven and on Earth, His Kingdom was led.

The situation that God finds on Earth upon returning from His World is recreated in the Descent of Moses from the Mountain; instead of finding a People amazed by the Liberation experienced, Moses contemplates a nation given over to all those vices and crimes against which God gave him his Decalogue. This was the situation that God found himself in when he returned from his World, where he had created for the Human Race its place of Residence for Eternity. Reality that the Son of YAHWEH God reveals to us when he affirms that he was returning to his World to prepare for us a Dwelling in the Paradise of his Father.

What force led the father of Cain and Abel to betray his own conscience and consciousness, we have it drawn in the Parable about the Fall of Adam and Eve.

Let us not forget that God speaks in Parables. We see it in his Son, with the difference that his Son looked to the Future and his Father opens our Intelligence to the Past.

All the decisive moments that would take place in the future of Christianity from the Resurrection to our days have been contained in the Parables of JESUS.

A Parable is the transformation of an Event of worldwide repercussion into a simple popular literary episode. In the Sowing of the Evil Tares we have recapitulated the Event of the Division of the national churches, produced and directed by the Evil Sower (the hidden god of Luther) in the so-called Age of Reformation.

In the Parable of the Virgins we have the Announcement of the call to Unification to all the churches that would be made known by the House of Christ, an event that we are experiencing in the Dawn of this New Day.

God Lives. And, as we see in Genesis, his Word opens the Action that will develop in the Century. So it will be written, "God said; and so it was done.

In the case of the Parables of the Fall of Adam and Eve, and the story of Cain and Abel, the Power of the Seal with which God protected his Secret until the New Day marked in his Foreknowledge, logically had to raise in those who lived with access to his Knowledge impeded, from the Science of Universal History, a response of rejection to the existence of any Historical Content in the two Chapters referred to.

Once the Seal of the Creation of the Universe is opened, the Door to the True Knowledge of the historical events that the following two Chapters deal with is opened to us: for all who want to enter, see and believe.

The Key is in the Visible Reality around us. Who doesn't want to be a god, to live like gods, beyond good and evil, the life of a people, of a nation, in a fist, all on their knees before the king without a crown, before the new god of the nation, call him whatever you want, Vladimir Putin, Maduro...

Look around you: the new gods shield themselves on thrones, in parliaments, they live at the expense of the blood and sweat of the people.

You will be like the gods, you will be a god! Justice will not reach you, you are the Law, you are the State, in your hand the life of your enemies, everything is yours, all the gold, all the silver, even the life of the children of your people belongs to you, conquer the world, create your own world.

Eve, queen consort, wife of the King of Eden, whose Sceptre dominated the cities of Eridu, the City chosen by the gods to be the seat of King Adam, Lord of the Four Regions of Mesopotamia, governor of the cities of Umma, Kish, Nippur, Lahash, Mari, Larsa, Ur, Sippar, Churru-pag... until he was banished to the Mountains of the East; Eve, created to be the Companion of Man, tempted by the vision of being a goddess, worshipped as a goddess, living life as a goddess among gods, endowed with the most powerful weapon that can be wielded against Man, Love, ended up convincing the King of Mesopotamia of Eden to open his Kingdom to the ends of the earth as the Almighty son to whom YAHWEH GOD had delegated the Government of the Human Race.

And so it was.

We see in the Episode of King Solomon, in the setting of the Peace conquered by David, the Recreation of the King of Eden; it was not with armies that the son of David held his Crown. Nor did the Son of Mary conquer a People from his Father to the sound of War drums. Man was created to be a Temple and Fortress within whose Walls Wisdom lives as a Mother who makes her children grow and forms them in the bosom of the Law of her Lord: YAHWEH GOD, Creator of all that exists.

Power without the Wisdom of God, whose Knowledge of Life in the Cosmos translates into innumerable worlds, seen and disappeared, leaving in their Intelligence and Mind indelible memories of the causes of their rise and ruin. Wisdom is despised by the limitless ambition of those who choose to live as gods for a day rather than be children of God for eternity, and by this same contempt for all and against all opposition, they are dragged into creating a world alien to the World created by God. This political struggle, born from the ambition of a criminal association legitimized by the ballot box, creates in History the effect of the Fratricidal Civil War.

The trap is simple: If you are a child of God, what are you afraid of? Is the offspring of a lion not a lion? Do bees give birth to elephants?

Each Being engenders according to its Nature. In our case, since our Father's Nature is Divine, what are we but divine beings!

Creators of a Divine Creator, we have the Power to create our own world to the measure of our nature. Because Man is the measure of all things! - said Satan.

The arguments that the evil son of God, named Satan, (the same hidden god who had Luther in his cell and did not release him until he saw him kneeling at his feet, the same feet at which the queen consort of the king of the Mesopotamian Cities of Eden fell), the arguments that the Serpent used against Eve were the classic and proper ones that should be used against a brain not created to embrace the Supreme Theological Abstraction of an Intelligence born in the bosom of the Necessity of the Incorruptible Universal Law as the Foundation of a Civilization created to live days without end.

Man has not been created to create a world of his own in front of all his neighbors. This Separation in the Supremacy of the Race is an Abomination in the eyes of the Creator of Life in His Image and Likeness, and can only be embraced by those who, like Satan, prefer to live under their own law rather than participate and coexist in the Divine Universal Law, which transcends all borders and integrates all the Peoples of Creation into a Universal and Eternal Civilization.

The Response of Intelligence, which adores its Source and has imbibed its Thought and Emotions from Wisdom, against such a Vision of human gods dedicated to banishing the Law and Language of their parents and condemning their children and the children of their children to be transformed into cursed onagers incapable of sharing and coexisting as equals with their peers and neighbors, brothers and friends; the response of a child of God to such an Abominable Temptation is one and only: VADE RETRO SATANÁS.

PEACE AND HEALTH

Where is the man, oh God, through whose hand freedom was to come to us? Are our bones perhaps yours? Why did you plant eternal life in this soul without strength that time mercilessly withers? What pleasure do you find in the death of the man you created? It would have been better for him not to have known you, his existence being that of a little bird, he knows neither past nor future. Would you exchange a second of yours for a hundred years of my life? We were born to be sold. Is there no one in heaven who would extend his hand to God crying out for mercy?

The man you created is tired of calling upon you so much. Is your heart that of a wall? Is God not but an idol of stone? The soul and the spirit embrace each other with the tears of those who say goodbye forever. It is too much pain to suffer in a single life. Why hold the breath of those whose dreams fade away, whose hopes fade? Their eyes refuse to see, so much evil surrounds the man who trusts in his God. The light that reaches his face is not flashes of joy, why keep him alive?

Is there no heart in the universe that pours out words of grace in favor of your creature? Why condemn someone who came condemned to the world? What glory is there in the wind that raises the dust and throws it into the sea?

Will a new diamond win the crown of the Creator of my life for each wound that the whip of death raises on the skin of a fallen tree? Why raise a hope born to be the ruin of the one who embraces it?

May God arise and give us the wine of Justice to drink. I want to lose my head in the bottle of infinite Peace.

How long must our ears endure the cursed sound of the words of creatures engendered in the bowels of hell? Honey turns to poison, the stomach of your children can no longer bear this galley. What will you do, will you look away as if we had not been born in your dreams?

The enemies of your spirit rise and howl like beasts worshipping the blood that lives in our bones. Our soul is an abomination to them. I, who believed in mourning for their cries, feel myself falling limp against the walls of your House with no one to open the door and come out to collect my last word. Oh man, does your God now abhor the breath that gave you?

How much suffering can a heart born of clay endure, cooked by the fires of war? There is no beauty in the man you created, all his skin is a picture of scars, horror to those who see him, no one can resist his vision twice.

Who approaches a fire that is not consumed, knowing that he will be devoured by the flames of the bonfire he approaches? My enemies feed on my innocence, they grow by devouring my hope, my spirit has no one to defend it.

May God arise, Terror of the galaxies, and blow upon my soul the writing of the end, "latsa lasó".

Give back to the man you created what you took from him while he was sailing on the waves of the abyss. Open your mouth and let all the wise men be silent, one word from you is enough to make everyone kneel before the King you gave us. Have not the eyes of your House grown tired of seeing man drag himself through the mud of the madness of the gods of hell? I do not ask you for Love, but for strength to emerge from the pyre like a phoenix before whose wings the wind itself embraces.

My nerves flee from madness, my thoughts find no refuge in the storm, but I remain firm, I do not stop, my salvation is there, somewhere on the other side of time. My name is diluted in the memory of those I loved, it is liquid sand escaping between the fingers of memory, I search for my wickedness and do not find it, I will find comfort in it.

Ah, if you had given me a heart darker than Satan's, I would have devoured that of my enemies, my belch that of a volcano that swallows peoples, but you are pleased to see me compared to the most fragile of beasts, how long will I keep your breath between flesh and bones? you ask yourself, You, in whose Word the Cosmos lives.

Did I inherit from your Terror only the tears of one who walks on the snows of Mount Death? Remember when you looked at me and surrounded me with your arms. I was the joy of your eyes, why did you condemn me to become a man? What would my soul not give to have remained in its infancy forever!

Will the potter condemn its potter for having put it in the fire? What would my spirit say to my soul if it remained in mourning for that light in the eyes of my God? Give me your Strength, fill my hand with your wisdom, the weight of my strength will not fall on the innocent.

Let the Creator be glorified in his Creature, let Death see how his children are thrown out of your Creation. Amidst songs of victory I will celebrate the Glory of my King.

Who will silence the throat of the waterfall that overflows in its magnificence? Pour out Peace and Health on all the peoples of your Creation, they will love you as a father and mother, as one loves the hero and protector of their freedom.

Remember when you were mortal, your enemies surrounded you, they did not stop until they threw you into hell, do not allow them to do that to those who cannot throw to the ground the stone that would guard their tomb.

What is the price that your people must pay for you to rise and pour out like a tsunami your Wisdom on the children of your womb?

Let the voice of your Word be heard over the four regions of the Earth: Men, kneel before the Truth and Justice of the King, you will have Peace and Health; rebel and you will have War and Death.

God take my voice and let his word be heard over the mountain ranges where those who prepare the destruction of my people take refuge.

PART TWO

JULY

Peace is the Origin and Growth of Civilization. The question seems strange: What is Peace? Many of us remember the Period of Peace between 1945 and 1979, the year in which Islam declared a Private World War against Christianity, the State of Israel and the United States of America. During those 40 years of Peace, ignoring the Cold War, the growth of Intelligence at an International level led to the development of all the technologies currently in use. But no one was concerned, except for creating NATO, with building a Universal Building for PEACE against whose Walls the private wars of the Dictators against their own peoples would crash. War is a Business. Parasites of the race of Satan could not create a Universal Building for Peace against whose Walls their Fortunes of Blood would crash. Cursed people, born of an abominable Serpent, an infernal race for whom Genocide is a Gold Mine, turned the Necessity that was born in the thoughts of the peaceful ones upside down, affirming that it was Satan who sought the creation of this integrating Body of the Plenitude of Nations against whose Will all War would abort in the wombs of the miserable demons that some females, all born of demons, give birth to. Because no one should forget that Satan was a son of God before transforming himself into an abominable demon, a god of War. Whoever believes that this infernal evolution is exclusive to Satan is mistaken. Who was Hitler, who was Stalin? Beasts, born human, who, following in the footsteps of those sons of God who chose to be gods of War into princes of Peace, developed the evolution of Power until it became a throne in hell. History is there to remind us how individuals and political sects transform legitimate Power into a dictatorial throne raised on a well of excrescence, what they call the mud. The Earth today lives adrift on that sea of corruption that sought its legitimation in the Agenda 2030 of the Alliance of Civilizations that Islam signed with the European Left. Making Peace with the gods of War is suicide. Because of and because of the Corruption of the European Left, which based its access to Power on the Alliance with the enemy of Western Civilization, an enemy from which they received the financing to buy Power in the 1980s of the 20th century, we are today on the brink of WWII. The very idea of creating an indestructible building for peace is, according to that abominable alliance, an operation of the Antichrist to control the world, malignant propaganda that the anti-Catholic Christians themselves made their own in the hope of achieving what their diabolical fathers of the Reformation could not: Destroying the building of the Catholic Church created by Jesus Christ. Alien and immune to the propaganda of that cursed doctrine, the A2030, at the service of the new gods of war, the thought of the children of God of this generation wonders how to raise for PEACE that Living Body in which the Proclamation: "War is an Abomination" shines like a star over all the nations of the Human Race today and for Eternity.

Let us talk then.

Before Death, every man is potentially a Soldier. A man who, before War, hides in his inability to defend his family, his people, is not worthy of Life. The vital mission of Civilization is to protect its Society by raising a Wall in each citizen against which the idea of War crashes. Now, we know that Evil is born in Society itself in corrupt beings who, ignoring the universal equation: Corruption is the Mother of Civil War. From which it follows that the Abolition of all Parliamentary Immunity or of any nature that shields a citizen, whoever he may be, from Justice, is the beginning of the War that the People will declare to those who, acting as gods, govern by decree and convert Power into their Lever towards the Democratic Dictatorship of an army of corrupt people that spreads its Corruption like oil on water before the noses of those who will be forced to be the sacrificial victims on the altar of survival of such disciples of the Devil. Will we cry for the Banishment of Satan from Heaven and Earth? Cursed is every being who mourns the death of someone who lived in the shadow of Corruption. He who mourns the death of a cursed person prepares his own grave. He who opens the tomb of a dead person makes room for himself in his own grave. How do we get to this situation of silence before a lake of corruption that disgusts intelligence, becomes a sea and opens its abyss to so many cowards who take refuge in the skirts of women to hide the truth, that they are beings unworthy of life among us? If we did not have Memory, if we did not know how to read the Book of History... we would justify this continuous stumbling over the same stone. Faced with a world on the brink of World War, the progressive left asks us to bend our knees before the Alliance of Civilizations: Islam + Socialism + Communism, at the feet of whose Universal Authority we will live with Nothing, but in PEACE, like dogs, like cats, like pets, like slaves fed by Big Master Brother, living off the leftovers of his filthy banquets of the gods of War.

Peace is built by activating Power. They speak of the return of the Compulsory Military Service. Fools, servants of War, the Soldier is a son of Peace and as such the Army must be a University School in which the Sciences of History, Politics and Technologies at the service of World Peace are imparted to the sons of the earth. Give the Soldiers a Contract for a paid period of time in accordance with the Nature of their Profession. Once the Contract is finished, they will become part of the State Security Forces. Let us transform the Barracks into Living Campuses, continually feeding a Youth in which the Love for Peace and its Abomination for War will be activated for life. On this Principle we will make it impossible for Governments to drift into Bands of thieves whose ambition for riches knows no limits and who conspire to make your Freedom our ruin. Let every man know that in a New Civil War there would be no Vanquished, they would all be banished from Life. Corruption, that is, the impunity of a citizen, whoever he may be, before the Justice is the origin of every Civil War. There can be no Peace while the Immunity that the kings enjoyed in the medieval ages exists, in ours projected towards the "democratic" Governments. I remember that that Political Garbage that was called PODEMOS advocated the Abolition of such a Medieval Prerogative; when they came to Power they cut off their tongues. Bad people, the worst ever born in Spain, admirers of that Venezuelan Chavez who led his country to misery, and tempted the PSOE of Sanchism to make Democracy the lever for the Dictatorship, legitimized by the ballot box. As Adam fell before the poison that the Serpent injected into Eve, the PSOE finally gave in and began to walk its way to the Sanchista Dictatorship along the highway of Absolute Corruption. How foolish is the world of the Left, seeking Freedom they find chains, ah, but they are made of gold! Progressive judges, progressive prosecutors, all at the service of the golden dictatorship of the Sanchista Proclamation: “The State is me.” Ignorant of History and Life, will you condemn your children to the Guillotine at the price of living like gods for a day? Remember Louis XVI, grandson of the Great Sun; you could triumph in life, but your grandchildren would pay with their lives for your limitless wickedness. However, we are cured. Your grandchildren will not pay for your crimes. You will pay for them here and today in life. For an army and a National Security Corps that acts as a dog for the political bodies on duty is the worst enemy of Peace.

The World War is knocking at the door. It is not a joke. The Alliance of Civilizations has already shown its paw under the door. It thinks it is strong. It has Satan, the bomb of the end of the world. Cowards talk about PEACE with the Butcher of Ukraine, as if Moscow were going to abandon its plans to reconquer the Soviet Union. Peace must be defended, not negotiated. Peace is not a word, it is the Soul of Life. Man is its Cell, its spirit. Three million young people wandering among misery and ruin. Let the doors of the Military Barracks transformed into University Campuses of the Sciences of PEACE be opened to them. “Life is in PEACE.”

SPAIN 2024

How curious, that you are all exposed to extinction because of four cretins! The famous Historical Memory has erased from the face of the people Universal History, the true teacher of our fratricidal madness. True, we are condemned to repeat to infinity our imbecility, author of genocidal tangos! But what does destiny matter to those whose passion for themselves knows no depth or height! How many times has Civilization stumbled on the same stone? How many worlds did God see disappear into the dust during his life in cosmic space? The Law of the Death of the Worlds is inexorable. After a brief golden age, the drums of the war of the end of the world sound on the horizon. How crazy are those who believe that the Earth is the mother and the only one who has given birth to Life in the Cosmos! Imbecility is priceless. Alone in the Cosmos! But who cares what happens to those who follow us when the inexorable law of Death has already spread its wings, opened its arms and kissed the still living body of the ghosts it will bury in oblivion? A very ancient man, so old that no one believes his writings anymore, wrote it: “You are dust and to dust you will return.” A shoot from that wild olive tree said: “Nothing new in the cosmos; we are all meat on the table of the gods.” Are we really that cretinous? No one can choose the shape of their body. What my body is is not what I am. My freedom to be a good person or a bad person belongs to me. Here is the Power: To choose who you will be. Everything else does not count at all. If I am taller or shorter, if my bones are stronger or weaker, if my hands are bigger or smaller, nothing counts. Happiness is in understanding, in the reality of Personality. To be a good person or a bad person, here is Freedom.

True Power is in the Intelligence to choose who I am, who we are, who you are. The Divine Declaration: “I AM WHO I AM”, says it all. “I AM”, supreme expression of Being. Consciousness and Consciousness united around the existence of Good and Evil: To be a good person, to be a bad person! And here arises the problem of the Confrontation between Being and Society. Because the Nature of Society affects our Freedom. For we are not only born into a physical reality whose choice is not ours, we come to Life in a structured social dimension whose foundations are rooted in the millennia before our birth.

The Nature of the Society that opened the doors of Life to us determines existential canons that can be homicidal, suicidal, genocidal, creative, dynamic, fraternal, wise, constructive. We did not intervene in the construction of the Nature of the Society in which we were born, but we have the Power to intervene in its Future and rise up to tear down the first and exalt the second. Which is as evident as understanding that those who aligned themselves with that Society founded on the Power of ruling families and clans of Political Power put all the means at their disposal to prevent this Transformation through the Theory of Change.

Nothing changes except the share of Wealth that they steal from all citizens. Wealth with which they buy Power. The oldest philosophy in the world: Good and Evil do not exist. And Science says so, that whore who came with her mouth full of Freedom to put us on our knees before those who chose the Image of Satan over that of Jesus Christ.

Did Satan not want to wash his hands by throwing in God's face his absolute contempt against the argument of the Responsibility implicit in the Intellectual Authorship of a Crime? Should the brain that plants the seed of the Crime be responsible for the movement of the arm that executed the action? Is the Criminal not free to decide whether or not to execute a crime? Is it on this basis that Criminals are amnestied by the Power because they were democratically elected, and therefore the elector must be held responsible for the crimes of those elected?

In these days in Andalusia, Spain, this Doctrine promoting Political Crime has been taken to its highest philosophical level when the PSOE leadership was freed from the theft of the Andalusian Public Treasury. With the Pardon of the criminals of Catalonia and the Amnesty of its thinking heads, the PSOE and its criminal partners not only burden the imbecility of the voters with the access to Power of the worst of the bad people in the Country, but they also amnesty themselves and pardon themselves a priori against the crimes that the Public Powers commit in the future.

And this is the Progressive Democracy blessed by the 2030 Agenda based in Brussels.

Evil is bought and sold. Good is learned, loved and protected. Exposed to the Choice between Good and Evil, our Creator gave us the Incarnation of the Divine Image of Man in whose Likeness He created us. All other images are reflections of those who have in an evil concept of Power their Personality, their existence and their Being. And yet our Responsibility remains. We are not imbeciles. They want us to be imbeciles, but we are not. The clubs of thieves who set their eyes on the Treasure of all must want us, by force and logic of Crime, imbeciles, if not by birth, by vocation. Which brings us to the Divine Personality, of He who says of Himself: "I AM WHO I AM." An affirmation that leads us to ask Him "And who are you?" Are you good people or bad people? Are you what the Calvinist Reformation came to affirm, God is more evil than Satan? Or are you what Jesus Christ came to demonstrate: you are a Blessed Bread incapable of conceiving of doing Evil to your Creation?

We understand that after the Biblical Fall of Man into the abyss of Universal Fratricide, the question is legitimate. And not exclusively of interest to Man. The entire Creation was paralyzed and confused by the Event of the Betrayal of a son of God against the Creator of the Cosmos.

Can the Omnipresence, Omniscience and Foreknowledge of the Creator of the Universe and the Event of the Crime of a son of God against his brother be sustained in a whole without the Knowledge of that God?

The response of the sowers of the Evil Tares of the Division of the churches and inexcusable promoters of the 30 years War, supreme final manifestation of the religious wars that devastated Europe, starting with France, and response fed in the mouth of Calvin and the divines of Westminster was blunt: the LORD YAHWEH GOD, Father of Jesus Christ, was the Intellectual Author of the Fall and the descent of Humanity to the hells of the Interminable World Civil War in whose Bloody field the nations have been living for Seven Thousand Years.

And the British Empire was made

And since Power and Glory are the Manifestation of the Blessing of that Evil God in favor of his Chosen Ones for Paradise, the Destruction of every last Indian became a Sacred Duty for the churches that after having sown the Old Continent with Wars exported their Homicidal Hatred to the New. Satan planted the Seed of Hatred in their souls. What could be expected from those thistles and brambles but the thorns of Genocide! And yet, who are we to judge the world? To transform the Nature of the Society in which we have grown up and to bequeath to our children a Civilization in the image and likeness of the Divine Being, is our Duty.

Judgment belongs to God.

Everything we see, in Heaven and on Earth, exists because GOD LIVES. The confusion over the Denial of the Existence of the Creator based on the Dilemma of the Predominance of Evil over Good is legitimate. We cannot be as stupid and cowardly as the aspiring dictators and active tyrants want us to believe we are. From natural intelligence, the existence of this Dilemma and its implication in our Universal History is understood. Because if the children of God and of our World were trapped in this Dilemma, how much more should we men feel entangled in the Conflict!

No one should be surprised that those who have in the Beast the superiority of their Race, Ego and Dominion, use the evil brain of the sciences of Scientific Atheism to deny the existence of this Conflict. But where is the Dilemma? Has not the God who is said to be an Evil Being, origin of the Theatrical Tragedy of the Human Race, given us his Answer?

Where does the question come from: will we never stop killing the health of those who have Hate as their modus vivendi?

Why raise a Law of Hate if not to shield hatred from their policies? What would we say if a madman came raising a Law of Love? Would we not be facing a total madman? Would we let a madman of that magnitude tell us what we should love and what not?

On the one hand, they eliminate the Crime of Insult and on the other, they raise a Law of Hate. Against whom and who do they bless Insult, and whom and who do they protect from Hate?

Not hate Evil, and not rise up in Insults against Good?

The question is obvious: Do they want to banish good people from the Future and leave only bad people alive? What Future will we be leaving to our children if Good is banished and Evil is promoted to all spheres of Power?

If a Law of Love presents us with an abominable pathological picture, how can we allow ourselves to be forced to swallow a Law of Hate behind which bad people are shielded from the crimes for which they should be held accountable before Justice?

We choke on a mosquito and swallow an elephant. Can we allow ourselves to be dragged into intellectual and emotional slavery for fear of rising up in Open Battle against such a school of Evil? Dying standing up or living on our knees? Is it not a Crime against Civilization to abolish the Right to Defend Life? Or should we wait for God to wipe our little bottom? Does God not call himself Lord of the armies? And has he not given his Kingdom a King? Whoever creates an army does so to remain dead in the face of a declaration of war against the freedom of his People?

How will this army that lives in silence and allows the ruin and misery of the people it must protect from the dictatorship of a club of madmen pay for the crime of inaction?

Outside the law lives lies, madness, fratricide, genocide!

Each one must choose which part of the battlefield he/she will go to. Because if there was a Necessity for the Death of Christ, his Resurrection is the Promise of the Necessity of the Final Battle in which the Almighty, Omniscient, Prescient and Omnipresent Creator of the Cosmos and Father of Life will recover his Creation and banish from his Kingdom not only the children of Death but Death itself.

May the cowards and the enemies of the Law be swept away like dust by the Wind that comes from the Spirit!

Tolerance with those who have in the Power of Money and Weapons their strength is suicide. Grace and Mercy are for those who love the Law. Over those who use Democracy as a Lever for Dictatorship, Justice must establish its Invincible Incorruptibility,

18.7

Get away, Satan, for it is written: "You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve."

There is not and cannot be a pact between God and the devil.

There is not and cannot be any kind of pact between Christianity and Socialism. There is not and cannot be any kind of alliance between Christianity and any other religion. Jesus Christ was not telling Satan that God was using him for hidden purposes. He was pointing out to the entire Creation the Response of its Creator: Worship the Lord God of the Cosmos or be banished from his Kingdom.

There is no room for hidden plans, no room for pacts or alliances with those who raise their hand against Creation. "With me or against me," with God or with the Devil, with Jesus Christ or with Satan. There is no possible dialogue. "Get away from me, Satan." To justify the worship of a hidden god, a false god, gods who are bloodthirsty demons, with religious tolerance is to condemn those to whom a religious tolerance is proclaimed due exclusively to human social and political thought. Christ, and with Him all the children of God, and all the Christian Citizens of the Kingdom of their Father, do not kneel before Satan nor for all the kingdoms and gold of the world. We know that all those who refuse to understand this Truth crawl before the Serpent that bites its tail: Money to buy Power, Power to buy more Money, Money to buy more Power, and so on until they want to be a god in the image and likeness of Satan: Anyone who opposes him must die, politically or physically. The equation is bloody. He does not even respect his own brother. Ask Abel. Cain, in fact, invented Money. He bought it with the blood of his brother. Since then, the Cains of all times and continents have invented religions and mythologies to justify the unjustifiable: the death of one's brother.

Money is a Crime against God's Creation. It is the Destructive Principle of Universal Brotherhood among all the families of the Earth. Brother steals from brother what is by divine right his in order to enslave him to his will, or perish under his fratricidal law.

Did the Earth put a price on God to feed men? Cain listened to the voice of the Serpent and bought his poison: Bring your brother to his knees, kill him if he refuses, take all that belongs to him, use your Fratricidal Justice to impose your Homicidal Law. You are the State, you are a god

We all know God's Response to this murderous equation: Eternal banishment from Creation.

Is God not tolerant? Is God not the Lord of the Cosmos? Does God give eternal life so that his creation may rise up against his House? Is the Creator not legitimized to establish the Law in his Creation? Was Jesus not tolerant with Satan? In a duel to the death, is there room for tolerance towards an enemy whose will is to kill or be killed? Satan was far from following the Law, he did not want to live except under his own Law. How then can there be tolerance towards someone who comes to destroy your house no matter what!

We are experiencing it all around us. Those crazy for Money and Power establish a Law of Hate behind which they shield the repugnance produced by the limitless Corruption in which they survive. What can be expected from a worm, that it drowns or swims like a fish in the mud of its madness to live like a god at the cost of the blood and sweat of the people it chains to the wall of its criminal Justice? Will we be condemned for hating Satan's law? Instead of preaching the Need for Faith in Jesus Christ, will we extend our hand to Satan, condemning God for his Intolerance towards Corruption, mother of the Civil War? Will not the servant have to answer to his Lord for offering his Enemy a Tolerance for which Exile will be his fate? Is not the Mission of the servant to turn man from his path to hell?

Who will dispute the Omnipresence of God? Can we isolate the Omniscience of the Creator from His Omnipresence as Father of His Creation? The fool, a murderous fool, says, Where was God when Adam fell? And he answers himself while he fills his belly with beer around the table of the holy murderers: "In bed with Eve." For how else can we reconcile Omnipresence and Omniscience!

Will we sacrifice our Freedom to the Image and likeness of our Creator in order to justify our crimes? Each one is the child of his own wickedness. The aspiring dictator knows the sentence and the Divine advice: "Is it not true that, if you do well, you will walk upright, while, if you do not do well, sin will be at the door? And it feels attached to you, and you must dominate it." Why dominate the thirst and hunger for Power and Wealth when you have an entire State to dominate the people?

Justice has become the whore of Power; the Body of Law has become a criminal organization at the service of the Government. Is this not what Stalin and Hitler did? The map to the Dictatorship drawn on the face of Venezuela, Cuba, Russia, Iran... comes from afar, but it always has the same color: The blood of the People: on their knees, or ruin and misery.

Freedom in the image and likeness of the children of God or Denial of the Divine Omnipresence. Who sells their freedom for a plate of lentils when, upon devouring it, they will be hungry again and lose their freedom? Is there anything more sacred than Freedom? They say that Money buys everything, but they remain silent by hiding that the price is the blood of those from whom everything was stolen. And they justify the crime by writing laws against Property. Do they also want to expropriate God from the Lordship over his Creation?

Jesus was direct: Worship God or perish for eternity. There is no pact between Good and Evil, there is no alliance between Christianity and any religion. Whoever wants to live eternally must bend the knee before the King of Heaven. The Omnipresence of the Creator in his Creation is Omniscient, hence our Confidence in our Victory over those who despise the Image of God in Jesus Christ and in their Freedom choose the image of Satan as the true reality of man.

They say that Mohammed prophesied his resurrection on the third day, and his worshippers left his corpse uncovered, believing that it would be so. But the stray dogs in their hunger devoured his flesh and sucked his bones. When the false prophet was discovered, his emulators buried him and declared the dog to be an impure animal. Hence the innate fear of dogs in Muslim children, and calling a Christian woman a dog is the gravest offense their brains can conceive. The falsity of the prophecy of his resurrection, the Creature wanting to be equal to his Creator, does not cause them any problem of intelligence. Just as it cannot cause their partners in the Alliance of Civilizations any problem of conscience to use Democracy as a lever to establish the New Dictatorship of the Proletariat over the ruin and misery of the nations. "A lever to move the universe" a wise man once asked; and Satan gave him Democracy to establish his kingdom among the nations of Christian origin.

HISTORY OF THE SPANISH MUSLIMS UNTIL THE CONQUEST OF ANDALUCIA BY THE ALMORAVIDS. 711-1110

More than semi-Arabized, the Christians of Cordoba adapted themselves very well to foreign domination. But this rule had its exceptions. The feeling of national dignity and self-respect had not been extinguished in all minds. Some generous spirits, who disdained to introduce themselves and settle down by force of impudence or skill, in the palaces of the great, roared with indignation, thinking that their native city, which still proudly bore its ancient title of patrician, was now the residence of a Sultan, and they envied the fate of the small states of the north of the Peninsula, which if it is true that they had to sustain a continuous war, at least, free from the Arab yoke, were governed by Christian princes. To these patriotic grievances were sometimes added very real grievances. The Sultans from time to time issued orders which must have deeply wounded the vanity and religious convictions of the Christians; for example, they had declared circumcision to be equally obligatory for them and for the Moslems. But it was the priests who were especially dissatisfied. They professed an instinctive hatred of the Moslems, all the more so because they had mistaken ideas about Mohammed and his doctrines. Nothing would have been easier for them, living among the Arabs, than to learn of this; but, obstinately refusing to drink at the fountains within their reach, they took pleasure in believing and repeating all the absurd fables which had spread abroad about the Prophet of Mecca. It was not in the Arabic writings that Eulogius, one of the most enlightened priests of this period, and familiar enough with Arabic to be able to read his historical works in this language, went to look for information about the life of Mahomet, but in a manuscript which chance put him in a convent in Pamplona. Among other things there he read that Mahomet, sensing his end approaching, predicted that three days after his death the angels would come to resurrect him. Consequently, when Mahomet's soul had descended into hell, his disciples assiduously watched over the body, hoping for a miracle; but at the end of the third day, not seeing the angels come, and believing that their presence at the side of the body, which was already giving off a foul smell, prevented it, they left. Then, instead of angels, dogs came and began to devour it. What remained was buried by the Moslems, who, to take revenge on the dogs, resolved to kill a great number of these animals every year. "Here," exclaims Eulogius, "here are the miracles of the Prophet of the Muslims."

What is the use of Omniscience if there is no Omnipresence? What is the use of Freedom when the Law prohibits the Truth? In which brothel did Justice lose its eyes? The Blind seals its sentences to the sound of Money. It does not see the blood that envelops the Money that comes from Power. It does not see the river of sweat of the innocent running to the ocean of Criminals. Power bought with Money is Omnipotent and Amnesties its worshippers, exonerates its servants by shielding their crimes with laws.

Will the people not arm themselves to fight the civil war that is rising on the horizon? It is a storm of cosmic proportions, it spreads its clouds over all nations, it is the Army of the King of Heaven that advances Hand in Hand with its God to the Conquest of the Earth, its Property, its Creation. Man is his People. And HE is the God of Man. HE is the King. The time of kings has come to an end. The Decree sealed against the kings of Heaven finally reaches the kings of the Earth: the House that does not lay down its Scepter and Crown at the feet of the Throne of the Son of God will be wiped off the face of the world. Only in the Law of the King is there Peace and Health, the two pillars that Fratricide brought down, launching brother against brother, creating walls between families and throwing nations into the field of War, mother of all diseases.

How funny! Those who need all of it to stay in Power want to distribute the wealth. "I have not come to bring Peace, but War": War on Corruption, War on Lies, War on World Organized Crime, War on Dictatorships and Tyrannies. "Depart from me" is not a declaration of fear or cowardice, it is an Eternal Manifesto: Rather die than bend your knees before the Serpent that bites its tail: Money to buy Power, Power to buy more Money.

True Power comes from God, it is not bought or sold; it serves its Divine King, it does not make a pact with Death and its worshippers, because those who do not worship the King of Heaven that God has given to his entire Creation worship the Enemy who whispered to Cain the need for the death of his brother as a lever to World Power.

The Day announced by the Lord in His Omniscience in His Apostles has dawned:

His Servants of the Lord will free all the armies from their Oath to the kings of men, to whom the Crown was given for a time, and will proclaim their Lord as the Everlasting Universal King. The Glory of the freedom of the children of God is the Heritage of the Creator to all the Peoples of His Creation. The cowards will be expelled from the House of the saints:

“The cowards, the unfaithful, the abominable, the murderers, the fornicators, the sorcerers, the idolaters and all the liars will have their part in the pool that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”

15.7

How many deaths are necessary until we understand that War is an abomination? Who are those who hate God, Father of Jesus Christ, in response to his Death Penalty (Eternal Banishment from his Creation) against anyone who declares war against his neighbor, his brother?

Is it not a crime against his Divine Lord that he wants to justify or bless what God abhors and sets forth in his Law in all its letters: You shall not lie with a man as with a woman? Does this Servant intend to annul the Law of God and believe himself to be better than the Lord of Eternal Life in the Universe? Was God cruel in condemning the entire Human Race for the sin of one man? What is the response of someone who believes himself to be infallible and even dares to discuss God's Justice?

WILL WE CONDEMN THE LORD, based on the Infallibility of a Servant, by the Sentence of Eternal Banishment from his Kingdom, for the Cruelty of the Sentence of his God against someone who infinitely hates his Spirit of Justice and Peace? Are we better than God?

Who are those who claim to be better than God and want to remove His Law from us? What law do they defend? The law of the Knowledge of Good and Evil?

The Creation of Life in the image and likeness of God, that is, eternal life, IS AN ACT OF LOVE from the Creator towards Life in the Cosmos. His Law implies His Love and His Personality in an indivisible Whole. To separate the Lord of the Cosmos and God is as absolutely irrational as trying to separate Man from his spirit of intelligence. Without intelligence, Man does not exist. Man exists because God has elevated us to his Wisdom, in which we have all science. Even so, who are these evil, unclean beasts, who use Science for the destruction of the Human Race? Evil beasts raised with the cursed milk of Satan, they wash their hands like that miserable Pontius Pilate: they create weapons of mass destruction for their masters, what they do with them is not their responsibility. And speaking thus, they declare themselves slaves, satanic beasts who live under the Law of the Empire of Death. Will not those who choose between Freedom and Slavery the chains of the glory of the Prince of Darkness be cursed by God? They abhorred the Image of God, his Son Jesus Christ, and preferred the image of Satan, to be gods beyond the laws of good and evil. Will they not answer before the universal JUDGE FOR HAVING REMOVED THE NATIONS FROM HIS KINGDOM and having handed them over to the Beast that created the World Wars?

Foolish is every being who feels pity for the tears of the Devil. There is NO excuse, there is no justification. Were we NOT present when the Son of God said UNTIL THE LIGHT? But we were present when that same God, being among us and with us, said: "Lazarus, Arise." Wicked, arrogant and perfidious beasts have sold their souls to the devil by claiming that the Testimony of the Apostles and their Disciples, signed with the blood of the 120,000 martyrs, is worthless before the Tribunal of God.

Here is what I have said to myself: I will be cursed by myself if I look back. What more can I ask for? God has given me his Beloved Son, the son of his Heart, through whom his Spirit beats and remains alive, and even the Cosmos kneels before his Life, and through Him he has given me days that never end, eternal life is my treasure, and am I going to wet my eyes and my soul in the waters of suicidal pity for those who despised what I have loved with all my being? It is written: Whoever wants to die, let him die; whoever wants to live days that never end, let him go forward without looking back. Each one is free to choose between Jesus Christ and Satan. To say then: "We did not know it," is to mock God. GOD LIVES; and in JESUS CHRIST is my eternal life.

12.7.24

Free access for all men to University Education and to the means of developing their creative capacities;

Creation of Three International African Communities: White or Southern Africa; Black or Middle Africa, and Mediterranean Africa: free from the European, Asian and American Monopolies and Oligarchies.

I repeat: is our Faith Omnipotent? I mean, does Faith correspond to the Nature of the one in whom we believe.

To believe in an Omnipotent Being, our Creator, and not live an Omnipotent Faith is to begin the downward slope towards absolute hypocrisy. Let us begin to resolve this dilemma. And since our Faith is based on the Omnipotence of the Proofs of the Son of God before men, not carried out in the darkness, behind the walls of the Power of kings, but in the light of day, it is good and right that we return to the Source, JESUS CHRIST, so that our Faith may be armed with the Omnipotence of the Thought of His Being.

Let us begin by clearing up the Question of the Death of Christ.

The Doctrine of the Catholic Church on the Necessity of the Death of Christ is Divine. Nothing to add or remove. The need to clear up all doubt about the Life of our Faith has as its target the natural confusion due to the Event, which if it already dragged the Disciples into Anguish, it must be understood how much more so for men born two millennia later!

But if JESUS remained three days in the tomb it must be understood that, subject to the Law of the flesh, those three days were fulfilled in obedience to the Law. CHRIST came to fulfill the Law. The Jewish law maintained the Vigil for three days, after which the tomb was sealed and the subject was officially declared dead. We read about it in the Resurrection of Lazarus, and we have it reflected in the surveillance that the Jews put on the tomb of JESUS CHRIST. The tomb was officially sealed after three days. Son of Adam, the Redeemer was obliged to obey the law of his people.

Once the Obedience was recorded, it was impossible for anyone who said THERE IS LIGHT, and THERE ARE STARS IN THE FIRMAMENT OF HEAVEN TO SEPARATE THE LIGHT FROM THE DARKNESS, it was impossible, I say, for the Almighty Son of God to remain under the empire of Death.

Having been given an AVENGER of the Death of Adam, the REDEEMER had to submit in all things to the law of his people. He was Crucified because the Law demanded it for every son of Adam who would tear down the Temple of Jerusalem.

The Necessity of tearing down the Old Temple, the Eternal Life of restricted access, and raising a New Temple within whose Walls all nations would come to live the Omnipotent Faith of its Founder, implied the Crucifixion of the one who “crushed the head of Satan, the ancient serpent.”

The Necessity of Christ's Death, of which the Holy Spirit speaks in his Gospel, had its origin in this context. Although God chose his SON as our Avenger and Redeemer, guaranteeing us Victory in the duel to the death that was to take place in Jerusalem between Satan and Christ, the LAW was firm: the Son of Man would open the Door of Redemption to all the families of the Earth, for which reason the Old Temple had to give way to the New Temple.

The Old Temple was reserved for the carnal descendants of Adam, the New Temple opens its Door to all nations. Living together was impossible. The time of the Law of the Temple of Jerusalem had come to an end. The Son of ADAM who would tear down the Old Law and raise up the New, in order to attract all the peoples of the Human Race to eternal life: he had to pay for his Universal Redemption with his blood.

Worshipping his Father, YAHWEH GOD, with all the strength of his Being, the Son of God drank the Chalice that the Wisdom of his FATHER placed in his hands.

JESUS, the son of MARY, had in his hand the Power to extend the Kingdom of God to all continents, to end all wars and diseases and to extend his Immortality to all the Citizens of the Kingdom of YAHWEH GOD.

JESUS came down from his WORLD to put an end to the empire of Death and its prince, and to lead all the peoples of the Earth to the foot of the Tree of Life. Such was the Thought of all the children of God, not of our Creation. All burned in that Thought and all were willing to be the Hero who would avenge the death of Adam. When it was discovered that the CHOSEN ONE of GOD had been his Only Begotten, those children of God, not of our creation, were gifted with the vision of an Earth free from the enemies of God and Man.

To think of confronting the God at whose VOICE the stars were ordered into armies in the Firmament of Heaven, is not only absolute madness, it is suicide with no turning back. When God chose his Almighty Firstborn to avenge the death of his little son Adam, the cry of Victory struck the lungs from a heart expanding without limits.

The End of the World created by Death and its Prince had arrived. The Son of God, GOD WITH US, would restore the History of Humanity to its Original Dimension.

The entire creation was waiting for that Day.

GOD THE FATHER sealed his Thought in such a way that no one in his HOUSE could penetrate his Salvation. Only his Prophets, engendered in his Spirit, the Spirit of Yahweh, saw the Cross, the Resurrection and the Revolution of the children born of the New Temple.

The question is not gratuitous, if in Heaven no one saw the Thought of God about their Salvation, how could the sons of Adam have understood what was at stake in the Duel to the death between Satan and the son of EVE?

Neither did JESUS discover the Thought of YAHWEH GOD until the last of the prophets, Simeon, explained to the son of Mary, in the Temple, the consequences of his own thought. It was evident that his World Historical Revolution, with which He came, and with which He entered the Temple, as a Child, to call all the Jews of the nations to found the Universal Kingdom of Israel, would be collected in the Testament for the Descendants that would be born of CHRIST.

There was a time when the entire creation contemplated the Refusal of JESUS to be crowned king of Israel with its heart in its mouth. The Son of God only had to open His Mouth to conquer all the kingdoms of the world. Who could confront His Power? Kneeling before Satan to recover what was always his?! What madness, what insanity! So... why? Why did JESUS refuse to be invested as King of Israel in Jerusalem?

The Answer was in His FATHER.

The latest events led the Creator of the Cosmos to open a Foundational Revolution by which all Power was abolished, and all Glory sat on the Throne of the Kingdom of God as the Unique Everlasting Universal King: YOU, JESUS CHRIST, Light of Light, True God of True God.

All Power in Heaven was called to place its crowns and its dominions at the feet of the Throne of God. The entire Creation was in the hands of the Son of God. Whoever rejects the Son, rejects the Father: YAHWEH GOD; whoever declares War on the King, JESUS CHRIST declares War on the LORD GOD.

But it was NOT only the Future of the Earth that was at stake in Christ: it was the entire Creation that was in the hands of Jesus. The Refoundation of the Kingdom of God would take place on the Omnipotent Throne of JESUS CHRIST. And so it was.

Aware of the Need for His Death, having been given a Bride in the Spirit, the Offspring of this Spiritual Union would inherit that Vision of a World Restored to its original divine dimensions.

Once this Descendant has been born, it is our Historical Duty to put an end to all wars, to overthrow all dictatorships, to wipe from the face of the world all organizations whose modus vivendi is Crime and Terror. To create for Justice an Incorruptible Palace whose branches encompass all nations.

It is our Historical Duty to unite Science and Faith, to separate the Growth of Science from the criminal and murderous interests of States and companies that traffic in diseases. The Future of Intelligence resides in the Tree of Creative Omniscience, among whose lowest branches we currently find ourselves.

Again:

Is it impossible to remove our Future from the law of Death, to banish Satan, its prince, from the Earth, and to open the 21st Century to a 22nd Century whose generations will enjoy a Civilization in which Fraternity, Equality and Liberty will be founded and established upon the Divine JESUS-CHRISTIAN Truth, the Incorruptible Justice of the Spirit and Universal Peace among all the peoples of the fullness of the nations of the Kingdom of God?

The Omnipotence of our Faith is born in the Omnipresence of the King, in whom GOD LIVES, Father and Son. So be it written, and so be it done.

Where is the "far right" going?

1:- Towards a World in which all the armies of the fullness of nations will form a Universal Defense Corps at the Service of the King of the Kingdom of God. Once this Corps is established, all weapons of Mass Destruction will be disarmed: Nuclear, Biochemical and Biological.

This Universal Defense Corps of Life at the Service of the King of the Kingdom of God will be independent of Local Governments, and will only respond to the VOICE of the World Council of the children of God of the Fullness of Nations.

Any drift on the part of this Corps towards a pro-dictatorial alliance with a Political Organization will be judged as High Treason to the Human Race and to the King of the Kingdom of God. The authors will be banished from life among men.

2:- Towards the Creation of a Universal Body against International Organized Crime, in all its forms, formed by the Police and Justice bodies of all nations: with unlimited World Jurisdiction to uproot these infernal organizations.

Our goals are:

Banishment of Prostitution and White Slavery from the life of the Human Race for the Slavery of children, women and men at the service of the Satanic Industry of Pornography;

Banishment of the Fullness of the nations of the criminal Organizations for the Kidnapping and Murder of human beings at the service of the Criminal Industry of buying and selling Organs,

Banishment of the Earth of the Organizations for the mass destruction of lives by producers and distributors of Narcotics, and Arms Traffickers.

JESUCHRISTIAN MANIFESTO AGAINST GLOBAL PORNOCRACY

Every year, more than 1,000,000 human beings are enslaved by the largest criminal organization that exists on Earth: prostitution.

There are more than 12,000 centers on the Internet from which this crime spreads.

Against this crime that is constantly expanding daily, the Plenitude of Christian Nations commits itself:

To close all the Brothels of the Earth

To raise the Crime of Pimping and White Slave Trafficking to Life Sentence

To prohibit the Sale and Rental of films dedicated to Pornography throughout the World

To close all WWWs with Pornographic material

To penalize the Possession and Distribution of Pornographic Material on TV, Stores, Networks and Markets

To close all X-rated Projection Rooms

To return women practicing Prostitution in Clubs, Streets and Highways to their nations and families of origin

To banish Prostitution from the Occupations

To prohibit Client-Prostitute Contact through the Media.

To classify Pederasty, Pedophilia, Zoophilia and Sadomasochism as First Degree Dementia

To legislate against Police, Politicians and Judges found in the Networks of this Dementia

To the expulsion from the State of all officials found in Prostitution as client

To give all the Power to the Law to take the Victory of Justice to its ultimate consequences, which implies:

- Abolition of the status of Parliamentary Immunity for all politicians and heads of State

- Repeal of the status of Diplomatic Immunity in case of Connection with Crime

- Penalization of Sexual Vacations

- Closing of all types of premises in which Women use their naked body as a condition of work

And to the adoption of all the Measures that are demanded from the Law and Justice as the Victory of Life advances over those who have made the Death of the Being, physical or moral, their Homeland and Flag

Final Declaration: All Buying and selling the sexual act is a crime against human dignity.

9.7.24

It is curious to hear what is heard, to see what is contemplated at this point in Universal History. Ergo, everything must be said.

Intellectually disabled is any subject who lives as if the world had been born with him, and will end with him. From here to a psychopathology there is a simple red line.

Even more curious is to see how men of great stature have ended up trampling on their own glory based on circumstances, as if the wound on the battlefield had inexorably dragged them to betray themselves in revenge for the betrayal of those who were their best friends. In Spain we have two cases that make us shake our heads.

Judge Baltasar Garzón, executioner of drug trafficking mafias, international expert on terrorism, tower against dictators; today defender of dictators and lawyer of Sanchismo; His revenge against the Spanish people, powerless to confront the PSOE that betrayed him, the man takes revenge on the Spanish people by paving the way for the Sanchista dictatorship.

Pedro J. a powerful star who lost his way when EL MUNDO was taken from him and there the man goes, stumbling, silent like any other coward, crying his cursed fate while accusing the Spanish of being pro-fascist for believing in VOX as the Spanish Christian Democratic Party.

What a disgrace! Men who touched the sky sunk in the mud of the silence of the cowards imposed by Decree by the king, the Bourbon, and his queen, the PSOE, who are played along by the PP of a Feijoo without the strength or intelligence to understand the abyss to which Spain is being led by the PSOE, the pro-terrorist independentist enemies of Spain and the Divide and Rule Policy of the gods of Brussels, Brussels.

The Battle of the 21st Century is centered on the man who lives a mortal life and sells his soul to the devil to be king for a day, and the man who lives forever and acts in the Century to transform it and bequeath to the generations born from its entrails a Civilization founded on the Law of Intelligence in the Image and Likeness of the Creator of the Universe and Invincible World Peace.

Why must humble man always pay for the crimes of those who believe themselves to be gods and seek to make Governments a national Olympus exclusive to them and before whom we must all bend our knees? VADE RETRO SATAN: man or demon, here and for eternity, the Answer is Divine; Man created in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God, his Answer is the Answer of all the children of God, of this creation and of the creations that were and will be: for the eternity of eternities. Creation does not bend its knees except before the Everlasting Universal King that God has given to his Creation.

What beautiful words the Podemos snake launched into the electoral flight: Repeal of Parliamentary Immunity! The Equality of all people before the Law regardless of their social position in the Nation, the State and the Government.

What a betrayal of their electorate! They sold Equality and bought the Devil's Equality: A Ministry of Equality, another of Information, another of Truth... Reds were born and reds will die, they bear the mark of Cain on their foreheads, by Democracy they understand the Dictatorship of the Proletariat, yesterday and today. What a shame! Having to settle the issue again on the battlefield of the Second Spanish Civil War... Feijoo is a Bourbon scab, a rat in the PP to impose the PSOE Policy in the regions governed by the Spanish.

Having eyes and ears to hear and see this...

What is Truth? Will it be the opposite of Lie? What is a lie? From the point of view of Life, the closest thing to a lie is the false information that a deer, for example, gathers about the exact location of its predator. Once this false location is accepted as true, the deer unwittingly heads into the lion's den. Whether it is due to a tragic gust of wind or a pathological analysis of the information gathered by its senses, the result is death. But this analysis of reality cannot be called a "lie."

Lies occur when false information that leads to the ruin of the subject is administered consciously by a subject external to the individual. The difference between incorrectly analyzed information and a lie is found in consciousness. The analysis depends on the subject itself, I, you, he, we...; Lies depend on a subject foreign to the one who is lied to, that is, to us, when seeking our ruin we are given consciously falsified information.

The difference between Analysis of Reality and Conscious Falsification of Reality marks the line between Life and Death, between Peace and War, between Prosperity and Misery.

It is also understood that the Relationship between Man and Reality is personal. Renouncing the Power of Personal Analysis of Reality and abandoning oneself to Consciously falsified Information by an agent external to our own existence is suicide, in the absolute and universal sense, since for us the Universe ceases to exist and we cease to exist for the Universe.

The biological defense mechanisms of our Being cannot be left in the hands of a person outside our Self. A Government that wants to control these Biological Mechanisms that are born and come with the existence of each one of us is an Evil Power that seeks to make us slaves of its survival by annulling our Intelligence.

We observe that the common denominator of all tyrannies and dictatorships is the Need for the suppression of Intelligence by creating a Global Control Body of Analytical Information, replacing the Lie, fabricated by Power, with the Intelligence of the human being. That is to say, to the extent that the Truth makes us free, in the same way that the deer runs in the right direction opposite to the wolf's mouth, yes: the Lie seeks the Enslavement of all men.

For the deer, as for all living beings, there is only one Truth, and this is what guarantees Life. Each species has its own biological mechanisms to ensure that this guarantee subsists. For each species, the Truth is one, and that depends on the nature of its relationship with the universe. Although in a school of fish there are a million individuals, the Truth is One and unique for all. The marvelous flights of the starlings follow the same law. Millions of individuals, one law. Truth that leads us to the relationship between Truth and Law, Lie and Crime. Those who live in Truth love and protect the Law; those who love Lie do so from their relationship with Crime: They need Lie to cover up their crimes.

Therefore, the Life of the Law depends on the Truth. And on the contrary, those who make Lie their law of life settle in Perpetual Crime, from which they can only succeed by creating an Organ of Information Creation from whose Power to Falsify all the Information that the democratic natural mechanisms have the Duty to Analyze. The fabrication of false information, the creator being aware that such a reality leads to the ruin of the subject, in this case, the nation, information created to prevent access to the nature of the Crime, is, in the case of Man, the Crime of High Treason against the Life of the Human Race.

The evil of a group of men conspired to make Crime their Flag and Lies their Power, today as yesterday, produces an effect experienced a thousand times: The Civil War.

The Great First Lie, the Mother of all lies, the most tragic for all of us human beings, is written in the Bible. Deceived by a son of God, not of our Earth, the man and his wife accepted as truth the word of a Traitor to his own Word, who, aware of the nature of his Crime, made the first families of the Human Race believe that the end of the Creation and Formation of the human being is to access the condition of the gods; understanding by gods a status quo and modus vivendi that places man outside the Arm of Justice, ergo: Beyond the Power of the Science of good and evil. In short, “man, as god, has the Power over the life and death of all beings under his law” is the translation of the famous Lie: “You will be like the gods.”

The final effect of this Lie, legally embraced by all existing Parliaments and Dictatorial Powers, under the shield of the ancient kings: “Parliamentary Immunity” they call it, each one inventing an Ideology, or Theology for that matter, is ruin, misery, rebellion and finally War.

Those who affirm that Good and Evil do not exist are all those who need to brainwash us, to strip us of our Logical Memory. We have been formed by God in the image and likeness of his Son, that is, we have been created to grow and enjoy a Living Intelligence whose ceiling is the sky. We have no limit. The Growth of the Intelligence of the Created Being, ours, is realized in eternity. Our Power of Being is open to infinity. The sciences that we know today are the first shoots of a tree that God cultivates and feeds and engenders in our Intelligence the Unlimited Natural Power proper to that Son of God.

All that we know, and is the pride of the living sages of our time, is nothing but the first babblings of the Sciences of Creation. This is the Truth, a Universal Truth, which opens the Horizon to the 22nd Century, and calls us all to transform the scenario of our relationship with Nature and the Century. The forces that in their pathological pride try to limit the ceiling of the growth of our intelligence, open to Revolutionary Technologies, shocking and without return, act as mechanisms disconnected from the Life of all, focused only on their own existence, in defense of whose status quo and modus vivendi they are prepared for global suicide through controlled wars whose objective is to abort the elevation of the Universal Truth to World Power.

We are experiencing this in France, Spain, South America, the USA, the EEC... All the forces of Pride have a single direction: the Destruction of Man and Woman created by God, man and woman and creators of Civilization.

To lock us up in the prison of Oil and Gold, with the walls guarded by jailers equipped with atomic weapons of mass destruction, is a Crime against our Freedom.

If the Iraqi was hanged for possession of weapons of mass destruction, what will we do with France, the United Kingdom, China, Russia, North Korea, Iran, Israel and the USA? They all have weapons of mass destruction. Will we attack them all?

Or, out of fear of these weapons, will we sell our freedom in exchange for our lives? Will we renounce the freedom of those who have the sky for a roof and can raise their heads contemplating the height and power of the branches of the Tree of the Science of Life?

What madness, for a creature to believe that it can treat its Creator as an equal!

“If you worship me on your knees, I will give you all the kingdoms of the world.”

When did the Creator renounce ownership of his creation? If he had wanted to do so, instead of talking about Redemption for Man and Revenge against those who provided him with false information, God could have, as judges and prosecutors do under dictatorships, looked the other way, pardoned the crime and let those who let themselves be deceived live with the consequences of our utter stupidity to the last drop.

Speaking of Redemption and Revenge, God established his Universal Property over all that exists.

We were imprisoned for a time; born to enjoy the glory of the freedom of a child of God, we found that the Power of Being of our Intelligence was reduced to the level of the Reason of wild beasts. In such a way that the study of Ancient History is the study of a Rational Wild Beast. Fratricides, massacres, genocides, wars in crescendo: civil wars, international wars, world wars. And...?

“Dust you are and to dust you shall return.”

That was the Divine Sentence against the Human Race. Following Saint Paul: “because of one man.” But then the Son of God took pity on us, and bought our Future in exchange for his Blood and the blood of his Disciples. Who are these people who now want to annul THEIR Title Deed of Ownership over the Future of all of us, of our children and our children's children?

Defeat God? Do they still believe that they can bring God to his knees? They could not defeat HIS Son and believe that they know how to bring God himself to his knees?

However many Lies can be put on the table, stopping the Rise of the Christian Forces to World Power, by calling us Fascists, is a Mission doomed to failure. They hope that by 2030 Christianity will have been banished from the EC and the USA. The surprise that awaits them is huge!

Whoever is smart and values his freedom should stay away from the battlefield where the Left will be crushed by the armies of the King of Heaven! For the Earth and everything on it is His.

There are many secrets that have found salvation in hell in the sewers of governments and states. God said that everything hidden would come to light = to the knowledge of all. But the Devil has taken care to ensure that historians are dead. It is the fact: Historians are dead. No one launches the Political History of the 20th Century anymore. No one talks about the Atomic Age in which we find ourselves. Everything has been hidden behind the dam of Climate Change, the effect of a cause with reserved access, as if the law were a chimera and the effects happen without any cause. Every animated being of free intelligence must draw his conclusions about the nature of the effects that overwhelm him and the identity of those who hide their causes from the knowledge of all. Logic is the origin of science; being intelligent and not being governed by logic is suicide. In Spain, what is happening is illogical: Spaniards ruining their own motherland, just as if the hating sons of an adoptive mother rose up against her empire and law and set about poisoning her gently and slowly until burying her in the grave that, according to them, Spain deserves. Everything has an explanation. Every equation has a solution: Effect and Cause, Cause and Effect.

The return of the Bourbons to Spain resulted in a House of Thieves governed by Franco's Successor, so that he could assume his Dictatorship and not allow the Ghost of Communism to return from the grave. The Dictator's putative son had his own ideas of what his Reign would be like. What king enters the game without a queen! The Dictator married the PSOE, each one a bigger thief than the other, as was later seen in the FILESA case and the billions with which the Bourbon was banished, to enjoy his balls, to laugh at his wife's cuckoldry in front of the whole world, and to arrange for the Dauphin a burial fit for a king. The story of the robbery that the scoundrel carried out, making his Crown a shield to plunder Spain, was bound to tarnish his legacy and force the Dauphin to look for a new queen. Tragedies if ever there was one, the Dauphin married his father's queen. The new queen offered the Dictator's grandson an Alliance around the PSOE with the Republicans by which by uniting them to his Cave of Thieves he would give the queen Lifetime Power in exchange for making Spain the bag of blood from which Catalonia and the Basque Country would drink. A democratic coup d'état that would clean up the Crown's deteriorating image on the foundations of its enemies, reconciled in exchange for playing the vampire drinking the blood of all the Spanish Regions. The Crown lowered its pants. What happens now belongs to the Future. And to this simple truth is reduced the whole Pedro Sánchez Mystery.

The future of Christ Raul is open. I have signed a Contract for Printing and Publishing in eBook with the Editorial Círculo Rojo. THE HEART OF MARY, LIFE AND TIMES OF THE HOLY FAMILY will soon be in the bakery. They say that no one is a prophet in his own land. We will see what happens. All of Latin America is on the other side of the waters. Who better than the Creator to carry out his creation!

All the efforts of men to confront the Creator of Heaven and Earth are in vain. The children of God do not need to see to believe. We believe without seeing. We do not need to see the Human Race sink into the dust of the cosmos, as if the Earth had never existed, to see the Future to which the Law of the Science of Good and Evil leads it. The History of the course of this Cursed Law under which we live is written. And I am surprised, above all, by the betrayal of science to its own nature. It is known, it is law, that to predict the future of the movement of a mobile it is necessary to know its origin. Today scientists from all disciplines have raised an absolute inquisition against anyone who claims this need: to know the trajectory of the past to establish the nature of the future on the movement of the present. Vocational idiots who have never left the solar system and have never seen the past of the stars, oblivious to the truth of scientific logic, predict the future, even of the universe. And it is not only historians who have died, but also scientists. At present there are only slaves in the service of pharmaceutical companies living on their knees in front of the terrorist agency 2030.

«You are a great doctor, but there is another much greater than you: the author of the wind, which knocks everything down; of water, which penetrates and fertilizes everything; of fire, which vivifies and decomposes everything.»

“God created man from the clay of the earth and breathed into his face the breath of life; and so man became a living being.” That is, with life within us. Intelligent in the image and likeness of our Creator, we men became free to make our own decisions, think for ourselves, understand the effect of our actions, establish our thoughts on the laws of Truth, speak according to Justice, and love Peace above all things.

Animated with life in itself and free Intelligence in the image and likeness of the sons of God, the Soul of Man, our Soul, becomes a field in which Divine Wisdom sows all kinds of sciences, the First and Greatest being: The Science of the True Knowledge of the Son of God. For since Doubt was the cause of the Conception of Man, Doubt: first, about the Divine Nature of the Firstborn of the Creator of the Cosmos, and the Denial, later, to accept that cosmological Unigeniture, God created Man to be the Temple and the Fortress where Truth lives among all the Peoples of Creation. This is why, being banished from Wisdom, human Intelligence became an abandoned field in which thistles and thorns came to grow, on which a single spark is enough to light the Fire of War.

We see it every day, the enemies of Equality, Liberty and Fraternity among all Peoples focus their Power on that field, which by the Faith of Christ in the Regeneration of the Human Being, returned to its true owner, and for centuries was cultivated by the Catholic Church, the fruit of whose work was the Christian European Civilization. The Renaissance did not come out of Nothing; it was the Harvest of many centuries of work in the hardest conditions. Hospitals and Universities were the benefits of the Catholic-European Culture.

Obviously the work of the Formation of the Human Mind follows the precepts of Divine Wisdom: Intelligence is a field open to its Creator, God, who directs the thought and behavior of nations within the Law of Life. Not in vain have the enemies of Liberty, Fraternity and Equality among all men made the School their field of cultivation, sowing in the Children some Evil Ideologies the fruit of which is to plant in them a man in the image and likeness of Satan, in the elites of Power, and in the people to cultivate a human species whose intelligence depends absolutely and exclusively on the words of its creators, all immersed in the Crime against the Future of Humanity. This is what is called the Agenda 2030: the Creation of a human devoid of Life in itself.

By the Word of God, Man was liberated from Animal Nature and raised to the Dimension of the sons of God, all free, wise, strong... By the word of the powerful of this world, men become cattle, flocks, ballast from which to free themselves in order to maintain the Globe through genocides, massacres, wars of religions and hatred, ideological wars proper to demons. For no one should forget that the evolution of life has two directions, the elevation to the natural condition of the sons of God, the one; and the sinking into the abyss of a beast endowed with unlimited intelligence to lead everyone to the abyss of wars in the name of the Superiority of the Race, of the limitless ambition for the Riches that come from Power, the other. We cannot forget and it should serve as a lesson to us that he whom we call the Evil One, the Devil, etc., named Satan, was in his Origin a son of God. The option of wanting to be a true god is suicidal and homicidal madness.

The policy of appropriating Intelligence in Schools to cultivate anthropoid cattle in which Man has ceased to exist, and Man ceases to exist when he has no Life in himself, but his thought and behavior are dictated by those who have chosen Satan as their model; this Expropriation of the Divine Patria Power over his Human Creation is a Crime against Humanity. And yet those who want to live like gods in charge of the sweat and blood of the people have by Necessity to proceed to the expropriation of the Divine Patria Power, delegated to the Procreator to direct his children along the Path of Intelligence on whose soil grows that Liberty, Fraternity and Equality that the Terror of the Politicians has not been able to establish, although all of them take refuge in the Charter of Human Rights to destroy Man in the Image and likeness of his Creator.

The Duty of the Procreator is to his Creator. Through this Duty, the Procreator acquires the Natural Right to form the Creature in accordance with the Law of Universal Truth that Wisdom displays from the very Origin of Life and leads its History from the Mud to the condition of Intelligent or Animated Life, in the image and likeness of Divine Intelligence. There are not two truths, there is only one Universal Truth in the Cosmos. There are not two Knowledges of the Reality of the Creator and Creation. But there are two sciences: the Science of the Creation of Life, and the Science of Good and Evil, whose fruit is Death. Man has been endowed with Intelligence without measure so that in the plenitude of his mental faculties, established on the Universal Truth, he may choose Life over Death. The Universal History of nations has ridden on this Dilemma since Power went to the head of a man and he wanted to make, as they say, a pact between God and the Devil, namely, the End justifies the means, so that the death of whoever opposes that End must die.

Being a divine end, Death helps to achieve it.

Deceived in such a cretinous way, Paradise burned under the flames of Hell, and the Human Race came to suffer the bad decision of a Generation tempted by the power to be like the gods, all beyond the Laws, creators of laws that will free them a priori from the crimes and offences to be committed a posteriori.

Between six and seven thousand years, the carnal children of that sunken and dead generation say that the waves of the sea of Death have been flooding the surface of the Earth with the fire of their wars, all justified by the End that put them on the table. And yet it does not seem that the nations have realized: “No End justifies the means.” Even if the salvation of the world is your End, how will you achieve it if you become hateful by your methods! “To such End such means.”

Peace is achieved through Justice and Truth. A Peace founded on Lies and Corruption produces the same harvest as always, in all times and places: Civil War.

Not in vain do the UN and its satellite governments focus their strength on Schools, making Children the field in which to sterilize Intelligence, in the belief that the cultivation of generations of humans without life in themselves will allow the authors of Agenda 2030 to raise a Building that will withstand the passage of the centuries to come.

So much struggle for Freedom to end up as slaves!

«You are a great doctor, but there is another much greater than you: the author of the wind, which knocks everything down; of the water, which penetrates and fertilizes everything; of the fire, which vivifies and decomposes everything», said a wise man. The Author of Wind, Water and Fire is God, Father of Jesus Christ. In this century all nations will answer before the Crown of his Son.

They have forbidden us to hate. Jail for those who hate lying. Jail for those who hate the plundering of the public treasury. Jail for speaking. What are we? Are we cowards from birth?

How beautiful is silence!

Be quiet Manolo. Listen to the sound of the wind, enjoy the warmth of the Sun on your skin, don't you hear the cry of the children of the Earth? They cry because their mother is dying.

Who am I to speak?

Who are you to silence me?

You want me mute, blind and deaf. Deaf so as not to hear the VOX of my People. Blind so as not to see your crimes and offenses. Mute... why and for what? Ah, I know: So as not to take us to your jail for our hate crime.

I HATE drug traffickers.

I HATE pimps and human traffickers.

I HATE the corruption of public servants who sell laws and buy men and women to serve them.

I HATE child rapists and mother murderers, friends of the rich and powerful.

I HATE warlords and those who massacre families, peoples and nations for the sake of absolute superiority and without opposition to their crimes against Humanity.

I HATE all democratic and progressive judges who choke on the ant of the crimes of my poor and humble brothers and swallow the crimes of the elephant of Wealth and Power.

I HATE ...

And for this I am a criminal?

God has given me the Power to learn the lessons of the Science of Good and Evil, and the Intelligence to not forget the lessons I receive about his laws. Have you not had enough, nations? Do you still want more? Do you really need to see that you are dust to believe? Do you want to go down to the grave to see the Light?

Children of the Earth: You are 8,000 million souls, and you cower before a handful of Satan's servants? Have you NOT listened to their words? They want to reduce that number: 8,000M, to 500M. And you remain so happy because that is Progress and your sacrifice in the service of Humanity will take you to the altars of History? Here is what will be said about you: 7,500M human beings sacrificed themselves so that the Humanity of the Criminal Organizations conspired in the Alliance of Civilizations created by the UN = Left + Islam, reset the History of the World and begin a New Era... without Man.

And behold, the Son of God rises, raises his people and begins the Final Battle for Power.

And here the Left-Islam Alliance declares war on France, Spain, Italy, Hungary, Poland, the United States of America, Brazil, Argentina, Sudan, Nigeria... They loot the High Altar, where the Divine Mystery was, they sign the Decree of Destruction of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

Whoever protests: Law of Hate.

Whoever criticizes: Law of Hate.

ADOREMUSTE Satan, the god of the Alliance of Civilizations: Left + Islam!

I hear words of wisdom from the good. "The Fixed Contract is the Central Column of the Building of the Nation! The Fixed Contract is the guarantee of the Youth against the Banks, the guarantee to buy a house, have a car, form a family, sons and daughters, be happy, progress.... Progress.... Progress..."

I also hear the voice of Progress; listen: "Labor Contract for One Hour. May the best survive." It's the Hunger Game. Ballast must be shed. From 8,000M to 500M the Globe needs to shed weight. Now!

I'm not hallucinating because I'm in class. The lesson is called How to manipulate Democracy to transform it into a Dictatorship, Legitimized by the Betrayal of the Government Access Program, and Impunity for the Misappropriation of the Treasury of Nations by public servants.

This is Spain, and SPAIN IS DIFFERENT.

Really?

Spain is Sacred. Spain is Eternal. Spain is the land from where Noah's dove took the twig of Life from the olive tree of Peace. Is it a coincidence that MATRIA challenges God to destroy the World?

Satan has raised the rainbow as a flag, he challenges God to transgress his own Word: Is the Word not God? Because GOD LIVES, God has hanged himself with the rope of his own Word, exclaims the Evil One.

The drums of universal orgy are already beating. The Atomic Warriors are rubbing their hands. They have the opportunity to finish off those 7.5 billion, live and direct: NOW!

It is the Hour of the Machines, of Artificial Intelligence, of the human flocks. Meat for the dogs of Power; blood to be poured into the chalice of the gods of War. Let them die of hunger NOW! Let the Game begin, let 500M survive, let them be our slaves, their women our prostitutes, sacred, docile and complacent, their children our pleasure and satisfaction...

The speeches of the servants of Satan splashing in the Well that MATRIA has opened for all the worshippers of Corruption.

Fools, “not by water!” Does not fire destroy? Who would survive if the depths of the oceans rose and fell like a polar blanket over the body of the continents to give rest to the Earth? Sleep, my mother, sleep, my heart!

MATRIA has no heart, she is a soulless prostitute, her breast is empty, her brain is a desert of evil, her entrails are sterile, she wants monsters instead of joyful children and rebellious young people. I abstain from cursing my tongue in obedience to the law of Truth. But God knows what I was, untamable like the wild horses that run tirelessly through boundless meadows. And these sons of Satan come to put their finger in my mouth, their fist on my chest, their leg on my testicles. And shall I hide my head under the sands of Arabia? Will I kneel before the Progress of the Alliance between gods of flesh and blood giving birth by Law to a generation in their image and likeness? Criminals, genocidal, delinquents, corrupt, drug traffickers, white slavery, buying and selling of laws. All in the Progress bench, the Left serving Islam with our women... Disgust revolts me. Repugnance overcomes me.

A work contract for a few hours!

The Death of the Middle Class, crucified for the sake of the Salvation of the Left, is to be replaced by a New Middle Class: The Civil Servants' Unions.

What a great plan! A masterpiece. All at the service of Brussels.

From Brussels the oracle reaches all the nations of the European Community. The High Priestess of Brussels launches anathemas and signs excommunications against Christ in us. It embraces traitors to its people, thieves claiming Absolute Universal Impunity for their crimes, those committed and those yet to be committed.

Berlin rubs its hands, Germany is one step away from sealing the Fourth Reich, without tanks, without border invasions, without sacrificing its children to the gods of Hell who created you, Berlin, the eternal seat of Satan there in the Abyss. God called his City Jerusalem, Satan called his Berlin. Your days are numbered, Berlin; soon Germany will be the name of a nation created by Satan to destroy Christian Europe; your memory will be like that of the Ottoman Empire that Death raised to destroy Catholic Europe. And in your Fall you will drag Brussels into the abyss for which you have worked so hard since your adolescence. Two World Wars under your belt. The Fratricide of the Thirty Years' War on your resume. The time has come to answer for your crimes before the King of Heaven: Your borders will be erased, your territories will be divided among five peoples, among whose children to be called German will be an abomination in their ears. Your concubine and prostitute, you, Belgium: you will be divided, and your crown thrown into the mud where your scepter was forged.

This is a Great Day. Day of Glory and Wisdom, Day of Mercy and Victory, Day of Praise and Happiness. We know the plans of Satan and Death, his mother. We know the Strength of the King of Heaven, what is the source of his Omniscience, on what high Mountain his Thought originates, the Nature of the Rock on which his Throne sits. In the heart of God and his children the king has his Scepter. Who will resist the advance of the armies of the Lord of the Universe on the Day of the Glory of his Freedom?

Behold, my God and Father has told me: “My son: Speak. You are a Sign before the churches and nations of having been born this Day prophesied by my Saints. For this reason you bear my New Name, and the Name of my God and the Name of the Mountain of God. Do not fear anyone, I am with you. Write everything you see, so that the generations that follow you understand and comprehend that it was not man who opened the Door for them, but God himself who hunted the Beast, threw its black soul into the bottomless Abyss: its heart transformed into a lethal pestilential pit will not return from the Tomb between whose indestructible marbles Death will embrace its children for eternity. There will be moans and gnashing of teeth. Lift your head and shine, my son.”

It is already getting late and the Lie is still in full swing. The judges accuse the man of being a potential criminal. It is enough to be a man to be a criminal. Satan has deceived the woman again. The man and Satan have agreed and both claim the status of the gods: to be beyond good and evil. Parliamentary immunity they call it. The thief who reaches the Parliamentary booth, national or regional, laughs at the police. The citizen? For 600 euros a citizen goes to jail. The progressive gods of 600 million are hailed as heroes of Progress by unintelligent people a minute before their children are devoured by their gods.

On the other side of the ocean, a mummy moved by the strings of the puppeteer in the shadows believes himself to be an immortal god. Excrement comes out of his mouth, his sphincter is not strong enough to expel so much corruption that he carries within. A living dead man crazy for Power aspires to lead the largest Nation on the Planet from the tomb of the interests of his democratic family. All corrupt, men and women, all dreaming of being presidents for a day, of being the most powerful living being in the World, the Universe, and the Cosmos. And yet God blesses America. His blessings upon her. She will not be divided. Her borders will not be erased, she is the Arm of the King of Heaven on Earth. She bought her Life with the blood of two generations watering the fields of Europe and the world. The enemies of the King of Heaven defame her, hate her, declare war on her. America is the New Infamous. Her enemies will bite the dust; America will wipe the dust off her boots and will not look back.

The son of Satan from the North, traitor to the word of Russia, devourer of Russian youth in the fields of Ukraine, will receive from his god the payment of one who served the Devil. He will not survive the Fall and ruin of the Russian Federation, nor will he know the division of Russia into free and sovereign nations. Generals and Magnates who celebrate orgies of blood in the Cathedral of the Temple of the Most Holy Virgin, the Mother of the King of Heaven will not intercede for your life. Like dead dogs you will be thrown into the fire, your bodies will be fodder for the bonfire in the ruins of the Temple of Saint Basil that on the day of Freedom will be lit by the sons of God.

The Final Battle is on the table, God and his King against Death and his king. The Earth as the battlefield. Satan's team, from the UN henhouse, cheers on its king. They are blind, they are vocational suicides, they have no intelligence, their unbridled passion for the riches that come with Power has made their brains a field to be cultivated by demons, they seek Power to obtain riches, and with riches they cling to Power, it is the tale of the snake that bites its tail, of the dragon that spits fire on its own body. You are dead! To challenge God by making His Word a flag is to fall into the madness of the ant that rises against the elephant. And have you not lost your mind? Return to the University of Life, abandon the speeches of Death. The Fire of God gives Life to those who love the life of their fellow men, and throws into the arms of Death those who make their existence an arm of Death.

War is an Abomination!

Lies are an Abomination!

He who reaches power by betraying the Program given to him by the Government, consummates the coup d'état that hid his program from view.

He who ties the hands of the judges is a tyrant.

He who demonizes the Opposition from Democracy is a Dictator.

This is the Science of Good and Evil. The Dictator dresses himself as a Democrat of Progress to establish his Tyranny with lifelong strength. The Democrat is accused of Fascism based on his inability to understand the Message of the UN and the Doctrine of the Fourth Reich: The People are a flock that needs shepherds, and what better shepherd than the wolf!

And you, Catalonia, will sink in your own hatred of Superiority over the children of God. Try to stop the blow of the Iron Rod that comes from Heaven. Tarragona for Aragon. Barcelona will be an Autonomous Community, Gerona will be swallowed up by Barcelona, and Lérida handed over to Aragon. Alicante will be handed over to Murcia, Castellón to Old Castile. Valencia will be declared an Autonomous Community. Mallorca and its islands will remain. New Castile will hand over Ávila to Madrid, and Old Castile: Cuenca, Toledo and Guadalajara. Logrono and La Rioja will belong to Old Castile. Murcia, Albacete, Ciudad Real and Alicante will unite. Asturias and Cantabria will unite. Galicia, Extremadura, Andalusia and the Canary Islands will remain. Ceuta and Melilla will join Andalusia, they are inalienable territories. The Basque Country will be like the onager of the desert, intractable, inhuman, a people that no one approaches, abhorred by God for their crimes. Navarre will be handed over to Aragon. The time of traitors to their programs, of criminals who shed innocent blood, of delinquents who steal and assault the treasure of their communities and use it for their own benefit using the flag of Liberty and Independence has come to an end. Whoever is found on the battlefield before the armies of the King of Heaven will be like a dry leaf on which the hurricane throws itself.

The Destruction of Spain will not occur. Spain is the people and nation of the King of Heaven. Peace and Justice will return to the Nation of the Spanish by the work and grace of Truth. The Fixed Life Contract will bring happiness back to the homes; for it is the column on which the entire building of Economy and Democracy is supported. Felipe González attacked it, Zapatero tore it down, and Pedro Sánchez wants to demolish it using a top model as the Hammer of Moncloa: Yoli.

The blind guided by another blind man all fall into the same pot. Prepare the condiments, light the fires, cut the vegetables, clean the meats, heat the water, close the pot. Let it cook.

They have forbidden us to listen: Let us not hear the screams.

We have been forbidden to see: We will not look when they sink.

We have been forbidden to hate: We will not feel anything when the flesh of those who dress as progressives boils to lead us all to ruin.

A genius of pantomime once wrote “To be or not to be.” The man was just that, a comedian. The absolute political truth is “To have or not to have.” If you have, you are someone: if you do not have, you are nobody. If you are someone, you are a danger to those who declare themselves your enemy. To take everything from the enemy is to kill him politically. To kill him, you must have everything: the prosecution, justice, the army, you must be the State.

You are a god, you are the new sun king. The old man led his kingdom to international glory. Where are you leading your country? YES! To ruin. If you are a king, in any case, you are a king of the sewers. The writing on the wall has already been sealed: Your throne is tottering, your queen will be devoured, you will immediately fall, and freedom will come to my people.
